161. Examination of witnesses by police.—(1) Any police-officer making an investigation under this Chapter *[or any police-officer not below such rank as the †[State Government] may, by general or special order, prescribe in this behalf, acting on the requisition of such officer] may examine orally any person supposed to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case.

(2) Such person shall be bound*† to answer all questions relating to such case put to him by such officer, other than questions the answers to which would have a tendency to expose him to a criminal charge or to a penalty or forfeiture.

(3) The police-officer cannot himself arrest and detain him in custody. If he does so, he may become liable for an offence of wrongful confinement. (1886) 2 Weir 121 (121, 122) (DB).

(4) It will not amount to an offence of wrongful confinement if the person is merely taken to the police-station and asked to wait till the Sub-Inspector saw him. AIR 1930 Oudh 505 (506).

(5) The High Court of Calcutta has pointed out that where women have to be examined, the examination can be done at their residence and that it is not advisable to take them to the police-station. The proviso added to the section by the Amending Act 26 of 1955 gives effect to this view. (1905) 2 Cri L Jour 51 (53) (DB) (Cal).

9. Effect of disobedience of summons. — (1) A person who fails to attend on being served with an order under this section will be liable to be prosecuted under S. 174 of the Penal Code. But the following conditions under this section be fulfilled namely—

(1) that the police-officer should be investigating an offence, and

(2) that the order should be in writing. (1889) 16 Cal 349 (354, 355) (DB)  (1885) All WN 43 (44)  (1895) 1 Weir 86 (86).

(2) A summons which, although it specifies the place and the day at and on which the attendance of the person is required, omits any reference whatever to the time of the day at which the attendance is required cannot be the basis of prosecution under Section 174 of the Penal Code if it is not complied with. AIR 1948 All 137 (138) = ILR (1947) All 848 = 49 Cri L Jour 109.

(3) A person refusing to attend cannot be convicted under Section 186 of the Penal Code. 1896 Rat 850 (851) (DB).

(4) Section 177 of the Penal Code will not apply to statements made by persons to the police. (1869) 12 Suth WR (Cr) 23 (24) (DB).

(5) A refusal to receive a notice or subpoena under this section is not an offence punishable under Section 173 of the Penal Code. AIR 1926 All 304 (304)  AIR 1918 All 409 (410) = 19 Cri L Jour 746.

(6) The powers of the police making an investigation under Ch. XIV to summon witnesses under Section 160, cannot be invoked for any investigation or enquiry in respect of a proceeding under Section 145, which is one of the sections in part IV dealing with prevention of offences. AIR 1968 Mad 225 (225) = 1968 Cri LJ 760 = 1967 Mad LW (Cri) 173.

10. Power of District Magistrate. — (1) A District Magistrate cannot interfere (except by way of suggestion and advice) with the exercise of discretion given to the police officer under this section to summon a witness to appear before him. 1878 Rat 133 (133,134) (DB).

11. Proviso. — (1) The proviso to Section 160 is obviously intended merely as a safeguard against the misuse of the powers of the Police Officers during the course of the investigation. The proviso can only be treated as directory and cannot be treated as mandatory. 1959 Ker LT 709 (752) (DB).

SECTION 161 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. "Any police-officer" — Sub-sec- (1).
3. "May examine orally."
4. Record of statements.
5. Statements.
6. "Any person supposed to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case."
7. "Shall be bound to answer" — Sub-section (2).
8. Statements of witnesses under the section — Privilege.
9. Refusal to answer.

1. Scope and object. — (1) The examination contemplated by this section is not of a judicial character and need not be in the presence of the accused or his agents. (1906) 4 Cri L Jour 79 (81) = 33 Cal 1023 (DB).

(2) The section applies only to investigations made under this chapter, i. e., relating to the commission of offences and not to merely threatened or contemplated offences. AIR 1926 Mad 521 (522, 523) (DB).

(3) The section must be read in its proper context along with the other provisions of this chapter including Section 167. Thus the section cannot be invoked for detaining a person in police custody without complying with the provisions of Section 167. AIR 1945 Nag 8 (17) = ILR (1945) Nag 6 (DB).

(4) It is doubtful whether an inquest report under Section 174 would fall under

‡[(3) The police-officer may reduce into writing any statement made to him in the course of an examination under this section, and if he does so he shall make a separate record of the statement, of each such person whose statement he records.]§

this section. AIR 1933 Cal 861 (863) = 35 Cri L Jour 530 (DB).

(5) This section and the next Section (162) in effect contain legislative safeguards to protect an accused from over-zealous action of the police and so the non-compliance with their provisions cannot be lightly treated. AIR 1953 Bhopal 21 (23) = 1953 Cri L Jour 990.

(6) Whether the statement is a first information report or is one recorded under Section 161 after investigation and is therefore hit by Section 162 depends on the pure question of fact as to when the investigation started. AIR 1958 Mad 368 (Prs. 29, 32) = 1958 Cri L Jour 906 °° AIR 1960 SC 391 (395) = 1960 Cri LJ 532.

(7) Copies of the statements recorded under sub-section (3) and not the translations of the record, of all persons whom the prosecution proposes to examine as its witnesses must be furnished to the accused before the commencement of the inquiry itself. AIR 1957 Mad 508 (Prs. 4, 5, 7, 9) = ILR (1957) Mad 482 = 1957 Cri L Jour 866 (DB).

(8) Object of supplying copies of statements and reports to accused is to keep accused fully informed. 1970 Cri L Jour 558 (Raj).

2. "Any police-officer" — Sub-section (1). — (1) An inspector of the provincial criminal investigation department is, for the purposes of this section, a police-officer investigating within a local area extending over the whole province. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 305 (316, 317) = 35 Mad 247 (SB). (See contra — Per Sankaran Nair, J.) °° (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 352 (362) = 35 Mad 397 (FB).

(2) Although investigation of offences under Section 5-A, Prevention of Corruption Act by Dy. S. P. is illegal, it does not render statement of witnesses recorded therein illegal and hence witnesses resiling from such statements can be cross-examined. AIR 1968 SC 1323 (1325, 1326) = 1968 Cri LJ 1505 = (1969) 1 SCJ 300 °° AIR 1969 All 503 (504) = 1969 Cri LJ 1217 = 1968 All Cri R 357.

3. "May examine orally." — (1) The mere fact that a witness does not readily come forward immediately after the investigation begins is no reason to discredit his testimony. AIR 1931 Lah 529 (530) = 32 Cri L Jour 1032 (DB).

(2) The police-officer should not extract information by using force; such evidence is useless. AIR 1916 All 360 (360) = 17 Cri L Jour 351 (352) °° AIR 1966 SC 1786 (1787) = (1967) 2 SCJ 94 = 1966 Cri LJ 1498 °° AIR 1964 SC 33 (38) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 16 = (1964) 3 SCR 742.

(3) The section gives a discretion to the police-officer to examine a witness orally. But there is nothing in this section or any other section of the Code to indicate that a person not examined at all in the course of investigation cannot be cited as a witness for the prosecution at the trial. 4. Record of statements. — (1) Police officer seizing documents written by accused and others in course of investigation — Documents cannot be said to be statements recorded under Section 161, and are not inadmissible in evidence. (1963) 2 Cri LJ 546 (549) = (1962) 1 Andh LT 57.

(2) A police-officer is not bound under sub-section (3) of this section to record the statements of witnesses examined by him during the course of investigation. The sub-section prohibits the recording of statements in a boiled form. The effect of the amendment is to abolish the practice of recording joint statements which are incap-

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Clause 161—We have amended this clause by reverting to the law as it stood under the Codes of 1861 and 1872. Under those Codes a person examined by the Police-Officer was bound to answer all material questions, but was not liable to be prosecuted for giving false evidence in respect of his answers under S. 193 of the Indian Penal Code (see I L. R. 7 Cal 121 (FB) and 10 Cal 405). It seems to us unfair that a man should be liable to be convicted of giving false evidence on the strength or by the aid of a statement supposed to have been given to a Police-officer, but which is not given on oath, which has not been signed, and which he has had no opportunity of verifying. Such statements may be hurriedly taken down as rough notes, the police-officer is not trained in taking evidence, and the notes are often faired out by another officer. They bear no resemblance to depositions, and ought to have no weight as such attached to them. We are aware that there are inconveniences in abolishing the direct liability for giving false evidence to the police, but the balance of expediency seems us to be in favour of the old law. The provisions of Sections 202 and 203 of the Indian Penal Code appear to us to afford a sufficient safeguard against false information." — S. C. R. 1898.

[But see 1964 All WR (HC) 307 = 1964 All Cr R 211.]

(3) Investigating officers should comply with the mandatory provisions of this sub-section. A failure to do so very often results in the earlier statements of these witnesses not being made available to the accused and the Court is not in a position to test the veracity of these witnesses. AIR 1952 Bhopal 8 (12) = 1953 Cri L Jour 692 °° 1951-1 Mad L Jour 430 (430, 431).

[See also AIR 1954 Orissa 49 (50) = ILR (1953) Cut 428 = 1954 Cri L Jour 306 (DB).]

(4) The failure to observe the mandatory provisions of Section 161 (3) would not ex hypothesi render the trial illegal, unless and until substantial prejudice is disclosed. The question whether it would vitiate the trial must depend on the facts of each case. AIR 1956 Andhra 199 (Pr. 10) = ILR (1956) Andhra 213 = 1956 Cri L Jour 1183 (DB) °° (1968) 1 Andh WR 94 = 1968 Mad LJ (Cri) 75 °° 1959 Ker LR 1288 = 1960 Ker LT 303 (305).

(5) The fact that the statements of the witnesses have been recorded in a boiled form will not make the evidence of these witnesses inadmissible at the trial, though it may become relevant for considering their credibility. AIR 1950 Cal 363 (364) = 51 Cri L Jour 1307 (DB) °° AIR 1956 SC 238 (240, 241) = 1956 Cri L Jour 441. [But see AIR 1955 Mad 303 (304) = 1955 Cri L Jour 817 (2).]

(6) The fact that the statements of some of the witnesses were recorded in English and not in the language of witnesses is not sufficient to vitiate the trial of the accused unless some prejudice is shown to have been caused to the accused by such irregularity. (1960) 2 Ker LR 329 (341) (DB).

(7) The non-observance of the provisions of this section will not make the trial irregular if the accused does not make any request for copies of statements to the police. AIR 1952 Cal 621 (626) = 1952 Cri L Jour 1427 (DB).

(8) If witnesses whose statements were not separately recorded during the investigation did not say anything that is quite material to the prosecution case and the exclusion of their testimony would not, in any way, affect the merits of the case, the breach of the provisions of Sec. 161 (3) would not lead to the quashing of the conviction, as it could not be said that the principles of natural justice were in any way violated. AIR 1956 Andh Pra 199 (Pr. 10) = ILR (1956) Andhra 213 = 1956 Cri L Jour 1183 (DB).

(9) For important criminal cases, it is the duty of the police, to reduce to writing the statements of eye-witnesses. AIR 1955 Manipur 21 (28) = 1955 Cri L Jour 705 °° AIR 1964 All 481 (484) = (1964) 2 Cri LJ 497 °° 1964 All WR (HC) 307 (307). (Irregularity caused by failure to record statement of important witnesses is curable under Section 537 in absence of prejudice to accused.) °° AIR 1960 Andh Pra 545 (550) = 1960 Cri LJ 1402. (It is true that this section gives the investigating officer discretion to record the statements of witnesses but this discretion is to be exercised soundly and not arbitrarily or capriciously.)

(10) The provisions of Sections 164 and 364 do not apply to the statements recorded under this section. (1892) 15 All 12 (13) (DB) °° 1896 Pun Re (Cr) No. 7, p. 18 (19) (DB).

(11) If the police-officer does reduce into writing any statement made under this section, he does so in his official capacity. ('97-01) 1 Upp Bur Rul 29 (30).

(12) Sub-section (3) is only intended to hit at the practice of writing against the names of certain witnesses after the first that they corroborated the statements of the earlier witness, and does not require that the investigating officer should record verbatim what the various witnesses tell him. AIR 1948 Mad 23 (25) = 48 Cri L Jour 973 = ILR (1948) Mad 57 (DB) °° AIR 1955 Mad 303 (303, 304) = 1955 Cri L Jour 817 (2) °° AIR 1954 Mys 81 (86) = ILR (1953) Mys 625 = 1954 Cri L Jour 905 (DB).

(13) There is no special rule or direction provided in the Code affording guidance for police officers in recording statements of witnesses and usually what is done is that when a succeeding witness gives practically an identical story as to what a previous witness has stated it is a matter of common knowledge that the words used by the police officer would be similar or identical. The evidentiary value of the record is not thereby affected. AIR 1957 SC 623 (Pr. 7) = ILR (1957) Punj 1668 = 1957 Cri L Jour 1009.

(14) Section 161 (3) does not prevent a Police Officer, from making just a few jottings for refreshing his memory. The mere fact that such jottings were destroyed will not vitiate a trial so long as it is not part of the statements reduced to writing at the police station, which alone will be relevant for purposes of Section 161 (3). AIR 1967 Mad 426 (427) = (1967) 1 Mad LJ 366 = 1967 Cri LJ 1644.

(15) So far as the record of statements elsewhere than in the case-diary are concerned, their contents may consist of rough notes or "scribblings" not intended to be a record but intended for the police officer's own information or they may consist of either any intelligible substance of the statements or the statements in full. 1956 Andh WR 406 (DB).

(16) Where the statements of witnesses have been recorded in contravention of the provisions of this sub-section, it is the duty of the judge to warn the jury as to the danger of accepting these witnesses as witnesses of truth. He should tell the jury that it is open to them if they thought proper, to disbelieve them on the assumption that their statements if properly recorded might have contradicted their evidence in Court. AIR 1952 Assam 169 (171) = 1952 Cri L Jour 1663 (DB) °° AIR 1956 Assam 125 (Pr 7) = ILR (1956) 8 Assam 76 = 1956 Cri L Jour 972 (DB) °° AIR 1955 Assam 226 (229) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1470 (DB) °° AIR 1951 Cal 212 (Pr 8) = 51 Cri L Jour 1581 (DB) °° AIR 1950 Cal 363 (365) = 51 Cri L Jour 1307 (DB).

(17) Where a person's name was not included in the police report submitted under Section 173, nor his statement furnished to the accused there is nothing in the law that prevents the prosecution from producing or the Court from examining such a person as a witness in the case. AIR 1959 Cal 176 (Pr 8) = 1959 Cri L Jour 318 (DB) °° AIR 1968 Andh Pra 236 (237, 238) = 1968 Cri LJ 1035 = (1967) 2 Andh WR 194. (18) Omission by witness to mention particular fact in statement recorded under Section 161 is not a contradiction under Section 162 nor can it by implication be deemed a part of statement under Section 161 when he is not questioned about it. AIR 1962 All 582 (584) = 1966 (2) Cri LJ 722 = 1962 All LJ 639 (DB).

[But see 1964 All WR (HC) 523 (524) = 1965 All Cri R 383.]

(2) Recovery memo of personal search signed by witnesses does not amount to statement of police within the meaning of this Section. (1963) 65 Punj LR 745 (746) (DB).

(3) Police during investigation ought not to make witnesses sign their statements — Signing though improper does not make them inadmissible. 1961 MPLJ 1275 (1279) (DB).

(4) It is not illegal, though unnecessary, for a police-officer after recording a statement under this section to obtain the signatures of persons present at the time other than the person making the statement to authenticate his record of such statement as witnesses. (1892) 15 All 12 (14) (DB).

(2) It is only a person believed to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case that may be examined under this section. The purpose of examination under this section is to obtain evidence preliminary to arrest. If the police have sufficient evidence to arrest a person they should not proceed under this section. (1900) 27 Cal 295 (297, 302) (DB).

21. Effect of refusal to grant copies to accused.
22. Failure to observe provisions of this section — Effect.
23. "Dying declarations."

1. Scope and object. — (1) This section provides that no statement made by any person to a police-officer in the course of an investigation under this chapter shall be used for any purpose except by the accused and for the purpose of contradicting the witness as provided by Section 145 of the Evidence Act. AIR 1953 All 622 (654) = 1953 Cri L Jour 1400 (DB) °° AIR 1944 FC 38 (39) = 46 Cri L Jour 317 °° AIR 1926 Pat 20 (22) = 27 Cri L Jour 362 (DB) °° AIR 1935 All 717 (719) = 36 Cri L Jour 773 (DB) °° AIR 1934 Nag 198 (198) = 35 Cri L Jour 1463 °° (1969) 11 Orissa JD 71 (79).

(2) The application of Section 162 is not limited to the stage of investigation. AIR 1960 All 1 (18) = 1960 Cri LJ 1 = 1959 All LJ 651 (FB). (Reversed on another point in AIR 1960 SC 1125.)

(3) The statement must be made to a police-officer in the course of an investigation under Chapter XIV. AIR 1942 Cal 593 (596) = 44 Cri L Jour 145 (DB).

(4) The effect of the section is to limit considerably the provisions of the Evidence Act in regard to the matters covered by it. [*] Substituted for the old S. 162 by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1955 (XXVI of 1955), S. 22 (1-1-1956).

[†] By its Notifn. No. 577J dated 25-1-1956 as amended by Notifn. No. 1384J dated 24-2-1958 issued under S. 1 (2) of this Code, the State Government of West Bengal has extended Section 162 to the Commissioner of Police and the police in the town of Calcutta—see Cal. OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill as originally introduced provided that Section 162 should be deleted. While substituting in 1955 a new Section 162 in place of the old one the Joint Committee observe: "The Committee feel that the deletion of this section will do away with the protection enjoyed at present by the accused against the prejudicial use of untruth-

[See also AIR 1963 Guj 145 (147) = 4 Guj LR 5 = (1963) 2 Cri LJ 14 (DB).]

(6) The section protects persons from being pinned down to statements recorded by the police. AIR 1919 Mad 487 (498) = 20 Cri L Jour 354 (DB) °° AIR 1955 Pepsu 81 (86) = ILR (1954) Patiala 352 = 1955 Cri L Jour 983 (DB) °° AIR 1919 Upp Bur 38 (39) = 19 Cri L Jour 726 °° AIR 1968 Mad 117 (128, 129, 130) = 1968 Cri LJ 493 = (1968) 1 Mad LJ 480 (DB).

(7) This section and Section 161, in effect, contain legislative safeguards to protect an accused from over-zealous action of the police. The object of the section is to protect the accused from untruthful witnesses. AIR 1953 Bhopal 21 (Pr 11) = 1953 Cri L Jour 990 °° AIR 1959 SC 1012 (1020, 1021) = 1959 Cri L Jour 1231 °° AIR 1940 All 291 (299) = 41 Cri L Jour 647 (DB) °° AIR 1945 Nag 1 (5) = ILR (1945) Nag 151 = 46 Cri L Jour 448 (DB) °° AIR 1944 Pat 67 (70) = 45 Cri L Jour 624 (DB) °° AIR 1939 PC 47 (51) = 40 Cri LJ 364 °° AIR 1968 Mad 117 (129, 130) = (1968) 1 Mad LJ 480 = 1968 Cri LJ 493 °° AIR 1965 Bom 3 (4) = (1965) 1 Cri LJ 12 = 66 Bom LR 62.

(8) The section was conceived in an attempt to find a happy via media, namely, while it enacts an absolute bar against the statement made before a police-officer being used for any purpose whatsoever, it enables the accused to rely upon it for a limited purpose of contradicting a witness in the manner provided by Section 145 of the Evidence Act by drawing his attention to parts of the statement intended for contradiction. AIR 1959 SC 1012 (1023) = 1959 Cri L Jour 1231.

(9) Object of section is only to prevent misuse of proceedings and not to prevent disclosure of communications made to police — Question asked in cross-examination on matters in issue without making use of any statement made to police — Question cannot be disallowed on merely hypothetical ground that answer to it may result in divulging what witness may have told police. AIR 1967 All 373 (374, 375) = 1967 Cri LJ 978.

(10) The main intention of Section 162 is to bring out the contradiction in the statements made by the witnesses themselves before the Court and before the investigating officer. What the Police Officer's impression is about the statements is not really evidence, nor can it go to the record as such; only the statements of the witnesses recorded by him under Section 162, may be let in under the circumstances as described in that section. AIR 1956 Assam 187 (188) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1394 (DB).

(11) Section 162 refers to a statement made to a police officer. It must be made by any person who may ultimately be the accused. AIR 1965 Bom 3 (4) = (1965) 1 Cri LJ 12 = 66 Bom LR 62.

(12) The whole foundation of the procedure laid down in the first proviso to sub-section (1) of the section is the principle that a witness who makes inconsistent statements is unreliable. AIR 1947 Cal 192 (193) = ILR (1946) 2 Cal 339 = 47 Cri L Jour 814 (DB) °° 1970 Cri LJ 558 (561) (Raj).

(13) Object of section is only to prevent misuse of proceedings and not to prevent disclosure of communication made to police. AIR 1967 All 373 (375) = 1967 Cri LJ 978.

ful statements of witnesses recorded by over-zealous police officers. The effect of such an omission would be that the statements recorded by the police under sub-section (3) of Section 161 may be used by the prosecution both for the purpose of corroboration as well as of contradiction. They may be used for contradiction only and this right should be available both to the accused and the prosecution. As the prosecution is not entitled to cross-examine its own witnesses without the permission of the Court it has been specifically provided that the statement recorded by the police under sub-section (3) of Section 161 can be used by the prosecution for the purpose of contradiction with the permission of the Court......

"The restoration of Section 162 with the proviso that statements can never be used for the purpose of corroboration but for the purpose of contradiction ensures that the papers will be available both to the defence and to the prosecution. Normally, it is only the defence which is entitled to cross-examine. The prosecution can never cross-examine its witnesses without the permission of the Court and the permission is never given unless the witness is held to be hostile by the Court. Therefore, if the witness turns hostile the Court may permit him to be confronted with the statements that he made before the Court."—J. C. R., Gaz. Ind., 1954, Extra., Pt. II-Sec. 2, page 418.

(14) The object of this section and Sections 173 (4) and 207-A (3) is to enable the accused to obtain a clear picture of the case against him. In other words it is to give him the fullest information in possession of the prosecution on which its case is based. 1970 Cri LJ 558 (561) (Raj).

(15) Violation of mandatory provisions of Sections 162 and 163 will not only impair the evidentiary value of statements recorded in contravention of the provisions but will also impair the evidence given on oath based an such statements. AIR 1968 Mad 117 (130) = 1968 Cri LJ 493 = (1968) Mad LJ 480.

(16) Statements made by prosecution witnesses before the investigating police officer being the earliest statements made by them with reference to the facts of occurrence are valuable material for testing the veracity of witnesses examined in Court. But if the police record becomes suspect or unreliable because of being deliberately perfunctory or dishonest it loses much of its value. AIR 1956 SC 181 (187, 188) = 1956 Cri L Jour 345.

(17) There is no inconsistency between the provisions of S. 207-A (6) and S. 162. Section 207-A (6) does not make the statements of witnesses recorded by police evidence in the case. The Magistrate only considers them for discharging or committing the accused. Secondly the prohibition in Section 162 with regard to these statements being qualified by the expression 'save as hereinafter provided', Section 207-A (6) may be taken as an exception in relation to Section 162. AIR 1956 Bom 695 (699) = ILR (1956) Bom 930 = 1956 Cri L Jour 1297 (DB) •• AIR 1958 Andh Pra 90 (93) = 1958 Cri L Jour 152.

[See also 1964 All WR (HC) 6 (8).]

(18) 'Evidence' in Section 207-A (6) and (7) does not include documents referred to in Section 173 — Magistrate can only question the accused with regard to circumstances disclosed against him in the documents — If Magistrate deems it necessary in the interests of justice, he can ask accused to explain circumstances appearing in documents referred to in Section 173 and record his statement — Such statement will be admissible under Section 287. AIR 1960 Bom 124 (125, 126) = 1960 Cri LJ 327 = 61 Bom LR 1173 (DB).

(19) Sections 161 and 162 do not conflict with Article 20 (3) of Constitution. AIR 1960 All 1 (18) = 1960 Cri LJ 1 = 1959 All WR (HC) 447 (FB). (Reversed on another point in AIR 1960 SC 1125.) under Section 162, Cr. P. C. is sufficient to safeguard interest of complainant. AIR 1970 SC 962 (966).

(20) A report of blood test submitted by the Chemical Examiner to a Police Officer does not become inadmissible in evidence by virtue of the provisions of Section 162 (1). Such a report can be proved under Section 510, by production of the document itself and the application of Section 162 (1) is expressly made subject to what is 'hereinafter provided' in the Code. The word "hereinafter" in Section 162 (1) is not restricted in its operation to Section 162 alone but applies to the body of the Code; to hold otherwise would be to introduce a patent inconsistency between Section 207-A and Section 162. AIR 1963 SC 1531 (1542) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 418 = (1964) 1 SCR 926.

[See also AIR 1957 Andh Pra 286 (288) = 1957 Cri LJ 830.]

(21) Provisions of Section 162 do not require different interpretation with respect to provisions of Prevention of Corruption Act. AIR 1969 Andh Pra 271 (276) = 1969 Cri LJ 1016 = (1969) 2 Andh WR 281 (DB).

2. "Statement," meaning of. — (1) The word "statement" in this section means narration addressed to a police officer by some other person. AIR 1949 All 483 (488) = ILR (1951) 1 All 12 = 50 Cri L Jour 719 (FB) °° AIR 1958 Tripura 1 (8) = 1958 Cri L Jour 97. (Information recorded by police officer on basis of his own information — Not a statement.)

(2) The section applies only to a statement and if what is recorded does not amount to a statement of a witness, the record is privileged and the accused is not entitled to a copy thereof. AIR 1935 Sind 145 (175, 176) = 36 Cri L Jour 1161 (DB) °° AIR 1953 Cal 602 (604) = 1953 Cri L Jour 1377 (DB).

(3) The word "statement" in this section includes both oral and written statements. AIR 1938 Mad 893 (894) = 40 Cri L Jour 108 °° AIR 1928 Mad 1028 (1032) = 29 Cri L Jour 1098 (DB). (AIR 1925 Mad 579 = 26 Cri L Jour 721, Overruled.) °° AIR 1935 Sind 145 (172) = 36 Cri L Jour 1161 (DB).

(4) A statement, not only includes what is expressly stated therein but also what is necessarily implied therefrom. AIR 1959 SC 1012 (1023) = 1959 Cri L Jour 1231.

(5) Statement also includes signs and gestures. AIR 1943 Cal 644 (646) = 45 Cri L Jour 258 (DB) °° AIR 1926 Rang 112 (113) = 27 Cri L Jour 658.

(6) A list of stolen properties supplied to the police during investigation is a "statement" within the meaning of this section. AIR 1952 Pepsu 103 (104) = ILR (1952) Patiala 273 = 1952 Cri L Jour 1049 °° AIR 1952 Vind Pra 42 (48) = 1952 Cri L Jour 98 °° AIR 1951 Him Pra 1 (5) = 52 Cri L Jour 50 °° AIR 1949 East Punj 361 (364) = 51 Cri L Jour 177 °° AIR 1949 East Punj 315 (317) = 50 Cri L Jour 794 °° AIR 1929 Cal 448 (448) = 31 Cri L Jour 127 (DB) °° (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 244 (245) (DB) (Mad).

(7) English translations of Tamil statements are also 'statements' within this section. AIR 1957 Mad 505 (507) = 1957 Cri L Jour 863 (DB).

(8) 'Statement' will not include the record of a search made by the police or signatures taken on blank paper for the purpose of comparison. AIR 1925 Mad 574 (576) = 26 Cri L Jour 840 (DB) °° AIR 1959 Bom 408 (413) = ILR (1959) Bom 865 = 1959 Cri L Jour 1057 (DB) °° AIR 1959 Mys 185 (187) = 1959 Cri L Jour 881 (DB) °° AIR 1932 Bom 406 (409) = 33 Cri L Jour 666.

[See however AIR 1943 Cal 644 (645, 646) = 45 Cri L Jour 258 (DB).]

(9) In an investigation with regard to a charge of conspiracy to defraud the Government by misappropriating various sums, complaints made by various persons as to fresh instances of embezzlement are not statements coming under this section. AIR 1945 Mad 284 (286) = ILR (1946) Mad 219 = 47 Cri L Jour 149 (DB).

(10) Statement in Section 162 is the entirety of facts stated by a witness to the police officer during investigation. All these facts whenever and wherever stated go to constitute the statement. AIR 1958 Mys 138 (140) = ILR (1958) Mys 121 = 1958 Cri L Jour 1205 °° AIR 1967 Goa 60 (65) = 1967 Cri LJ 746 (DB).

(11) Identification of a person amounts to a statement within this section and, therefore, the fact of such identification is not admissible in evidence in the usual course. AIR 1921 All 215 (216) = 27 Cri L Jour 813 (DB) °° AIR 1940 Cal 182 (183) = 41 Cri L Jour 405 (DB) °° (1939) 43 Cal WN 1180 (1181) (DB) °° AIR 1935 Cal 311 (311, 312) = 36 Cri L Jour 1470 (DB) °° (1947) 48 Cri L Jour 804 (807) (DB) (Cal) °° AIR 1950 Mys 44 (50) = ILR (1951) Mys 1 = 51 Cri L Jour 1097 (FB).

(12) A distinction is to be made between the actual fact of identification which is mental act on the part of the identifying witness and the communication of the mental act of recognition to the police. The communication of mental act of identification is of course a statement and is hit by this section. But the mental act of identification cannot amount to a statement and the evidence in Court subsequently by the actual identifier himself is not inadmissible under this section. [See also 1968 All WR (HC) 344 = 1968 All Cri R 224 (226).]

(13) The physical fact of identification has no separate existence apart from the statement involved in the very process of identification and in so far as a police officer seeks to prove the fact of such identification such evidence of his would attract the operation of Section 162 and would be inadmissible in evidence, the only exception being the evidence sought to be given by the identifier himself in

(10) For a statement to come within the purview of Section 162, it must not merely be made during the period of investigation but also in the course of investigation. The two things, that is 'the period of investigation' and 'course of investigation' are not synonymous. Section 162 is aimed at statements recorded by a police officer while investigating into an offence. The statement sought to be excluded from evidence must be ascribable to the enquiry conducted by the investigating officer and not one which is de hors the enquiry. (1963) 2 SCR 433= 1964 (1) Cri LJ 564 (566) (SC).

(11) An investigation does not start by the mere lodging of a first information report. It commences only when a step in the ascertainment of the actual offence and of the culprits thereof is taken. (23) As regards the question whether an omission in the statement to the police amounted to a contradiction, the following different views were held—

(a) Omission and contradiction can never be identical and a statement to a police-officer cannot always be used during an enquiry or trial in order to show that a witness is making statement in the witness-box which he did not make to the police. AIR 1944 Mad 385 (386, 387) = 46 Cri L Jour 294 (DB) °° AIR 1933 Mad 372 (373, 374) = 34 Cri L Jour 582.

(b) All omissions are not necessarily contradictions. It must be left to the Court in each particular case to decide whether the omission is a contradiction or not. If it amounts to a contradiction, the Court should allow cross-examination on that point. AIR 1928 Lah 257 (258) = 29 Cri L Jour 348 (DB) °° AIR 1932 Lah 103 (111) = 33 Cri L Jour 97 (DB) °° AIR 1965 Orissa 33 (35) = ILR (1964) Cut 752 = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 317 (DB) °° AIR 1963 Assam 151 (153, 154) = ILR 1963 15 Assam 189 = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 225 (DB) °° AIR 1962 All 582 (584) = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 722 = 1962 All LJ 639 (DB).

(c) An omission is not contradiction unless what is actually said contradicts what is omitted to be said. The test to find out whether an omission is a contradiction or not is to see whether one can point to any sentence or assertion in the statement under Section 162 which is irreconcilable with the deposition in Court. (d) The deposition of a witness to the effect that he did not make any statement to the police is not a statement within Section 162 of the Code. AIR 1927 Cal 257 (258) = 28 Cri L Jour 273 (DB).

(e) This section does not authorise the use of statements to the police for the purpose of showing that the witness omitted to state some fact to the police. AIR 1937 Nag 50 (53) = 38 Cri L Jour 330 (DB) (AIR 1936 Nag 136, Dissented from.)

(f) An omission may amount to contradiction if the matter omitted was one which the witness would have been expected to mention and the police officer to make note of in the ordinary course. AIR 1958 All 255 (271) = 1958 Cri L Jour 424 (DB) °° AIR 1958 Madh Pra 13 (14) = 1958 Cri L Jour 44 (DB) °° AIR 1957 All 239 (241) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1556 (DB) °° AIR 1938 Pat 579 (582) = 40 Cri L Jour 147 (DB).

(24) In the following case the Supreme Court referred to this conflict of views and held that the last mentioned view, i.e., (f), was not tenable. The Supreme Court stated the position as follows. (1) A statement in writing made by a witness before a police officer in the course of investigation can be used only to contradict his statement in the witness-box and for no other purpose; (2) statements not reduced to writing by the police officer cannot be used for contradiction; (3) though a particular statement is not expressly recorded, a statement that can be deemed to be part of that expressly recorded can be used for contradiction, not because it is an omission strictly so called but because it is deemed to form part of the recorded statement; (4) such a fiction is permissible by construction only in the following three cases: (i) when a recital is necessarily implied from the recital or recitals found in the statement: illustration; in the recorded statement before the police the witness states that he saw A stabbing B at a particular point of time, but in the witness box he says that he saw A and C stabbing B at the same point of time; in the statement before the police the word 'only' can be implied i.e., the witness saw A only stabbing B; (ii) a negative aspect of a positive recital in a statement: illustration: in the recorded statement before the police the witness says that a dark man stabbed B but in the witness-box he says that a fair man stabbed B; the earlier statement must be deemed to contain the recital not only that the culprit was a dark complexioned man but also that he was not of fair complexion; and (iii) when the statement before the police and that before the Court cannot stand together: illustration: the witness says in the recorded statement before the police that A after stabbing B ran away by a northern lane, but in the Court he says that immediately after stabbing he ran away towards the southern lane; as he could not have run away immediately after the stabbing i.e., at the same point of time, towards the northern lane as well as towards the southern lane, if one statement is true, the other must necessarily be false. AIR 1959 SC 1012 (1026) = 1959 Cri L Jour 1231 °° (1967) 8 Guj LR 25 (DB) °° AIR 1960 Mys 111 (123) = 38 Mys LJ 265 = 1960 Cri LJ 934 (DB).

(25) The contradiction under Section 162 should be between what a witness asserted in witness-box and what he had stated before police officer and not between what he said he had stated before police officer and what he actually stated before him. AIR 1962 All 582 (584) = (1962) 2 Cri LJ 722 = 1962 All LJ 639 (DB).

(26) Statements made before the police can be used only for the purpose of contradiction and no omission can be treated as contradiction unless it can be shown that the omission amounts to contradiction by implication. Where the witness who was one of the victims did not tell the police that he saw the accused leaving the room being chased by the deceased and that he heard the voice of the deceased saying 'Bachao, Bachao, I am being shot by Sarma' (accused):

(1) The grant of copies is not a matter of judicial discretion, under the present section. Court is bound to grant copies, unless it is of opinion— (1) that any part of such statement is not relevant to the subject-matter of the enquiry or trial, or, (2) that its disclosure to the accused is not essential in the interests of justice and is inexpedient in the public interests. (6) The police cannot refuse to supply copies of statements on the ground that they are embodied in a special report. AIR 1951 Mad 685 (686) = 1952 Cri L Jour 509.

(7) The words "the Court shall refer to such writing" are used for the purpose of enabling the Court to see whether the statement or any part thereof is not relevant to the inquiry or whether its disclosure to the accused is not essential in the interests of justice and is inexpedient in the public interests. AIR 1928 Pat 215 (217) = 29 Cri L Jour 297 (DB) °° AIR 1935 Rang 98 (100) = 36 Cri Jour 665 (DB).

(8) It is a condition precedent to the grant of copies that reference should be made by the Court to see whether any portion of the statement should be excluded under the second proviso and to satisfy itself that the document of which a copy is required is really a statement within the section. AIR 1945 Cal 159 (168) = 46 Cri L Jour 692 (DB).

(9) The Court is not at liberty to postpone referring to the statement till after the witness's evidence is concluded. AIR 1921 Lah 93 (94) = 22 Cri L Jour 578 (DB) °° AIR 1935 Rang 98 (100, 101) = 36 Cri L Jour 665 (DB).

(10) To obviate delay in the trial copies of statements made to police may be had in readiness at the commencement of the trial. AIR 1935 Rang 98 (100, 101) = 36 Cri L Jour 665 (DB).

(11) It would be sufficient compliance with the section to allow the defence pleader to see the statement of the witness to the police and to cross-examine thereon while the copy is being prepared. AIR 1942 Mad 451 (451) = 44 Cri L Jour 400 °° AIR 1935 Rang 98 (101) = 36 Cri L Jour 665 (DB).

(12) A Court would be justified in refusing the copy of an abstract of the statements of several witnesses prepared in such a way that it was not clear what each witness was supposed to have said. AIR 1945 Cal 159 (167) = 46 Cri L Jour 692 (DB).

(13) Statements of two or more witnesses recorded jointly — Such joint statement cannot be legally used as statement of any particular prosecution witness for the purpose of contradicting that witness. (14) Suppose, the police-officer examines a witness B and takes down his statement. Then he examines A who repeats the same story. The police-officer states "A corroborates B". In such circumstances, it would appear that the accused is entitled to copies of the statements of B and A and can use them as contemplated by the section. (16) Where a request is made for a copy of the previous statement of a witness, a copy of all the statements made by such witness during the investigation should be furnished. AIR 1929 Pat 268 (270) = 30 Cri L Jour 858 (DB).

(17) The accused is entitled to copy of the whole statement made by a witness excepting the portion that may be excluded under the second proviso to the section. AIR 1935 Rang 98 (100) = 36 Cri L Jour 665 (DB).

(18) Material portions omitted in copy of statement by oversight of the typist — Omission discovered only in appellate Court — Court should furnish the accused with correct copy and also give opportunity to recall the witness and cross-examine him. AIR 1920 Pat 378 (381) = 21 Cri L Jour 289 (DB).

(19) Copies of statements recorded by the police in the course of investigation under Chapter 14 cannot be refused on the ground that the case is being enquired into by the Court on a complaint and not challaned by the police as result of investigation. AIR 1951 Raj 145 (145) = ILR (1951) 1 Raj 178 = 52 Cri L Jour 1183.

(21) An investigation made by a police officer under Section 202 not being an investigation under this chapter the statements of witnesses recorded by him during such investigation form part of the criminal case and therefore the Court is not entitled to refuse the grant of their copies. AIR 1942 Rang 51 (51) (DB).

(22) Statements recorded by a police-officer under Rule 254 (b), Police Regulation, Bengal, are not privileged as they are not recorded during the course of an investigation under this chapter and the accused is entitled to get copies of such statements. AIR 1950 Cal 165 (166) = 51 Cri L Jour 680.

(23) As soon as a defence pleader asks a witness a question concerning his statement to the police, it is the duty of the Court to ask the pleader whether or not he wishes to have a copy of that witness's statement to the police supplied to him. If the pleader does not desire a copy of the statement, then all questions concerning the witness's statement to the investigating officer should be disallowed. AIR 1935 Rang 299 (301) = 36 Cri L Jour 1380.

(24) As it is essential that the copy should be accurate, it is contemplated that such copies should be furnished under the direction of the Court. AIR 1945 Cal 159 (169) = 45 Cri L Jour 692 (DB).

(25) Notes of statement lost or destroyed by witness — Evidence of witness whether should be excluded, discussed — Evidence need not be expugned as inadmissible. AIR 1948 Cal 278 (280, 281) = ILR (1948) 2 Cal 364 = 49 Cri L Jour 469 (DB).

(26) The section does not impose a statutory obligation on an investigating officer to produce all his rough notes and jottings out of which he writes his case diary for the day. AIR 1949 Mad 663 (669) = 50 Cri L Jour 950 (DB).

16. "On the request of the accused." — (1) Before the amendment of the section by Act 26 of 1955 the accused had to request the Court to refer to the statements made to the police officer and furnish him with a copy thereof, in order that the same may be used for contradicting the witness, but as it now stands, no such request is necessary because there is a provision to the effect that copies should be given earlier. AIR 1957 SC 623 (627) = ILR (1957) Punj 1668 = 1957 Cri L Jour 1009.

17. Contradicting witness under the section — Procedure. — (1) Section 145 of the Evidence Act indicates the manner in which contradiction is brought out. The cross-examining Counsel shall put the part or parts of the statement which affirms the contrary to what is stated in evidence. This indicates that there is something in writing which can be set against another statement made in evidence. AIR 1959 SC 1012 (1024) = 1959 Cri L Jour 1231.

(2) The only way in which the previous statement can be used is by contradicting the witness by such writing and this can be done only by drawing his attention to such parts of the recorded statement as are intended to be used for the purpose of contradiction and allowing him an opportunity to explain any contradiction. 21. Effect of refusal to grant copies to accused. — [Note: As the result of amendment of the section by Act 26 of 1955, the provision relating to the grant of copies of the statements made to the police during the investigation, to the accused on his request cotnained in the old proviso 1 has been omitted in view of the fact that the amended Section 173 (4) makes it obligatory on the police to supply to the accused before the commencement of the inquiry or trial, free copies of statements of all witnesses recorded under Section 161 (3) whom the prosecution proposes to examine as witnesses. The case law on this topic has been, therefore, given under separate headings as (a) Case law after the amendment, and (b) Case law before the amendment.]

(a) Case law after the amendment.

(1) Provisions in Section 173 (4) and Section 207A (3) have been introduced to simplify the procedure in respect of inquiries leading upto a Sessions trial and at the same time to safeguard the interests of accused persons by enjoining upon the police officers concerned and Magistrates before whom such proceedings are brought to see that all the documents necessary to give the accused persons all the information for the proper conduct of their defence, are furnished. AIR 1957 SC 737 (741) = 1958 SCR 283 = 1957 Cri L Jour 1320.

(2) Copy of statement of approver recorded during investigation not supplied to accused — It is a fatal defect — High Court will not consider approver's evidence in appeal — Case held unfit for remand after prolonged trial. AIR 1963 Andh Pra 314 (319) = ILR (1962) Andh Pra 96 = 1963 Cri LJ 121 (DB).

(3) In cases exclusively triable by Court of Session it is the duty of the Magistrate while holding a preliminary inquiry, to satisfy himself that the documents referred to in Section 173 have been furnished to the accused and if he found that the police officer concerned had not carried out his duty in that behalf, the Magistrate should see to it that that is done. AIR 1957 SC 737 (741) = 1958 SCR 283 = 1957 Cri L Jour 1320.

(4) No evidence affecting a party is admissible against that party. Unless the latter has had an opportunity of testing its truthfulness by cross-examination. AIR 1963 Andh Pra 314 (319) = ILR (1962) Andh Pra 96 = (1963) 2 Cri LJ 121.

(5) The non-compliance with Ss. 173 (4) and 207A (3) has not, necessarily, the result of vitiating the proceeding and subsequent trial. The word 'shall' occurring in both these provisions is not mandatory but only directory. AIR 1957 SC 737 (741) = 1958 SCR 283 = 1957 Cri L Jour 1320 °° 1962 (2) Cri LJ 682 (684, 685) = 1962 MPLJ 352 = 1962 Jab LJ 901 (DB).

(6) Failure to furnish statements of witnesses recorded in the course of investigation may not vitiate the trial. It does not affect the jurisdiction of the Court to try a case, nor is the failure by itself a ground which affects the power of the Court to record a conviction, if the evidence warrants such a course. The provision relating to the making of copies of statements recorded in the course of investigation is undoubtedly of great importance, but the breach must be considered in the light of the prejudice caused to the accused by reason of its breach. AIR 1964 SC 286 (291, 292, 294) = (1964) 4 SCR 521 = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 167 (AIR 1945 Nag 1 and AIR 1946 Nag 173, Overruled.) °° (1964) 1 Mys LJ 393 (398).

(7) An accused is undoubtedly entitled to inspect statements of prosecution witnesses recorded under Section 164. The Court is expected to afford all facilities to the accused not only when he is compelled by law to do so; but also when he has a discretion in the matter and the ends of justice require that the accused should be apprised of what certain prosecution witnesses had previously stated in the proceedings under Section 164. The same considerations are also applicable in case of statements made under Section 162, Criminal P. C. 27 Cut LT 116 (124, 125) = 1961 All Cri R 398 = 1961 All WR (Supp) 85 (Orissa).

AIR 1963 Cal 431 (432, 433) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 129 (DB).

(9) It is necessary and desirable that customs Authorities should be compelled to furnish to accused before commencement of trial copies of statements of witnesses recorded by them in the course of their investigation. It was implicit in Sec. 162 that Court shall grant the request for referring to statements etc. or of supplying copies of such statements to enable accused to cross-examine witnesses for purposes of

OBJECTS AND REASONS

1923.— "The intention of the Bill was to leave the position in regard to statements made under Section 164 unaltered, but to confine the recording of confessions under that Section to superior Magistrates. We approve the Bill in so far as it deals with confessions and we think that statements also should not be recorded under the Section by Third Class Magistrates at all or by Second Class Magistrates unless specially empowered.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, the amendment made in Sec. 164 is the same as that made in Maharashtra.—See Cent. Act XI of 1960, S. 87.

NOTE.—Magistrates appointed for the City of Ahmedabad have the powers of and exercise the jurisdiction of a Presidency Magistrate.—See Guj. Act XIX of 1961, S. 14 (3) (4-11-1961).

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in sub-section (1) of Section 164 for the words "any Presidency Magistrate, any Magistrate of the first class and any Magistrate of the second class specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government" substitute the words "any Presidency Magistrate, any District Magistrate, any Sub-Divisional Magistrate, any Magistrate of the first class or any other Magistrate specially empowered by the State Government in this behalf."—Bombay Act XXIII of 1951, Section 2 and Schedule (1-7-1953).

(2) After the reorganization of the State of Bombay in 1956, the amendment made in S. 164 by the above-mentioned Bombay Act is extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959 by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

(2) The mere "filing of a confession already written and signed and handed over to the Magistrate does not amount to "recording" a confession. AIR 1933 All 356 (357) = 34 Cri L Jour 574.

(3) The writing out of the confession is not sufficient to make it a "record". The writing must be made a part of the judicial record. (1906) 5 Cri L Jour 4 (5) (DB) (Bom).

(4) Where a Magistrate writes out a confession, but refuses to make the memorandum under sub-section (3), on the ground that the confession in his opinion has not been voluntarily made, such confession cannot form part of the judicial record and is, therefore, inadmissible in evidence. AIR 1918 Oudh 295 (296) = 19 Cri L Jour 507 (DB).

(5) Confession not recorded by Magistrate himself, but by Ahmad Reader on ground that he (Magistrate) was not well conversant with Urdu — Memorandum as required by Section 364 (3) not made by Magistrate — No reason as to how much time for reflection was given to accused, made — Facts showing that only one hour was given for reflection — Sec. 364 held not complied with. (1963) 3 SCR 749 = 1964 (1) Cr LJ 566 (568, 569, 570).

(6) Where a confession was not signed by the accused, nor was his thumb impression affixed to it and the Magistrate also did not sign the English version of it, it was held that no reliance should be placed on the confession as being voluntarily made. AIR 1945 Bom 484 (485) = 47 Cri L Jour 252 (DB).

(7) The omission to take the signature of the accused is not necessarily fatal to its admissibility in every case and the defect can be cured under the provisions of Section 533 in proper cases. AIR 1941 Nag 17 (18, 19) = 42 Cri L Jour 117 (DB).

(8) Where an accused person is able to write his name, his thumb impression is not a signature within the meaning of Section 364. (1905) 2 Cri L Jour 405 (405, 406) = 32 Cal 550 (DB).

(9) An accused person who refuses to sign a statement or a confession is not liable for punishment under Section 180, Penal Code. (1877) 4 Bom 15 (19).

12. Warning to the accused. — (1) Section 164 (3), requires three things, namely the two warnings that the accused was not bound to make the confession, and if he did so it would be used against him, and thirdly, questioning of the accused so that the Magistrate may satisfy himself that it was made voluntarily. 14. Statement of witness to be voluntary. —(1) If a statement of a witness is previously recorded under S. 164, Criminal P. C. it leads to an inference that there was a time when the police thought the witness may change but if the witness sticks to the statement made by him throughout, the mere fact that his statement was previously recorded under Section 164 will not be sufficient to discard it. The Court, however ought to receive it with caution. AIR 1968 SC 1270 (1272) = (1968) 3 SCR 354 = 1968 Cri LJ 1473. (2) Section 29 of the Evidence Act, which makes an exception in the case of the two warnings contains nothing which does away with the necessity of questioning the accused for the purposes of finding out whether the confession was made voluntarily. Such questioning is absolutely essential to make the confession admissible. AIR 1957 Raj 141 (144) = ILR (1957) 7 Raj 677 = 1957 Cri L Jour 545 (DB).

(5) It would be necessary in every case to put the questions prescribed by the High Court circulars but the questions intended to be put under sub-section (3) of Sec. 164 should not be allowed to become a matter of a mere mechanical enquiry. [But see AIR 1939 Lah 280 (283, 284).]

(2) The recording of grounds of his belief by Police Officer is a preliminary step in conduct of search. 1959 Ker LT 801 (803).

(3) Necessity to record reasons for search and specify the article does not arise where in a case of search for cerain articles relating to an offence under Section 420 some other articles are found. 1961 (1) Cri LJ 595 (600) = 1960 All LJ 365 (DB).

(4) The recording can be done at any place or at any time prior to the actual search. AIR 1933 Sind 240 (243).

(5) Where nothing is brought on record to show that the police officer had put down in writing the grounds of his belief Court may resort to the presumption that all official things are presumed to be rightly done. Madh BLJ (1954) HCR 1325 (1339).

(6) From the mere fact that a search list and requisition made at Police Station alone are produced in case it cannot be presumed that there was non-compliance with the provisions of the section. AIR 1953 Trav-Co 466 (469) = ILR (1952) Trav-Co 937 = 1953 Cri L Jour 1670 (DB).

(7) The provisions in sub-section (1) of Section 165 are only directory. AIR 1969 Delhi 26 (35, 37) = 1969 Cri LJ 168.

[But see (1968) 9 Guj LR 364 (371) = ILR (1968) Guj 117 (DB).]

(8-9) Grounds for belief — Place where search has to be made ned not be mentioned. AIR 1969 Delhi 26 (38, 39) = 1969 Cri LJ 168.

(10) The recording of reason is an important step in the matter of search and should not be ignored. The recording of reason does not confer on the officer jurisdiction to make a search. The jurisdiction is conferred by the statute and not derived from the record of reasons. AIR 1960 SC 210 (213) = 1960 Cri LJ 286 = (1960) 1 SCR 991 °° (1968) 9 Guj LR 278 = ILR (1967) Guj 1046 °° (1964) 66 Punj LR 569 (573) °° 1962 Ker LT 790 (791).

(11) Officer authorised under Sec. 165 (3) is not required to record grounds of his belief. AIR 1969 Delhi 91 (107) = 71 ITR 550.

(12) Procedural defects like non-recording of reasons or failure to obtain warrant from Magistrate — Effect — Accused can resist search — Evidence in respect of such search is not rendered inadmissible.

(1968) 9 Guj LW 278 (292) = ILR (1967) Guj 1046.

(13) The phrase "reasonable grounds for believing" considered together would mean that the conclusion arrived at should not be a mere suspicion, but must be such as is regarded as true by the person making it. (1968) 9 Guj LR 364 (373) = ILR (1968) Guj 117 (DB).

8. Nature of search.—(1) The section does not authorize a search for stolen property or for property generally, but only a search for specified stolen articles. AIR 1944 Pat 228 (230) = 45 Cri L Jour 802 (DB) °° Madh BLJ (1954) HCR 1325 (1341) °° AIR 1927 Cal 93 (94) = 27 Cri L Jour 1195 (DB).

(2) In conducting searches under S. 132 of Income Tax Act an Income-tax Officer ought to proceed on the lines of Sections 96, 98 and 165, Cr. P. Code. AIR 1965 All 487 (491) = ILR (1964) 2 All 377 (DB).

9. Who can conduct the search.— (1) Any superior police-officer, for example, a Circle Inspector of Police, is competent to conduct the search under this section. AIR 1927 All 516 (516) = 28 Cri L Jour 652.

(2) Company Commander of Battalion of Provincial Armed Constabulary, not being superior in rank to officer in charge of police station, a police officer making investigation cannot conduct search. 1968 All Cri R 295 (297) = 1968 All WR (HC) 454.

10. Conduct of search — Sub-section (4). — (1) A police officer is bound to call upon two or more respectable witnesses as provided in S. 103 to attend and witness the search. AIR 1926 All 147 (150, 151) = 27 Cri L Jour 11 (DB) °° AIR 1933 Sind 220 (222) = 34 Cri L Jour 848 (DB) °° AIR 1935 All 520 (520) = 36 Cri L Jour 551 (552) (DB).

(2) The fact that the police took two independent witnesses and did not call upon two witnesses from the locality does not make the search illegal. AIR 1927 All 516 (517) = 28 Cri L Jour 652 °° Madh BLJ 1954 HCR 1325 (1340).

(3) Failure by the police to call witnesses does not make the search illegal. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 763 (764) (DB) (Mad).

(4) Attendance of witnesses at the search is not always essential to enable evidence as to the search to be given. AIR 1946 PC 16 (19) = 72 Ind App 305 = ILR (1946) Lah 1 = 47 Cri L Jour 489.

[See also AIR 1955 Cal 129 (129) = 1955 Cri L Jour 433 (DB).]

(5) It cannot be held that the things discovered as a result of searches conducted illegally can in no case be taken as incriminating circumstances and it would be in each case a question of fact whether the accused can reasonably be held to be in recent possession of the things which are shown to belong to somebody else. Madh BLJ 1954 HCR 1325 (1345).

(6) Defective search does not vitiate trial nor makes the evidence of search officer inadmissible in evidence. 1961 Ker LT 992 (993).

11. Inspection of things seized in search. — (1) Where a document or other thing is seized under this section and sent to the Magistrate under Section 170, the prosecutor must have an opportunity of inspection. (1887) 15 Cal 109 (142) (DB).

11A. Disposal of property seized in search — (1) Magistrate has power of disposal under Section 523, Cr. P. C. over the property seized in search under this section. AIR 1967 Cal 421 (422) = 69 Cal WN 663.

(2) See also Section 523, Cr. P. C.

11B. Illegal search, effect. — (1) Any illegality in the search will not vitiate the conviction of the accused if there is otherwise ample evidence to support it and no prejudice is caused by the illegal search to the accused. AIR 1952 Tripura 1 (4) = 1952 Cri LJ 1201 °° 1962 BLJR 344 (347) °° ('62) 64 Punj LR 403 (404) °° AIR 1953 Trav-Co 466 (469) = ILR (1952) Trav-Co 937 = 1953 Cri LJ 1670 (DB).

(2) Even if search is illegal by reason of non-compliance with Section 165, Cr. P. C. the seizure of articles is not vitiated. Illegality of search only calls for careful scrutiny of evidence regarding seizure. AIR 1963 SC 822 (824) = (1963) 1 Cri LJ 809 = (1963) Supp 1 SCR 408 °° (1968) 70 Punj LR (D) 259 (262, 263) (DB) °° AIR 1965 Orissa 136 (138) = 2 Cri LJ 112 = 31 Cut LT 172 ° AIR 1963 Ker 241 (246) = 1962 Ker LJ 1212 = (1963) 2 Cri LJ 279 °° (1963) 1 Cri LJ 669 (674) (DB) (Ker) °° 1963 BLJR 742 (743) °° ('63) 65 Punj LR 1128 °° AIR 1961 Ker 8 (12) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 70 = 1960 Ker LJ 842 (FB). Section 165 — Note 12 (contd.)

[But see 1892 All WN 1 (2).]

(2) Search in contravention of Sections 103 and 165 — Search can be resisted — Search of articles held not affected. AIR 1963 SC 822 (824) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 809.

13. Damages for illegal search. — (1) A police-officer, who makes a search under this section in a non-cognizable case without an order from the Magistrate will be liable for damages in a suit. (1897) 24 Cal 691 (696) (DB).

(2) If the search by a police-officer is a bona fide one, he is not liable for damages. AIR 1919 Mad 751 (752) = 19 Cri L Jour 901 (DB) °° AIR 1933 Sind 240 (242, 243).

(3) Where a police-officer not having jurisdiction over the place searched helps in a search conducted by another police-officer who is authorized to conduct the search, he is not liable in damages. AIR 1919 Mad 226 (228) = 20 Cri L Jour 422 (DB).

(4) A police-officer is liable for damages if he fails to record the grounds of his belief as required by this section. AIR 1935 Nag 237 (239).

[But see AIR 1939 Lah 280 (282).]

[But see (1907) 6 Cri L Jour 105 (106) (Mad).]

(2) Where two houses have to be searched simultaneously and the Sub-Inspector searches one house and orders his constable to search the other, the procedure is not illegal. AIR 1932 Oudh 249 (250) = 33 Cri L Jour 492. (Case under Excise Act.)

15. "An order in writing" — Sub-section (3). — (1) An oral order requiring a subordinate officer to make a search is illegal. AIR 1935 Nag 237 (239) °° Madh BLJ (1954) HCR 1325 (1341) °° 1964 Raj LW 126 (129, 132).

(2) Search in pursuance of oral order invalid — Other evidece of order inadmissible under Section 91, Evidence Act — No presumption under Section 114, Evidence Act applies. (1962) 3 Guj LR 736 (737, 738).

(3) Sub-section (3) has no application to a case in which the officer in the process of conducting a search himself has a part of it actually done under his own direction and in his own presence by one of his subordinates. AIR 1941 Lah 297 (298) = 42 Cri L Jour 612 (DB).

(4) The words "and such subordinate officer may, thereupon, search for such thing in such place" mean that he is to search only for the thing which he is instructed to search for and that he is to search for it only in the place specified in his authority. AIR 1944 Pat 228 (230) = 45 Cri L Jour 802 (DB).

(5) A subordinate police-officer can enter a house without any warrant or order in writing in search of a person who is charged with a cognizable offence. (1870) 7 Bom HCR (Cr) 50 (52) (DB).

16. "Copies of any record" — Sub-section (5). — (1) The provisions of sub-section (5) are an additional safeguard to protect individuals against general or roving searches. It is, therefore essential that reasons recorded for the search should be sent to the Magistrate forthwith. AIR 1926 Cal 663 (663, 664) = 27 Cri L Jour 542 (DB) °° AIR 1959 Mad 544 (547) = 1969 Cri L Jour 1445 °° 1969 Cri LJ 952 (953) (All) = 1968 All WR (HC) 39 °° 1959 Andh LT 562 (571, 572) °° ('57) 23 Cut LT 449 (465).

[See AIR 1967 SC 1298 (1301) = (1967) 2 SCR 340 = 1967 Cri LJ 1194.]

(2) The safeguard consists in that the search, when the record is sent forthwith to the Magistrate, would be in the knowledge of the Magistrate who if he considers it necessary might even be present at the place of search and see that the search is made in accordance with law. AIR 1969 Delhi 26 (41) = 1969 Cri LJ 168).

(3) An order by a Magistrate refusing or passing an order tantamount to the refusal of copies of records made under sub-sec. (1) or sub-section (3) to the owner or occupier of the place searched, is illegal and will be set aside. AIR 1928 All 402 (402) = 29 Cri L Jour 663.

(4) The provision is directory. This however does not mean that the police officer has a discretion to fulfil or not to fulfil the requirement of sub-section (5). The requirement has to be fulfilled by a police officer who seeks to exercise the power to search under section 165. AIR 1969 Delhi 26 (41) = 1969 Cri LJ 168.

(5-6) Investigation under S. 132, Income-tax Act, 1961 — Not being in the nature of investigation into any offence sub-section (5) of Sec. 165 does not apply to search under Section 132. AIR 1969 Delhi 91 (100) = 71 ITR 550.

(7) Search — Mahazar itself and articles recovered forwarded to Court two months after search — Held there was contravention of Section 165 (5). 1962 Ker LT 790 (791).

Section 166 — Note 1

(1) Omission to comply with this sub-section will render a conviction for resistance to the search liable to be set aside. AIR 1926 Cal 663 (663) = 27 Cri L Jour 542 (DB).

(2) Sub-Inspector in Section 166, Criminal P. C. does not include Assistant Sub-Inspector. 1964 Raj LW 126 (131, 132).

(3) Even a police officer obtaining a document or a thing under Section 94 or under Sections 165 and 166, Cr. P. C. is bound to see that no hardship is caused to the person in possession. ILR (1959) Ker 165 (172).

SECTION 167 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. Difference between this section and Section 344 — See Section 344.
3. "Or the police-officer making the investigation if he is not below the rank of Sub-Inspector."
4. "Shall forthwith .... forward the accused."
5. "A copy of the entries in the diary."
6. To any Magistrate having jurisdiction or not.
7. "In such custody as such Magistrate thinks fit."
8. "Fifteen days in the whole."
9. Reasons to be recorded.
10. Effect of detention in contravention of this section.
11. Nature of proceedings under this section.
12. Applicability of this section to security proceedings.

it appears that the] investigation ‡[* * *] cannot be completed within the period of twenty-four hours fixed by Section 61, and there are grounds for believing that the accusation or information is well-founded, the officer in charge of the police-station §[or the police-officer making the investigation if he is not below the rank of sub-inspector] shall forthwith transmit to the nearest Magistrate a copy of the entries in the diary hereinafter prescribed relating to the case, and shall at the same time forward the accused †[ * *] to such Magistrate.

(2) The Magistrate to whom an accused person is forwarded under this section may, whether he has or has not jurisdiction to try the case, from time to time authorise the detention of the accused in such custody as such Magistrate thinks fit, for a term not exceeding fifteen days in the whole. If he has not jurisdiction to try the case or commit it for trial, and considers further detention unnecessary, he may order the accused to be forwarded to a Magistrate having such jurisdiction:

(3) A Magistrate authorizing under this section detention in the custody of the police shall record his reasons for so doing.

(4) If such order is given by a Magistrate other than the District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Magistrate, he shall forward a copy of his order, with his reasons for making it, to the Magistrate to whom he is immediately subordinate.

12A. Applicability to arrests under Section 54 or Section 151.

13. If approvers can be detained in police custody under this section.

14. Admissibility of statements reduced to writing during police investigation.

15. Application to arrest under other Acts.

1. Scope and object.— (1) Provisions of this section are to be read as supplementary to those in Section 61. AIR 1931 Lah 353 (355) = 32 Cri L Jour 1785 (DB).

(2) Sections 61 and 167 are in accordance with the principle that justice is not delayed. AIR 1956 Orissa 129 (Pr. 9) = ILR (1956) Cut 267 = 1956 Cri L Jour 909 (DB).

(3) The object of Section 61 and this section is to enable person arrested to make any representation. (1888) 11 Mad 98 (102) (DB) •• AIR 1924 Cal 476 (478) = 25 Cri L Jour 732 (DB) •• AIR 1931 Lah 99 (100) = 33 Cri L Jour 180 •• AIR 1932 Oudh 11 (17) = 33 Cri L Jour 287 (DB).

(4) The intention of Section 61 and this section is to prevent possible abuse by police of their powers in trying to make discoveries of crime by means of duress, terror and wrongful confinement. AIR 1943 Nag 36 (70) = 44 Cri L Jour 237 (DB) •• 1886 Rat 254 (272, 273) (DB).

(5) Magistrate before whom the production has to be made has to scrutinize the act of others and to see whether it was legal and proper and further whether the formalities required by law had been complied with. AIR 1954 All 601 (605) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1317 = ILR (1955) 1 All 793 (DB).

(6) This section provides that in certain cases detention in police custody of the arrested person may be permitted so that the police may complete the investigation and decide whether to proceed under Section 169 or under Section 170. AIR 1926 Bom 551 (554) = 27 Cri L Jour 1169 (DB).

(7) A Magistrate's power to remand an accused person to police custody is regulated by this section. (1949) 2 Sau LR 183 (186) (DB).

(8) There is no other section in the Code for remand to police custody (1949) 2 Sau LR 183 (186) (DB).

(9) Before a Magistrate can make order of remand the accused must have been arrested by the police and forwarded to the Magistrate. AIR 1956 Madh B 130 (131) = 1956 Cri L Jour 619.

(10) Where a person who is required by the police presents himself before the Magistrate the Magistrate cannot remand him to police custody. (1949) 2 Sau LR 183 (186) (DB).

[But see (1966) 2 Mys LJ 76 (77) = 1966-7 Law Rep 236.]

(11) The section does not apply to the case of a convicted criminal prisoner who is governed by Prisons Act, 1894 and Prisoners Act, 1900. These Acts do not empower a Magistrate to transfer a convict prisoner from the custody of the prison to that of the police for purposes of investigation. AIR 1956 Madh B 130 (132) = 1956 Cri L Jour 619 •• (1966) 2 Mys LJ 76 (77) = 1966 7 Law Rep 236.

[*§] By a notification issued under Section 1 (2) of this Code, the State Government of West Bengal has extended Section 167 of the Code to the Commissioner of police and the police in the town of Calcutta with the following modifications, namely, (a) omission of reference to Section 61 of the Code; (b) substitution of the words "if any" for the words "hereinafter prescribed"; (c) omission of Proviso to sub-section (2) and (d) omission of sub-section (4)—See Notification No. 6922J dated 8-10-1926 in Cal. Gaz., 14-10-1926.

[*] These words were substituted for the words "it appears that any" by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1923 (XVIII of 1923), S. 38.

[†] See also Article 22 (1) of the Constitution of India.

[‡] The words "under this Chapter" were omitted by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1923 (XVIII of 1923), S. 38.

[§] Inserted, ibid.

[*†] The words and brackets "(if any)" were omitted, ibid.

[*‡] Proviso to sub-section (2) was inserted, ibid.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Clause 167.—It has been held by the High Court of Madras [see (1887) 11 Mad 98 (101)] that the clause does not contemplate remands for successive periods of fifteen days. We think this decision is right and have put in words to make the point clear. Any further proceedings should be taken under S. 344."—S. C. R. 1898.

(12) Where an accused is kept in jail by orders of adjournment or remand under Secion 344, he can be handed over to the police in some other case for purposes of investigation. In view of Section 167 (2) there is no prohibition against such a course. But a good case must be made out for detaining him in connection with the other case. AIR 1954 Raj 290 (291) = 1955 Cri L Jour 79 = ILR (1954) 4 Raj 413 (DB). (AIR 1937 Sind 251 = 39 Cri L Jour 10, Dissented from.)

(13) Though there is no provision in the Code authorising a Magistrate to order arrest of a person who he thinks is guilty of the commission of a cognizable offence unless he has taken cognizance of the case, the provisions of Sections 167, 54 and 65 lead to the conclusion that he has such power to arrest a person during the course of investigation. AIR 1958 All 578 (Prs 16, 19) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1278 (DB).

(14) The section does not apply where a person is detained in connection with proceedings under Section 107. AIR 1957 All 189 (Pr 6) = 1957 Cri L Jour 427 (DB).

(15) For analogous provisions, see Section 344 of the Code and Article 32 of the Constitution of India.

2. Difference between this section and Section 344. — See Section 344.

3. "Or the police officer making the investigation if he is not below the rank of Sub-Inspector." — (1) This section applies only when the police are investigating the case; a Magistrate who makes an investigation under Section 202 cannot under this section keep the accused in custody. AIR 1930 All 259 (260) = 31 Cri L Jour 998. Also see Section 202.

(2) An officer attached to the criminal investigation or intelligence department working under the orders of his superior cannot be taken to be an investigating officer; he is asked to do only particular acts e.g., to make a search. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 305 (350) = 35 Mad 247 (SB).

(3) The Chief Police Officer present can apply for remand under the Bengal Police Code. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 65 (106) (Cal).

4. "Shall forthwith .... forward the accused." — (1) The word "accused" in this section and in Sections 169, 170 and 173 denotes the supposed offender who has not yet come under the cognizance of any official other than the police, and who in Chapter V is called "person arrested". (1892) 16 Bom 661 (668) (DB).

[See also AIR 1958 Andh Pra 87 (Pr 15) = 1958 Cri L Jour 18 (DB)  AIR 1947 Lah 92 (96) = 47 Cri L Jour 772 (DB).]

(2) Under no circumstances can the prisoner be detained by police-officer for more than twenty-four hours without the special leave of a Magistrate under this section.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, the amendments made in Section 167 are the same as those made in Maharashtra. — See Cent. Act XI of 1960, S. 87.

NOTE.—(1) Magistrates appointed for the City of Ahmedabad have the powers, perform the functions and exercise the jurisdiction of a Presidency Magistrate.—See Guj. Act XIX of 1961, S. 14 (3).

(2) The combined effect of Ss. 14 (3) and 15 of Guj. Act XIX of 1961, seems that the provisions of Sec. 96 (1) (ii) of the Bombay Police Act, 1951 (XXII of 1951) would apply to the Magistrates in the City of Ahmedabad.

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in Section 167—

(i) in sub-section (1) for the words "the nearest Magistrate" substitute the words "the nearest Judicial Magistrate";

(ii) for sub-section (4), substitute the following, namely :—

"(4) Any Magistrate giving such order shall forward a copy of his order, with his reasons for making it, to the Sessions Judge."—Bom. Act XXIII of 1951, S. 2 and Schedule (1-7-1953).

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) of Sec. 167, the Presidency Magistrate in Greater Bombay to whom an accused person is forwarded under sub-sec. (2) of Section 167 of the Code, may, whether he has or has not jurisdiction to try the case, from time to time, authorise the detention of the accused in such custody as such Magistrate thinks fit for a term not exceeding fifteen days at a time: see the Bombay Police Act, 1951, XXII of 1951, S. 96 (1) (ii). (1-8-1951).

(3) Unless a police officer considers that he can complete the investigation within a period of 24 hours, it is his duty to produce the accused forthwith before the Magistrate. AIR 1964 Manipur 39 (43) = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 307.

(4) If the accused is produced before a Magistrate after the expiry of twenty-four hours, the Magistrate has power to remand him to police custody under this section. AIR 1951 Madh B 70 (71) = 52 Cri L Jour 233.

(5) The accused should actually be sent to the Magistrate; the police cannot have the accused in their custody and merely write for and obtain the special leave under this section for such detention. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 65 (106) (Cal) °° 1867 Pun Re (Cr) No. 39 p. 72 (76) (DB).

(6) An order of remand obtained in absence of accused is illegal. AIR 1948 Mad 100 (100) = ILR (1948) Mad 279 = 49 Cri L Jour 41 (DB).

(7) The section does not require the production of the accused before the Magistrate on the occasion of a subsequent remand. AIR 1952 Assam 167 (167, 170) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 18 = 1952 Cri L Jour 159.

(8) If police cannot complete investigation within twenty-four hours, they must forward the accused to the nearest Magistrate who can authorise his detention for a term not exceeding fifteen days. AIR 1964 Ker 232 (233) = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 300 = 1963 Ker LT 251.

(9) To attract the section there must be person arrested and detained in custody and it must appear to the police officer that he has to conduct an investigation and that the investigation against the arrested person cannot be completed within twenty-four hours. AIR 1962 Ker 215 (219, 220) = 1962 Ker LT 17 = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 72 (DB).

5. "A copy of the entries in the diary."—(1) It is imperative that the police-officer should send along with the accused a copy of entries in diary which he is bound to keep under Section 172. The entries in diary afford to the Magistrate the information upon which he can decide whether or not he should authorize the detention of the accused in custody or upon which he can form an opinion as to whether or not further detention is necessary. (3) After the re-organization of the State of Bombay in 1956, the amendments made in Section 167 by Bombay Act mentioned in (1) above are extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959 by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

Mysore

In its application to the State of Mysore, in Section 167, for sub-section (4), substitute the following namely :—

"(4) (Same as in Maharashtra (1) (ii)."—Mys. Act XIII of 1965, Sec. 36 (1-10-1965).

Punjab: Haryana: Chandigarh

In its application to the States of Punjab and Haryana and the Union Territory of Chandigarh, in Section 167,—

(i) in sub-section (2), proviso substituted as follows, namely :—

"Provided that no Executive or Judicial Magistrate of the second class not specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government or the High Court, as the case may be, shall authorise detention in the custody of the police;" and

(ii) for sub-section (4), the following shall be substituted, namely :—

"(4) If such order is given by an Executive Magistrate other than the District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Magistrate, he shall forward a copy of his order, with his reasons for making it, to the Magistrate to whom he is immediately subordinate and if such order is given by a Judicial Magistrate, he shall forward a copy of his order, with his reasons for making it, to the Chief Judicial Magistrate."—Punj. Act XXV of 1964, S. 2 and Sch., Pt. I, item (40) (2-10-1964) and Act 31 of 1966, Ss. 29 and 88 (1-11-1966).

Rajasthan

Abu Area.—In its application to the Abu area of the State of Rajasthan, the amendments made in Section 167 are the same as those made in (1) of Maharashtra.—See Cent. Act XXXVII of 1956, S. 119 (1-11-1956).

(3) Non-compliance with Section 167 (1) may in proper cases and according to circumstances lead to inference that evidence adduced by prosecution is tainted. AIR 1966 Ker 229 (231, 232) = 1966 Cri LJ 1007 (DB).

(4) Omission of police officer to forward copies of case diary entries so far made along with the application for remand, instead of a summary or purpose thereof, is a violation of provisions of Section 167 (1). AIR 1966 Ker 229 (231) = 1966 Cri LJ 1007 (DB).

(5) Section 167 read with Section 172 does not visualise the sending along with the remand report, a copy of the statements of witnesses recorded by police officer under Section 166. (1963) 1 Andh LT 406 (412) (DB).

(6) It is duty of the police to comply with Section 167 (1). Union Territories (except Chandigarh)

In its application to the Union territories, in Section 167,—

(i) for the proviso to sub-section (2), substitute the following proviso namely:—

"Provided that no Executive Magistrate of the second class not specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government and no Judicial Magistrate of the second class not specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government in consultation with the High Court, shall authorise detention in the custody of the police"; and

(ii) for sub-section (4), substitute the following sub-section namely:—

"(4) If such order is given by an Executive Magistrate other than the District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Magistrate he shall forward a copy of his order, with his reasons for making it, to the Magistrate to whom he is immediately subordinate and if such order is given by a Judicial Magistrate other than the Chief Judicial Magistrate, he shall forward a copy of his order, with his reasons for making it, to the Chief Judicial Magistrate."—Act 19 of 1969, S. 3 and Sch., item 41 (in Delhi, on 2-10-1969.)

West Bengal

(1) In sub-section (1) for the words 'nearest Magistrate' substitute the words 'nearest Judicial Magistrate',

(2) In the Proviso to sub-section (2), for the words 'no Magistrate of the third class, and no Magistrate of the second class', substitute the words 'no Judicial Magistrate of the third class, and no Judicial Magistrate of the second class';

(3) For sub-section (4) substitute the following:—

"(4) Any Magistrate giving such order shall forward a copy of his order, with his reasons for making it, to the Sessions Judge."—W. B. Act 8 of 1970, Section 2 and Schedule, item 60.

(2) The latitude given by this section to police to send accused to the nearest Magistrate whether he has or has not jurisdiction to try the case, is merely to provide for cases in which it might not be possible to approach the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the case owing to distance or similar difficulties. In the absence of such difficulties, it is desirable that the Magistrate of the ilaqa should be approached. The practice of obtaining an order of detention from any Magistrate at the choice of the police is open to objection. AIR 1931 Lah 99 (101) = 33 Cri L Jour 180.

(3) Under Section 167 (2), if the Magistrate to whom the accused person is forwarded, has no jurisdiction to try the case then he can only order the accused to be forwarded to a Magistrate having jurisdiction. He has no power under Section 167 to admit the arrested person to bail. He has no power even under Section 497 to grant bail. AIR 1959 Madh Pra 147 (Prs 3, 5) = 1959 Cri L Jour 600.

(4) The Magistrate having himself been a witness of the incident cannot bring to bear an impartial and judicial mind to decide whether or not the accused is to be remanded to custody. The law never countenances a judge who is a judge in his own cause. AIR 1959 All 384 (Pr 20) = 1959 Cri L Jour 685 (DB).

(5) Arrest without warrant — Remand during police investigation for more than fifteen days under Section 344 by Magistrate having jurisdiction to try case but without taking cognizance of case such remand was held as illegal. AIR 1966 Mad 349 (351 to 354) = 1966 Cri LJ 1141.

(6) A Deputy Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, who is a Justice of the Peace, cannot order the detention of the arrested person in police custody. AIR 1926 Cal 1121 (1130) = 27 Cri L Jour 1201 (FB). (Overruling 27 Cri L Jour 1185.)

(7) Merely because Bombay Police Act provides a method by which it is possible to extend period of police remand, it will not be open to Police Officer to produce accused before Presidency Magistrate and obtain remands into police custody which normally they will not be able to obtain under Section 167. The choice is not left to the police in such matters. AIR 1968

Bom 273 (277) = 69 Bom LR 859 = 1968 Cr LJ 903 (DB).

(8) Remand from time to time by Thana Court — Before expiration of last remand period, accused taken to Bombay and produced before Presidency Magistrate for further remand is not proper action of police. AIR 1968 Bom 273 (277) = 1968 Cr LJ 903 = 69 Bom LR 859 (DB).

(9) Even a link Magistrate has to act under Section 167 and abide by the strict provisions of that section. AIR 1963 Manipur 12 (14) = (1963) 1 Cri LJ 451.

7. "In such custody as such Magistrate thinks fit." — (1) The Magistrate has complete freedom to remand the accused to whatever custody he thinks fit. AIR 1948 Mad 100 (100) = ILR (1948) Mad 279 = 49 Cri L Jour 41 (DB).

(2) A person under authorised detention by a Court order under Section 167 or under remand granted under Section 344 cannot be said to be illegally or improperly detained. AIR 1960 Madh Pra 135 (136) = 1960 Cri LJ 608 = 1960 MPLJ 241 (DB).

(3) Detention after order of remand by Magistrate is not one by police. AIR 1961 Bom 42 (43) = ILR (1960) Bom 938 = 62 Bom LR 816 = (1961) (1) Cri LJ 228.

8. "Fifteen days in the whole." — (1) The longest period for which accused can be ordered to be detained by one or more such orders is only fifteen days. (1887) 11 Mad 98 (101, 102) (DB) °° AIR 1958 Manipur 33 (Pr 6) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1325 °° 1902 Pun Re (Cr) No. 24, p. 69 (70) (DB).

(2) Where even within the fifteen days' time the investigation is not complete, the police may release accused under Sec. 169 or they may send him to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the case or hold an inquiry with a report under Sec. 173; then the Magistrate may remand the accused under Section 344. [See also AIR 1949 Cal 143 (143) = ILR (1949) 2 Cal 75 = 50 Cri L Jour 231 (DB).]

(3) Where after expiry of fifteen days' remand, the police neither produce the accused nor apply for fresh remand, but release the accused, the Magistrate should pass an order for discharge of accused and cancellation of warrant of arrest. AIR 1958 Manipur 33 (Pr 2) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1325.

(4) Where a person is arrested without warrant it is not required that he must be released on expiry of fifteen days, if the police are still investigating the matter. A Magistrate having jurisdiction to take cognizance of the offence can avail himself of the provisions of Section 344 without taking cognizance of the offence or while the matter is still under investigation. (5) Under Bombay Police Act (22 of 1951), Section 96 a Presidency Magistrate in Greater Bombay, whether he has or has no jurisdiction to try the case, has authority to remand accused to police custody for more than fifteen days, but not for more than fifteen days at a time. AIR 1968 Bom 273 (275) = 1968 Cri LJ 903 = 69 Bom LR 859 (DB).

(6) Section 167 (2) only prescribes the maximum period of 15 days, but it does not authorise the Magistrates automatically to remand accused for that period. At every stage when they obtain a remand, the police must satisfy the Magistrate that there is sufficient evidence against accused and further evidence might be obtained and it is only when a Magistrate is satisfied, that he should direct a remand. AIR 1956 Orissa 129 (Pr 8) = ILR (1956) Cut 267 = 1956 Cri L Jour 909 (DB). (Observations to the contrary in AIR 1955 All 521, Dissented from.)

(7) Remand under Section 344 will not be to police custody. A detention in the police custody for more than fifteen days is illegal. AIR 1931 Lah 99 (101) = 33 Cri L Jour 180 °° AIR 1949 Cal 143 (143) = ILR (1949) 2 Cal 75 = 50 Cri L Jour 231 (DB).

(8) When the Police want to investigate into an offence they must proceed according to the provisions of the Code and not of some other law which may merely authorise detention of person for reasons of public security. Such a use of the provisions of that law will be a fraud on it. See AIR 1945 Nag 8 (17, 18) = ILR (1945) Nag 6 (DB).

(9) If a Magistrate, having ordered the accused to be detained for a period of less than fifteen days, thinks no further detention is necessary and sends him to a Magistrate having jurisdiction, then the Magistrate to whom the accused is sent cannot remand the accused again, even for such period as will bring the total period of detention to fifteen days. A remand by such Magistrate will be one under S. 344 and not under this section. AIR 1937 Sind 251 (252, 253) = 39 Cri L Jour 10.

(10) The Magistrate acting under Section 167, must satisfy himself whether there is any evidence collected against accused persons before he orders their remand to custody continuously for months. If the Police will not produce their diary to justify further remand, the Magistrate would be exceeding his authority in ordering further remand. AIR 1961 Tripura 4 (7, 8) = (1961) 1 Cri LJ 160.

(11) Under Section 167, a Magistrate whether he has jurisdiction to try the case or not shall not remand the accused for a period exceeding fifteen days in the whole. If the investigation is incomplete, the only way is to obtain remand under Section 344, Cr. P. Code. AIR 1968 Bom 273 (275) = 1968 Cri LJ 903 = 69 Bom LR 859 (DB).

(12) Section 167 and Section 344 empower the Magistrate to grant time to the Police in connection with the investigation of a case. Under Section 167, remand is really authorised detention. When investigation is not completed within 15 days and more time is needed for collecting further evidence, it is at that stage that remand is granted. (15) Remand is within discretion of Magistrate having jurisdiction. There can be no interference by High Court in the shape of general order, without reference to the facts of particular case, that remand be prohibited in all cases against a particular person. ILR (1955) Patiala 44 (51).

(2) In these matters the Magistrate exercises discretionary functions in respect of which the initiative is that of the executive but the responsibility is his. His discretion in such matters has necessarily to be exercised with reference to such material as is by then available and is not a prima facie judicial determination of any specific issue. (3) The guarantee contained in Art. 22 was intended to offer protection to the subject against the act of the executive or other non-judicial authorities. The protection would become meaningless if one, who is supposed to be the protector of the subject, is merely to act mechanically without applying a judicial mind to see whether the arrest of the person produced before him is legal and further regular and in accordance with law. 12. Applicability of this section to security proceedings. — (1) Section 167 only permits a remand when a case relating to any cognizable or non-cognizable offence is being investigated and the order is to be for period during which investigation remains pending. Where persons were arrested and detained in connection with proceedings for prevention of breach of peace under Section 107, Cr. P. SECTION 168

1. Object. — (1) The scheme of the Code shows that while it is permissible for an officer in charge of a Police station to depute some subordinate officer to conduct some of the steps in the investigation the responsibility for every one of these steps is that of the officer in charge of the Police Station. AIR 1955 SC 196 (201) = ILR (1955) Punj 135 = 1955 SCR 1150 = 1955 Cri L Jour 526.

SECTION 169 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
2. Insufficiency of evidence.
3. Surety bond to appear before a Magistrate.
4. Re-arrest of the person released under this section.
5. Power of police-officer to allow withdrawal of complaint.
6. Investigation under other Acts.
7. Powers of Magistrates under this section.

1. Scope. — (1) Sections 169, 170 and 173 should be read together. Section 169 relates to cases where there is no sufficient evidence for forwarding the accused to a Magistrate, and consequently no person is sent up for trial. Section 170 applies where upon investigation the accused is sent up for trial. Section 173 contains general directions relating to both. (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 414 (415) = 4 Low Bur Rul 137  ILR (1968) 1 Punj 171 (176).

(2) This section is applicable while the case is still under investigation of the police. It cannot be applied to a case where the accused has appeared before the Magistrate. AIR 1933 All 582 (585) = 35 Cri L Jour 208 (DB)  1969 Cri LJ 542 (546) (Andh Pra) (DB). (Section 169 relates to cases in which no person is sent up for trial.)

(3) A person whose name is not mentioned in the F. I. R. but is arrested by police during investigation, is an accused person within the meaning of this section, whether he be forwarded to the Magistrate or not. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 37 (Pr 16) = 1958 Cri L Jour 18 (DB). (Statement by him leading to discovery is admissible under Section 27, Evidence Act.)

2. Insufficiency of evidence. — (1) Where after the completion of investigation it is found that there is no sufficient evidence or reasonable ground of suspicion to justify the sending up of the accused, the accused must be released. AIR 1914 All 413 (413) = 15 Cri L Jour 696  AIR 1921 All 278 (280) = 22 Cri L Jour 115.

[See AIR 1939 Lah 523 (524) = 41 Cri L Jour 146.]

(2) When an investigation officer reports to a Magistrate that there is no sufficient evidence against an accused, the Magistrate cannot order his further detention to enable the police to institute proceedings under Section 110. AIR 1914 All 413 (413) = 15 Cri L Jour 696  AIR 1921 All 278 (280) = 22 Cri L Jour 115.

(3) No sufficient evidence against accused — Police officer has to proceed under Section 169 and direct accused to appear before Magistrate empowered to take cognizance of case on police report. 1962 (1) Cri LJ 96 (97, 98) (Tripura).

3. Surety bond to appear before a Magistrate. — (1) The section authorizes the taking of a bond with or without sureties for appearance of accused before Magistrate empowered to act on a police-report. Therefore, a bond taken under this section for appearance of accused before the police is ab initio void. AIR 1925 Lah 152 (152) = 25 Cri L Jour 712.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

1923.— "We see no cogent reason for the first amendment of Sections 169 and 170, which substitutes the words 'upon the completion of an investigation' for 'upon an investigation'. In the case of Section 169, we agree that the power contemplated by the section should be exercisable by investigating officers, and we see no reason in this case to restrict the power to officers not below the rank of Sub-Inspector. With regard to Section 170, however, we consider that the direct responsibility for sending up a case should rest with the officer in charge of the police station. Section 168 undoubtedly contemplates that the officer in charge is to assume responsibility, and to enable all investigating officers to send up cases under Section 170 without reference to the officer in charge would tend to make Section 168 of no effect.

We considered whether the power to admit to bail in bailable cases should not be extended to investigating officers, but, on the whole, we are inclined to confine this power also to the officer in charge of the police station."

—S. C. R. (18 of 1923).

170. Case to be sent to Magistrate when evidence is sufficient. — (1) If, upon an investigation under this Chapter, it appears to the officer in charge of the police-station that there is sufficient evidence or reasonable ground as aforesaid, such officer shall forward the accused under custody to a Magistrate empowered to take cognizance of the offence upon a police-report and to try the accused

---

(2) A police officer cannot, except in the case of a minor, take a third party's bond for appearance of accused without taking a bond from the accused himself because there cannot be a surety without a principal. AIR 1928 Lah 318 (319) = 29 Cri L Jour 491.

4. Re-arrest of the person released under this section. — (1) The admission to bail under this section is only a provisional arrangement. The Magistrate to whom report is sent under Section 173 may either discharge the bond or order the re-arrest of the accused. If the Magistrate believes, that there is a prima facie case of a non-bailable offence, the police should re-arrest accused and forward him in custody to the Magistrate. 1877 Rat 121 (121).

(2) Where a person is apprehended along with others and is released by the police under this section, it is unfair to launch a prosecution against such person based upon facts disclosed in the evidence which he gives against the accused. AIR 1933 All 399 (401) = 34 Cri L Jour 761.

[See also AIR 1925 Cal 104 (104) = 25 Cri L Jour 311 (DB). (Such course is contrary to the traditions of justice in Criminal Courts.)]

5. Power of police-officer to allow withdrawal of complaint. — (1) Permission to withdraw a complaint is a judicial act exercise of which is vested in Magistrates under Sections 248 and 345— Police have no authority to entertain an application for withdrawal under this or any other section. 1875 Rat 91 (91).

6. Investigation under other Acts. — (1) In case of investigation by Customs Officers under Sea Customs Act, question of application of Sections 169 and 170 does not arise. AIR 1968 SC 938 (941) = (1968) 2 SCR 624 = 1967 Cri LJ 1124.

7. Powers of Magistrates under this section. — (1) Police submitting report that no case made out for sending accused for trial — Magistrate has no power to call upon police to submit a charge-sheet. AIR 1968 SC 117 (124) = (1967) 3 SCR 668 = 1968 Cri LJ 97. (AIR 1960 Bom 240 and AIR 1966 Pat 488, Overruled.)  AIR 1962 Cal 135 (145, 149, 162) = 1962 (1) Cr LJ 285 = 66 Cal WN 697 (FB). [See also 1969 Cr LJ 1307 (1309) = 35 Cut LT 381.]

(2) Where police send a report viz. a charge-sheet under Sec. 170, the Magistrate, if he differs from the police cannot call upon them to submit a final report under Section 169. AIR 1968 SC 117 (123) = 1968 Cri LJ 97 = (1967) 3 SCR 668.

or commit him for trial or, if the offence is bailable and the accused is able to give security, shall take security from him for his appearance before such Magistrate on a day fixed and for his attendance from day to day before such Magistrate until otherwise directed.

(2) When the officer in charge of a police-station forwards an accused person to a Magistrate or takes security for his appearance before such Magistrate under this section, he shall send to such Magistrate any weapon or other article which it may be necessary to produce before him, and shall require the complainant (if any) and so many of the persons who appear to such officer to be acquainted with the circumstances of the case as he may think necessary, to execute a bond to appear before the Magistrate as thereby directed and prosecute or give evidence (as the case may be) in the matter of the charge against the accused.

(3) If the Court of the District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate is mentioned in the bond, such Court shall be held to include any Court to which such

7. Powers of the Magistrate under this section.

8. Application to investigation under other Acts.

1. Scope and applicability. — (1) Sections 170, 171 and 173 are to be read together. They contemplate a simultaneous action. Putting all these sections together, the accused should be forwarded after the officer in charge of a police station comes to the conclusion that there was sufficient evidence and should also forward a report under Section 173. AIR 1956 Orissa 129 (Pr 14) = ILR (1956) Cut 267 = 1956 Cri L Jour 909 (DB).

(2) The existence of sufficient evidence is a condition precedent for the police acting under this section and for making a request to the Magistrate to take cognizance of the offence. AIR 1955 All 462 (467) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1146.

(3) The purpose of forwarding accused to a Magistrate under this section is not to obtain a remand under Section 344 merely but is for the Magistrate to take cognizance of the offence. AIR 1955 All 462 (467) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1146.

(4) The procedure prescribed under this section applies also to investigations conducted in a non-cognizable case under the orders of a Magistrate. AIR 1931 All 263 (264) = 32 Cri L Jour 465  (1913) 14 Cri L Jour 218 (218) (All).

(5) When a Magistrate directs an investigation under Section 156 (3), the police, after holding the investigation, may find case to be true and may make report to that effect. Upon receipt of this report the Magistrate may proceed to issue process against the accused. If on the other hand, the police finds the case to be false and reports accordingly which report also is to be made under this section, the Magistrate has nothing further to do in the chain of that proceeding. He is in seisin of nothing. AIR 1956 Cal 76 (Pr 15) = 1956 Cri L Jour 505 (2) (DB).

(6) Even though a private complaint is lodged with the Magistrate and the Magistrate has taken cognizance upon it, the police can still make an inquiry into the offence which came to their knowledge not from the complainant but on information, from other persons. A charge-sheet by the police is proper and the mere fact of there being a private complaint does not take away the rights of the police to conduct prosecution. AIR 1928 Mad 1268 (1270) = 30 Cri L Jour 326.

2. Accused must be forwarded to a Magistrate having jurisdiction. — (1) An accused can, under this section, be forwarded only to a Magistrate empowered to take cognizance of the offence, upon a police-report, and to try or commit him for trial. It is irregular to send the accused and the witnesses before another Magistrate who is not so empowered. (1902) 29 Cal 483 (487) (DB).

(2) When forwarding the accused under this section, it is not necessary to forward the report prescribed by Section 173. AIR 1931 All 617 (619) = 53 All 729 = 32 Cri L Jour 1045.

(3) A Magistrate cannot authorise a police constable to admit to bail persons sent up to him by police patels under Bombay Village Police Act, 8 of 1867, for offences for which bail might be allowed by this Code. 1869 Rat 26 (26).

3. "Police report". — See Section 190.

4. Powers and duties of the police under this section. — (1) It is for the officer in charge of a police-station to decide whether there is sufficient evidence or not, to justify the forwarding of the accused. AIR 1939 Lah 522 (524) = 41 Cri L Jour 146  AIR 1931 Lah 99 (101) = 33 Cri L Jour 180.

(2) The power cannot be exercised by an officer subordinate to the officer in charge of a police-station and proceedings instituted at his instance will be void under Section 530, Clause (p). See AIR 1918 Cal 50 (51) = 19 Cri L Jour 961.

(3) Assistant Sub-Inspector in charge of police station in absence of Sub-Inspector who is Officer-in-charge, record-

Magistrate may refer the case for inquiry or trial, provided reasonable notice of such reference is given to such complainant or persons.

(4) [ * * *.]

(5) The officer in whose presence the bond is executed shall deliver a copy thereof to one of the persons who executed it, and shall then send to the Magistrate the original with his report.

ing F. I. R. and investigating it — Complaint about offence under Section 182, Penal Code, filed by him is valid. ILR (1963) Cut 790 (792).

(4) The power cannot be controlled by the Superintendent of Police, especially after it has been exercised. AIR 1918 Cal 485 (485) = 18 Cri L Jour 886 (887) (DB).

(5) When the officer in charge of police-station considers that there is sufficient evidence, he is bound to forward the accused in custody or, if the offence is bailable, to take bail for his appearance before the Magistrate. AIR 1920 Nag 255 (259, 260) = 21 Cri L Jour 769. (Overruled on another point in AIR 1937 Nag 17 = 38 Cri L Jour 251 (FB).)

(6) He cannot discharge the accused nor entertain an application to withdraw the complaint inasmuch as the power to permit such withdrawal is a judicial act which must be done by a Magistrate. 1875 Rat 91 (91).

(7) Where definite allegations are made by aggrieved persons, it is generally not for the police to play the role of Judges and to pronounce their verdict on the truth or falsehood of those allegations. They are bound to send up the accused for trial and not to discuss probabilities and improbabilities of the case and come to a final decision of their own. But where there is a tendency to implicate innocent persons along with guilty, not only Courts but investigating officers must proceed cautiously and use their discretion. A police officer is in the same position as a Magistrate holding inquiry in cases triable by a Court of Session and hence, where an investigating officer is not satisfied with the evidence against some of the accused and feels that they have been falsely implicated, he will be quite justified in not sending up such accused for trial. AIR 1939 Lah 523 (524) = 41 Cri L Jour 146.

(8) The police officer is bound to send all persons acquainted with the facts of the case as witnesses at the trial and cannot omit to do so on the ground that some of the witnesses are relations of the accused. AIR 1933 All 582 (586) = 35 Cri L Jour 208 (DB).

[See (1966) 5 Suth WR (Cr) 6 (6) (DB).]

(9) It is not the duty of the officer to intimate to the accused the offence with which he is charged. But he is bound to intimate to him whether the warrant is bailable or not. AIR 1931 All 263 (265) = 32 Cri L Jour 465.

(10) Where articles are recovered from or near the corpse of a deceased person it is the duty of the police to send them to malkhana in sealed cover with contents noted above. Otherwise no reliance can be placed upon evidence furnished by recovery of these things. AIR 1949 All 291 (296) = ILR (1949) All 658 = 50 Cri L Jour 498 (DB).

(11) The property connected with the offence has to be forwarded to the Court by the Police and the Court has to give directions for its custody during the pendency of the case. It is not desirable that it should be left in the possession of the Court Inspector, who is a police officer and the prosecutor even though he might be attached to the Court. AIR 1958 Tripura 40 (Pr 34) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1549.

(12) Muddamal articles produced under Section 170 (2) before Criminal Court — Articles cannot be returned to Police — Application by prosecution for return of Muddamal liquor to police for being sent to Chemical Analyser — Application cannot be granted. AIR 1961 Guj 4 (5) =

(13) Filing of preliminary charge-sheet does not deprive the Police to continue the investigation. Recovery of article at instance of accused is part of the investigation. Documents of such recovery prior to filing of final charge-sheet but after filing of preliminary charge-sheet are admissible. 1969 Cr LJ 542 (547) (Andh Pra) (DB).

(14) Complaints officer to be examined at the trial as a principal witness conversant with the facts of case — Investigation by Complaints Officer himself is extremely improper — It does not, however, vitiate the trial. AIR 1964 All 481 (484) = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 497.

(15) If there is sufficient evidence or reasonable ground to justify the forwarding of accused to a Magistrate, the investigating officer has to forward the accused, under Section 170, to the competent Magistrate to take cognizance of the offence or commit him for trial, or if offence is bailable release him on bail on taking security from him. (1967) 8 Guj LR 350 (352) (DB).

5. "Accused", meaning of. — (1) The word "accused," as used in this Chapter relating to investigations, means a person against whom there has been an accusation and evidence is being collected by an executive officer, and as used in the Chapters relating to inquiries and trials, means the subject of accusation over whom the Magistrate or Court is exercising jurisdiction. AIR 1937 Nag 17 (21) = 38 Cri LJ 251 (FB)  AIR 1958 Andh Pra 37 (Pr 15) = 1958 Cri LJ 18 (DB). (It may be that after arrest he is released on security bond during investigation.)  AIR 1920 Nag 255 (257) = 21 Cri LJ 769. (Overruled on another point in AIR 1937 Nag 17 = 38 Cri LJ 251 (FB).)

6. Bond by the complainant and witnesses. — (1) This section requires that when the accused is forwarded to the Magistrate or released on security for his appearance, the officer in charge of the police-station shall require the complainant and witnesses to execute a bond for their appearance before the Magistrate. To send up an accused without such bonds being taken is illegal. (1969) 11 Suth WR (Cr) 47 (48) (DB).

(2) The stage when the bond from a witness or complainant is to be taken comes in only when the accused is arrested and is either forwarded under custody or is released on security. Otherwise the bond is not one furnished under this section. 1893-1900 Low Bur Rul 478 (479).

(3) The bond taken under this section from a witness or complainant should specify the particular day on which he has to appear before the Magistrate. Such date must be the date on which the accused is expected to appear before the Magistrate or if a security for his appearance has been taken, the date of his appearance. (1966) 6 Suth WR (Cr) 52 (52) (DB)  1893-1900 Low Bur Rul 478 (479).

(4) For form of bond by a witness or complainant, see Form No. 26, Schedule V.

7. Powers of the Magistrate under this section. — (1) Police investigation in progress — Magistrate directing Police to effect arrest of the accused forthwith and report compliance by a certain date was improper and not in accordance with law. 1962 (2) Cri LJ 655 (656) (Cal).

171. Complainants and witnesses not to be required to accompany police-officer.—No complaint or witness on his way to the Court[°] of the Magistrate shall be required to accompany a police-officer, or shall be subjected to unnecessary restraint or inconvenience, or required to give any security for his appearance other than his own bond:

Complainants and witnesses not to be subjected to restraint.

Recusant complainant or witness may be forwarded in custody.

Provided that if any complainant or witness refuses to attend or to execute a bond as directed in Section 170, the officer in charge of the police-station may forward him in custody to the Magistrate, who may detain him in custody until he executes such bond, or until the hearing of the case is completed.

SECTION 172 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. "Day by day."
3. Contents of a diary.
4. Admissibility of a diary in evidence.
5. Inspection by accused.
6. Use of the diary.
7. Refreshing memory.
8. "May send for the police diaries".
9. Provisions under other Acts.
10. Obligation to maintain case diaries.

1. Scope and object. — (1) The object of the section is to enable the Magistrate to know what was the information obtained from day to day by the police-officer who was investigating the case and what were the lines of his investigation. (1897) 19 All 390 (397) (FB)  AIR 1934 Cal 458 (459) = 35 Cri LJ 904 (DB).

(2) It is essential that the diary should be kept strictly in accordance with the provisions of the Code in enabling the Court to judge of the weight to be attached to the evidence. AIR 1952 Mad 821 (824) = 1953 Cri LJ 29  AIR 1952 Vindh Pra 7 (7) = 1952 Cri LJ 143.

(3) In the undermentioned case the method of writing case diaries on loose sheets has been disapproved. AIR 1952 Vindh Pra 7 (7) = 1952 Cri LJ 143.

(4) The police-officer is charged with the duty of maintaining a diary in in-the case, but to aid it in such inquiry or trial. Neither the accused nor his agents shall be entitled to call for such diaries, nor shall he or they be entitled to see them merely because they are referred to by the Court; but, if they are used by the police-officer who made them, to refresh his memory, or if the Court uses them for the purpose of contradicting such police-officer, the provisions of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, Section 161 or Section 145, as the case may be, shall apply.

[See also AIR 1942 Cal 593 (597) = 44 Cri LJ 145 (DB).]

(5) The omission to maintain it deprives the Court of a very valuable aid which such diaries can give if legitimately used. AIR 1918 Lah 171 (175) = 19 Cri LJ 517 (DB).

(6) The section does not apply to personal diaries maintained by a police-officer not conducting any investigation. AIR 1925 Cal 959 (960) = 26 Cri LJ 579 (DB).

(7) The section does not apply to a departmental enquiry. AIR 1935 Sind 13 (14) = 36 Cri LJ 581 (FB).

(8) Section applies to all police-officers making an investigation. AIR 1935 Lah 230 (243) = 35 Cri LJ 1180 (DB).

(9) A diary prepared by the police under Section 47-A of the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, does not fall either under Section 172 or Section 162, and is not privileged. AIR 1924 Cal 542 (542) = 24 Cri LJ 757 (DB).

(10) Sections 172 and 162 do not apply to the Calcutta police and there is nothing in Calcutta Police Act relating to any confidential diary which cannot be reached by any party in a criminal case. AIR 1929 Cal 257 (257) = 30 Cri LJ 577

[See also AIR 1940 Cal 97 (103) = 41 Cri LJ 329 (DB).]

(11) The special law for investigation in the Presidency Town of Calcutta barring the application of Section 162 and 172, does not amount to discriminatory law and do not constitute a contravention of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. AIR 1955 Cal 138 (140) = 1955 Cri LJ 752 (DB).

(12) Panchanamas may be read by witnesses while under examination to refresh their memory. AIR 1933 Sind 220 (222) = 34 Cri LJ 848 (DB).

(13) The failure of police-officers to keep a diary lays the evidence of the police-officers open to adverse criticism and may diminish its value, but it does not make that evidence inadmissible. AIR 1947 PC 75 (77) = ILR (1948) 1 Cal 179 = 74 Ind App 80 = 48 Cri LJ 679  AIR 1955 Nag 121 (125) = ILR (1954) Nag 922 = 1955 Cri LJ 819.

[See also AIR 1950 Ajmer 44 (45) = 51 Cri LJ 1301.]

2. "Day by day." — (1) Police-officers are required to enter proceedings in a diary from day to day. AIR 1935 Lah 230 (243) = 35 Cri LJ 1180 (DB).

(2) Delay in making entry may throw suspicion on the diary. AIR 1935 Nag 69 (75) (DB).

3. Contents of a diary. — (1) The section does not contain an exhaustive list of the matters which may, with propriety, be entered in the diary. (1897) 19 All 390 (414) (FB).

(2) Case diary containing the confidential communications or reports are privileged but not statements of witnesses recorded during police investigation or other official matters contained therein such as site plan prepared during the investigation. AIR 1965 All 494 (495) = 1964 All LJ 950 = 1965 (2) Cr LJ 452.

(3) Impression gathered or circumstances ascertained by police officer at spot are not required to be entered in general diary but in the diary to be maintained under Section 172 — They are not relevant facts under Section 35, Evidence Act, and hence not admissible in evidence. AIR 1966 All 222 (223, 224) = 1966 Cri LJ 498 = 1964 All WR (HC) 579.

4. Admissibility of a diary in evidence. — (1) Entries in diary are only notes of secondary evidence of witnesses. 1900 All WN 130 (131) (DB).

(2) Entries in police diaries cannot be used either as substantive or as corroborative evidence in the case. Section 172 — Note 4 (contd.)

(DB)  AIR 1933 PC 124 (132) = 34 Cri LJ 322.

(3) Entries in Police Case diary cannot be accepted as evidence — Particulars have to be established by evidence — Entry giving the date on which certain witness was examined by the police officer in the course of investigation — The date must be deposed to as the date on which such examination took place by the Police Officer concerned. AIR 1967 Manipur 11 (16) = 1967 Cri LJ 1023.

(4) Entries in diary cannot be read to the jury. (1900) 27 Cal 295 (305) (DB).

(5) The Court cannot look into entries in diary and take the facts and statements written therein as materials which would help it to come to a finding on the evidence in the case. (1912) 13 Cri LJ 905 (909) (SB) (Cal)  (1911) 15 Cal WN 47n (47n) (DB)  AIR 1926 Lah 54 (59) = 26 Cri LJ 1308 (DB)  AIR 1928 Lah 820 (823) = 29 Cri LJ 493 (DB).

(6) To reject the story of the defence on the ground that it is nowhere mentioned in the diary, is an improper use thereof. AIR 1926 Lah 485 (486) = 27 Cri LJ 572 (DB)  1883 All WN 37 (37).

(7) What the Court can do is to discover out of the diary any matter that is important and then by calling for the necessary witnesses or documents to have that matter properly proved in evidence. (1906) 3 Cri LJ 408 (408, 409) (DB) (Cal)  AIR 1933 Pat 440 (441) = 34 Cri LJ 948  AIR 1927 Oudh 64 (65) = 28 Cri LJ 134 (DB).

(8) The absence of a statement in the case diary is not in itself evidence that such a statement was not made. The proper way to prove an omission is to question the police-officer who wrote the diary. If he is unable to say that a particular statement was not made to him, an omission cannot be proved by filing the case diary. AIR 1942 Mad 288 (289) = 43 Cri LJ 582  AIR 1942 Mad 58 (60) (DB).

(9) Consent cannot legalise the use of diaries as evidence. AIR 1925 Oudh 1 (8) = 25 Cri LJ 449.

[See also AIR 1946 Pat 127 (127) (DB).]

(10) Where the accused seeks to show that a witness has made a statement in Court which is contrary to what he has told a police-officer, proper way of contradicting him is to ask police-officer when he is in the witness box, about it and to permit, if necessary, the filing of such portions of the record in the case diary as will support the police-officer's statement. AIR 1942 Mad 58 (60) (DB).

(11) When a diary was referred to by a Magistrate as corroborative evidence, but there was legal evidence to held him to come to the same finding, the High Court declined to interfere. (12) There is no objection to such entries being used against the police-officer himself e.g., in a case against him under Section 211 of the Penal Code. But in such a case where only portions of the diary were placed in evidence, the police-officer was held entitled to place other portions which explained those which were admitted. (16) Whether the record of a statement be proved and used under Section 162 or used under Section 172, sub-section (2), without being proved, it is necessary for the Court to be astute and avoid using it otherwise than as provided by law. AIR 1933 Pat 589 (595) = 35 Cri LJ 379 (DB).

(17) Entries in the general diary should be proved by calling the writer to state orally the particulars recorded in each entry and then producing the general diary in corroboration of his oral evidence. Section 172 — Note 6 (contd.)

(6) It is a mistake to exclude supervision notes from police diaries sent to the Courts. The notes cannot of course be used as evidence any more than can the diaries of the investigating officer himself; but they usually make these diaries more intelligible and more useful as aid in inquiries and trials. AIR 1938 Pat 290 (294, 295) = 39 Cri LJ 635 (DB).

(8) The object of sub-s. (2) is to enable the Court to direct the police-officer to refresh his memory from notes made by him in the course of his investigation or to question him as to contradictions. If used for such a purpose, the provisions of Sections 145 and 161 of the Evidence Act, shall apply. AIR 1926 Lah 54 (59) = 26 Cri LJ 1308 (DB)  (1897) 19 All 390 (393) (FB).

(11) The Court can make use of the police diary of the counter case in the manner laid down in sub-section (2) of the section. AIR 1944 Cal 243 (244) = 46 Cri LJ 28 (DB).

(12) Section 172 does not give a Criminal Court an unfettered right to make use of a case diary. The words "if the Court uses them . . . . as the case may be, shall apply" show that without confronting the police officer who had prepared the case diary in terms of Section 161 of the Evidence Act, the case diary cannot be used. AIR 1958 All 1 (7) = 1958 Cri LJ 1.

(13) A party desiring to use, for purposes of corroboration or contradiction, the statement of a witness recorded by a police officer during the investigation of a crime, or the site plan or any other document prepared during the police investigation, or any fact noted in the case diary, has to apply to the Superintendent of Police for a copy of such statement, document or entry. SECTION 173 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. "Every investigation under this chapter."
3. "As soon as it is completed."
4. "The officer in charge of the police-station shall."
4A. Police reports and other reports under S. 173.
5. Report, to whom to be sent.
6. What the report should contain.
7. How the report can be used.
8. Right of accused to copy of report.
8A. Use of additional evidence after submission of report or charge-sheet.
9. Penalty for submitting an incorrect or false report.
10. Nature of order by Magistrate striking off case reported by police.
10A. Action by Magistrate on final report.
11. Discharge of accused — Sub-section (3).
12. Applicability of section to proceedings for offences under Acts other than Penal Code.
13. Nature of proceedings under the section.

1. Scope and object. — (1) Section 157 provides for a police-report as to information received about an offence, but before it is investigated. This section provides for a final report after completion of the investigation and showing the results of such investigation. AIR 1952 Him Pra 81 (87) = 1952 Cri LJ 1720  4 Low Bur Rul 137 (137, 138) = 7 Cri LJ 414  (1904) 1 Cri LJ 539 (540) = 1904 Upp Bur Rul (Ist Qr Cr PC) 4.

(3) Whenever it appears from a report forwarded under this section that the accused has been released on his bond, the Magistrate shall make such order for the discharge of such bond or otherwise as he thinks fit.

§[(4) After forwarding a report under this section, the officer in charge of the police station shall, before the commencement of the inquiry or trial, furnish or cause to be furnished to the accused, free of cost, a copy of the report forwarded under sub-sec. (1) and of the first information report recorded under Section 154 and of all other documents*† or relevant extracts thereof, on which the prosecution proposes to rely, including the statements and confessions, if any, recorded under Section 164 and the statements recorded under sub-section (3) of Section 161 of all the persons whom the prosecution proposes to examine as its witnesses:

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4), if the police-officer is of opinion that any part of any statement recorded under sub-section (3) of Section 161 is not relevant to the subject-matter of the inquiry or trial or that its disclosure to the accused is not essential in the interests of justice and is inexpedient in the public interests, he shall exclude such part from the copy of the statement furnished to the accused and in such a case, he shall make a report to the Magistrate stating his reasons for excluding such part:

[See also AIR 1952 Him Pra 68 (71) = 1952 Cri LJ 1495.]

(2) The practice of submitting a number of incomplete challans before a complete challan is forwarded to the Magistrate and Magistrate commencing inquiry or trial on foot of the incomplete challans and recording prosecution evidence piecemeal as the names of witnesses are disclosed in instalments in the various incomplete challans is against law as the section contemplates one police report and that when the investigation is completed. AIR 1952 Him Pra 81 (87) = 1952 Cri LJ 1720  AIR 1952 Him Pra 68 (71) = 1952 Cri LJ 1495.

(3) Though the incomplete challan has been held not be a police report within the meaning of this section, it was held to fall under Sec. 190 (1) (b) and it was held that the Magistrate was entitled to take cognizance of the case on such report. AIR 1952 Him Pra 81 (87) = 1952 Cri LJ 1720  AIR 1956 All 525 (Pr 8) = 1956 Cri LJ 1037 (DB).

(4) Magistrate's failure to take cognizance of the offence on the earlier report does not prevent his taking cognizance on the subsequent report. AIR 1956 All 525 (Pr 7) = 1956 Cri LJ 1037 (DB).

(5) It is only when the final report as contemplated under Sec. 173 it will be clear whether an offence has been committed or not. Till then, the Magistrate does not take cognizance. AIR 1956 Mad 392 (Prs 3, 4, 6) = 1956 Cri LJ 1000 (2).

[See also AIR 1957 Cal 379 (Prs 6, 8, 9, 11) = 1957 Cri LJ 713.]

(6) Till the final report under this section is made the investigation must be deemed to be pending and an informant cannot be prosecuted under Section 211 of the Penal Code. AIR 1915 Bom 80 (81) = 16 Cri LJ 161 (DB).

(7) The accused gave first information to police that a particular article was stolen from his shop and gave the names of the two complainants as suspected persons. The police applied to the Magistrate, for permission to keep the investigation on dormant file as they were unable to trace the offenders. The complainants thereupon filed a complaint against the accused under Section 500, Penal Code. It was held that the complaint could be entertained before the final report of the police is submitted under Section 173, Criminal P. C. AIR 1955 Sau 19 (20) = 1955 Cri LJ 259 (DB).

(8) The final report under this section is to be sent in the form prescribed by the State Government. Where the accused is sent up for trial the form of the report in some States is called the charge sheet. The report sent when the accused is not sent up is called the "final report" or "referred charge sheet." AIR 1932 Pat 72 (76) = 33 Cri LJ 349  (1897) 20 Mad 189 (194, 198, 205) (FB)  AIR 1932 Mad 673 (675) = 33 Cri LJ 785  AIR 1970 Pat 159 (161)  ILR (1962) Andh Pra 775 = 1963 (1) Cr LJ 108 (108, 109).

(9) A distinction is made between a charge sheet and a report under this section. According to it column 6 of the charge sheet contains the substance of the statements of the witnesses made before the police and this is not required to be stated in a report under this section. AIR 1951 Mys 106 (107) = ILR (1951) Mys 430 = 52 Cri LJ 1211 (DB).

(10) A Report under Section 173 is not a complaint. AIR 1956 Bom 414 (415) = 1956 Cri LJ 721 (DB)  AIR 1962 Raj 1 (2) = 1961 Raj LW 498 = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 80 (DB)  AIR 1960 Raj 150 (151) = 1960 Cri LJ 853 = 1960 Raj LW 42.

(11) No illegality is committed by an investigating officer in submitting a charge-sheet after previously submitting a final report. AIR 1956 All 525 (Pr 9)

Provided that at the commencement of the inquiry or trial, the Magistrate shall, after perusing the part so excluded and considering the report of the police officer, pass such orders as he thinks fit and if he so directs, a copy of the part so excluded or such portion thereof, as he thinks proper, shall be furnished to the accused.]

(15) Sections 170, 171 and 173 contemplate a simultaneous action. The accused should be forwarded after the officer-in-charge of a police station comes to the conclusion that there was sufficient evidence and also forward a report under Section 173. The Code thus contemplates filing of an additional or supplementary charge-sheet as is seen from cl. (2) of Section 173, under which a superior officer can order a further investigation. OBJECTS AND REASONS

1923.— ". . . . We think that the functions contemplated by Section 173 should be exercised by the officer in charge only. We have considered the objections raised to Clause (b) which the Bill adds to Section 173 (1). On the whole, we are in favour of retaining it. But we have introduced the words 'if any,' to meet the case where there is no informant." — S. C. R. (18 of 1923).

1955.— In respect of the amendment made by Act 26 of 1955, the Joint Committee observe: "Clause 23 — The Committee are not in agreement with the provisions made in this clause and have consequently recast it. They consider that it is very necessary, in order to give the accused all possible help in defending himself, that he should be aware of all the statements, reports, confessions, etc., before the commencement of the trial. The Committee also consider that supply of such documents to the accused should be free of charge. It has also been provided that if the police officer thinks that the disclosure to the accused of any part of any statement recorded under sub-section (3) of Section 161 is inexpedient in the public interest and is not essential in the interests of justice, he may exclude such part from the copy of the statement furnished to the accused. But, in such a case, the police officer shall make a report to the Magistrate drawing his attention to the parts so excluded. At the commencement of the inquiry or trial the Magistrate shall consider whether the police officer was justified in excluding the part from the copy supplied to the accused and he may, if he thinks fit, direct the part so excluded to be supplied to the accused."— J. (2) Where Police Officer concludes that investigation does not disclose an offence, he has to submit a report in prescribed form asking for (A) or (B) or (C) summary as the case may be. 1967 (8) Guj LR 350 (353) (DB).

(3) First Information Report disclosing a cognizable case against 6 persons — Police filing charge-sheet against one of them only — No summary regarding others submitted — Non-inclusion of certain eye-witnesses in the charge-sheet — Held, provisions contravened. 1967 (8) Guj LR 350 (352) (DB).

(4) The report should be sent in the form prescribed by the State Government. It should contain the names of the parties, the nature of the information received, names of persons who appear to be acquainted with the facts of the case and state whether the accused (if arrested) have been forwarded in custody or have been released on bail. (5) Where Investigating officer examines witnesses and reduces their statements into writing, if he wishes to examine any one of them, he has to mention their names in the charge-sheet and supply the accused with a copy of their statements. ILR (1959) 2 Assam 470 (472).

(6) Where the first report made by the police to the Magistrate, though called incomplete challan, contains all the particulars required by the section and a second report, called a supplementary challan, is filed subsequently, giving the names of certain witnesses who are merely formal witnesses, the first report is the complete report as required by sub-section (1) (a) and is not vitiated by the mere fact that a supplementary challan is subsequently filed. AIR 1951 SC 441 (442, 443) = 1951 SCR 729 = 52 Cri L Jour 1491.

(7) Where instead of giving the nature of the information and the facts constituting the offence, merely the sections of the Penal Code were mentioned, it was held that the provisions of this section were not complied with. AIR 1930 Bom 372 (373) = 31 Cri L Jour 1142 (DB)  AIR 1955 Bhopal 20 (21) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1561.

(8) Where the charge sheet merely referred to the first information report but did not conform to the provisions of Section 173 (1) (a), it was held that the Magistrate acted illegally in taking cognizance on such a defective charge-sheet. AIR 1952 Tripura 14 (15) = 1952 Cri L Jour 1405.

(9) Where the report not only refers to the first information report but also mentions that the information is found to be true upon investigation, the Magistrate can take cognizance of the case upon it. AIR 1956 All 525 (527) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1037 (DB).

(10) It is not necessary to give the abstract of the evidence taken by the police during the investigation. AIR 1930 Mad 191 (191) = 31 Cri L Jour 387.

(11) According to the undermentioned Mysore case which makes a distinction between a charge sheet and a police report, the former contains, in its column 6, the substance of the statements of the witnesses made before the police, which is not required to be stated in the police report. AIR 1951 Mys 106 (107) = ILR (1951) Mys 430 = 52 Cri L Jour 1211 (DB).

(12) It is also not necessary to produce along with the report all the documents on which reliance is to be placed at the trial and the accused is not entitled to insist on the production of such documents before the trial starts. AIR 1937 Lah 411 (415) = 38 Cri L Jour 955.

(13) It is not essential that the charge-sheet should give a full and detailed description of the place where the offence was committed. Therefore, the vague description of the scene of the offence in the charge-sheet does not introduce an infirmity in the trial. AIR 1956 Bom 195 (195) = 1956 Cri L Jour 481 (DB).

(14) It is not every communication from the police that will be a report under this section; the section contemplates a report after an investigation of a case. (1871) 8 Bom HCR (Cr) 113 (115)  (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 752 (753) = 6 Sind LR 82 (DB).

(15) Documents of investigation and the like which are to form part of judicial record later on should never be prepared in pencil. They should always be in ink and should be legible. AIR 1954 Manipur 6 (Pr 28) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1329.

(16) Where a charge-sheet in the form of final police-report is filed after investigation into a cognizable offence registered under Section 420, I. P. C., but it relates to two offences namely under Section 420 and Section 294-A, I. P. C., the charge sheet cannot be regarded as a complaint required by Section 196. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 987 (Pr 10) = 1957 Cri L Jour 1389.

(17) Where during the investigation of a cognizable offence about which an information is given to the police, the police officer investigates any subsidiary and non-cognizable offence which arises out of the facts, he can include those latter cases in his main report under this section. AIR 1958 Punj 172 (Prs 6, 7, 10) = ILR (1957) Punj 2021 = 1958 Cri L Jour 683.

(17-A) The police officer will be competent to include the offence under Section 7, Essential Commodities Act, though non-cognizable, in the charge sheet under Section 173 with respect to a cognizable offence, i. e., Section 420, I. P. C.. AIR 1965 SC 1185 (1186, 1187) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 250.

(18) Report under Section 173 by police after investigation in respect of offences, some cognizable and some non-cognizable — Permission to investigate non-cognizable not obtained — Permission not necessary — Decision by Magistrate to follow procedure under Sec. 252 is erroneous — Proper procedure is that applicable to case instituted on police report. 1963 Raj LW 206 (207).

(19) Report of police relating to cognizable as well as non-cognizable offences — Section 156 and not Sec. 155 (2) is applicable — Report by police after investigation is one under Sec. 173 — Procedure prescribed by Sec. 207-A inapplicable for trial. 1963 Raj LW 212 (213).

(21) The charge-sheet is not a complete or accurate thesis of the prosecution case. AIR 1962 SC 1821 (1876) = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 805 = (1963) 1 SCR 253.

(22) Non-compliance with Secs. 173 and 190, Criminal P. 7. How the report can be used. — (1) The report of the police-officer is not per se legal evidence of the facts stated therein. (1969) 12 Suth WR (Cr) 60 (63) (FB).

(2) The report can be used to suggest means of further elucidating points which need clearing up. AIR 1925 Pat 165 (167) = 25 Cri L Jour 1266.

(3) It is improper and illegal for a Magistrate to draw material for a conviction from the report of the investigating officer when he has not been examined as a witness. AIR 1927 Pat 37 (38) = 27 Cri L Jour 1112.

(4) The police-report can be used by the Magistrate "as credible information" under Section 5 of the Public Gambling Act (3 of 1867) for issuing a warrant of arrest. (1913) 14 Cri L Jour 293 (295) = 9 Nag LR 68.

(5) It can be used as the basis for issuing a search warrant. 1897 Cr Rg 40.

(6) When the police sent a report to the Magistrate under this section that an information as to an alleged theft was groundless, it was held that merely on this report and without a formal complaint the informant could not be prosecuted under Section 182 of the Penal Code. (1802) 6 Oudh Cas 1 (7) (DB).

(7) A committing Magistrate is not justified in making a commitment on the basis of Police record under Sec. 173 without taking any evidence whatsoever. AIR 1957 Madh B 7 (Prs 1, 8) = 1957 Cri L Jour 64.

[But see AIR 1965 Orissa 214 (214, 215) = 31 Cut LT 1069 = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 792.]

(8) There is nothing illegal in committing the accused solely on the basis of the documents referred to in the section when on the side of the prosecution there is no evidence as to the actual commission of the offence. AIR 1957 Mys 5 (Prs 7, 8) = ILR (1956) Mys 255 = 1957 Cri L Jour 76 (DB)  AIR 1962 Guj 1 (4) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 26 = (1961) 2 Guj LR 582 (DB).

(9) Case on circumstantial evidence — Evidence not recorded under Sec. 207-A (4) — Magistrate questioning accused on documents produced under Section 173 — No error of law. AIR 1963 Ker 85 (85) = 1962 Ker LJ 718 (DB).

(10) The examination of the accused under Section 251-A must necessarily be with regard to the material against him in the documents referred to in this section. But the answers do not constitute any evidence either for or against him, consequently he cannot be convicted on the basis of these answers. AIR 1958 Madh Pra 99 (Pr 3) = 1958 Cri L Jour 522 (DB).

(11) Prosecution and accused can rely on or refer to documents mentioned in this section in support of their contention of being heard under Section 251-A (2) and (3). AIR 1968 Mad 117 (122, 123) = 1968 Cri LJ 493 = (1968) 1 Mad LJ 480.

tion, demands a judicial investigation into the truth of the charge made by him, during the pendency of such judicial investigation, a prosecution against him on the supposition that the charge made by him is false, is unjustified. 1959 All WR (Sup) 12 (13).

(13) Police report disclosing offence — Magistrate can look into police diaries but cannot take cognizance of offence upon police diaries alone, independently of final report. AIR 1962 Cal 135 (145, 146) = 66 Cal WN 697 = (1962) 1 Cri LJ 285 (FB).

(14) Preliminary report by police against some persons — Case registered and Magistrate issuing orders to enable further investigation by police — Final report submitted leaving out three persons — Magistrate takes cognizance only on second report — Procedure held not illegal. AIR 1966 Andh Pra 377 (379, 380) = (1966) 1 Andh WR 76 = 1966 Cri LJ 1377 (DB).

(15) In a case instituted on a police report, there is no provision for examination of a witness before making an order under Section 251-A (2) discharging an accused or under Section 251-A (3) framing charge. AIR 1968 Mad 117 (132) = 1968 Cri LJ 493 = (1968) 1 Mad LJ 480 (DB).

8. Right of accused to copy of report. — (1) Section 173 (4) and Section 207-A (3) have been introduced by the amending Act of 1955, in order to simplify the procedure in respect of inquiries leading upto a Sessions trial, and at the same time, to safeguard the interests of accused persons. AIR 1957 SC 737 (Pr 10) = 1958 SCR 283 =1957 Cri LJ 1320  (1962) 66 Cal WN 1040 (1042) (DB)  AIR 1960 Andh Pra 253 (255) = (1959) 2 Andh WR 249 = 1960 Cri LJ 561.

(2) Section 173 (4) is purely procedural and only directory. It does not enact any fundamental principle of criminal jurisprudence. AIR 1966 Bom 253 (258, 259).

(3) Granting of copies is to enable the accused to have all round picture of the case against him and to enable him to cross-examine the witnesses. This is intended for expeditious and speedy disposal of cases. (4) The object of Sections 162, 173 (4) and 207 (3) is to enable the accused to obtain a clear picture of the case against him before the commencement of the enquiry. AIR 1964 SC 286 (291) = (1964) 1 Cri LJ 167 = (1964) 4 SCR 521.

(5) Section 173 (4) enumerates the documents copies of which need be furnished to the accused. These documents refer to those on which the prosecution proposes to rely. AIR 1958 Cal 709 (Pr 6) = 1958 Cri LJ 1480  AIR 1957 SC 623 (Pr 10) = ILR (1957) Punj 1668 = 1957 Cri LJ 1009. (Object is to put the accused on notice of what he has to meet at the time of the inquiry or trial.)

(6) The right to obtain copies under Section 173 cannot relate to a non-cognizable case which has not been the subject-matter of any investigation at all but for which the accused is being tried AIR 1957 Raj 185 (Pr 8) = ILR (1957) 7 Raj 693  1970 Cri LJ 553 (556) (Punj).

(7) The accused can always bring it to the notice of the Magistrate even in a summons case that the provision in Section 173 has not been complied with and it would then be the duty of the Magistrate to see that it is complied with before proceeding further with the case. AIR 1959 Mad 405 (Prs 5, 6) = 1959 Cri LJ 1092  1962 (2) Cr LJ 590 (592) (Tripura).

(8) Investigation made by more than one police officer — Statement of witnesses recorded by every one of such officer — Copies of all statements should be supplied to accused. 1962 (2) Cr LJ 590 (592) (Tripura).

(9) The clause governs all criminal cases irrespective of the fact whether they are summons or warrant cases. 1957 Cri LJ 188 (Pr 4) (Madh B).

(10) The court cannot refuse to grant copies on any grounds other than those mentioned in Cl. (5). AIR 1957 Mad 508 (Prs 4, 5) = ILR (1957) Mad 482 = 1957 Cri LJ 866 (DB).

(11) Copies are to be supplied free of costs to the accused. AIR 1957 Mad 466 (Prs 3, 4) = ILR (1957) Mad 519 = 1957 Cri LJ 859  AIR 1959 Bom 314 (Pr 4) = ILR (1959) Bom 340 = 1959 Cri LJ 959.

(12) The stage at which the documents mentioned in the clause should be furnished to the accused, is laid down in Section 173, clause (4) and in sub-section (3) of Section 207-A with regard to committal cases and in Section 251-A with regard to warrant cases. Section 173 (4) also says that they must be furnished before the commencement of enquiry or trial. AIR 1957 Mad 508 (Prs 4, 5) = ILR (1957) Mad 482 = 1957 Cri LJ 866 (DB). (13) Both Section 207-A and Section 251-A are subject to Section 173. If the copies of F. I. R. and the Station Diary

Entry are not furnished to the accused, the Magistrate shall cause the same to be furnished by virtue of S. 207-A and S. 251-A, these can be supplied during the enquiry or the trial and not necessarily before the enquiry or trial. (1959) 25 Cut LT 216 (226) (DB)  ILR (1967) 2 Punj 103.

(14) If in the course of the trial the prosecution feels that it is necessary to file additional documents or statements of witnesses on whom they propose to rely, the section does not prevent them from filing the same. But copies of such documents must be given in advance to the accused. In case of refusal by accused to receive same, he cannot later on complaint about their non-receipt. (15) There is no obligation cast on the prosecution to furnish a copy of the report of the 'Chemical Examiner to the accused except when the report is received by the Court either during the course of the enquiry or after committal. AIR 1957 Mad 508 (Pr 6) = ILR (1957) Mad 482 = 1957 Cri LJ 866 (DB).

(16) It would not be a sufficient compliance with the provisions of Section 173 (4) if only the English translation of the statements recorded in Tamil of the witnesses under sub-section (3) of Section 161 is furnished to the accused. AIR 1957 Mad 508 (Prs 7, 9) = ILR (1957) Mad 482 = 1957 Cri LJ 866 (DB).

(17) Expression "all the documents referred to in Section 173" means original documents and not their copies. Magistrate must refer to the, original documents. (1962) 3 Guj LR 700 (700) (DB).

(18) Police producing before Courts typed copies of statements of witnesses recorded by them under section and accused also furnished with such copies — Original handwritten statements not available — Prosecution evidence should be scrutinised with greater care. (1964) 1 Mys LJ 393 (396, 397, 398) (DB).

(19) Where statements of witnesses under Section 161 (3) are originally recorded in Tamil, but the accused is supplied before the commencement of the trial with copies of the English translation of statements as recorded in the case diary in pursuance of the prevalent practice and it transpires at the trial that the statements originally recorded are available, then in the interest of justice it is the duty of the Court to see that copies of these statemens are furnished to the accused. AIR 1958 Mad 143 (Pr 1) = 1958 Cri LJ 392.

(20) Clause (4) does not say that the accused should be given copies of statements in connected cases. AIR 1957 SC 623 (Pr 11) = ILR (1957) Punj 1668 = 1957 Cri LJ 1009.

(21) Under Section 173 (4), the prosecution is not prevented from calling any witness at the trial who has not been examined by the police or whose statement has not been recorded by them under Section 161 of the Code. AIR 1958 Cal 311 (Pr 3) = 1958 Cri LJ 863  1959-2 Andh WR 249 (252).

(22) There is nothing in the law that prevents the prosecution from producing or the Court from examining, as a witness in the case, a person whose name has not been included in the report made or whose statement has not been furnished. (23) Section 174 (4) has not been given a retrospective effect and its violation cannot affect the validity of the trial when the stage at which the report of the police to the Magistrate had to be sent had long ago passed. AIR 1957 SC 623 (Pr 12) = ILR (1957) Punj 1668 = 1957 Cri LJ 1009.

(24) Non-compliance with the provisions of clause (4) has not the result of vitiating those proceedings and subsequent trial. The word "shall" occurring both in sub-section (4) of Section 173 and sub-section (3) of Section 207-A, is not mandatory but only directory in case of prejudice to the accused, in the interest of justice, the Court may reopen the proceedings by insisting upon full compliance with the provisions of the Code. AIR 1957 SC 737 (Pr 10) = 1958 SCR 283 = 1957 Cri LJ 1320  AIR 1959 Bom 314 (Pr 4) = ILR (1959) Bom 340 = 1959 Cri LJ 959  AIR 1959 Him Pra 3 (Pr 10) = 1959 Cri LJ 448  1962 All Cri R 188 = 1962 (2) Cr LJ 560 (561) (Mysore).

(25) Non-supply of copies of statements — Effect.

(a) Before a trial can be held to be vitiated on the ground of non-compliance with Section 173 (4) the accused must show that its non-observance has prejudiced him and it has resulted in failure of justice. The irregularity does not per se vitiate the trial. Further, the non-supply of the copy of the previous statement may seriously reduce

(f) Copies of photo prints of documents used for handwriting expert not supplied to accused — No prejudice caused — Evidence of expert cannot be rejected. ILR (1962) 1 All 451 (547, 548).

(g) Sessions case — Statements of witnesses recorded by investigating officer under Section 161— Failure to supply copies of such statements to accused — Trial not vitiated, in absence of prejudice caused to accused by reason of such breach. AIR 1964 SC 286 (294) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 167 = (1964) 4 SCR 521.

(h) Offence under Section 289, Penal Code — Chapter XIV, Criminal P. C. applies — Copies of record under Section 173, Criminal P. C. not supplied — Objection by accused towards end of trial — Accused should be allowed at least to go through record. AIR 1960 Cal 158 (159) = 1960 Cri LJ 335.

(i) In absence of complaint from accused that Magistrate had not made enquiries from accused about supply of copies, presumption is that Magistrate has followed the procedure as required and satisfied himself that accused had received the copies. AIR 1966 Guj 217 = (1966) 7 Guj LR 829 = 1966 Cri LJ 990.

(j) Provision under Section 173, though of great importance, its breach must be viewed in the light of the prejudice caused to the accused thereby. AIR 1967 Manipur 11 (22, 23) = 1967 Cri LJ 1023.

(26) Clause (4) has nothing to do with the examination of witnesses in the committal Court. The relevant section applicable is Section 207-A (4). Under it the prosecution is not obliged to examine witnesses produced by the prosecution as witnesses to the actual commission of the offence. AIR 1958 Mad 135 (Prs 6, 7) = 1958 Cri LJ 388 (DB).

(27) Section 173 (4) has no application to a departmental inquiry started against a Government servant even if the inquiry were held to be of a criminal nature. The Inquiry officer is not bound to see that the provisions of Section 173 (4) are observed. The contravention of its provisions does not necessarily vitiate it. (13) Investigation by officer under Prevention of Corruption Act, 1947 — Officer not empowered under Section 5-A, Prevention of Corruption Act — Investigation illegal — Accused not entitled to copies of statements recorded in illegal investigation. AIR 1969 All 503 (504) = 1969 Cri LJ 1217 = 1968 All Cri R 354.

(14) Offence of bribery triable exclusively by Special Judge — Final report under Section 173, can be accepted by District Magistrate. AIR 1960 All 618 (622) = ILR (1960) 1 All 214 = 1960 Cri LJ 1290 (DB).

(15) The report of a police officer investigating a prohibition offence will fall not under Section 48 of the Madras Prohibition Act but under Section 173, Cri. P. C. 1960 Mad WN 317 (320) (DB).

13. Nature of proceedings under the section. — (1) Proceedings by Magistrate under Sections 167 and 173 are judicial. AIR 1969 Andh Pra 281 (291) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 122 = 1969 Cri LJ 1025 (DB).

(2) The commitment of a case to the Court of Session for trial without recording any evidence is not illegal unless from the commitment order it appears that the Magistrate had not perused the documents referred to in Section 173, Criminal P. C. AIR 1960 All 236 (238) = 1960 Cr LJ 447 = 1959 All LJ 838. (AIR 1956 Raj 318, Dissent from.)

(3) Police submitting report under Section 169 — Magistrate commits irregularity in calling for charge-sheet — Irregularity does not vitiate trial in absence of proof of miscarriage of justice. 1969 Cr LJ 1307 (1309) = 35 Cut LT 381.

(4) Under Section 173, Cr. P. Code it is open to the Magistrate to accept the police report or not. If he accepts it, then he is to cancel the case. But, if he does not, all that he can do is to make a notice that he does not accept the police report. AIR 1968 Manipur 29 (30) = 1968 Cr LJ 191.

(5) False information to Police — Case concelled on final report from Police — Magistrate in accepting such report does not act as Court — Prosecution of informant under Section 211, I. P. C. is not in relation to proceedings before Court. AIR 1961 Raj 231 (232, 233) = 1961 Raj LW 6 = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 691.

(6) Order directing submission of charge-sheet — Whether a judicial order or an administrative order (Quaere). AIR 1965 Orissa 135 (136) = 31 Cut LT 282 = (1965) 2 Cri LJ 111.

shall immediately give intimation thereof to the nearest Magistrate empowered to hold inquests, and, unless otherwise directed by any rule prescribed by the °[State Government], or by any general or special order of the District or Sub-Divisional Magistrate, shall proceed to the place where the body of such deceased person is, and there, in the presence of two or more respectable inhabitants of the neighbourhood, shall make an investigation, and draw up a report of the apparent cause of death, describing such wounds, fractures, bruises and other marks of injury as may be found on the body, and stating in what manner, or by what weapon or instrument (if any), such marks appear to have been inflicted.

(2) The report shall be signed by such police-officer and other persons, or by so many of them as concur therein, and shall be forthwith forwarded to the District Magistrate or the Sub-Divisional Magistrate.

(3) When there is any doubt regarding the cause of death, or when for any other reason the police-officer considers it expedient so to do, he shall, subject to such rules as the °[State Government] may prescribe in this behalf, forward the body, with a view to its being examined, to the nearest Civil Surgeon, or other qualified medical man appointed in this behalf by the °[State Government], if the state of the weather and the distance admit of its being so forwarded without risk of such putrefaction on the road as would render such examination useless.

(4) In the Presidencies of Fort St. George‡ and Bombay,§ investigations under this section may be made by the head of the village, who shall then report the result to the nearest Magistrate authorised to hold inquests.

Section 174 — Synopsis (contd.)

13. Inquest by Magistrate — Sub-section (5).
14. Coroners' inquest in the Presidency towns of Madras and Bombay.
15. Articles recovered from or near corpse — Disposal of.

1. Object. — (1) The object of this section is merely to ascertain the cause of death; hence the inquiry under this section should be confined to that purpose only and should not be extended for the purpose of finding out the persons who caused the death. AIR 1940 Lah 210 (214) = 41 Cri LJ 639.

2. Some other officer specially empowered.— (1) Act 8 of 1867 of Bombay relating to police-patels remains unaffected except where the Code contains a specific provision to the contrary. (1894) 19 Bom 612 (613) (DB)  1895 Rat 740 (744) (DB)  1895 Rat 792 (792) (DB).

(2) A police constable in Bombay cannot hold the inquest as a police-patel. He has to proceed under this section. 1895 Rat 771 (772) (DB).

3. "Shall proceed to the place where the body of such deceased person is." — (1) This section is inapplicable where the dead body is not available, e.g., where it has been burnt or disposed of long ago. It is intended to be applied to cases in which an inquest is necessary. (1908) 9 Cri LJ 105 (106) = 1908 Pun Re (Cr) No. 27 (DB).

4. "In the presence of two or more respectable inhabitants." — (1) Failure to examine at the trial, persons who have witnessed the inquest proceedings, may be a ground for criticising the prosecution evidence in a case. (1909) 10 Cri LJ 321 (323) (DB) (Lah).

(2) Failure to comply with the mandatory provisions in Section 174 (1) which requires the presence of two or more respectable inhabitants of the neighbourhood discredits the report of the Police. AIR 1954 Trav-Co 282 (285) = ILR (1953) Trav-Co 841 = 1954 Cri LJ 658 (DB).

(3) A witness to the inquest is not competent to act as Juror in a case in which the inquest was made. AIR 1962 Cal 449 (453) = 67 Cal WN 221 = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 336 (DB).

4A. Investigation under this section. — (1) Maintaining of case diary not obligatory — Assuming failure amounts to illegality, trial not vitiated in absence of prejudice. AIR 1968 Bom 127 (145) = 68 Bom LR 941 = 1968 Cri LJ 453. (Two categories of investigations have been contemplated under Chapter XIV, Cr. P. C. The first category begins with information in cognizable cases and it ends with charge-sheet under Section 173, Cr. P. C. Sections 174 and 175 lay down complete procedure by itself for purpose of investigation which starts on information relating to suicide. etc. Overruled on another point in AIR 1969 Bom 294 (FB).)

(2) It is neither necessary that all eyewitnesses should be examined at the inquest nor is it incumbent on the Police Officer to record verbatim and separately the statements of each of the persons examined by him under Section 175, Cr. P. Code and investigation under S. 174, Cr. P. Code should not be confounded or

(5) The following Magistrates are empowered to hold inquests,°† namely, any District Magistrate, †[Sub-divisional Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class]; and any Magistrate especially empowered in this behalf by the °[State Government] or the District Magistrate.

[°‡] Salaried Magisrate for the City of Ahmedabad have been invested with powers to hold inquests under this section — See Guj. Gaz., 9-11-1961, Pt. IV-A, p. 286.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Andhra Pradesh

(1) Andhra Area — In its application to the Andhra area of the State of Andhra Pradesh in sub-section (4) of Section 174 after the word "Bombay" insert the words "and in the State of Andhra as it existed immediately before the 1st November, 1956."—An. A. L. O., 1953 and Andhra Pradesh A. L. O., 1957.

(2) Added Territories. — In its application to the territories added under Sec. 3 (a) of Central Act LVI of 1959, the amendments made in Section 174 by Madras Act XXXI of 1956 shall stand repealed. — Andhra Pradesh A. L. O., 1961 (w. r. e. f. 1-4-1960).

Section 174 — Note 4-A (contd.) equated with an investigation into a cognizable offence which is governed by provisions of Sections 160 and 161, Cr. P. Code. (1970) 1 An WR 182 (188). (But if there are police standing orders for recording the statement, they should be followed.)

5. "Draw up a report." — (1) The report under this section should contain the statements of the persons examined by the Police. There is nothing in the Code which prevents statements made at the inquest being recorded in full. On the other hand, such statements will be of great use to test the value of the evidence in Court. (1911) 12 Cri LJ 124 (125) (DB) (Mad).

(2) The statements cannot be used as substantive evidence. AIR 1952 Trav-Co 300 (Pr 10) = ILR (1952) Trav-Co 261= 1952 Cri LJ 1290 (DB).

(3) Sub-section (1) directs only police-officers to draw up and forward the report. A Magistrate holding an inquest under sub-section (5) is not bound to report to anyone else. But in case he sends a report, it cannot be treated as a finding in a judicial proceeding and is not open to revision by the High Court. (1878) 3 Cal 742 (752, 753) (DB).

[But see AIR 1940 Rang 68 (70) = 41 Cri LJ 470 (DB).]

(4) The statements of witnesses given before the Police holding the inquest fall within the purview of Section 162 which requires that such statements shall not be signed by the deponent. AIR 1954 Trav-Co 282 (285) = ILR (1953) Trav-Co 841 = 1954 Cri LJ 658 (DB)  AIR 1955 Pepsu 81 (85) = ILR (1954) Patiala 352 = 1955 Cri LJ 983 (DB)  AIR 1955 Trav-Co 6 (7) = ILR (1954) Trav-Co 1200 = 1955 Cri LJ 122 (DB).

(5) An inquest report is not a statement made by any person within the meaning of Section 180 of the Penal Code and a refusal by a person examined at the inquest to sign it is not an offence. (1910) 11 Cri LJ 500 (500) (Mad)

(6) The village-headman acting under sub-section (4) has only the powers of a police-officer specified herein. (1910) 11 Cri LJ 500 (500) (Mad).

6. Form of inquest reports. — (1) This section does not require a statement to be entered in the form as to who killed the deceased person. 1896 Rat 843 (843, 844) (DB)  (1968) 2 SCWR 245 (247).

(2) The panchanama prepared by the police should not contain any incriminating statements made by the accused in the presence of the police. AIR 1950 Sau 2 (5) = 3 Sau LR 114 (DB).

(3) The inquest report is a document of vital importance and has to be prepared promptly because it has to be sent to the doctor along with the dead body sent for post-mortem examination. (1963) 65 Pun LR 409 (413).

7. Inquest report — Admissibility of.— (1) The report requires to be legally proved for it does not prove itself. (1905) 3 Cri LJ 41 (42) (DB) (Bom) **

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, the amendment made in Section 174 is the same as that made in Maharashtra. — See Cent. Act XI of 1960, Section 87.

Note: For appointment of an Executive Magistrate in the City of Ahmedabad, see Gujarat Act XIX of 1961, Section 14 (3A), as inserted by Gujarat Act II of 1963.

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in sub-section (5) of Section 174 for the words "or Magistrate of the first class and any Magistrate" substitute the words "or any Executive Magistrate." — Bom. Act XXIII of 1951, Section 2 and Schedule. (1-7-1953).

(2) After the re-organization of the State of Bombay in 1956, the amendment made in Section 174 by the above mentioned Bombay Act is extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959 by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

Punjab; Haryana; Chandigarh:

In its application to the States of Punjab and Haryana and the Union Territory of Chandigarh, in sub-section (5) of Section 174, for the words "Magistrate of the first AIR 1952 Hyd 55 (Pr 11) = 1952 Cri LJ 572 (DB).

(2) It is questionable how far an inquest report is admissible except under Section 145, Evidence Act. AIR 1955 SC 216 (220) = 1955 Cri LJ 572 = 1955 SCR 1083.

(3) It is not correct to say that in the face of the medical evidence the mention of injuries in the inquest report cannot prevail. If the investigation officer has stated a fact which he saw with his own eyes, it cannot be said that it should not be read in corroboration of the evidence of the eye-witnesses. AIR 1957 Raj 331 (Pr 13) = 1957 Cri LJ 1187.

(4) Statements contained in the Inquest Report are not substantive evidence and ought not to be relied upon to arrive at a conclusion. AIR 1957 Orissa 216 (Pr 6) = 1957 Cri LJ 1152 (DB)  AIR 1952 Trav-Co 300 (Pr 10) = ILR (1952) Trav-Co 261 = 1952 Cri LJ 1290 (DB).

8. When there is any doubt, etc. — Sub-section (3). — (1) Failure to carry out the directions laid down under this section by a police officer knowing that he would thereby be saving some one from legal punishment is an offence under Section 217 or Section 218 of the Penal Code. AIR 1932 Cal 850 (855) = 33 Cri LJ 657 (DB).

9. "Forward the body." — (1) It is essential in a trial for murder that proof should be adduced of the fact that the same body over which the inquest was held was forwarded and examined by the medical officer. (1874) 11 Bom HCR 242 (243) (DB).

10. Post mortem examination. — (1) The medical officer must note the time when he conducted the examination. AIR 1931 Oudh 119 (120) = 32 Cri LJ 697 (DB).

(2) Considering the important nature of the evidence which is generally supplied by the results of such examination, the result of the observation, external and internal should be fully recorded. (1911) 12 Cri LJ 124 (125) (DB) (Mad).

(3-4) The post mortem examination is a very important piece of evidence in criminal trials, and the medical officers, who are entrusted with this work should do it with utmost care and attention and should not perform it as a mere formal duty. AIR 1955 All 189 (191) = 1955 Cri LJ 473 (DB).

(5) The post mortem report should mention whether the injuries are ante mortem or post mortem. AIR 1957 Orissa 216 (Pr 6) = 1957 Cri LJ 1152 (DB).

(6) The report of the medical officer is not admissible in evidence except for the purpose of contradicting the officer who made it or to refresh his memory under the provisions of Sections 159 to 161 of the Evidence Act. AIR 1930 Sind 225 (236) = 31 Cri LJ 1026 (DB)  (1902) 6 Cal WN 98 (101) (DB).

(7) When the medical officer is not examined at the beginning of the enquiry, a copy of the post mortem certificate ought to be given to the accused. AIR 1927 Mad 512 (512) = 28 Cri LJ 463.

11. Confessions by the accused at the inquest. — (1) Confessions made by an accused and recorded in the panchanamas in the presence of the police-officers must be excluded as inadmissible. Rajasthan

Abu Area. — In its application to the Abu area of the State of Rajasthan, the amendment made in Section 174 was the same as that made in (1) of Maharashtra. — Cent. Act XXXVII of 1956, Section 119. (1-11-1956).

Tamil Nadu

(1) In its application to the pre-reorganization State of Madras, in Section 174 —

(i) in sub-section (2) add at the end the words "or, as the case may be, to the Chief Presidency Magistrate in the Presidency-town of Madras"; and

(ii) in sub-section (5) for the words "and any Magistrate." substitute the words "any Presidency Magistrate and any Magistrate." — Mad. Act XXXI of 1956, Section 2 (31-12-1956): Tamil Nadu A. L. O., 1969.

(2) Transferred Territories. — In its application to Kanyakumari district and Shenkottah taluk transferred to the State of Madras under Section 4 of the State Reorganization Act, 1956 the amendments made in Section 174 by Madras Act XXXI of 1956 are extended as from 18-12-1957 by Mad. Act XXII of 1957.

(3) Added Territories. — In its application to the territories added to the State of Madras under Section 3 (b) of Cent. Act LVI of 1959—

(a) the words "and in the State of Andhra as it existed immediately before the 1st November, 1956" added in Section 174 (4) by Andh. Pra. A. L. O., are omitted; — T. N. (Add. Ter.) A. L. O., 1961 (w. r. e. f.) (1-4-1960); Tamil Nadu A. L. O., 1969.

(b) the amendments made in Section 174 by Madras Act XXXI of 1956 are extended as from 6-12-1961 by Mad. Act XXXIX of 1961.

(4) In its application to the area comprised within the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Madras, Section 174 shall be read as follows, namely:—

AIR 1952 Trav-Co 300 (Pr 10) = ILR (1952) Trav-Co 261 = 1952 Cri L Jour 1290 (DB).

12. False statement by witness at inquest. — (1) Statements made in the course of an investigation under Chapter XIV are not "charges" as contemplated by Section 211 of the Penal Code. It would make criminal investigation very difficult if any persons who gave voice to a suspicion were rendered liable to criminal prosecution. AIR 1932 Mad 24 (24) = 33 Cri L Jour 173.

(2) The fact that a person accuses another falsely of murder in the course of an investigation under this section is not an offence under Section 194 of the Penal Code even when he volunteers the information. AIR 1922 Lah 133 (133, 134) = 23 Cri L Jour 82.

See also Section 161.

(3) Where a person makes contradictory statements, one before a police-officer under this section and another before the Magistrate in the course of the enquiry, he will be guilty of an offence under Section 193 of the Penal Code. (1909) 9 Cri L Jour 304 (305) (DB) (Mad).

13. Inquest by Magistrate — Sub-section (5). — (1) The investigation by Magistrate under this section is distinct from an enquiry under Section 202. AIR 1927 Lah 30 (31) = 28 Cri L Jour 26.

14. Coroners' inquest in the Presidency Towns of Madras and Bombay. — (1) The Coroners Act, 4 of 1871, empowers the Coroner to hold an inquest in the Cities of Bombay and Calcutta. It does not, however, take away the right of the Presidency Magistrate to investigate into the crime independently. (1892) 16 Bom 159 (161) (DB).

15. Articles recovered from or near corpse — Disposal of. — (1) Where articles are recovered from or near the corpse of the deceased it is the duty of the police to send them to the malkhana in sealed cover with contents noted above. Otherwise no reliance can be placed upon evidence furnished by recovery of these things. AIR 1949 All 291 (296) = ILR (1949) All 658 = 50 Cri L Jour 498.

174. Enquiry into violent or suspicious death to be ordinarily conducted by officer in charge of police station. — (1) An officer in charge of a police station, on receiving information that a person —

(a) has committed suicide, or

(b) has been killed by another, or by an animal, or by machinery, or by an accident, or

(c) has died under circumstances raising a reasonable suspicion that some other person has committed an offence, shall immediately give information thereof to the Commissioner of Police, and, in the absence of any rule or order under the next following section to the contrary, proceed to the place where the body of such deceased person is, and there, in the presence of five or more respectable inhabitants of the neighbourhood, make an investigation, and draw up a report of the apparent cause of death, describing such wounds, fractures, bruises and other marks of injury as may be found on the body, and stating in what manner, or by what weapon or instrument (if any), such marks appear to have been inflicted.

(2) The report shall be signed by such police officer and other persons, or by so many of them as concur therein, and shall be forthwith forwarded to the office of the Commissioner of Police.

(3) In any of the following cases, namely:—

(a) in any case in which the Local Government may by rule so require,

(b) in any case in which death appears to have been caused by violence, or there is any doubt regarding the cause of death,

(c) in any other case in which the police-officer considers it expedient so to do,

he shall cause the body to be examined by a medical officer appointed in this behalf by the Local Government.

(4) The police-officer may, by order in writing, summon five or more persons as aforesaid for the purpose of the investigation under this section, and any other person who appears to be acquainted with the facts of the case. Every person so summoned shall be bound to attend and to answer truly all questions other than questions the answers to which would have a tendency to expose him to a criminal charge or to a penalty or forfeiture.

(5) If the facts do not disclose a cognizable offence to which Section 170 applies, such persons shall not be required by the police-officer to attend a Magistrate's Court". — See Coroners (Madras) Act, 1889 (V of 1889), Section 4 (2) (Repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1938 (I of 1938).)

(5) In sub-section (4) for "Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay", substitute, "State of Tamil Nadu and the Presidency of Bombay." — T. N. A. L. O. 1970 (14-1-1969).

Union Territories (except Chandigarh)

In its application to the Union Territories, in sub-section (5) of Section 174, for the words "Magistrate of the first class, and any Magistrate", substitute the words "Executive Magistrate of the first class, and any other Executive Magistrate".—Act 19 of 1969, S. 3 and Schedule, Item 43 (In Delhi, on 2-10-1969.)

West Bengal

(1) In its application to the State of West Bengal, to sub-section (1) of Seciton 174 add the following Proviso, namely,—

"Provided that, unless the State Government otherwise directs, it shall not be necessary under this sub-section, in any case where the death of any person has been caused by enemy action, to make any investigation or to draw up any report or to send any intimation to a Magistrate empowered to hold inquests." — Beng. Act VII of 1944, Section 4 (8-2-1945).

(2) The amendment made in Section 174 by the above-mentioned Bengal Act is extended in its application to—

(a) Cooch-Behar Area as from 1-1-1951 by Cent. Act LXVII of 1950, Section 3 and West Bengal Act LXIII of 1950;

(b) Chandernagore area as from 2-10-1954 by Cent. Act XXXVI of 1954, Sec. 17 and West Beng. Act V of 1955, Section 3;

(c) Transferred Territories, that is, territories transferred to the State of West Bengal under Section 3 of Cent. Act XL of 1956, as from 1-7-1959, by West Beng. Act XIX of 1958, Section 3.

(3) (i) in sub-sections (1) and (2), for the words "Sub-Divisional Magistrate" substitute the words "Sub-divisional Executive Magistrate".

(ii) in sub-section (5), for the words "Sub-Divisional Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class, and any Magistrate", substitute the words "Sub-divisional Executive Magistrate or Executive Magistrate of the first class, and any other Executive "Magistrate". — W. B. Act 8 of 1970, Section 2 and Schedule, Item 62.

[*]175. Power to summon persons. — (1) A police-officer proceeding under Section 174 may, by order in writing summon two or more persons as aforesaid for the purpose of the said investigation, and any other person who appears to be acquainted with the facts of the case. Every person so summoned shall be bound to attend and to answer truly all questions other than questions the answers to which would have a tendency to expose him to a criminal charge, or to a penalty or forfeiture.

(2) If the facts do not disclose a cognizable offence to which Section 170 applies, such persons shall not be required by the police-officer to attend a Magistrate's Court.

[1882—S. 175; 1872—S. 134; 1861—Nil.]

[*] In its application to the area comprised within the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Madras, Section 175 shall be read as follows, namely:—

"175. Power to make rules and orders with respect to investigations by other authorities than officers in charge of police stations. — (1) The Local Government may make rules, and the Commissioner of Police may from time to time make general or special orders consistent with those rules, defining —

(a) the circumstances in which an officer in charge of a police station, after giving intimation to the Commissioner of Police of any such event as is mentioned in clause (a), clause (b), or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of the last foregoing section, is not to proceed to discharge any of the further functions of such an officer under that section, and

(b) the circumstances in which, and in such circumstances the authority by whom, those further functions are to be discharged.

(2) The authority to whom the discharge of such further functions may be entrusted by rules or orders under sub-section (1) may be the Commissioner of Police, or any of his Deputies or Assistants, or any other police-officer of rank not below that of Inspector, and such authority, in discharge of those functions, may exercise any of the powers and

(1) An investigation under Sec. 174 ceases when the cause of death is ascertained. Where it is ascertained that death is due to homicide, then the investigation becomes an investigation under Section 161. (1905) 2 Cri L Jour 590 (592) (Kathiawar).

(2) In an examination under this section the person examined is bound to answer truly the questions put to him. But a person who comes forward without being summoned by an order in writing to attend before the police officer and volunteers information is not bound to give true answers to questions. (3) Statements of witnesses examined at the inquest can be recorded in full; verbatim reports of such statements may often be of great use to a Court in testing the value of the evidence given subsequently. (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 124 (125) (DB) (Mad).

(4) The statements of witnesses recorded under this section are governed by the general provisions contained in Section 162 which enjoins that the statement shall not be signed by the person making it. AIR 1955 Pepsu 81 (85) = ILR (1954) Patiala 352 = 1955 Cri L Jour 983 (DB).

(For rules under the section, see Notfn. No. 87, Ft. St. Geo. Gaz., 1889, Pt. I, p. 366.)

*176. Inquiry by Magistrate into cause of death.—(1) When any person dies while in the custody of the police,† the nearest Magistrate empowered to hold inquests shall, and, in any other case mentioned in Section 174, clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1), any Magistrate so empowered may hold an inquiry into the cause of death, either instead of, or in addition to, the investigation held by the police-officer, and if he does so, he shall have all the powers in conducting it which he would have in holding an inquiry into an offence. The Magistrate holding such an inquiry shall record the evidence taken by him in connection therewith in any of the manners hereinafter prescribed according to the circumstances of the case.

(2) Power to disinter corpses.—Whenever such Magistrate considers it expedient to make an examination of the dead body of any person who has been already interred, in order to discover the cause of his death, the Magistrate may cause the body to be disinterred and examined.‡

[*] In its application to the area comprised within the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Madras, S. 176 shall be read as follows, namely :—

"176. Provisions with respect to inquiries by Presidency Magistrates and disinternment of dead bodies.—(1) The Chief Presidency Magistrate, or such other Presidency Magistrate as the Chief Presidency Magistrate may depute in this behalf, shall when any person dies while in the custody of the police or in prison, and may in any other case mentioned in S. 174, sub-section (1), clause (a), cl. (b), or clause (c), hold an inquiry into the cause of death, either instead of, or in addition to, the investigation under either of the two last foregoing sections; and, where he does so, he shall have all the powers in conducting it which he would have in holding an inquiry into an offence, and shall record any evidence taken by him in the course of the inquiry as nearly as may be in the manner prescribed in section 362.

(1) This section is designed to provide a check on the enquiry held by the police or to calm any alarm that has been created in the mind of the public by reason of a violent or unnatural death or to allay any unfounded suspicion or to put in force the law against a particular individual or merely to gain information which may be of use to the authorities. (2) Section 176 empowers a Magistrate to hold an enquiry into the cause of death either instead of or in additon to the investigation held by the police officer under Section 174. AIR 1958 Punj 141 (146) = ILR (1958) Punj 745 = 1958 Cri L Jour 673 (DB).

(3) An enquiry conducted under Section 176 read with (Madras) Police Standing Order No. 157 does not offend the other sections of the Code. Nor does it violate Articles 14, 20 (3) and 21 of the Constitution. AIR 1959 Mad 294 (306, 307) = ILR (1959) Mad 12 = 1959 Cri L Jour 856 (DB).

(4) The omission to hold an enquiry under this section is curable under Section 537 where it has not occasioned any failure of justice. AIR 1945 Nag 143 (145) = ILR (1945) Nag 315 = 47 Cri L Jour 196 (DB). (For example, when there is no corpse on which an inquest could be held.)

(5) Proceeding under this section is both an "inquiry" and a "judicial proceeding". AIR 1940 Rang 68 (69) = 41 Cri L Jour 470 (DB)  AIR 1928 Bom 390 (393) = 29 Cri LJ 1063 (DB). (3 Cal 742 and AIR 1921 Bom 3 = 22 Cri L Jour 241 (FB), Distinguished.)

(6) While holding an enquiry under this section, the Magistrate performs no judicial functions. AIR 1958 Punj 141 (146) = ILR (1958) Punj 745 = 1958 Cri L Jour 673 (DB). (AIR 1940 Rang 68, Held, no longer good law.)

(7) The enquiry by the Magistrate under this section occupies no higher status than that of a coroner's inquest, although by virtue of a definition in the

(2) Whenever the Commissioner of Police or a Presidency Magistrate considers it expedient, for the discovery of the cause of death of a deceased person whose body has been interred, that an examination should be made of the dead body, such Commissioner or Magistrate, as the case may be, may cause the body to be disinterred and examined."—See Coroners (Madras) Act, 1889 (V of 1889), S. 4 (2).

[†] Similarly when a prisoner dies in the prison in the cities of Calcutta and Bombay, Coroner has to be sent for.—See S. 9 of the Coroners Act, 1871 (IV of 1871).

[‡] For a similar power to order body to be disinterred given to the Coroners of Bombay and Calcutta, see S. 11 of the Coroners Act, 1871 (IV of 1871).

STATE AMENDMENT

Union Territory (Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands)

In its applications to the Union Territory of L. M. & A. Islands, in Part V, after Section 176, insert the following, namely. —

"176A. Power of Amin to investigate into certain offences.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, where any cognizable offence triable by a Magistrate of the third class is committed in any area within the local limits of the jurisdiction of an Amin and no police-station is located within a reasonable distance from the place of commissison of such offence, the Amin may investigate into such offence and for the purposes of such investigation, the Amin shall have all the powers conferred and duties imposed by this chapter on an officer in charge of a police-station.

(2) For conducting any investigation under sub-section (1), the Amin shall be assisted by such number of residents of Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands not exceeding four as the Administrator of the said Islands may appoint in this behalf.

Explanation. — In this section "Amin" means any officer appointed by such Administrator to exercise the powers and discharge the duties of an Amin in any local area." — Reg. VIII of 1965, S. 3 (1) & Sch.

NOTE.—The Union Territories (Separation of the Judicial and Executive Functions) Act, 1969 (19 of 1969) has now repealed this provision but since this Act has not been enforced so far, we have reproduced the same above. Act 19 of 1969 applies to all the Union Territories except Chandigarh.

(9) The proceedings held in pursuance of the aforesaid provisions as a fact finding inquiry are not judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings amenable to a writ of certiorari. AIR 1959 Mad 294 (312) = ILR (1959) Mad 12 = 1959 Cri L Jour 856 (DB). (AIR 1944 Mad 37, Overruled.)

(10) Powers of Magistrate holding inquest — Whether he can record confession of accused — See Notes on Sec. 164.

(11) A report or finding under the section is not necessary; and if there is one, it does not form part of the proceeding. ('78) 3 Cal 742 (752, 753) (DB).

[But see AIR 1940 Rang 68 (70) = 41 Cri L Jour 470 (DB). (Court holding an enquiry under this section must come to a finding as to the cause of death.)]

(12) An accused is entitled to get copies of the inquest report and of the statements made by witnesses at the inquest. If they are not available, the Court has power under Section 94 to call upon the police to produce them. AIR 1925 Mad 424 (425) = 26 Cri L Jour 426.

(13) There is no objection to a Magistrate granting copies of statements recorded under Section 176, of witnesses who are going to be examined at the preliminary inquiry. AIR 1945 Mad 64 (65) = 46 Cri L Jour 412.

(14) A District Magistrate has no power to send the enquiry or interfere with it, beyond calling for a report under Section 435 and reporting for the orders of High Court under Section 438. AIR 1928 Bom 390 (390) = 29 Cri L Jour 1063 (DB).

PART VI

PROCEEDINGS IN PROSECUTIONS

CHAPTER XV

OF THE JURISDICTION OF THE CRIMINAL COURTS IN INQUIRIES AND TRIALS

A — Place of inquiry or trial

177. Ordinary place of inquiry and trial.—Every offence shall ordinarily be inquired into and tried by a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction it was committed.

[1882—S. 177; 1872—S. 63, para. 1; 1861—S. 26.]

(15) As to whether proceedings under Section 176 are open to revision, see Notes on Section 435.

(16) Statements recorded by Magistrate in the course of inquiry under this section would not be admissible in evidence in any future proceedings. AIR 1959 Mad 294 (312) = ILR (1959) Mad 12 = 1959 Cri LJ 856 (DB).

[But see AIR 1964 Andh Pra 548 (550, 551) = (1964) 2 Andh WR 43 = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 636 (DB). (AIR 1959 Mad 294, Diss. from.)]

(17) A Magistrate holding an inquiry under this section cannot be said to be performing the functions of a Court of law. AIR 1959 Mad 294 (316) = ILR (1959) Mad 12 = 1959 Cri L Jour 856 (DB). (AIR 1944 Mad 37, Overruled.)  AIR 1958 Punj 141 (146) = ILR (1958) Punj 745 = 1958 Cri L Jour 673 (DB). (AIR 1940 Rang 68, Held, no longer good law — AIR 1956 SC 66, Foll.)  AIR 1958 Punj 430 (430) = ILR (1958) Punj 899 = 1958 Cri L Jour 1347 (DB).

(18) The result of an enquiry under Section 176 is not binding on any one and cannot be regarded as a judgment. It is wholly immaterial as far as Courts are concerned whether this inquiry is held by one executive officer or another. AIR 1958 Punj 430 (430) = ILR (1958) Punj 899 = 1958 Cri L Jour 1347 (DB).

(19) In the absence of compelling reasons to the contrary, an enquiry under Section 176 ought prima facie to be held in the same district in which all the witnesses who are to be examined under Section 176, are resident. AIR 1958 Punj 430 (430, 431) = ILR (1958) Punj 899 = 1958 Cri L Jour 1347 (DB).

(20) Statement in the inquest report is not evidence by itself and it certainly cannot be pitted against the evidence of the medical witness given in Court. AIR 1956 SC 425 (432) = 1956 Cri LJ 815  1968 Cr LJ 1237 (1241) (Manipur).

SECTION 177 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
2. "Ordinarily".
3. Several offences: venue.
4. "Within the local limits . . . ."
   - (a) Jurisdiction of Magistrate — Onus to prove.
5. Cheating, criminal misappropriation and selling etc., goods with counterfeit trade-mark.
6. Defamation, giving false information, etc.
7. Consequence forming part of offence charged — See Section 179.
8. Offences committed partly in one local area and partly in another — See Section 182.
9. Offences consisting of several acts — See Section 182.
10. Offences by foreigners.
11. Irregular arrest — Effect.
12. Transfer of territory from one State to another.
13. Transfer of territory to another district.
14. Military offenders.
15. Effect of trial at wrong places.
16. Committal by or to wrong Court.

1. Scope — General. — (1) It is a general principle of law that all crime is local. AIR 1930 Bom 490 (491) (FB)  (1893) 17 Bom 369 (372, 373) (DB)  AIR 1970 Cal 110 (114) = 1970 Cri LJ 332  AIR 1965 Ker 295 (296) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 775 = 1965 Ker LT 548  AIR 1963 Guj 234 (236) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 273 = (1962) 3 Guj LR 409 (DB).

(2) The jurisdiction to try a person for an offence depends upon the crime having been committed within the area of such jurisdiction. AIR 1930 Bom 490 (491) (FB)  AIR 1959 All 67 (Pr 2) = 1959 Cri L Jour 14  AIR 1970 Cal 110 (114) = 1970 Cri LJ 332  AIR 1965 Ker 295 (296) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 775 = 1965 Ker LT 548  AIR 1963 Guj 234 (236) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 273 = (1962) 3 Guj LR 409 (DB).

[See AIR 1933 Bom 148 (150) = 34 Cri L Jour 771 (DB).]

(3) The jurisdiction to try the offender does not depend upon either the place where the offender is found or upon his nationality. This principle is found enacted in Section 2 of the Penal Code. AIR 1922 Mad 215 (216) = 23 Cri L Jour 490 (DB)  AIR 1957 SC 857 (868) = 1958 SCR 328 = 1957 Cri L Jour 1346  AIR 1930 Bom 490 (491) (FB).

(4) An act, committed on land outside India by a foreigner, is not an offence triable by Indian Courts under their Criminal Codes. AIR 1946 Nag 128 (130) = ILR (1945) Nag 130  (1873) 10 Bom HCR 356 (357) (DB)  (1876) 1 Mad 171 (172) (SB)  (1887) 9 All 523 (525) (DB)  (1901) 1901 Pun Re (Cr) No. 1, p. 1 (3) (DB)  (1866) 4 Bom HCR (Cr) (Cas) 38 (39) (SB)  (1880) 5 Bom 338 (346) (FB)  (1880) 6 Cal 307 (308) (DB).

(5) If A, a foreigner, standing in foreign territory shoots B who is in Indian territory, A's act is not an offence within the Penal Code, and Indian Courts have no jurisdiction to try A for such act even if A is subsequently found in Indian territory. ('80) 1880 Pun Re (Cr) No. 35, p. 84 (89) (DB).

[See however (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 426 (427, 428) = 36 Bom 524 (DB). (A would be triable by Indian Court, if he was subsequently found within jurisdiction.)]

(6) Where it is sought to punish a person who is not a citizen of India as an offender in respect of a certain act, the question is not merely "where was the act committed" but "was the person at the time, when the act was done, within the Indian territory?" For, if he was not, the act is not an offence, the doer of it is not liable to be punished as an offender and he is not subject to the jurisdiction of Criminal Courts. (1878) 1878 Pun Re (Cr) No. 20, p. 49 (55) (DB).

(7) Where a resident in a foreign country commits an offence within India, he can be tried by Indian Courts, when he is brought within India by virtue of extradition proceeding in connection with another offence. AIR 1957 SC 857 (868) = 1958 SCR 328 = 1957 Cri L Jour 1346.

(8) It is the allegation in the complaint that gives jurisdiction to the Magistrate to take up the case for trial; where the evidence taken up to the time of framing charge indicates that the Magistrate has jurisdiction, the trial is to proceed. AIR 1959 Cal 677 (Pr 5) = 1959 Cri L Jour 1310 (DB)  AIR 1970 Cal 110 (116) = 1970 Cri LJ 332.

(9) A question of jurisdiction should be determined by reference to the provisions of the Code. AIR 1933 Nag 33 (34) = 34 Cri L Jour 1038.

(10) Question of jurisdiction should be determined first and not left to be determined after the Court has made up its mind whether to acquit or convict. AIR 1923 All 91 (105) = 25 Cri L Jour 497 (DB)  AIR 1959 All 67 (Pr 2) = 1959 Cri L Jour 14  AIR 1921 All 12 (12) = 22 Cri L Jour 308 (FB)  AIR 1970 Cal 110 (117) = 1970 Cri LJ 332.

(11) Objection to jurisdiction must be raised at the earliest opportunity or at any time when the accused can satisfy the Court on evidence which has come upto that time that the Court has no jurisdiction and if the Court is satisfied it should not take further proceedings. AIR 1956 All 619 (Pr 14) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1165. (Case of breach of trust.)

(12) If a charge is laid before a Magistrate of an offence alleged to have been committed within his district, the Magistrate has jurisdiction to deal with it and it is not removed by reason of the evidence disclosing that the offence was really committed in another district. If the charge is not made good by the evidence, it will be a ground for acquitting the accused but not for quashing the proceeding. ('84) 1884 All WN 31 (31).

(13) A question of jurisdiction should be determined by the Court before which the offender is placed for trial and should not be referred to some superior officer to decide. ('12) 13 Cri L Jour 786 (786) = 37 Bom 114 (DB)  AIR 1962 Pat 100 (101) = 1962 (1) Cr LJ 360.

(14) This section applies to the trial of offences. ('96) 1896 Pun Re No. 17 (Cr), p. 39 (41) (DB).

(15) The section applies to the determination of the appellate forum also. AIR 1952 Punj 186 (188) = ILR (1951) Punj 231 = 1952 Cri LJ 775 (DB).

(16) Proceedings under Section 488 — Forum — Section 177 not applicable to such proceedings. AIR 1968 Pat 383 (385). ((1966) 2 Mad LJ 326, Diss.)

(17) Where two forums have concurrent jurisdiction the lower one should be approached at the first instance, unless the party concerned gives special reasons for a direct approach to the higher, such as extreme urgency or a momentous question of general public policy. AIR 1952 Vindh Pra 87 (Pr 1) = 1953 Cri L Jour 74.

See also Sections 182 and 185.

(18) The section is inapplicable for determining the jurisdiction of a Court competent to entertain an application under Section 488, a refusal to maintain being no offence. 1893 Pun Re (Cr) No. 3, p. 30 (33, 34) (DB)  AIR 1968 Pat 383 (385) = 1968 BLJR 781 = 1968 Cri LJ 1296.

(20) State legislature is competent to provide for trial of offences created by its statutes otherwise than is prescribed by Section 177, but the relevant provisions of the statute must clearly show that such departure is intended. AIR 1960 SC 1329 (1332) = 1960 Cri LJ 1674  (1965) 7 OJD 28 = ILR (1964) Cut 932 = 31 Cut LT 140 (146).

(21) U. P. High Courts (Amalgamation) Order (1948), Clause 14 — The words 'Cases arising' in Clause 14 of U. P. High Courts (Amalgamation) Order, 1948 relates to place or area of origin of dispute. 1968 All WR (HC) 8 (9) = 1968 All Cr R 15.

(22) Section 8 of the Bombay Prevention of Hindu Bigamous Marriages Act (25 of 1946) (now repealed), did not make a departure from Section 177 of Criminal P. C. Offences punishable under Section 7 of the Act could not be tried even by the Courts specified in Section 8-A of the Act if the offences were committed outside the territorial jurisdiction of such Courts. AIR 1960 SC 1329 (1332, 1333) = 1960 Cri LJ 1674  AIR 1954 Bom 337 (338) = ILR (1954) Bom 610 = 1954 Cri L Jour 1027.

(23) The section applied to an offence committed under Section 4 of the Madras Hindu (Bigamy Prevention and Divorce) Act (6 of 1949) as that Act did not provide for trial of offences committed under the Act. AIR 1950 Mad 823 (823, 824) = ILR (1951) Mad 549.

(24) Where the accused was arrested in Uttar Pradesh in pursuance of a warrant issued under Section 7 of the Indian Extradition Act for trial of offences under Sections 388 and 420, Penal Code, committed in Rajasthan, it was held that though the accused was extradited only for the offences under Sections 388 and 420, he could also be tried for an offence under Section 161, Penal Code, by a competent Magistrate in Rajasthan under the provisions of this section (in force in Rajasthan). AIR 1953 Raj 12 (15) = 1953 Cri L Jour 268.

Contempt of Court. — (25) The section applies to all offences whether under the Penal Code or otherwise. Thus, the jurisdiction of a High Court to punish a person for contempt of Court (which is not an offence under the Penal Code) is not ousted by the fact that the accused has removed himself beyond the limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court. (1949) ILR (1949) 1 Cal 355 (364)  AIR 1934 Mad 423 (424) = 35 Cri L Jour 962.

Analogous law. — (26) Section 7 (2) of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952 does not supplant Chapter XV of the Code nor is it in any way inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter. AIR 1959 Ker 311 (Prs 10, 11) = ILR (1958) Ker 763 = 1959 Cri L Jour 1172.

(27) Sections 179, 180 and 182 are not exceptions to the general rule embodied in this section and are not repeated in Section 7 (2) of the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 1952. They are rather amplifications of that rule. AIR 1959 Ker 311 (Pr 12) = ILR (1958) Ker 763 = 1959 Cri L Jour 1172.

2. "Ordinarily". — (1) This section embodies the ordinary or general rule of jurisdiction and the following sections (viz., Sections 179-184), the exception. (2) The word "ordinarily" has been advisedly used. AIR 1918 Mad 555 (557) = 18 Cri L Jour 878 (882) (DB). (Overruled on another point in AIR 1940 Mad 23 = 41 Cri L Jour 238 (FB).)

[See AIR 1950 Mad 823 (823, 824) = ILR (1951) Mad 549.]

(4) The rule in this section should be read subject to any special provisions of law which may modify it, such as Section 197, sub-section (2). AIR 1952 Punj 186 (188) = ILR (1951) Punj 231 = 1952 Cri L Jour 775 (DB).

(5) Section 14 also enables the State Government to depart from this rule 1901 Pun Re (Cr) No 24, p. 59 (64) (FB).

(6) The section does not take away the jurisdiction of any other Magistrate to try a case if he could otherwise do so under any other competent order. AIR 1959 All 82 (Pr 32) = 1959 Cri L Jour 113.

(7) For exceptions to the general rule under other Acts, see the following cases (1879) 3 Bom 384 (385) (DB). (9) Section 684 of the Merchant Shipping Act provides for jurisdiction in any place in which the offender may be. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 246 (247) = 39 Cal 487  AIR 1933 Cal 145 (145) = 34 Cri L Jour 631 (DB).

(10) The jurisdiction, however, conferred by 12 and 13 Vict. C. 96, 23 and 24 Vict. C. 88 and the Merchant Shipping Act does not extend over offences committed in non-British ships. AIR 1918 Bom 249 (250) = 19 Cri L Jour 237 (DB).

(11) The view stated, above (namely, that the word 'ordinarily' has been used in this section in the sense of "except as otherwise provided in the Code or by any special law") has now been confirmed by the Supreme Court in Narumal v. State of Bombay. AIR 1960 SC 1329 (1332, 1333) = 1960 Cri LJ 1674.

(12) In a later decision, Purushotham Dalmia's case, AIR 1961 SC 1589, the Supreme Court has taken a different view, namely, that the exceptions implied by the case of the word "ordinarily" in the section need not be limited to those specified for by law, and that such exceptions may be based on consideration of convenience or may be implied from other provisions of law such as those which permit joint trial of offences by the same Court. AIR 1961 SC 1589 (1593) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 728 = (1962) 2 SCR 101. (Note: This view seems to conflict with the earlier view of the Supreme Court in AIR 1960 SC 1329.)

(13) Sections 179 to 185 and 188, as well as provisions of Sections 233 to 239 provide exceptions to Section 177 about the venue or place of inquiry or trial. AIR 1969 Raj 266 (269) = 1969 Raj LW 168 = 1969 Cri LJ 1268.

3. Several offences: venue. — (1) When an accused is charged with several offences over one or some of which only the Court has jurisdiction, it should try only such offence or offences. AIR 1928 Bom 475 (476) = 30 Cri L Jour 191  AIR 1954 Trav-Co 172 (174) = 1954 Cri L Jour 319.

[See also AIR 1949 Mad 3 (6) = 50 Cri L Jour 70.]

(2) Court having jurisdiction to try offence of conspiracy has also jurisdiction to try offences committed in pursuance of the conspiracy outside its jurisdiction. AIR 1961 SC 1589 (1593) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 728 = (1962) 2 SCR 101. (63 Cal WN 628 = AIR 1959 Cal 510 = 1959 Cr LJ 965 (FB), Overruled.)  AIR 1961 SC 1601 (1602) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 736 = (1962) 2 SCR 116. (AIR 1961 SC 1589, Rel. on.; AIR 1961 Mad 126 Affirmed.)  AIR 1966 Orissa 219 (222).

(3) Court having jurisdiction to try offences committed in pursuance of a conspiracy can also try the offence of conspiracy even if committed outside its jurisdiction. AIR 1961 SC 1601 (1602) = 1960 Cri LJ 736 = (1962) 2 SCR 116 * AIR 1963 Cal 191 (194) = (1963) 1 Cri L Jour 424 (DB).

(4) Provisions of Section 239 are not controlled by provisions of Section 177. AIR 1961 SC 1601 (1602) = 1960 Cri LJ 736 = (1962) 2 SCR 116 * 1967 All Cr R 543 (546) = 1967 All WR (HC) 841. (Section 239-B is an exception to the general rule laid down under S. 177.)

[See also AIR 1963 Cal 191 (194) = (1963) 1 Cri LJ 424 (DB). (Even when joinder of two charges for offences committed in different jurisdictions is legal, separate enquiry or trial for the offences in the Courts having territorial jurisdiction is also legal.)]

(5) But according to the cases noted below decided earlier the provisions of Section 239 are governed by Section 177 et. seq. relating to jurisdiction and there can be no joint trial unless the Magistrate has jurisdiction over all the offences charged. AIR 1929 Mad 839 (840) = 30 Cri LJ 1161  AIR 1958 Manipur 14 (Pr 14) = 1958 Cri LJ 393.

(6) Where two different offences are committed in the course of the same transaction, the case should be tried by the Magistrate who has jurisdiction to try both the offences and not by a Magistrate having jurisdiction over only one of them, for it would be highly inconvenient that the two offences should be tried by different officers. (1907) 2 Weir 144 (144) (DB)  AIR 1958 Pat 585 (Pr 4) = 1958 Cri LJ 1339.

(7) Where two offences of defamation are committed, one in a village where the accused has been publishing libellous allegations against the complainant and the other by posting letters to others in other places they cannot be tried together at one place. AIR 1957 Mad 572 (Pr 3) = 1957 Cri LJ 983.

(8) Property entrusted to R at B misappropriated by him at J — Offence of receiving State property committed by V at J — V cannot be tried at B under Section 177. AIR 1969 Raj 266 (268, 270) = 1969 Cri LJ 1268 = 1969 Raj LW 168.

(9) Murder committed outside India, but conspiracy hatched in India —Indian Courts can try offenders for criminal conspiracy and not for murder — But if

(6) The offence of using forged document as genuine is committed at a place where the document is so used. Where an applicant before the Public Service Commission at Madras sends his application along with a forged document by posting the same at Vizagapattam, the place of offence is Madras where the applicant intends to use the forged document as genuine by placing the same before the Public Service Commission for its consideration. AIR 1949 Mad 833 (833) = 51 Cri LJ 34.

(7) The offence of holding out false pretences to labourers and of inducing them thereby to enter into a contract must be tried in the place where such inducement was made. (1868) 4 Mad HCR (App) 4 (5)  (1910) 11 Cri LJ 143 (144) = 37 Cal 27 (DB).

(8) The offence of murder should be committed for trial to the Sessions Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction it was committed. AIR 1932 Cal 487 (488) = 33 Cri LJ 645 (DB).

(9) The offence under Section 134 of the Companies Act (failure to file a balance sheet) may be tried by the Court within whose jurisdiction the office of the Registrar where the balance sheet should be filed is situate, even though the company itself be located outside its jurisdiction. AIR 1917 Cal 1 (1) = 18 Cri LJ 787 (DB).

(10) Mere intention not followed by any act cannot constitute an offence and indirect preparation made, which does not amount to an act but which amounts to the commencement of an offence, does not constitute either a principal offence or an attempt or abetment. Hence, the Court at the place where only the preparation is made has no jurisdiction. AIR 1927 Mad 77 (78) = 28 Cri LJ 95  24 Bom 287 (291) (DB).

(11) Offence under Section 204, Penal Code for the alleged suppression of the evidentiary documents alleged to have been suppressed by the accused at place B, is committed at B and not at V where the documents were handed over to the agents of the accused and therefore the Magistrate at V has no jurisdiction to try the offence under Section 204, Penal Code against the accused. 1957-2 Andh WR 368 (372).

(12) The sale of beer in excess of the quantity allowed under the Punjab Excise Act was entered in the registers of a company at R and the liquor was then sent to M under a railway receipt in which the name of the consignee was also shown as the company although the receipt was thereafter endorsed in favour of the purchaser: Held that the offence of illegal sale as well as illegal transport were committed at R and prima facie the Court at M had no jurisdiction to try

(3) Complaint petition and complainant's statement on oaths silent as to facts relating to existence of territorial jurisdiction — Magistrate should allow parties to lead evidence to establish existence or otherwise of territorial jurisdiction — He cannot drop the proceedings. 1966-32 Cut LT 423 (433) = 9 Ori JD 24.

(4) Either complaint petition or statement of complainant on oath giving facts ousting jurisdiction — Magistrate can drop proceedings even after issue of process without giving opportunity for adducing further evidence. 1966-32 Cut LT 423 (433) = 9 Ori JD 24.

5. Cheating, criminal misappropriation and selling, etc., goods with counterfeit trade-mark. — (1) The place where the deception was practised and not where the fraud was discovered, is the place where the trial of the offence of cheating should be held. AIR 1915 All 428 (428) = 16 Cri LJ 825  1968 Cr LJ 280 (280) = 8 Guj LR 551.

(2) Where in a case under Section 420, Penal Code, the deception takes place in one district and the deprivation of property in another district, the Court in either district can try the offence. See Section 179.

(3) Where A in district K despatches lottery tickets to B in T by V. P. P. and B accepts the V. P. Section 177 — Note 5 (contd.)

(6) A Magistrate has jurisdiction to try an offence under Section 486, Penal Code, if the accused be shown to be in possession of goods with a counterfeit trade-mark for sale or any other purpose of trade or manufacture though the sale or other purpose for which the accused has the goods in his own possession be not intended to take place within the jurisdiction of the Court in which the complaint is lodged. (1898) 25 Cal 639 (641) (DB).

6. Defamation, giving false information, etc. — (1) The sending of a newspaper or letter containing defamatory matter by post from one place to another is publication of such matter at the latter place, and a Magistrate at the latter place will, therefore, have jurisdiction over the offence. (5) When a person presents a petition containing defamatory statements to a superior officer who in the ordinary course of official routine sends it to a subordinate officer for inquiry, there is publication in the place where the latter officer is. 1889 Pun Re (Cr) No. 14 p. 59 (59, 60).

(6) When a plaint in a suit containing defamatory allegations is filed in the Court at X and a copy thereof is delivered to one of the defendants along with the summons at Y, then the complaint of an offence punishable under Sec. 500 can be filed either in the Magistrate's Court at X where the defamatory matter was written and published or in the Court of the Magistrate, within whose jurisdiction the said matter was again published. AIR 1955 Mys 135 (135) = ILR (1955) Mys 401 = 1955 Cri LJ 1512.

(7) When one person instigates another to the commission of an offence by means of a letter sent through post, the offence of abetment is completed as soon as the contents of such letter become known to the addressee and such offence is triable at the place where the letter is received. (1894) 16 All 389 (390).

(8) The receipt at M of a parcel or a letter by which a person is deceived gives the Magistrate at M jurisdiction over the offence. AIR 1914 All 373 (374) = 15 Cri LJ 719  (1931) 132 Ind Cas 864 (864) = 32 Cri LJ 996 (Lah)  AIR 1924 Pat 708 (708) = 35 Cri LJ 81.

(9) Where the accused were charged with trying to cheat the currency officer of Bombay by claiming payment of halves of certain currency notes and the declaration in support of the claim was made and posted in Calcutta, it was held that the case was triable in Calcutta. AIR 1923 Cal 401 (402) = 25 Cri LJ 184 (DB).

(10) The gist of the offence under Section 182, Penal Code, is the giving of information so as to cause the public servant to act on it; so the offence is complete only when it reaches the public servant. Hence, it is the place of delivery of a letter containing such information and not the place of posting that gives jurisdiction over the offence. AIR 1943 Mad 500 (500) = 44 Cri LJ 660  AIR 1932 Mad 427 (427) = 33 Cri LJ 452.

[But see AIR 1936 All 105 (107) = 37 Cri LJ 157 (DB). (Offence is committed in both places, place of posting and place where it was sent — The intention which is an essential ingredient of the offence is entertained by the person giving the information at the place where the letter is written and posted.)]

(11) The gist of the offence of printing seditious matter being the creation of written words, the printing of the same at a particular place confers jurisdiction on Courts of that place though publication has been elsewhere. AIR 1928 Rang 276 (276) = 30 Cri LJ 707.

(12) Where there is no evidence that the printing of papers with the object of deceiving was done in a particular district, the Courts of such district have no jurisdiction over the offence. AIR 1919 Pat 407 (409) = 20 Cri LJ 142 (DB).

(13) An offence under Section 7 (a) of the Copyright Act can be tried only at

(2) An accused who has submitted to the jurisdiction of a Court must be regarded as having waived any irregularity affecting the manner in which his appearance before the Magistrate has been enforced. (1903) 16 CPLR 9 (10).

12. Transfer of territory from one State to another. — (1) Where after the filing of an appeal to a Sessions Judge against the conviction for an offence committed within British India, territory including the place where the offence had been committed was transferred to a Native State, it was held that the transfer did not affect the jurisdiction of the Sessions Judge to hear the appeal, the offence having been committed in British India. (4) An offence was committed at a place K in Madras State. This place was subsequently transferred to Mysore State. It was held that the Mysore Court had jurisdiction to deal with the case. AIR 1951 Mys 115 (116) = ILR (1951) Mys 452 = 52 Cri LJ 1490 (DB).

13. Transfer of territory to another district. — (1) When an offence is committed within the local jurisdiction of a Magistrate, he is authorized to try the case or commit it to Sessions. The fact that the locality in which the offence was committed was subsequently transferred to another district will not oust the jurisdiction of the Magistrate to try the case or to commit it to the Sessions Court. AIR 1939 Cal 159 (160) = 40 Cri LJ 270 (DB).

14. Military offenders. — (1) Under Bengal Regulation 20 of 1825, military authorities could require a Magistrate to hand over to them any prisoner who may be apprehended and brought before him for an offence committed more than 120 miles from Calcutta; but a proceeding before the Magistrate when taken at the request of and assented to by the military authorities was not void. 15. Effect of trial at wrong places. — (1) Sections 177 to 185 deal with venue, and Section 531 enacts that no proceedings in a wrong place shall be set aside unless it appears that such error has in fact occasioned a failure of justice. (2) Territorial jurisdiction is not regarded as synonymous with essential jurisdiction and trial in a wrong district is not a fatal defect. 1902 Pun Re (Cr) No. 2, p. 4 (6) (DB)  1901 Pun Re (Cr) No. 24, p. 59 (77) (FB)  (1905) 4 Cri LJ 500 (501) = 30 Mad 94 (DB)  AIR 1967 Mys 44 (46) = (1966) 1 Mys LJ 324 = 1967 Cri LJ 503 (DB).

(3) Section 531, however, does not entitle a Magistrate to proceed with a trial in the wrong local area with his eyes open to the fact that he has no territorial jurisdiction. (4) When an offence is being tried in a wrong Court, the want of jurisdiction may be cured by an order of the High Court under Section 526, transferring the case formally to such Court. (5) The plea of want of jurisdiction may be taken for the first time in the High Court. Neither the ignorance and consequent silence of parties nor their consent can vest a Magistrate with powers which the law does not give him. (1871) 16 Suth WR (Cr) 69 (70) (DB).

(6) On question whether, when a commitment is made in respect of an offence committed outside the State, the High Court has jurisdiction to transfer the case to a Court having jurisdiction in that State there is conflict. See S. 531.

16. Committal by or to wrong Court.— (1) A committal erroneously made to the High Court may be validated under Section 526 because, although such committal may be in contravention of Section 206 yet the High Court has criminal jurisdiction under the Letters Patent to try cases committed to it instead of to the local Sessions Judge. Section 179 — Synopsis (contd.)

4. Criminal breach of trust or criminal misappropriation.
5. Offences committed outside India.

1. Scope. — (1) The section applies only to cases in which the offender is accused of the offence by reason of some act done by him and some consequence that has ensued from such act. AIR 1938 All 632 (634) = 40 Cri LJ 128  AIR 1930 Bom 490 (492) (DB).

(2) Section 179 cannot be read as an exception to the general rule embodied in Section 177 and repeated in Section 7 (2) of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952. AIR 1959 Ker 311 (314) = ILR (1958) Ker 763 = 1959 Cri LJ 1172.

(3) Sections 179-184 are controlled by Section 188 and the alternative jurisdiction conferred by these sections can be exercised on the production of the certificate of the Political Agent according to the special provisions of Section 188. AIR 1930 Bom 155 (157) = 54 Bom 171 = 31 Cri LJ 833 (DB).

(4) In a case falling within Section 6 (1) of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952, Section 7 (2) of that Act cannot be read as excluding the application of Chapter XV (including Section 179) of the Code. AIR 1959 Ker 311 (314) = ILR (1958) Ker 763 = 1959 Cri LJ 1172.

2. Nature of 'consequence' contemplated by section. — (1) Word 'consequence' in this section refers only to a consequence which is an ingredient or part of the offence charged. AIR 1938 All 632 (634) = 40 Cri LJ 128. (Complaint by K against M for cheating in c Court— M arrested at c — M filing complaint under Section 500, Penal Code, against K in Court at c — Held, arrest at c was not such a consequence as is contemplated in Section 179 so as to give Court at c jurisdiction to try complaint for defamation.)  AIR 1959 All 67 (68) = 1959 Cri LJ 14  AIR 1966 All 619 (624) = 1956 Cri LJ 1165. (Criminal breach of trust — Non-accounting is not ingredient of offence.)  AIR 1955 All 363 (364) = 1955 Cri LJ 897. (Complainant's wife removed from his house in Kanpur District and remarried in Gonda District — Kanpur Court has no jurisdiction to try offence of bigamy as the consequence of that offence viz. that the complainant is deprived of the consortium of his wife at his place, is wholly immaterial to the culpability of the accused.)  AIR 1955 Madh B 200 (202) (DB)  AIR 1934 All 846 (846, 847) = 36 Cri LJ 490. (Contract of sale entered into at X — Firm at Y affected by cheating ensuing from this contract — Court at Y has jurisdiction to try the case.)  AIR 1934 All 499 (503) = 35 Cri LJ 982 = 56 All 1047 (FB). (Offence under Section 403, Penal Code, complete at D — Actual loss falling on person at C — Court at C has no jurisdiction.)  (1906) 8 Bom LR 513 (516) = 4 Cri LJ 54 (DB)  AIR 1930 Bom 490 (492, 493, 495, 496) (FB). (What is punishable is not omission to post cheque or warrant but the consequence of the inaction in taking necessary action in that behalf.)

(6) Section 179 neither controls nor is controlled by Section 181. They have a cumulative, effect and are not mutually exclusive. Both can apply in a case. AIR 1961 Pat 260 (263) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 841 = ILR 38 Pat 1251 (DB).

(7) In absence of proof by prosecution as to place where accused consumed liquor he could not be convicted under Section 66 (1) (b) of Bombay Prohibition Act (25 of 1949) by having resort to Sections 179, 180 and 182. AIR 1963 Guj 234 (238) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 273 = (1962) 3 Guj LR 409 (DB).

(8) Opium consigned illegally to self from Cawnpur to Berhampur — Magissrate at Berhampur can take cognizance under Section 9 (c), Opium Act, for illegal import of opium. AIR 1961 Orissa 64 (66) = 26 Cut LT 647 = 1961 (1) Cr LJ 539.

3. Consequence forming part of the offence charged, what is. —

Criminal breach of trust and criminal misappropriation. — (1) Where A in x commits criminal breach of trust of moneys belonging to B in v, the loss suffered by B in y in consequence of A's act in x is not a part of the offence of criminal breach of trust committed by A and Court in y has no jurisdiction to try the offence. AIR 1948 Nag 80 (81) = ILR (1947) Nag 378 = 49 Cri LJ 121  AIR 1942 Cal 575 (577) = 44 Cri LJ 132 (DB)  AIR 1916 Mad 438 (439, 440) = 16 Cri LJ 491 (493) (DB). (5-A) Receipt of the letter by complainant at Hyderabad, is not by itself an essential act to constitute the offence of cheating and cannot be looked upon as a 'consequence which has ensued' with reference to 'anything which has been done' as contemplated in Section 179. Hence, the Hyderabad Court has no jurisdiction to try the offence concerned in items (1) and (2) and it has got jurisdiction only to try the offence concerned in item (3). (12) It cannot be argued that Sec. 180 has no longer any application to cases of abetment by conspiracy as conspiracy itself has been made an offence under Section 120-B, Penal Code. He, therefore, sought the help of one K who along with others prepared a faked passport with which M tried to go outside India but on suspicion of police was off-landed from plane in the State of Rajasthan. On prosecution for criminal conspiracy and for several other offences committed in pursuance thereof it was urged for K that the conspiracy was complete in Pepsu and therefore the Courts in Rajasthan had no jurisdiction to try the case. Held, that the real charge against K was not merely one of Section 120-B, I. P. C., but of abetment of so many offences. Since the offences were alleged to have been committed in Rajasthan, the Courts there had, by virtue of illustration (a) to Section 180, jurisdiction to inquire into the matter. 1957 Cri L Jour 234 (235) (Raj).

181. Being a thug or belonging to a gang of dacoits, escape from custody, etc.—(1) The offence of being a thug, of being a thug and committing murder, or dacoity, of dacoity with murder, of having belonged to a gang of dacoits, or of having escaped from custody, may be inquired into or tried by a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the person charged is.

(2) Criminal misappropriation and criminal breach of trust.—The offence of criminal misappropriation or of criminal breach of trust may be inquired into or tried by a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any part of the property which is the subject of the offence was received or retained by the accused person, or the offence was committed.

[°][(3) Theft.—The offence of theft, or any offence which includes theft or the possession of stolen property, may be inquired into or tried by a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such offence was committed or the property stolen was possessed by the thief or by any person who received or retained the same knowing or having reason to believe it to be stolen.]

(4) Kidnapping and abduction.—The offence of kidnapping or abduction may be inquired into or tried by a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the person kidnapped or abducted was kidnapped or abducted or was conveyed or concealed or detained.

SECTION 181 — SYNOPSIS

1. Applicability.
2. "The person charged is" — Sub-section (1).
3. Offence of escape from lawful custody.
4. Sub-section (2).
5. Property which is the subject of the offence.
6. "Received or retained".
7. Sub-section (3) — Theft.
8. Sub-section (4) — Kidnapping and abduction.
9. Effect of a trial in a Court contrary to the provisions of the section.

1. Applicability. — (1) The section applies as between Courts of different local areas, whose jurisdictions have been limited under Section 12 of the Code and to which the Code applies. It has no application to an offence committed outside India and a Magistrate cannot take cognizance of such an offence except under Section 188. AIR 1917 Cal 612 (612) = 17 Cri L Jour 128 (DB)  (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 530 (531) = 5 Sind LR 266 (DB)  (1906) 3 Cri L Jour 247 (248) = 28 All 372 (DB)  (1882) 5 Mad 23 (24, 25) (DB).

2. "The person charged is" — Sub-section (1). — (1) The words "the person charged is" do not mean that such person should be voluntarily present within jurisdiction. The section will apply if he is physically present within jurisdiction, even though such presence is due to the fact that he has been brought under arrest. AIR 1928 Sind 161 (163) = 29 Cri L Jour 1089 (DB)  (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 356 (356, 357) = 35 Bom 225 (SB)  (1911) 12 Cri LJ 113 (115 116) = 1911 Pun Re (Cr) No. 1 (DB)  AIR 1961 Pat 260 (264) = 1961 (1) Cri L Jour 841 = ILR 38 Pat 1251 (DB). (Head-quarters of gang in West Bengal — Dacoities committed in several distincts including Dhanbad — Trial at Dhanbad not irregular.)

3. Offence of escape from lawful custody. — (1) As to what is "lawful custody", see the following cases. (1875) 24 Suth WR (Cr) 45 (46) (DB). (Accused arrested by constable in good faith on a reasonable suspicion of being concerned in a cognizable offence — Held, that the custody was lawful, although subsequently his offence was determined to be other than that with which he had been charged.)  (1886) 12 Cal 190 (191) (DB). (Accused escaping while under arrest under a civil process — Held, that there was no escape from lawful custody within the meaning of Section 223, Penal Code.)  (1882) 5 Mad 22 (23) (DB). (Custody held not lawful.)

4. Sub-section (2). — (1) An offence of criminal misappropriation or criminal breach of trust can be tried or inquired into at any place where the offence was committed or the property was received or retained. AIR 1940 All 92 (94, 95) = 41 Cri L Jour 325  AIR 1930 Bom 490 (491, 495) = 55 Bom 59 (FB)  AIR 1940 Cal 367 (368) = 41 Cri L Jour 812 (DB)  AIR 1969 Raj 266 (269) = 1969 Raj LW 168 = 1969 Cri LJ 1268.

(2) The expression "received or retained" contemplates such reception or retention by virtue of which the offence or criminal breach of trust could possibly be perpetrated. AIR 1956 All 619 (Pr 29) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1165.

(3) Reading sub-section (2) of this section with Section 405 of the Penal Code, it is clear that the delivery of the subject-matter of the offence should be in such a way that the accused may have either dominion over or he may be said to have been entrusted with it. AIR 1956 All 619 (Pr 26) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1165.

(4) Unless any act or even omission is a necessary ingredient of an offence of criminal breach of trust, it cannot give jurisdiction to a Court where that act or omission has been done, though it may be the necessary result or consequence arising therefrom. AIR 1956 All 619 (Pr 21) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1165.

(5) The place where the account was to be rendered is not as such the proper venue for the trial of such offences. AIR 1951 Assam 131 (136, 137) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 49 = 52 Cri L Jour 1388 (FB)  AIR 1956 All 619 (Pr 32) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1165.

(6) Place of accounting may be regarded as the place where the misappropriation took place in the absence of any allegation as to any specific place where it occurred. AIR 1952 Mad 168 (Pr 8) = 1952 Cri L Jour 308. (AIR 1942 Cal 575, Dissented from.)

See also Section 179.

(7) Where the place of offence is known or can be ascertained, the Courts of the place where the accounts had to be rendered will have no jurisdiction to try it. AIR 1956 All 619 (Pr 34) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1165  AIR 1931 Cal 532 (533) = 32 Cri L Jour 1249 (DB)  AIR 1931 Cal 528 (531) = 59 Cal 92 = 32 Cri L Jour 1167 (DB).

(8) Where a carrier committed a criminal breach of trust in delivering the goods entrusted to him intact, and there is no evidence of actual place of the offence, the place of delivery is to be presumed as the place where the offence took place. AIR 1928 Mad 1136 (1138) = 52 Mad 61 = 30 Cri L Jour 245. (Section 183 is applicable.)

(9) Where it is uncertain whether the offence of embezzlement was committed at B or at N, Section 182 applies and the Court at N, has jurisdiction to inquire into the offence. AIR 1957 SC 196 (Pr 9) = 1957 Cri L Jour 322 (DB). (Cri. Revn. No. 209 of 1953- D/- 30-10-1953 (Nag), Reversed.)  1945 All L Jour 468 (469).

(10) Sub-section (2) does not in any way modify the provisions of Sec. 179. AIR 1926 All 466 (467) = 27 Cri L Jour 992.

(11) As to applicability of Section 179 to the offences of criminal misappropriation and breach of trust, see Sec. 179.

(12) Section 239 extends jurisdiction of Court beyond that provided in Sec. 181 (2). AIR 1969 Raj 266 (270) = 1969 Raj LW 168 = 1969 Cri LJ 1268. (Property received by R at B — Criminal breach of trust in respect of the property by R at J — Offence of receiving that property as stolen property by V at J — As R can be tried at B under Sec. 181 (2) and V can be tried with R under Section 239, both R and V can be tried at B.)

(13) Representative of organisation deputed to go to a place, purchase goods and also sell them there — Offence under Section 409 alleged against that representative — Court in the place where the property should have been delivered by the accused has got jurisdiction to try the case. In this case it is the place of location of organisation that has jurisdiction to try it. 1969 All Cr R 101 (105).

5. Property which is the subject of the offence. — (1) It is only the receipt of the property which is the subject of the offence that determines the venue of trial. Thus, where A was entrusted with a railway receipt for goods at Pegu with instructions to take delivery of the goods at Rangoon and sell the same on the complainant's account, but A sold the goods and misappropriated the sale proceeds, it was held that the property, which was the subject of the offence, was the sale proceeds and not the railway receipt, and that the Pegu Court had no jurisdiction to try the offence. AIR 1917 Low Bur 10 (11) = 18 Cri L Jour 645 (646).

(2) Where the accused has received several items of property on various dates and has subsequently embezzled the entire sum or part thereof, the complainant and the Court can consolidate all the items which the accused has received and frame a charge under Section 222 (2) in respect of only one offence. The combined effect of Sections 222 (2) and 181 (2) is that such person accused with the offence of criminal breach of trust can be tried by a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any part of the property which is the subject of the offence is received. AIR 1932 All 26 (27, 28) = 33 Cri L Jour 127.

(3) Trust owning temples in Rajasthan, registered and having head office at Bombay — Trustee sending money from Bombay to accused, managing temples, for repairs and renovations — Complaint against accused for criminal breach of trust for unspent amount — Bombay Court has no jurisdiction. AIR 1962 Bom 78 (79 to 82) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 401 = 63 Bom LR 609.

6. "Received or retained". — (1) It is not necessary under sub-section (2) that at the time the property is received or retained by the accused person, he should have a dishonest intention to misappropriate it or to commit criminal breach of trust with reference thereto. It is sufficient if the property, which is the subject of the offence, was received or retained by the accused at a particular place, even though it was received quite properly and innocently at that place but misappropriated elsewhere. AIR 1954 All 648 (649) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1356.

(2) Where a person hired a cycle for six hours at Poona but later on pledged the same at Yeola, it was held that Poona Court had jurisdiction to try the offence. AIR 1927 Bom 38 (39) = 28 Cri L Jour 44 (DB).

(3) Where A entrusts to B as his agent a certain property to effect a sale of it and B sells the property and misappropriates the sale proceeds, he can be tried at the place where the property was entrusted to him by A. AIR 1951 Assam 131 (136, 137) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 49 = 52 Cri L Jour 1388 (FB).

(4) The word "received" in this sub-section cannot be construed to mean "actually received" by the accused. It is wide enough to cover a case where the receipt is through an agent. AIR 1954 All 648 (649) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1356.

(5) Offence of receiving or retaining property stolen during a railway journey — Court within whose local limits the property has been so received or retained alone can try the said offence. AIR 1964 Raj 118 (120) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 700 = 1963 Raj LW 601.

(6) Property entrusted to R at place B — R committing criminal breach of trust at J — Another person V receiving that property as stolen property at J — As V did not receive or retain the stolen property at B, he cannot be tried at B. AIR 1969 Raj 266 (269) = 1969 Raj LW 168 = 1969 Cri LJ 1268.

7. Sub-section (3) — Theft. — (1) An offence of being in possession of stolen property can be tried in the place where the property was stolen or where it was dishonestly possessed. AIR 1926 All 167 (168) = 27 Cri L Jour 21  AIR 1934 All 455 (456) = 35 Cri L Jour 1092.

Also see Illustration to Section 180.

(2) After the amendment of Sec. 410 of the Penal Code in 1882, a person can be punished in India for being in possession of stolen property, though the property was stolen outside India. (1886) 10 Bom 186 (188) (DB)  AIR 1926 Bom 71 (74, 76) = 27 Cri L Jour 114.

(3) Where a theft is committed in one district in pursuance of conspiracy entered into in a different district, the Court in the latter district can try only the offence of criminal conspiracy but not of theft, even though such Court could have tried both offences jointly, if the theft had been committed within its jurisdiction. AIR 1924 Cal 1034 (1035) = 26 Cri L Jour 207 (DB).

(4) Where property stolen in one district is found in the possession of another person in another district, the thief can be legally tried in the latter district as the latter's possession is the constructive possession of the thief. 1871 Pun Re (Cr) No. 4, p. 5 (5) (DB)  AIR 1964 Raj 118 (120) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 700 = 1963 Raj LW 601.

8. Sub-section (4) — Kidnapping and abduction. — (1) The offence of kidnapping from lawful guardianship defined in Section 361 of Penal Code is not a continuing offence and is completed as soon as the minor is removed from the keeping of the guardian. (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 533 (533) (DB) (Mad)  AIR 1931 Lah 53 (54) = 32 Cri L Jour 615  27 Cal 1041 (1048, 1049) (FB)  AIR 1926 Pat 493 (494) = 27 Cri LJ 792 (DB)  AIR 1931 All 55 (55, 56) = 32 Cri L Jour 690  (1897) 19 All 109 (110) (DB).

Also see Section 182.

(2) As to whether "abduction" is a continuing offence, see Section 182.

(3) The section expressly provides that the offences of kidnapping and abduction are triable, either at the place where the offence took place or at the place where the minor was conveyed, concealed or detained. The following cases which under the old Code held that the offence of kidnapping should be tried only in the Court within whose jurisdiction the kidnapping took place are not good law. (1880) 3 All 258 (259, 260)  1883 All WN 164 (164) (DB)  (1896) 18 All

182. Place of inquiry or trial where scene of offence is uncertain or not in one district only; or where offence is continuing, or consists of several acts. — When it is uncertain in which of several local areas an offence was committed, or where an offence is committed partly in one local area and partly in another, or where an offence is a continuing one, and continues to be committed in more local areas than one, or where it consists of several acts done in different local areas, it may be inquired into or tried by a Court having jurisdiction over any of such local areas.

350 (352) (DB)  1883 All WN 67 (67)  1887 All WN 139 (139).

(4) The words "kidnapping or abduction" in the section do not include the offence of wrongfully concealing or keeping in confinement a kidnapped person, because the latter is a separate offence under Section 368 of the Penal Code. AIR 1924 All 454 (455) = 25 Cri L Jour 552  AIR 1947 Pat 17 (20) = 25 Pat 241 = 48 Cri L Jour 189 (DB).

(Minor kidnapped in native State — Accused taking her to another native State — On way accused apprehended at railway station A in British India — Sub-section (4) did not give jurisdction to Court A, no consequence having ensued in British India within meaning of Section 179 and no offence having been committed in British territory, there being no concealment or detention in British India and "conveying" not being separate offence, kidnapping being complete outside British India.)]

(5) Where A having knowledge of the fact that a girl was abducted by B confines her with a view to sell her, he can be tried under Section 368, Penal Code, in the Court within whose jurisdiction the original abduction took place. AIR 1951 Ajmer 68 (70) = 52 Cri L Jour 891. See Illustration C to Section 180.

(6) This sub-section refers only to cases of kidnapping and abduction but does not apply to offences under Chapter XX of the Penal Code. So the offence of enticing away a married woman, under Section 498 of the Penal Code, does not come within the operation of this section and can be tried only at the place where the offence was committed. AIR 1918 Lah 357 (357) = 19 Cri L Jour 438  (1881) 3 All 251 (252, 253) (DB).

9. Effect of a trial in a Court contrary to the provisions of the section. — (1) Where a person is tried in a wrong Court, contrary to the provisions of the section, it is only an irregularity within the meaning of Section 531 and the conviction will not be set aside unless there has been a failure of justice. AIR 1924 All 454 (455) = 25 Cri L Jour 552  AIR 1918 Cal 305 (306) = 19 Cri L Jour 896 (DB)  (1906) 4 Cri L Jour 500 (501) = 30 Mad 94 (DB)  AIR 1931 Rang 164 (168, 169) = 32 Cri L Jour 1120 (DB).

(2) Complaint filed in Court of wrong territorial jurisdiction — High Court can clothe the Court with jurisdiction: 13 Cri LJ 85 and 1939 Mad WN 517 and AIR 1923 Mad 326 in so far as they decide contrary Held, not good law. AIR 1960 Mad 64 (71) = 1960 Cri LJ 242 = (1959) 2 Mad LJ 521 (FB).

SECTION 182 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and applicability.
2. Uncertainty as to local area in which offence is committed.
3. Offences committed partly in one local area and partly in another.
4. Continuing offence.
5. Offences consisting of several acts.

1. Scope and applicability. — (1) Section 182 cannot be read as an exception to the general rule embodied in Section 177 and repeated in Section 7 (2) of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952. It is rather amplification of that rule. AIR 1959 Ker 311 (314) = ILR (1958) Ker 763 = 1959 Cri LJ 1172.

(2) Where an offence is committed only in one place and there is no question of any other local area giving rise to jurisdiction, this section has no application. AIR 1952 Sau 35 (37) = 1952 Cri LJ 737. (The offence of drinking liquor.)  (1889) 16 Cal 667  AIR 1963 Guj 234 (237, 238) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 273 = (1962) 3 Guj LR 409 (DB). (Offence under S. 66 (1) (b), Bombay Prohibition Act (25 of 1949) would be complete on consumption of liquor. Place of offence cannot be uncertain.)

(3) Section 182 is a specific provision and not a general principle of law and was supplemental to the third clause of Section 181 (2). AIR 1957 SC 196 (198) = 1957 Cri LJ 322.

(4) In the case of a continuing offence, though it is beyond doubt that the place where the initial offence was committed would be a proper place of trial under the law, the offence can be tried under this section either at such place or at any other place where it continues to be committed. AIR 1922 Nag 40 (42) = 23 Cri LJ 210 (DB).

(5) This section has no application where one of the local areas in question is outside India. AIR 1946 Nag 128 (130) = ILR (1945) Nag 130  (1889) 16 Cal 667 (675, 676) (DB)  (1876) 1 Mad 171 (171, 172) (SB)  (1882) 5 Mad 23 (24, 25) = 1 Weir 1 (DB).

(6) If it is doubtful whether an offence was committed within India, or outside India, this section does not apply so as to give jurisdiction to Indian Court. AIR 1923 Lah 487 (487) = 24 Cri LJ 579. (Benefit of doubt should be given to the accused.)

(7) Where the offence is a continuing offence within the meaning of this section and the initial offence was committed outside India, the fact that the offence was continued in India does not confer jurisdiction on a Court in India to inquire into or try the offence. (1876) 1 Mad 171 (171, 172) (SB).

(8) Where an offence is initiated outside India but completed in India, it has been held that the offence can be tried or inquired into in India. (1912) 13 Cri LJ 426 (427, 428, 429) = 36 Bom 524 (DB).

(9) In cases coming under this section, the Courts having jurisdiction over the several areas in question have concurrent jurisdiction. When a question arises as to which of the Courts ought to try the case, it can be decided by the High Court under Section 185. (1913) 14 Cri LJ 398 (399) (DB) (Cal)  AIR 1933 Lah 852 (853, 854) = 35 Cri LJ 171.

(10) Section 182 relates only to cases of offences, that is acts which are punishable by law. A case under Section 145 is not a case relating to an offence. Hence, Section 182 does not apply to such a case. (1899) 3 Cal WN 148 (150)  AIR 1914 All 473 (473, 474) = 15 Cri LJ 520.

(11) The principle underlying this section read with Section 185 has been held to apply to a proceeding in relation to land or to any other criminal or semi-criminal proceeding as contemplated under Chapter XII provided a bona fide dispute with regard to actual jurisdiction does arise in any case. (1954) 33 Pat 927 (937) (DB). (Observations in 3 Cal WN 148, held obiter; AIR 1914 All 473, Dissented from.)

(12) In a case falling within Section 6 (1) of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952, Section 7 (2) of that Act cannot be read as excluding the application of Chapter XV (including Section 180) of the Code. AIR 1959 Ker 311 (314) = ILR (1958) Ker 763 = 1959 Cri LJ 1172.

2. Uncertainty as to local area in which offence is committed. — (1) A person is charged with the offence of criminal breach of trust. Though it is clear that he must have committed the embezzlement either at Calcutta, Burdwan or Murshidabad, it is uncertain at which particular place he actually committed the offence. He may be tried at any of these places. 1945 All LJ 468 (469)  AIR 1957 SC 196 (199) = 1957 Cri LJ 322. (Cri. Revn. No. 209 of 1953, D/- 30-10-1953 (Nag), Reversed.)  AIR 1918 Cal 110 (110) = 19 Cri LJ 679 (DB)  AIR 1937 Bom 371 (372) = 38 Cri LJ 977 (DB)  AIR 1934 All 499 (505) = 35 Cri LJ 982 (FB)  AIR 1963 Guj 234 (237) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 273 = (1962) 3 Guj LR 409 (DB).

(2) Where there is doubt as to whether the criminal conspiracy was hatched at N or at A, Section 182 applies and N Court would have jurisdiction to try all the accused persons for criminal conspiracy. AIR 1956 Vind Pra 30 (33) = 1956 Cri LJ 1246.

(3) This section applies to cases where there is no doubt that the occurrence in question took place at a particular locality A, but it is uncertain whether A is in district B or C. (1898) 25 Cal 858 (859, 860) (DB). (Uncertainty as to which district the scene of offence belonged — Expression 'local areas' includes a 'district'.)  AIR 1929 Cal 204 (205) = 30 Cri LJ 401 (DB).

(4) Where there is a doubt as to whether an offence is committed at B where the accused's act is done, or at Y where the consequence of his act ensues, the offence can be tried at either place. AIR 1933 Nag 33 (35) = 34 Cri LJ 1038.

3. Offences committed partly in one local area and partly in another. — (1) A at p posts certain value-payable articles at the post-office at p to B at h. B at h takes delivery of the parcels on paying for them. The parcels on being opened are found to contain nothing but waste paper. A can be prosecuted for cheating at p or h. AIR 1930 Bom 358 (359, 360) = 31 Cri LJ 1155 (DB).

(2) Bag of adultered turmeric sent from Bombay to Nasik — Offence under Section 7 (v) of Prevention of Food Adulteration Act (1954) committed partly at Bombay and partly at Nasik — Accused could be tried at either place. AIR 1966 SC 128 (130) = 1966 Cri LJ 106 = (1965) 2 SCWR 561 = 68 Bom LR 90.

(3) A at m deceived by E at c by means of certain letters written by E at c and received and read by A at m — By means of such deception A induced to send by insured post certain currency notes to E at c —E was prosecuted for cheating under Section 417, I. P. C. — Held that the offence was complete at m and he could be tried there and that even if there was room for argument that the offence was not complete until the currency notes reached the addressee, the offence could be tried at m under S. 182. AIR 1914 All 373 (373, 374) = 15 Cri LJ 719.

(4) Life policy effected at C through fraud — Head office of insurance company at G — Offence may be tried at either place. (1913) 14 Cri LJ 398 (399) (DB) (Cal).

(5) Accused charged under Sections 417, 418, Penal Code — Monies received from complainant's firm at C and false accounts rendered at C — Held that Court at C had jurisdiction. (1899) 26 Cal 746 (747) (DB).

(6) A defamatory letter is posted at a to be read at b. The offence of defamation can be tried at a or b. AIR 1923 Mad 666 (666) = 24 Cri LJ 309  AIR 1959 Andh Pra 657 (659) = 1959 Cri LJ 1403.

(11) Accused at N ordering by letters goods from merchants at B and after receiving the goods, absconding without paying for them as promised in his letters — He can be tried at N for cheating. AIR 1943 Bom 183 (184) = 44 Cri LJ 664 (DB).

(12) Accused 3 and 4 alleged to have cheated complainant by giving spurious gold pieces in return for money in District R — Accused 5 getting amount from complainant in District T — Transaction, though completed only in District R as complainant parted with money in T, Court at T held had jurisdiction to try case. AIR 1940 Mad 649 (649).

(13) Accused convicted under Section 32 (4), Companies Act, for default punishable under Section 32 — Default taking place in Calcutta— Accused residing at Darjeeling and office of company situated there — Held, that even if that was so, the accused was triable in Calcutta. AIR 1917 Cal 2 (2) = 18 Cri LJ 787 (DB).

(14) Presidency Magistrate, Calcutta, has jurisdiction to try charge under Section 134, Companies Act, even though company is situate outside Calcutta as office of Registrar with whom balance sheet should be filed is in Calcutta. AIR 1917 Cal 1 (1) = 18 Cri LJ 787 (788) (DB).

(15) Criminal breach of trust — Offence is complete where the dishonest misappropriation takes place — No part of the offence takes place at the place where the loss to the principal occurs in consequence. AIR 1914 All 373 (374) = 15 Cri LJ 719.

(16) Property entrusted at place B, misappropriated at place J — Offence under Section 411 Penal Code in respect of same property at J — Receiver cannot be prosecuted at B. AIR 1969 Raj 266 (269) = 1969 Cri LJ 1268 = 1969 Raj LW 168.

(17) A at Surat committing breach of trust in respect of a cheque by cashing it at Surat — Loss in consequence suffered by B at Akola — Offence not committed at Akola — Surat Court alone has jurisdiction. AIR 1948 Nag 80 (81) = ILR (1947) Nag 378 = 49 Cri LJ 121.

(18) Where the charge mentions only one of the two places where the offence is committed but the accused has not been misled in his defence, the omission does not affect the conviction. AIR 1936 Pat 358 (360) = 37 Cri LJ 862 (DB).

(19) Goods obtained under actual User's licence under Imports and Exports (Control) Act 1947 — Goods offered for sale from Bombay and delivered to purchaser at Delhi— Agreement to sell being completed at Delhi, part of the offence of selling in contravention of the licence was committed at Delhi — Under Section 182 read with Section 177 Delhi Court has jurisdiction. 4. Continuing offence. — (1) Abduction is a continuing offence and continues to be committed so long as the abducted person is being removed from one place to another. AIR 1933 Oudh 45 (47, 48) = 34 Cri LJ 220 (DB)  AIR 1931 All 55 (55, 56) = 32 Cri LJ 690  AIR 1914 All 17 (17) =15 Cri LJ 154.

(2) Abettor of offence under Section 366, Penal Code which is a continuing offence, can be tried with principal offender at place where principal offence was committed. 1962 (2) Cri LJ 712 (714, 715) = 64 Pun LR 193.

(3) It cannot be held as matter of law that abduction is always a continuing offence. The question has to be decided on the facts of each case. So far as the original abductor is concerned his offence may be said to be a continuing one so long as he keeps moving the woman from place to place. But where some persons join the original abductor later on they cannot be joined in the same trial unless it can be alleged that the offences committed by all the persons were in the course of the same transaction. AIR 1947 Pat 17 (19, 23) = 25 Pat 241 = 48 Cri LJ 189 (DB).

(4) Possession of goods with counterfeit trade mark for purposes of trade — Goods on their way to another destination where they were to be sold — Possession of goods at any place on the way is also offence and offence can be tried there and not only at the place where the goods were ultimately intended to be sold. (1898) 25 Cal 639 (640, 641) (DB).

(5) Rioting — Railway line dividing two jurisdictional areas — Rioters creating disturbance first on one side and after being dispersed, re-assembling and causing trouble from the other side — Offence held to be continuing one. AIR 1949 Mad 94 (94) = 50 Cri LJ 106.

(6) Accused charged with offence of abetment of waging war against the Queen — Abetment by aiding by sending money from C to P — Sending is continuing offence and can be tried at P where the money is received. (1872) 17 Suth WR (Cr) 15 (17) = 9 Beng LR 36 (SB).

(7) Enticing and detaining married woman — Offence is a continuing one. (1909) 9 Cri LJ 581 (582) = 5 Low Bur Rul 17.

(8) Kidnapping from lawful guardianship is not a continuing offence. (9) Independently of this section, the offence of kidnapping can, under sub-section (4) of Section 181, be tried by a Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the person was kidnapped or was conveyed or concealed or detained.

(10) Theft is not a continuing offence and does not continue to be committed so long as the thief is in possession of the stolen goods. (1906) 3 Cri LJ 247 (248, 249) = 28 All 372 (DB)  (1907) 7 Cri LJ 188 (190) = 35 Cal 361 (DB).

(11) Under Section 181, sub-section (3), the offence of theft can be inquired into or tried by any Court within whose jurisdiction the offence was committed or the stolen property was possessed by the thief.

(12) Circumstances may arise in which a conspiracy is a continuing offence within the purview of this section, while it is in the process of being hatched, and any agreement to participate in the object of the conspiracy by each of the conspirators whose assistance is subsequently invoked does not constitute an overt act committed in pursuance of the conspiracy but is an integral part of the conspiracy itself. AIR 1946 Sind 1 (7) = ILR (1945) Kar 275 = 47 Cri LJ 455. (Each case must depend on its own facts.)

(13) Failure to obtain license to continue a factory by using motor of greater horse power than the one allowed under the previous license or not getting the previous license amended under Rule 3 of the Madras Rules framed under the Factories Act, 1948, is a specific and not a continuing offence. AIR 1958 Mad 155 (156) = ILR (1958) Mad 321 = 1958 Cri LJ 524.

(14) Word 'enter' in Section 182 means initial stepping into and includes travel within the territory. This offence of entering within meaning of Rule 3 of the Passport Rules 1950 includes passing or travelling through boundaries of India to reach Kanpur and is a continuing offence within meaning of Section 182. Kanpur Court could try the case. AIR 1965 All 158 (159) = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 410 = 1963 All WR (HC) 571.

183. Offence committed on a journey.—An offence committed whilst the offender is in the course of performing a journey or voyage may be inquired into or tried by a Court through or into the local limits of whose jurisdiction the offender, or the person against whom, or the thing in respect of which, the offence was committed, passed in the course of that journey or voyage.

(15) Offences under Sections 471 and 474, Penal Code — Possessing and using a forged permit knowing it to be forged is a continuing offence. AIR 1965 SC 1921 (1922) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 822 = (1965) 2 SCWR 784.

(16) Also see S. 181.

5. Offences consisting of several acts.—(1) A at h obtained a false railway receipt and sent it through an agent to K at b. The agent presented it to K and the latter was thereby deceived and induced to part with money. It was held that A by taking the railway receipt did more than merely prepare for cheating K, that he did what was in the circumstances an act essential to causing the deception and that the Court at h had jurisdiction to try him for cheating. AIR 1922 Nag 40 (41, 42) = 23 Cri LJ 210 (DB).

(2) Offence consisting of several acts done in different local areas — It may be enquired into or tried by a court having jurisdiction over any of such local areas. AIR 1960 Mad 64 (70) = 1960 Cri LJ 242 = (1959) 2 Mad LJ 521 (FB).

(3) Conspiracy and acts done in pursuance thereof constitute one transaction and come within scope of this section. Conspiracy may be tried at any place where any of acts in pursuance of the conspiracy are committed. AIR 1962 Mys 275 (279) = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 765 = 40 Mys LJ 494 (DB).

(4) Where the acts alleged do not amount to one offence but to several distinct offences, some of which are committed outside the jurisdiction, the mere fact that if they had been committed within jurisdiction, they could have been tried jointly under Section 239, does not make this clause applicable to the case. AIR 1924 Cal 1034 (1034, 1035) = 26 Cri LJ 207 (DB).

[See also AIR 1959 Ker 311 (314) = ILR (1958) Ker 763 = 1959 Cri LJ 1172. (The fact that several offences can be charged and tried together cannot invest the Court with territorial jurisdiction where otherwise it has none. The court must have territorial jurisdiction to try each of them.)

(5) Possessing a domicile under Section 4 (b), Bombay Prevention of Hindu Bigamous Marriages Act in the State of Bombay cannot be regarded as one of the several acts constituting the offence under Section 5 of that Act within the meaning of Section 182. The criminal act is the marriage and not the possession of the Bombay State domicile. When such a marriage is performed outside the Bombay State, no part of the offence can be said to have taken place in the Bombay State. AIR 1955 Bom 439 (447) = ILR (1955) Bom 1039 = 1955 Cri LJ 1564 (DB).

(6) Documents forged in Burma anc used in India — Offence under Sectior 471, Penal Code can be tried by Cour in India. 1960 Ker LT 1350 = 1961 Mac LJ (Cr) 114 = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 132 (135).

(1) A, while performing a railway journey from Delhi to Bhatinda, commits an offence. In the course of the journey the train passes through Ferozepore District. A can be tried for the offence in Ferozepore District. AIR 1924 Lah 351 (351, 352) = 24 Cri LJ 253.

(2) A, while performing a railway journey from Shikarpur to Jacobabad, commits an offence at some place between Sultan Kot and Hamayun. A can be tried for the offence at Jacobabad though the Court there has no jurisdiction over the area in which the offence was committed. AIR 1925 Sind 177 (177) = 25 Cri LJ 439  1882 Rat 181 (181, 182) (DB).

[But see (1863) 1 Mad HCR 193 (196) (DB). (Case under Section 35, Act 18 of 1862).]

(3) A, while performing his journey from Dacca in East Pakistan to Ajmer in India crossed the Indian border without a valid permit in order to reach Ajmer. A can be tried at Ajmer for an offence under Section 3, Influx from Pakistan (Control) Act, 1949, though the offence was committed on the Indian border. AIR 1952 Ajmer 5 (6) = 1952 Cri LJ 151.

(4) It is necessary, that the parties or the subject-matter of the offence should have passed through the jurisdiction of the Court proposing to hold the inquiry or trial, in the course of the same journey or voyage in which the offence was committed. Such journey or voyage must be continuous from one place to another, regard being had, for the purpose of estimating the continuity, to all the ordinary incidents affecting the journeys or voyages of the particular kind, which may be under consideration. (1874) 21 Suth WR (Cr) 66 (67) = 13 Beng LR (App) 4 (DB).

184. Offences against Railway, Telegraph, Post-office and Arms Act. — All offences against the provisions of any law for the time being in force relating to Railways,[] Telegraph,[†] the Post-office[‡] or Arms and Ammunition[§] may be inquired into or tried in a presidency-town,[†] whether the offence is stated to have been committed within such town or not:

(5) The complainant and the accused were travelling by the same train from Bombay to Calcutta via Allahabad. They broke their journey at Allahabad for a day or two and then proceeded to Calcutta. The accused was alleged to have criminally intimidated the complainant while they were at Allahabad. The stoppage at Allahabad was not due to the nature of the journey itself because the journey might have been completed without any appreciable stoppage simply by continuing in the train in which they were passengers before they came to Allahabad. It was held that the offence could not be tried or inquired into at Calcutta. (1874) 21 Suth WR (Cr) 66 (66, 67, 68) = 13 Beng LR (App) 4 (DB).

(6) If the halt in the course of a journey or voyage is incidental to it, the halt does not affect the continuity of the journey or voyage for the purpose of this section. Hence, an offence committed during such a halt can be inquired into or tried at the place of destination. (1876) 25 Suth WR (Cr) 45 (45) (DB).

(7) The journey or voyage referred to in this section is the journey or voyage which the offender was performing at the time of committing the offence. Hence, a Court has no jurisdiction to inquire into or try an offence under this section unless the parties or the subject-matter of the offence passed within its jurisdiction in the course of the journey or voyage, which the offender was making at the time of committing the offence. (1905) 2 Cri LJ 411 (412, 413) (DB) (Cal).

(8) A desiring to go from s to k, purchases a through ticket at s and proceeds by train from s to g and by steamer from g to k. B makes a voyage from g to k in the same steamer and in the course of the voyage he commits an offence against A. B cannot be proceeded against at s because A did not pass through s in the course of the journey which B was making at the time of committing the offence. (1905) 2 Cri LJ 411 (412, 413) (DB) (Cal).

(9) A committed a theft on a running train by dropping some bales of cloth at a place in x district before the other district y was reached. There was no evidence to show that A who was a resident of x district, passed through y district. It was held that A could be tried in x district and not in y district. 1951 All WR (HC) 256 (257).

(10) A, a resident of Karachi, went from Karachi to Dacca under a transit permit valid for 15 days and later arrived at Ajmer without a valid permit. A had failed to surrender his transit permit at Calcutta before entering East Pakistan. The Ajmer Court has no jurisdiction to try the offence of not surrendering the permit as the presence of the accused at Ajmer cannot be said to be in the course of his journey to East Pakistan during which the offence was committed. AIR 1952 Ajmer 5 (5) = 1952 Cri LJ 151.

(11) As the Code extends only to India, this section applies only to offences committed in India. Hence, an offence committed outside India in the course of a journey cannot be tried or inquired into in India although a part of the journey was made in India. AIR 1923 Lah 487 (488) = 24 Cri LJ 579  (1882) 5 Mad 23 (25) (DB)  AIR 1928 Mad 1136 (1137) = 30 Cri LJ 245.

(12) This section as also Sections 177 to 181 should be read with section 531. Consequently if the offence is tried by a Court having no jurisdiction and there is no failure of justice, a finding, sentence or order will not be set aside. (1906) 4 Cri LJ 500 (501) = 30 Mad 94 (DB).

Also see S. 531.

(13) As to the offences committed on the high seas, see Notes on Section 188.

(15) Section 183 does not control Section 180 (b) or 181 (3). AIR 1964 Raj 118 (119, 120) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 700 = 1963 Raj LW 601.

Provided that the offender and all the witnesses necessary for his prosecution are to be found within such town.

In its application to the City of Ahmedabad, in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the words "presidency-town" wherever occurring, substitute the words "City of Ahmedabad". — Guj. Act XIX of 1961, Section 15. (4-11-1961.)

*[185. High Court to decide, in case of doubt, district where inquiry or trial shall take place. — (1) Whenever a question arises as to which of two or more Courts subordinate to the same High Court ought to inquire into or try any offence, it shall be decided by that High Court,

SECTION 185 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and applicability.
2. Sub-section (1) — Courts subordinate to the same High Court — Question as to which Court should dispose of case.
3. Sub-section (2) — Case where same offence is taken cognizance of by two different Courts subordinate to different High Courts.

1. Scope and applicability. — (1) Where two Courts have concurrent jurisdiction to try a case, the mere fact that one of them has taken cognizance of the offence does not preclude the other Court from taking cognizance of the same offence. In such cases, the High Court might interfere under the provisions of this section to declare in which of the two Courts the proceedings should be continued. AIR 1933 Lah 852 (853) = 35 Cri LJ 171.

(2) The section applies only to cases of offences. Hence, it does not apply to a proceeding under Chapter XII. AIR 1914 All 473 (473, 474) = 15 Cri LJ 520. [But see (1954) 38 Pat 927 (938, 939) (DB). (AIR 1914 All 473 = 15 Cri LJ 520, Dissented from.)]

(3) See also Ss. 526 and 527.

2. Sub-section (1) — Courts subordinate to the same High Court — Question as to which Court should dispose of case. — (1) The section applies notwithstanding there is no doubt raised as to the jurisdiction of different Courts, but only as to the greater convenience and desirability of inquiring into or trying a case in one Court or another. See AIR 1917 Cal 137 (141) = 18 Cri L Jour 81 (82, 88, 93, 94) (FB). (Overruling AIR 1914 Cal 386 = 15 Cri L Jour 48.)  AIR 1918 Mad 1183 (1184) = 18 Cri L Jour 148 (150) (DB)  AIR 1917 Lah 237 (241) = 18 Cri L Jour 514 (518).

(2) The jurisdiction which the High Court exercises under this sub-section is one of very great responsibility. Therefore, in making a reference under this sub-section to the High Court proper steps should be taken to supply to the High Court with at least all the available official records and authentic materials on the point so as to facilitate the work of the High Court in coming to a right decision on the point. AIR 1952 Cal 563 (564) = 1952 Cri L Jour 1253 (DB).

(3) Provisions of Section 185 (1) do not fetter in any way discretion of the High Court for deciding as to in which of the two or more courts, subordinate to the same High Court, the enquiry or trial shall proceed. AIR 1970 Cal 81 (83) = 1970 Cri LJ 208.

(4) In exercising the discretion under Section 185 (1), the factum of earlier commencement, convenience of the parties, nature of the case and facts thereof may be taken into consideration. Inconvenience to the accused and not to the complainant has to be considered. AIR 1970 Cal 81 (84) = 1970 Cri LJ 208.

3. Sub-section (2) — Case where same offence is taken cognizance of by two different Courts subordinate to different High Courts. — (1) Where only one Court has taken cognizance of an offence, the High Court has no jurisdiction

(2) Where two or more Courts not subordinate to the same High Court have taken cognizance of the same offence, the High Court within the local limits of whose appellate criminal jurisdiction the proceedings were first commenced may direct the trial of such offender to be held in any Court subordinate to it, and if it so decides all other proceedings against such person in respect of such offence shall be discontinued. If such High Court, upon the matter having been brought to its notice, does not so decide, any other High Court, within the loca limits of whose appellate criminal jurisdiction such proceedings are pending may give a like direction, and upon its so doing all other such proceedings shall be discontinued.]

[°] This section was substituted for the original section by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1923 (XVIII of 1923), Section 43.

186. Power to issue summons or warrant for offence committed beyond local urisdiction, Magistrate's procedure on arrest. — (1) When a Presidency Magistrate, a District Magistrate, a Sub-Divisional Magistrate, or, if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the °[State Government], a Magistrate of the first class, sees reason to believe that any person within the local limits of his jurisdiction has committed without such limits (whether within or without †[India]) an offence which cannot, under the provisions of Sections 177 to 184 (both inclusive), or any other law for the time being in force, be inquired into or tried within such local limits, but is under some law for the time being in force triable in †[India], such to interfere under sub-section. AIR 1933 Oudh 45 (48) = 34 Cri LJ 220 (DB).

(2) In the following case, the High Court refused to interfere at an interlocutory stage and held that it was desirable that a case pending in a Court subordinate to it should be proceeded with as it dealt with every offence said to have been committed in the entire transaction. 1951 RD (HC) 48 (51).

(3) Theft in Assam — Stolen articles recovered from accused in Punjab — Case under Section 380, Penal Code registered and investigation started in Assam — Subsequently case under Section 411, Penal Code, started in Punjab — Trial under Section 380, Penal Code, should get priority — Trial under Section 411, Penal Code had no independent existence. AIR 1959 Assam 20 (Prs 4, 5) = 1959 Cri LJ 169.

(4) The principle of earlier commencement in Section 185 (2) is enjoined to eliminate possible confusion and conflict, irrespective of any ground of general inconvenience or any other sufficient reason. AIR 1970 Cal 81 (83) = 1970 Cri LJ 208.

(1) In order that this section may apply the Magistrate must have reason to believe that an offence has been committed outside the local limits of his jurisdiction, whether within or without India. AIR 1923 Cal 401 (401, 402) = 25 Cri LJ 184 (DB)  AIR 1968 Cal 220 (226) = 71 Cal WN 508 = 1968 Cri LJ 604.

(2) Where an offence is triable within the local limits of the Magistrate's jurisdiction, though committed outside such limits, this section does not apply. See 1875 Rat 97 (98) (DB). (Case under the Code of 1872.)

(3) The powers conferred by this section are conferred only on certain specified Magistrates and not on all Magistrates. See 1896 Rat 849 (849) (DB).

(4) Section 186 does not override the provisions of Sections 75 to 86 which deal with the execution of warrants of arrest. AIR 1940 Bom 397 (398) = 42 Cri LJ 205.

(5) Chief Presidency Magistrate, Calcutta merely forwarding a warrant for arrest sent to him by City Magistrate, Shrinagar, for execution to Commissioner of Police Calcutta as accused was not residing within local limits of his jurisdiction — Section 186 does not apply. AIR 1955 Cal 277 (278) = 1955 Cri LJ 791 (DB).

(6) It is not necessary that a Magistrate issuing a warrant under this section should be present within the local limits of his jurisdiction at the time of issuing it. It is enough that at such time the offender is found within such limits though the Magistrate himself is outside such limits. (1876) 1 Bom 340 (341) (DB).

[See however (1910) 11 Cri LJ 570 (571) = 1910 Pun Re (Cr) No. 23 (DB). (Search warrant signed by the Magistrate at a place outside his jurisdiction is illegal— Magistrate holding powers within certain local limits cannot exercise those powers from a place beyond such local limits — (1876) 1 Bom 340, Distinguished and Explained.)]

(7) When the facts of a case fall within this section not only can the

Magistrate may inquire into the offence as if it had been committed within such local limits and compel such person in manner hereinbefore provided to appear before him and send such person to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into or try such offence, or, if such offence is bailable, take a bond with or without sureties for his appearance before such Magistrate.

(2) When there are more Magistrates than one having such jurisdiction and the Magistrate acting under this section cannot satisfy himself as to the Magistrate to or before whom such person should be sent or bound to appear, the case shall be reported for the orders of the High Court.

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in sub-section (1) of Section 186 for the words "a District Magistrate, a Sub-Divisional Magistrate, or, if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government, a Magistrate of the first class" substitute the words "or a Magistrate of the first class specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government in consultation with the High Court." — Bom. Act XXIII of 1951, Section 2 and Schedule. (1-7-1953).

(2) After the reorganization of the State of Bombay in 1956, the amendment made in Section 186 by the above-mentioned Bom. Act is extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959 by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

Mysore

In its application to the State of Mysore, in sub-sec. (1) of S. 186, for the words "a Presidency Magistrate, a District Magistrate, a Sub-divisional Magistrate or if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government, a Magistrate of the first class" substitute the words "a Judicial Magistrate". — Mys. Act XIII of 1965, Sec. 32 (1-10-1965).

Punjab, Haryana and Chandigarh

In its application to the States of Punjab and Haryana and Union territory of Chandigarh, in sub-section (1) of Section 186, for the words "a Presidency Magistrate, a District Magistrate, a Sub-divisonal Magistrate or, if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government a Magistrate of the first class," substitute the words, "a District Magistrate, a Chief Judicial Magistrate, a Sub-divisional Magistrate, or, if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government or the High Court, as the case may be, an Executive or a Judicial Magistrate of the first class." — Punj. Act XXV of 1964, Section 2 and Schedule Pt. I, Item (43) (2-10-1964) and Act 31 of 1966, Sections 29 and 88 (1-11-1966).

Magistrate follow the procedure laid down therein but also the High Court can, under clause 29 of the Letters Patent (Madras), direct a Magistrate to hold a preliminary inquiry and commit the case to the sessions if a prima facie case is made out. But the High Court will not make such an order unless the case is of an extremely exceptional character; and ordinarily the Magistrate must be allowed to follow the procedure laid down in this section. (1901) 2 Weir 146 (146, 147) (DB).

(8) Warrant of arrest against fugitive offender living outside India — Warrant sent directly to Government of India for extradition of offender — Warrant is not proper and valid. AIR 1968 Cal 220 (228) = 71 Cal WN 508 = 1968 Cri LJ 604.

Rajasthan

Abu area. — In its application to the Abu area of the State of Rajasthan, the amendment made in Section 186 is the same as that made in (1) of Maharashtra. — See Cent. Act XXXVII of 1956, Section 119 (1-11-1956).

Union territories (except Chandigarh)

In its application to the Union territories, in sub-section (1) of Section 186, for the words "a Presidency Magistrate, a District Magistrate, a Sub-divisional Magistrate, or, if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government, a Magistrate of the first class", substitute the words "a District Magistrate, a Sub-divisional, or, if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government, an Executive Magistrate of the first class, or, if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government, in consultation with the High Court, a Judicial Magistrate of the first class". — Act 19 of 1969, Section 3 and Schedule, Item 45. (In Delhi, on 2-10-1969.)

West Bengal

In its application to the State of West Bengal, in sub-section (1) of Section 186, for the words beginning with 'a District Magistrate' and ending with 'a Magistrate of the first class', substitute the words "Sub-divisional Judicial Magistrate, or, if he is specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government, in consultation with the High Court, a Judicial Magistrate of the first class". — W. B. Act 8 of 1970, Section 2 and Schedule, Item 63.

187. Procedure where warrant issued by subordinate Magistrate. — (1) If the person has been arrested under a warrant issued under Section 186 by a Magistrate, other than a Presidency Magistrate or District Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the District or Sub-Divisional Magistrate to whom he is subordinate, unless the Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into or try such offence issues his warrant for the arrest of such person, in which case the person arrested shall be delivered to the police-officer executing such warrant or shall be sent to the Magistrate by whom such warrant was issued.

(2) If the offence which the person arrested is alleged or suspected to have committed is one which may be inquired into or tried by any Criminal Court in the same district other than that of the Magistrate acting under Section 186, such Magistrate shall send such person to such Court.

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, the amendment made in Section 187 is the same as that made in Maharashtra — See Cent. Act XI of 1960, Section 87.

Magistrates in the City of Ahmedabad exercise the jurisdiction and have the powers of a Presidency Magistrate. — See Guj. Act XIX of 1961, Section 14 (3).

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in sub-section (1) of Section 187, for the words "by a Magistrate other than a Presidency Magistrate or District Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the District or Sub-divisional Magistrate" substitute the words "the Magistrate issuing the warrant shall send the person arrested to the Sessions Judge". — Bombay Act XXIII of 1951, Section 2 and Schedule. (1-7-1953).

(2) After the reorganisation of the State of Bombay in 1956, the amendment made in Section 187 by the above mentioned Bombay Act is extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959 by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

Mysore

In its application to the State of Mysore, in sub-section (1) of Section 187, for the words "by a Magistrate other than a Presidency Magistrate or District Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the District or Sub-divisional Magistrate" substitute the words "the Magistrate issuing the warrant shall send the peron arrested to the Sessions Judge". — Mys. Act XIII of 1965, Section 33 (1-10-1965).

Punjab, Haryana and Chandigarh

In its application to the States of Punjab and Haryana and the Union territory of Chandigarh, in sub-section (1) of Section 187, for the words "a Presidency Magistrate or District Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the District or Sub-divisional Magistrate", substitute the words, "a District Magistrate or Chief Judicial Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the District or Sub-divisional Magistrate, or, as the case may be, to the Chief Judicial Magistrate". — Punj. Act XXV of 1964, Section 2 and Schedule, Pt. I, Item (44) (2-10-1964) and Act 31 of 1966, Sections 29 and 88 (1-11-1966).

Rajasthan

Abu area. — In its application to the Abu area of the State of Rajasthan, the amendment made in Section 187 is the same as that made in (1) of Maharashtra. — See Cent. Act XXXVII of 1956, Section 119. (1-11-1956).

Union territories (except Chandigarh)

In its application to the Union territories, in sub-section (1) of Section 187, for the words "a Presidency Magistrate or District Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the District or Sub-divisional Magistrate", substitute the words "a District Magistrate or Chief Judicial Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the District or Sub-divisional Magistrate, or as the case may be to the Chief Judicial Magistrate". — Act 19 of 1969, Section 3 and Schedule, Item 46. (In Delhi on 2-10-1969).

West Bengal

In its application to the State of West Bengal in Sub-section (1) of Section 187, for the words "District Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the District or Sub-divisional Magistrate", substitute the words, "Sub-divisional Judicial Magistrate, such Magistrate shall send the person arrested to the Sub-divisional Judicial Magistrate". — W. B. Act 8 of 1970, Section 2 and Schedule, Item 64.

188. Liability of Indian citizens for offences committed out of India. — *[When an offence is committed by—

(a) any citizen of India in any place without and beyond India; or

(b) any person on any ship or aircraft registered in India, wherever it may be];

he may be dealt with in respect of such offence as if it had been committed at any place within †[India] at which he may be found:

SECTION 188 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and applicability.
2. "India". — See S. 1
3. Transfer of territory from one State to another after commission of offence — Effect — See S. 177.
4. Liability of citizens of India for offences committed outside India.
5. "At which he may be found."
6. Certificate of Political Agent or sanction of State Government — Proviso
7. Offences committed on the high seas.
8. Offences under the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 19 of 1929.

1. Scope and applicability. — (1) This section provides for the extra-territorial jurisdiction of the Courts in India in certain cases. It deals with procedure only and has its counterpart so far as the substantive law is concerned in Section 4 of the Penal Code. AIR 1936 Bom 437 (437, 438) = 37 Cri LJ 211 (DB) = AIR 1950 Mad 22 (24) = 51 Cri LJ 231.

Political Agents to certify fitness of inquiry into charge.—Provided that ‡[notwithstanding anything in any of the preceding sections of this chapter] no charge as to any such offence shall be inquired into in †[India] unless the Political Agent, if there is one, for the territory in which the offence is alleged to have been committed, certifies that, in his opinion, the charge ought to be inquired into in †[India]; and, where there is no Political Agent, the sanction of the §[State Government] shall be required:

Provided, also, that any proceedings taken against any person under this section which would be a bar to subsequent proceedings against such person for the same offence if such offence had been committed in †[India] shall be a bar to further proceedings against him under †[the Indian Extradition Act, 1903], in respect of the same offence‡ in any territory beyond the limits of †[India].

(2) Under Section 4, I. P. C. and this section the Courts in India are empowered to deal with offences alleged to be committed outside India. AIR 1952 Punj 178 (179) = ILR (1952) Punj 326 = 1952 Cri LJ 744  AIR 1955 SC 36 (38) = 1955 SCR 697 = 1955 Cri LJ 152.

(3) The section provides that the offender can be dealt with in respect of the offence as if it was committed at any place in India at which he may be found. See AIR 1951 Vind Pra 17 (33) = 52 Cri LJ 561.

(4) The rule enunciated in this section is based on the principle that qua citizens the jurisdiction of Courts is not lost by reason of the venue of the offence. AIR 1955 SC 36 (38) = 1955 Cri LJ 152 = 1955 SCR 697.

(5) The section imposes as a condition for the trial of an offender under it that the certificate of the Political Agent for the area in which the offence was committed, or, where there is no Political Agent, the sanction of the State Government should be obtained. The object of such a provision is to prevent the accused being tried over again for the same offence in two different places. AIR 1934 Sind 96 (99) = 36 Cri LJ 240 (DB)  AIR 1952 Punj 178 (179) = ILR (1952) Punj 326 = 1952 Cri LJ 744.

(6) Where an offence is committed within India, the mere fact that it is connected with other criminal acts done outside India does not make the section applicable. AIR 1932 Cal 465 (467) = 33 Cri LJ 267 (DB)  AIR 1933 Lah 977 (984) = 35 Cri LJ 322 (DB)  AIR 1933 Mad 461 (461) = 34 Cri LJ 545  AIR 1933 All 498 (500) = 35 Cri LJ 768  (1906) 3 Cri LJ 247 (248, 249) = 28 All 372 (DB)  (1895) 19 Bom 105 (109) (DB).

[See also AIR 1938 Mad 858 (861) = 40 Cri LJ 355.]

(7) Offences committed outside India by persons or in places not covered by the section cannot be tried in India under the section. (1897) 25 Cal 20 (30) = 24 Ind App 137 = 1897 Pun Re No. 6 (PC)  AIR 1927 All 80 (81) = 27 Cri LJ 991  AIR 1914 Cal 725 (725, 726) = 15 Cri LJ 537 (DB)  (1967) 3 Mad HCR 354 (362) (SB)  AIR 1933 Sind 333 (334, 335) = 35 Cri LJ 585 (DB).

(8) Where an objection is raised as to the jurisdiction of the Court on the ground that the offence was committed outside India, the question must be investigated by the Court and a decision arrived at on the facts. (1968) 9 Suth WR (Cr) 29 (29) (DB).

(9) As to submission to jurisdiction, see the following case. (1882) 6 Bom 622 (626) (DB).

(10) Where an offence is committed within India it can, under Section 177 and the general principle be tried in India notwithstanding that the offender is a foreigner. (1936) 37 Cri LJ 757 (757) (DB) (Cal)  1894 Pun Re (Cr) No. 30 p. 100 (101) (DB)  (1886) 10 Bom 186 (188) (DB).

(11) Though the section empowers the Courts in India to try offences committed outside India in the cases specified therein, it does not affect the liability of the offender in such cases to be dealt with in the country wherein the offence was committed. (1910) 11 Cri LJ 390 (391) = 1910 Pun Re (Cr) No. 14 (DB).

(12) A judgment of acquittal or conviction passed by a foreign Court in such a case will be a bar to proceedings being started against the alleged offender under this section in India. AIR 1924 Lah 238 (239) = 24 Cri LJ 715.

(13) See also the following case. AIR 1953 SC 394 (Pr 24) = 1953 SCR 1188 = 1953 Cri LJ 1480.

Extradition. — (14) Where a person commits an offence outside India and is later on found in India, there are two courses open. He can be tried in India under this section if the case falls within its purview. Or, he can be arrested and sent to the place where he committed the offence to take his trial there. This is called extradition. As to the rules and principles governing the subject of extradition see inter alia the Indian Extradition Act (15 of 1903), and the undermentioned cases. (1906) 4 Cri LJ 49 (52) (DB)  1873 Pun Re (Cr) No. 14 p. 16 (17) (DB)  AIR 1920 Cal 636 (638) = 20 Cri LJ 739 (DB).

(15) Under the second proviso, extradition proceedings will be barred if the offender has been tried in India for the same offence. See AIR 1952 Punj 178 (179) = ILR (1952) Punj 326 = 1952 Cri LJ 744.

2. "India." — See Section 1.

3. Transfer of territory from one State to another after commission of offence — Effect. — See Section 177.

4. Liability of citizens of India for offences committed outside India. — (1) The section enables an Indian Court to try an offence committed abroad by an Indian citizen. But the accused must have been an Indian citizen at the time when he committed the offence. Where at that time he was not an Indian Citizen but migrated subsequently to India and became an Indian citizen the section will not apply. AIR 1952 Punj 178 (179) = ILR (1952) Punj 326 = 1952 Cri L Jour 744  AIR 1955 SC 36 (38, 41) = 1955 Cri L Jour 152 = 1955 SCR 697.

(2) Where persons who were British Indian subjects and after the partition became subjects of the Indian Dominion, commit an offence at a place without and beyond the limits of the Provinces but which place was according to agreement with India and the foreign Country administered by Indian Government the Courts in India have jurisdiction to try such offence as if it had been committed within the Provinces of India. AIR 1954 Punj 37 (39) = 1954 Cri L Jour 302 = ILR (1954) Punj 649 (DB).

(3) Offence committed by Indian citizen in 1953 in Daman — Complaint filed in Bombay Court on 5-11-1962 — Accused appearing in Court on process issued — Bombay Court had jurisdiction to try the case under this section. AIR 1964 Bom 264 (266) = 66 Bom LR 225 = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 533.

(4) Accused charged for cheating in 1942 — Misrepresentation made at Simla and accused was paid money at Lahore at his request — Mere posting of cheque at Kolhapur (then a Native State) held could not be considered as delivery of the cheque to the accused at Kolhapur — No part of offence of cheating was committed outside British India — Sec. 188 did not apply. AIR 1960 SC 266 (270, 271) = 1960 Cri LJ 410 = (1960) 2 SCR 89 = 1960 SCJ 863.

5. "At which he may be found". — (1) The expression is not restricted to cases where a person can be said to be "discovered" in India. It includes cases where the accused is brought by the police to a place in India from a place outside. AIR 1936 Nag 152 (153) = 37 Cri LJ 979  (1882) 6 Bom 622 (625).

(2) The illegality of the arrest under which the accused is brought into India from a foreign place does not affect the jurisdiction of Indian Courts under this section. (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 350 (357, 358) = 35 Bom 225 (SB)  AIR 1948 Nag 251 (252) = ILR (1948) Nag 334 = 49 Cri L Jour 376.

(3) "Found" means found by the Court at the time when the matter comes up for trial. Any Court which is otherwise competent to try the offence can take seisin the moment the accused appears before it. AIR 1948 Nag 251 (252) = ILR (1948) Nag 334 = 49 Cr. L Jour 376.

(4) Accused appearing in Court on process being issued to him — Accused must be said to be 'found' within the meaning of Section 188. AIR 1964 Bom 264 (267) = 66 Bom LR 225 = ILR (1964) Bom 471 = 1964 Mah LJ 339 = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 533.

6. Certificate of Political Agent or sanction of State Government — Proviso 1. — (1) The word "charge" used in this section means "accusation" and is not limited to a formal charge as in a warrant case. AIR 1940 Nag 245 (246 = 41 Cri L Jour 645 (646).

(2) The certificate or the sanction prescribed by Proviso 1 is essential to the jurisdiction of the Court to proceed with the matter and an inquiry or trial held without such sanction or certificate is void. AIR 1945 Oudh 231 (232) = 20 Luck 370 = 46 Cri L Jour 650  AIR 1930 Pat 501 (503) = 31 Cri L Jour 364 (DB)  AIR 1933 Mad 461 (461) = 34 Cri L Jour 545  AIR 1932 Cal 229 (231) = 33 Cri L Jour 322 (DB)  1964 Cur LJ 266 = 66 Punj LR 664

[But see 1889 Pun Re (Cr) No. 30, p. 108 (111) (DB)  AIR 1934 Lah 827 (829) = 36 Cri LJ 430.]

(3) A Court is not debarred from taking cognizance of an offence in the absence of a certificate even though the further progress of the case depends upon the production of the certificate. AIR 1940 Nag 245 (246, 247) = 41 Cri L Jour 645 (647).

(4) The requirement of the certificate or sanction applies to preliminary inquiries with a view to commitment to the sessions. (1896) 19 All 109 (110) (DB)  AIR 1926 Lah 582 (582) = 27 Cri L Jour 1168 (DB)  (1896) 13 Mad 423 (425) (DB).

(5) The obtaining of sanction ex post facto after the commitment has been made does not validate the commitment. (1890) 13 Mad 423 (425, 426) (DB).

[See also AIR 1926 Lah 609 (611) = 27 Cri L Jour 942.]

[But see (1902) 24 All 256 (257).]

(7) The introduction of the words "notwithstanding anything in any of the preceding sections of this chapter" into the proviso by the amendment of 1923 makes it clear that the fact that an offence committed outside "India" falls also within the purview of any of the previous sections of the chapter does not dispense with the certificate or sanction prescribed by this proviso. AIR 1932 Cal 465 (467) = 33 Cri L Jour 267 (DB)  AIR 1947 Mad 352 (353)  AIR 1925 Sind 88 (89) = 25 Cri L Jour 620 (DB)  AIR 1935 Mad 326 (327) = 37 Cri L Jour 195 (DB).

(8) A formal or express certificate or sanction is necessary under the proviso. Thus, the mere fact that the Magistrate who initiated the proceeding is himself the Political Agent for the area in which the offence was committed does not dispense with the necessity for the certificate. (1890) 13 Mad 423 (426) (DB).

[See also 1884 All WN 85 (85).]

(9) The mere fact that an agreement had been entered into between the executive authorities of the British Indian Government and the State, wherein the offence was committed, to the effect that Native Indian subjects committing offences in such State should be triable in British India did not dispense with the certificate or sanction. AIR 1919 All 44 (45) = 20 Cri L Jour 700.

(10) The mere fact that a charge was framed against the accused in the alternative so as to include an offence committed inside British India did not dispense with the certificate with reference to the offence alleged to have been committed outside British India. AIR 1930 Bom 155 (157) = 31 Cri L Jour 833 (DB).

(11) But there is no particular form in which the certificate or the sanction must be issued. In each case it must be found as a fact that the certificate or the sanction was issued by the proper authority. AIR 1926 Lah 609 (610, 611) = 27 Cri L Jour 942  AIR 1934 Bom 41 (42, 43) = 35 Cri L Jour 629 (DB).

(12) The certificate need not be signed by the Political Agent himself. Signature by some person who is authorised to communicate the Political Agent's opinion is enough. AIR 1926 Lah 609 (611) = 27 Cri L Jour 942  AIR 1934 Bom 41 (42, 43) = 35 Cri L Jour 629 (DB).

(13) A mere letter from the Secretary of the Political Agent that in his (the Secretary's) opinion the case was a fit one to be tried in India cannot justify a Magistrate in presuming that the Political Agent himself had certified that the case should be tried in India. AIR 1926 Lah 609 (610) = 27 Cri L Jour 942.

[See also AIR 1934 Bom 41 (42) = 35 Cri L Jour 629 (DB).]

(14) Where the Political Agent has in fact passed an order that the case should be tried in India, the mere fact that it was not communicated to the Magistrate does not vitiate his proceedings. See AIR 1926 Lah 609 (611) = 27 Cri L Jour 942.

(15) A certificate issued under this proviso is not bad merely because it does not specify the section under which the accused must be tried. It is enough if it sanctions the prosecution of the accused for the offence alleged. (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 531 (531, 532) (DB) (Mad).

(16) A certificate issued under the section will authorise the trial of the accused for any offence disclosed in the proceedings; the trying Magistrate is not bound to confine himself to the section specified in the certificate. (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 359 (360) = 33 All 514.

(17) A certificate of the Political Agent issued under this proviso cannot be revoked by him. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 537 (537, 538) (DB) (Bom).

(18) The Political Agent can issue a certificate under this proviso even after the issue of a warrant for the arrest of the accused under the extradition law. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 537 (537, 538) (DB) (Bom).

(19) Where a commitment is quashed or an accused is discharged for want of a certificate under the proviso fresh proceedings can be started after obtaining such certificate. Such proceedings are not a revival or continuation of the previous proceedings against the accused.

189. Power to direct copies of depositions and exhibits to be received in evidence. — Whenever any such offence as is referred to in Section 188 is being inquired into or tried, the [*][State Government] may, if it thinks fit, direct that copies of depositions made or exhibits produced before the Political Agent[†] or a judicial officer in or for the territory in which such offence is alleged to have been committed shall be received as evidence by the Court holding such inquiry or trial in any case in which such Court might issue a commission for taking evidence as to the matters to which such depositions or exhibits relate.

The Principal Officer representing the Central Government in Nepal is the Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of India. AIR 1954 Pat 475 (476) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1464 (DB). (Ambassador of India in Nepal is not a Political Agent.)  AIR 1934 Sind 96 (99) = 36 Cri L Jour 240 (DB). (British Vice-Consul is not "Political Agent".)

7. Offences committed on the high seas. — (1) A Native Indian subject committing an offence on the high seas was amenable to the jurisdiction of British Indian Courts by virtue of the first paragraph of this section (as it stood prior to its amendment by the A. (2) Where the allegation was that the accused was living in British India and arranged in British India for the marriage to take place out of British India, it was held that the offence under the Act was committed inside British India and no certificate under this section was necessary. 1939 AMLJ 130 (131).

7. Initiation of proceedings against one person — Another person found implicated in the criminal transaction under inquiry — Action against such person.

8. Cognizance in cases where the facts disclose a graver as well as minor offence.

9. Cognizance in cases where previous sanction or complaint of particular person or Court is necessary for prosecution of offence.

10. Taking cognizance, a judicial act.

11. "Except as hereinafter provided."

12. Who can take cognizance under this section.

13. "May take cognizance."

14. "Upon receiving a complaint of facts which constitute such offence."

15. "Upon a report in writing of such facts made by any police officer" — Clause (i) (b).

16. Complaint by police-officer.

17. Power of Magistrate to order police to charge-sheet any person.

18. "Upon information .... that such offence has been committed" — Clause (i) (c).

19. Clauses of section alternative but not mutually exclusive.

20. Revision.

1. Scope.— (1) Under the scheme of the Code two parallel agencies have been set up for taking to Court of criminal offences; the police and the private aggrieved party are placed on a parallel footing. The object is to ensure the freedom and safety of the subject. AIR 1955 Mad 534 (535) = 1955 Cri LJ 1264.

(2) This section is not exhaustive of the Courts that can take cognizance, or of the materials on which cognizance can be taken. See (1909) 10 Cri LJ 303 (305, 306) = 5 Nag LR 113  AIR 1968 Pat 258 (268) = 1968 Cri LJ 958 (DB).

(3) Where a Court has not yet become seized of a case relating to a criminal transaction, judicial proceedings with reference to an offence involved therein can only be initiated under this section. AIR 1944 Sind 103 (105) = 45 Cri LJ 510 (DB).

(4) Article 361 (2) of the Constitution provides that no criminal proceedings whatsoever shall be instituted or continued against the President or the Governor or Rajpramukh of a State, in any Court during his term of office. The complaint by the victim contemplated by Section 198 is a complaint made under Section 190 (1) (a). It is therefore wrong to think that Section 198 either confers a power or provides a remedy. AIR 1959 Ker 100 (105) = ILR (1959) Ker 195 = 1959 Cri LJ 464 (DB).

2. Taking cognizance of an offence, what is.— (1) Before it can be said that any Magistrate has taken cognizance of any offence under Section 190, he must have applied his mind to the offence for the purpose of proceeding in a particular way as indicated in the subsequent provisions of the chapter — proceeding under Section 200 and thereafter sending it for enquiry and report under Section 202. AIR 1951 SC 207 (210) = 1951 SCR 312 = 52 Cri LJ 775. (AIR 1950 All 626, Affirmed; AIR 1950 Cal 437, Approved.)  AIR 1959 SC 1118 (1128) = 1959 Cri LJ 1368  AIR 1959 Assam 28 (51) (DB)  AIR

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, the amendments made in Section 190 are the same as those made in Maharashtra. — See Cent. Act XI of 1960, Section 87.

Note.—Magistrates appointed for the City of Ahmedabad, have the powers and exercise the jurisdiction of a Presidency Magistrate. — See Guj. Act XIX of 1961, Section 14 (3).

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in Section 190—

(i) in sub-section (1)—

(a) delete the words "District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate";

(b) for the words "any other" substitute the words "any Judicial"; — Bom. Act XXIII of 1951, Section 2 and Schedule (1-7-1953).

(c) for the words "in this behalf" substitute the words "in that behalf under Section 37"; — Bom. Act XXXIV of 1953, Section 8 (1-7-1953)

(ii) in sub-section (2) delete the words "or the District Magistrate subject to the general or special orders of the State Government";

(iii) in sub-section (3) after the words "the State Government may" insert the words "in consultation with the High Court". — Bom. Act XXIII of 1951, Section 2 and Schedule (1-7-1953).

(2) After the reorganization of the State of Bombay in 1956, the amendments made in Section 190 by the above-mentioned Bombay Acts were extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959 by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

(2) The word "cognizance" has no esoteric or mystic significance in criminal law or procedure. It merely means become aware of and when used with reference to a Court or Judge, to take notice of judicially. AIR 1963 SC 765 (770) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 797 = (1963) Supp 1 SCR 953  ILR (1967) 2 Punj 103 (116 to 118).

(3) It was held 'taking cognizance' occurs as soon as a Magistrate as such applies his mind to the suspected commission of an offence. (1910) 37 Cal 412 (418) = 11 Cri LJ 217 (DB)  1946 Rang LR 306 (307)  AIR 1948 Pat 25 (27) = 48 Cri LJ 347  AIR 1940 Nag 245 (247) = 41 Cri LJ 645  AIR 1963 SC 765 (770) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 797 = (1963) Supp 1 SCR 953  1968 Cri LJ 816 (818) (Cal) (DB)  1968 Cri LJ 1246 (1250) = 33 Cut LT 1172  AIR 1966 Mad 349 (352) = 1966 Cri LJ 1141 = 1966 Mad LW (Cri) 12  1959 BLJR 494 (498).

(4) The judicial proceedings commence only on the accused being made a party before the Court by issue of process for his appearance or other similar step. AIR 1943 Pat 245 (251) = 45 Cri LJ 177 (SB)  AIR 1969 Andh Pra 281 (283, 284) = 1969 Cri LJ 1025 = (1968) 2 Andh WR 122 (DB).

(5) It has been held that the taking of cognizance is a continuous act which commences as soon as a Magistrate applies his judicial mind to a case and only ends when the Magistrate no longer has seisin of it. AIR 1953 Tripura 1 (2) = 1953 Cri LJ 1463  AIR 1939 Lah 479 (485) = 41 Cri LJ 65 (DB).

(6) Section 190 does not make incumbent that the provisions of any law should be quoted by a Magistrate in taking cognizance. An error, therefore, in the mention of the particular provision does not vitiate the cognizance itself. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 318 (319) = 1958 Cri LJ 606.

(7) Jurisdiction is given to Courts by the statutes which create them. Cognizance of an offence or a case is something quite different from jurisdiction to deal with that case. AIR 1957 Madh

West Bengal

In its application to the State of West Bengal, in S. 190,

(i) in sub-section (1), for the words "District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Magistrate, and any other", substitute the words, "Sub-divisional Judicial Magistrate, and any other Judicial";

(ii) after sub-section (1), insert the following as sub-section (1A),

"(1A) Any District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Executive Magistrate or any other Executive Magistrate of the First or Second Class specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government may take cognizance of any offence upon information received from any person other than a police-officer, or upon his own knowledge or suspicion, that such offence has been committed";

(iii) For sub-section (2), substitute the following, namely:—

"(2) The State Government, in consultation with the High Court, or the Sessions Judge subject to the general or special orders of the State Government in consultation with the High Court, may empower any Judicial Magistrate to take cognizance under sub-section (1), clause (a) or clause (b), of offences for which he may try or commit for trial"; and

(iv) in sub-section (3), for the words "State Government may empower any" substitute the words "State Government, in consultation with the High Court, may empower any Judicial." — W. B. Act 8 of 1970, Section 2 and Schedule, Item 65.

(18) Complaint against six accused — Process issued in piecemeal — Magistrate cannot be deemed to have taken cognizance of the case against them without a complaint. Mere fact that the Magistrate had issued process piecemeal could not by itself convert the taking of cognisance of the case from S. 190 (1) (a) to Section 190 (1) (c). 1959 Raj LW 475 (475).

(19) A, a District Magistrate while holding an inquiry under the Land Revenue Code, came to the conclusion that X had committed an offence. He recorded an order directing his prosecution and transferred the case to B, a subordinate Magistrate. It was held that A must be deemed to have taken cognizance of the offence. (22) In acquitting an accused person X, a Magistrate was inclined to suspect Y as being guilty of the offence. But before proceeding against Y he wished to ascertain clearly whether there were sufficient grounds for taking cognizance under sub-section (1), clause (c) of this section. He accordingly examined X and thereupon summoned Y to answer a charge for an offence. It was held that when examining X the Magistrate had not taken cognizance of the offence against Y. (1900) 27 Cal 455 (456, 457) (DB).

(23) A District Magistrate received a petition stating that the jurors in a sessions case had been bribed and praying that he should take steps for an appeal being filed against the acquittal in the case. The District Magistrate thereupon directed a subordinate Magistrate to inquire into the matter and report to him. On receipt of the report he proceeded against a certain person for the offence of attempting to bribe the jurors. It was held that he did not take cognizance of the offence when ordering the inquiry by the subordinate Magistrate but only did so under subsection (1), clause (c) on receipt of the report. (1899) 3 Cal WN cclxii (cclxiii).

(24) A Magistrate received by post information that an offence had been committed by certain persons. He sent the papers to the police for investigation and report, and on receipt of the report he directed the issue of process against the accused. It was held that he did not take cognizance on the information received by post but only took cognizance on the police-report. (1913) 14 Cri LJ 218 (218, 219) (All).

(25) A Magistrate who suspected the commission of an offence by a certain person directed the police to charge-sheet him, and on the receipt of the charge-sheet tried him for the offence. It was held that the Magistrate took cognizance on the police charge-sheet and not under sub-s. (1), clause (c) of this section. AIR 1921 Bom 365 (365) = 22 Cri LJ 603 (DB).

(26) While a Sub-divisional Magistrate was on a visit to a village, a case of theft was reported to him. Thereupon he and the proprietor of the village made a search and found the stolen property in the house of the accused. The next day a formal complaint was filed before him about the theft and thereupon proceedings were started against the accused. It was held that under the circumstances, the Magistrate did not take cognizance on the previous day when he was in the village but only on the next day when the complaint was received. AIR 1927 All 101 (101, 102) = 27 Cri LJ 1406.

(27) An order for investigation by a Magistrate, or his order for arrest and jail custody of the accused or an order granting bail does not by itself amount to taking cognizance. AIR 1951 SC 207 (210) = 1951 SCR 312 = 52 Cri LJ 775  AIR 1950 All 626 (629, 630)  AIR 1950 Cal 437 (438) = 52 Cri LJ 806 (DB)  AIR 1962 Mad 495 (496) = (1962) 2 Mad LJ 91 = 1962 (2) Cr LJ 782.

(35) Action of the Magistrate by which he again refers the matter to the police for a fresh final report does not amount to "taking cognizance." AIR 1932 Mad 673 (675) = 33 Cri LJ 785.

(36) Cantonment Magistrate warning accused that he must not tie his buffaloes at a certain spot in cantonment — Accused persisting in doing so and on Cantonment Magistrate going out one morning finding the spot in a filthy state — Accused sent for and fined — Held that cognizance was taken under Clause (c). 1905 Pun Re (Cr) No. 8 p. 16 (17).

(37) Order of Magistrate categorically stating that cognizance was taken under certain sections of Penal Code — Nothing more is required to show that Magistrate took cognizance of offence. (1955) 21 Cut L Tim 465 (466).

(38) Where the Magistrate had before him the charge-sheet against the petitioners some of whom he removed from the category of witnesses to the category of accused persons and enlarged the petitioners on bail and decided that they were to be tried for offences under Section 161, Penal Code and Section 5 (2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act and sanction was thereafter given: Held, that the Magistrate took cognizance of the offences without the necessary sanction. AIR 1953 Pat 225 (227) = 1953 Cri LJ 1289.

4. Taking cognizance, if refers to the particular individual who is charged for the time being.— (1) Where in the course of a sessions trial one of the prosecution witnesses was suspected of being involved in the offence under trial and he was thereupon transferred from the witness-box to the dock and tried along with the person originally committed to the sessions, it was held that such a proceeding amounted to "taking cognizance of an offence" and was, therefore, precluded under S. 193. (2) A Court takes cognizance of an offence and not of an offender and therefore, when proceedings are commenced against a new accused by a Court having seisin of a case, it does not take cognizance of any offence. AIR 1945 Sind 1 (3) = 46 Cri LJ 192= ILR (1944) Kar 300 (DB)  1955-2 Mad LJ 316 (318)  AIR 1944 Pat 210 (211) = 46 Cri LJ 168  AIR 1924 Sind 71 (72, 73, 74) = 26 Cri LJ 181 (FB)  AIR 1923 Rang 31 (35, 37) = 24 Cri LJ 519 (FB)  AIR 1967 SC 1167 (1169) = 1967 Cri LJ 1081 = (1967) 1 SCWR 465. (Summoning of the additional accused is part of the proceeding initiated by his taking cognizance of an offence.)  1970 Cri LJ 778 (780) (Andh Pra)  AIR 1968 Raj 116 (120) = 1968 Cri LJ 648 = 1968 Raj LW 47  AIR 1967 Bom 126 (130) = 1967 Cri LJ 605 = 68 Bom LR 689  AIR 1964 Pat 487 (488, 489) = 1964 BLJR 452 = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 569 (DB)  AIR 1964 Punj 351 (352, 353, 354) = 66 Punj LR 548 = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 204 (DB). (3) Cognizance is taken of case, not of persons, and there seems to be nothing in theory to prevent a Magistrate from taking cognizance of a case even where the offenders are unknown. The fact that a Magistrate has taken cognizance does not necessarily mean that there will be judicial proceedings against any one. Therefore, cognizance is something prior to and does not necessarily mean the commencement of judicial proceedings against any one. AIR 1943 Pat 245 (251) = 45 Cri L Jour 177 (SB).

5. Taking cognizance refers to the particular offence charged for the time being.— (1) The expression "taking cognizance of an offence" has reference to a specific offence. (1898) 1 Weir 720 (720) (DB)  1959 BLJR 494 (498).

(2) A Court takes cognizance of an offence of rape. In the course of the proceedings it is found that the offence really amounts to adultery and not rape. If the Court takes action against the accused with reference to the offence of adultery it would be taking cognizance of that offence. (1883) 5 All 233 (235).

(3) A Court takes cognizance of an offence under Sections 352 (assault) and 504 (insult) of the Penal Code. In the course of the proceedings it appears that the offence really committed by the accused was defamation (Sec. 500). If the Court takes action against the accused with reference to defamation, it would be taking cognizance of the offence. (1887) 10 All 39 (43).

6. Initiation of proceedings with reference to one offence — Some other offence appearing to be involved in the transaction — Action with reference to such offence is not under this section.— (1) Where proceedings are started with reference to one offence but it subsequently appears that a different offence or an additional offence has been committed in the course of the same transaction, the Court can proceed with reference to such offence against any person who appears to be implicated in it. In taking action the Court takes cognizance of such offence by virtue of its being seised of the case. AIR 1927 PC 44 (46) = 28 Cri L Jour 259  AIR 1949 Pat 47 (56) = 26 Pat 479 = 49 Cri L Jour 612 (DB)  AIR 1950 Pat 500 (502)  AIR 1938 Mad 815 (816) = 39 Cri L Jour 958. (2) Proceedings are instituted on a complaint against A and B in respect of offences under Sections 352 and 354 of the Penal Code. In the course of the proceedings it is found that an offence has been committed under Section 193 and that C also is involved in it. The Court can proceed under Section 193 against C as well as against A and B. (1899) 26 Cal 786 (789) (DB).

(3) A complaint is filed against A under Sections 342 and 363 of the Penal Code. On evidence being taken it is found that A did not commit any offence but that B committed offences under Sections 342, 352 and 363. The Court can proceed against B in respect of these offences. AIR 1914 Cal 801 (804) = 15 Cri L Jour 546 (547, 548) (DB).

(4) Where the offence subsequently disclosed pertains to a distinct transaction, cognizance can be taken of such offence only under this section. (1902) 6 Cal WN 202 (203) (DB).

7. Initiation of proceedings against one person — Another person found implicated in the criminal transaction under inquiry — Action against such person.— (1) Suppose in the course of proceedings initiated against A it transpires that B is implicated in the criminal transaction under inquiry. In such a case, the Court can add or substitute B as an accused person in the case and proceed against him provided it is otherwise open to the Court to do so. 9. Cognizance in cases where previous sanction or complaint of particular person or Court is necessary for prosecution of offence.— (1) Where an offence under Section 211, Penal Code, appears to have been committed in relation to a proceeding in a Court, but no complaint has been preferred by the Court concerned (which is a pre-requisite for taking cognizance of the offence) but the facts of the case disclose an offence under Section 182, Penal Code, in addition to an offence under Section 211, it is clear that the Court cannot take cognizance of the offence under Sec. 211. [See also AIR 1958 Madh Pra 234 (235) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1040.]

19. Clauses of section alternative but not mutually exclusive.— (1) The different clauses of the section under which cognizance can be taken are alternative, and not mutually exclusive. Thus, when a Magistrate has before him a complaint and a police-report about the same offence he can take cognizance on both. AIR 1958 Orissa 11 (13) = ILR (1957) Cut 557 = 1958 Cri L Jour 63  AIR 1958 Orissa 104 (105) = ILR (1958) Cut 25 = 1958 Cri L Jour 655 (DB)  1957 Cri. (2) Once cognizance of an offence has been taken by a Magistrate on a complaint under Clause (1) (a), there is no scope for cognizance being taken afresh of the same offence on receiving a police report under Clause (1) (b). AIR 1964 SC 1541 (1544) = 1964 (2) Cri L Jour 468 = (1964) 5 SCR 37  AIR 1961 SC 986 (989) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 39 = (1961) 1 SCJ 573.

(3) J complains to a Magistrate about an offence by B. The Magistrate receives also a report from the police about the same offence. The Magistrate takes cognizance of the offence and proceeds against B. It is contended that the Magistrate must be deemed to have taken cognizance on J's complaint and that as he failed to examine him under Section 200, the entire proceedings are vitiated. It was held that the Magistrate need not be deemed to have taken cognizance on the complaint exclusively. He may be held to have taken cognizance on the police-report also and hence his failure to examine J does not vitiate proceedings. AIR 1929 Pat 473 (475) = 30 Cri L Jour 1056 (FB).

(4) D complains to a Magistrate about an offence and mentions A as having committed it. The police also send a report about the occurrence to the Magistrate in which they accuse B of the alleged offence. The Magistrate takes cognizance against both A and B. B contends that the Magistrate having already taken cognizance on D's complaint under Clause (a) of this section, it is not competent to the Magistrate to take cognizance of the same offence under Clause (b) also. It was held that the contention is untenable. and that a Magistrate can take cognizance of the same offence both under Clause (a) and Clause (b) of the section. AIR 1933 Rang 271 (272) = 34 Cri L Jour 1185.

(5) During pendency of investigation by police of specific offence the magistrate may take cognizance of that offence otherwise than on police report i.e., under Section 190 (1) (a) or (c). AIR 1968 All 394 (395) = 1968 Cri LJ 1463 = 1968 All WR (HC) 434.

(2) Proceeding under this section is subject to the revisional jurisdiction of the High Court. AIR 1951 Raj 146 (146) = 52 Cr L Jour 1174  AIR 1956 All 525 (527) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1037 (DB).  (1900) 4 Cal WN 825 (826, 827) (DB).

(3) Where a Magistrate institutes proceedings against any person without there being sufficient materials for doing so, the High Court can interfere in revision and quash the proceedings. AIR 1941 Pat 395 (397) = 42 Cri L Jour 504  AIR 1933 Pat 244 (246) = 35 Cri L Jour 533 (DB)  4 Cal WN 825 (826, 827) (DB).

(4) Mere fact that a Magistrate has erroneously treated an offence as non-compoundable and taken cognizance of it notwithstanding the indifference of the aggrieved party is no ground for interfering in revision after the trial is over. AIR 1944 Mad 166 (167) = 45 Cri L Jour 508.

(5) An order of a Magistrate refusing to take cognizance of an offence has also been dealt with by the High Court in its revisional jurisdiction. (1902) 29 Cal 410 (412) (DB)  (1886) 13 Cal 334 (336) (DB)  1888 Rat 375 (375) (DB).

(6) It was held that the order of a District Magistrate directing the police to charge-sheet certain persons was a judicial order and subject to the revisional jurisdiction of the High Court. AIR 1928 Pat 585 (586) = 29 Cri L Jour 942.

191. Transfer or commitment on application of accused.—When a Magistrate takes cognizance of an offence under sub-section (1), clause (c), of the preceding section, the accused shall, before any evidence is taken, be informed that he is entitled to have the case tried by another Court, and if the accused, or any of the accused, if there be more than one, objects to being tried by such Magistrate, the case shall, instead of being tried by such Magistrate, be committed to the Court of Session or transferred to another Magistrate.

[1882—S. 191, last paragraph (added by Act III of 1884), 1872 and 1861—Nil]

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Clause 191.—We have recast this clause so as to make it clear, first that the accused shall be informed of his right to be tried by another Court; and, secondly, that if he elects not to be tried by the Magistrate, he must signify his election as soon as possible."—S. C. R. 1898.

SECTION 191 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and applicability.
2. Nature of accused's right under this section.
3. Objection to commitment to Sessions by Magistrate taking cognizance.
4. Applicability of the provisions to appeals.
5. Effect of non-compliance with the section.
6. Applicability of the section to security proceedings.
7. Applicability of the section to proceedings under Section 133.
8. Applicability of the section to proceedings before a Special Judge.

1. Scope and applicability.— (1) Where the Court has been set in motion by a valid complaint or report of a police-officer, this section has no application. 1948 Bur LR 179 (181)  AIR 1943 Oudh 226 (227) = 44 Cri L Jour 492  (1901) 26 Bom 193 (196) (DB)  (1909) 10 Cri L Jour 18 (19) (DB) (All)  AIR 1916 Pat 3 (4) = 18 Cri L Jour 273 (274)  (1962) (1) Cri LJ 96 (98) (Tripura).

[See AIR 1944 Mad 166 (167) = 45 Cri L Jour 508.]

(2) Though a Magistrate may have taken cognizance of a case under Clause (c) of Section 190 (1), he may not be personally interested in the case within the meaning of Section 556, and if he complies with the provisions of this section, the bar under Section 556 may not apply to him. AIR 1924 Rang 352 (352) = 26 Cri L Jour 249  (1893) 15 All 192 (193, 194) (FB).

(3) Though a Magistrate may be personally interested in a case within the meaning of Section 556, he may not have taken cognizance under Clause (c) of Section 190 (1). In such cases, though this section does not apply, the Magistrate will be disqualified from trying the case. AIR 1921 Bom 365 (365) = 22 Cri L Jour 603 (DB).

[See also 1903 Pun LR No. 116, p. 323 (325)  (1913) 14 Cri LJ 425 (425) (DB) (Cal).]

(4) Where during the trial of A, the Magistrate comes to a conclusion that the case cannot be properly decided unless B also is joined as co-accused, and orders him to be tried along with A, cognizance against B is not taken under Section 190 (1) (c) and therefore the provisions of this section have no application. In such a case the Magistrate can act under Section 351. AIR 1934 Rang 193 (194) = 35 Cri L Jour 1312  (1904) 1 Cri L Jour 511 (512) = 1904 Pun Re (Cr) No 32 (DB).

See also under S. 190.

(5) As to when a Magistrate may be said to have taken cognizance under Clause (c) of Section 190 (1), see Section 190.

2. Nature of accused's right under this section.— (1) The accused must be informed, before any evidence is taken, that he is entitled to have his case tried by another Court and that if he objects to being tried by the Magistrate who has taken cognizance of the case, the case must be transferred to another Magistrate or be committed to the sessions. But the accused is not entitled to claim that his case must be tried by a particular Court. AIR 1940 Pat 111 (112) = 41 Cri L Jour 318  1957 Jab LJ 964 (965)  AIR 1936 Mad 341 (341, 342) = 59 Mad 442 = 37 Cri L Jour 501  AIR 1934 Lah 210 (211) = 35 Cri L Jour 1407.

(2) He cannot insist that his case must be committed to the sessions and not sent to another Magistrate. All that the accused is entitled under this section is to demand that his case should be tried by another Court. It is left to the Magistrate to decide, in the exercise of his discretion, whether the case should be committed to the sessions or transferred to another Magistrate (except in cases exclusively triable by a Sessions Court where the Magistrate would be bound to commit the case to sessions.) STATE AMENDMENT

In its application to the State of West Bengal, Section 191, shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) thereof and in sub-section (1), so re-numbered,

(i) for the word "Magistrate", wherever it occurs, substitute the words "Judicial Magistrate"; and

(ii) after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, insert the following as sub-section (2), namely:—

"(2) When an Executive Magistrate takes cognizance of an offence under sub-section (1A) of Section 190, he shall transfer the case to a Judicial Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the same and shall send the accused to such Magistrate, or may, subject to the provisions of this Code, release him on bail on taking from him a bond with or without surety for his appearance before such Magistrate". — W. B. Act 8 of 1970, Section 2 and Schedule, Item 66.

(DB)  (1905) 2 Cri L Jour 582 (584) (DB) (Bom).

(3) In exercising the discretion whether the case should be committed to the Sessions or transferred to another Magistrate the Magistrate will be guided by considerations, similar to those which will apply when deciding the question if a case should be tried by himself or should be committed to the sessions. See (1909) 10 Cri L Jour 224 (224, 225) = 2 Sind LR 9.

(4) Where the case is tried by another Magistrate, the fact that such Magistrate is the successor of the one who took cognizance of the case will not amount to an infringement of the section. AIR 1940 Pat 111 (112) = 41 Cri L Jour 318.

(5) Unless the accused, on being informed of his right under this section, makes his objection to being tried by the Magistrate who has taken cognizance of the case, such Magistrate need not transfer the case to any other Magistrate or commit it to the sessions. (1893) 15 All 192 (194) (FB)  AIR 1924 Rang 352 (352) = 26 Cri L Jour 249.

[See also (1897-1901) 1 Upp Bur Rul 127 (131).]

[See however 1896 Pun Re (Cr) No. 1, p. 1 (4) (DB). (It is for accused himself to take objection.)]

(6) The right of the accused under this section is one that can be waived by him. But where the accused is not informed at all of his right, he cannot be held to waive his right merely because he does not object to being tried by the Magistrate who has taken cognizance of the case. (1899) 3 Cal WN cclxxix (cclxxx).

(7) The section comes into force only after the accused appears. Where the accused has not appeared at all, an application for transfer of the case would be premature. (1909) 9 Cri L Jour 64 (65) (Low Bur).

3. Objection to commitment to Sessions by Magistrate taking cognizance.— (1) The section only entitles the accused to claim that his case should be tried by another Court. He is not entitled to object that the Magistrate, who has taken cognizance of the case, must not hold the preliminary inquiry under Chapter XVIII, in cases committed to the sessions. (1898) 21 All 109 (110, 111)  AIR 1918 Cal 3 (3, 4) = 20 Cri L Jour 47 (DB).

4. Applicability of the provisions to appeals.— (1) A Magistrate, who has taken cognizance of an offence under Section 190 (1), Clause (c), cannot hear an appeal from a conviction in the case (which is tried by another Magistrate) without following the procedure laid down by this section. The reason is that an appeal is part of the trial for an offence and as such is covered by the section. (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 224 (225, 226) (DB) (Cal).

[But see 1899 All WN 74 (76) (DB).]

[But see (1897-1901) 1 Upp Bur Rul 127 (131). (In absence of prejudice conviction not set aside.)]

192. Transfer of cases by Magistrates. — (1) Any Chief Presidency Magistrate, District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Magistrate may transfer any case, of which he has taken cognizance, for inquiry or trial, to any Magistrate subordinate to him.

(2) Any District Magistrate may empower any Magistrate of the first class who has taken cognizance of any case to transfer it for inquiry or trial to any other specified Magistrate in his district who is competent under this Code to try the accused or commit him for trial; and such Magistrate may dispose of the case accordingly.

[1882—S. 192; 1872—Ss. 44, 141; 1861—S. 273.]

(2) It is desirable that a Magistrate should make a note on the record that the provisions of the section have been complied with. (1905) 8 Oudh Cas 418 (419) = 3 Cri L Jour 27 (DB).

(3) The absence of a note on the record that the section has been complied with need not necessarily lead to the inference that the provisions of the section were not complied with. (1905) 8 Oudh Cas 418 (419) = 3 Cri L Jour 27 (DB).

(4) Where the Magistrate, who has taken cognizance under Clause (c) of Section 190 (1), transfers of his own motion the case to another Magistrate, the proceedings are not open to attack on the ground of non-compliance with the provisions of this section. AIR 1933 Pat 242 (244) = 34 Cri L Jour 1198 (DB).

6. Applicability of the section to security proceedings.— (1) The principle of the section applies to security proceedings under Chapter VIII of the Code, where there is no question of an offence being taken cognizance of. Where security proceedings are started against any person on the Magistrate's own knowledge, it is not open to him to hear the case and pass final orders therein and the case be transferred to some other Magistrate to be heard and disposed of by him. 7. Applicability of the section to proceedings under Section 133.— (1) The principle of this section applies to all criminal proceedings and where a Magistrate has taken cognizance on his own knowledge or information and started proceedings under Section 133, the person proceeded against is entitled to have the case inquired into and disposed of by another Magistrate. AIR 1936 Pat 639 (640) = 38 Cri L Jour 29.

8. Applicability of the section to proceedings before a Special Judge.— (1) It has been held by the Patna High Court that Section 191 has no application to proceedings before a Special Judge. AIR 1955 Pat 317 (319) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1089.

SECTION 192 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.

1-A. Subordinate Magistrate.

1-B. Additional District Magistrate.

2. "Taken cognizance."

3. Stage at which transfer should be ordered.

4. Transfer of a transferred case.

5. Transfer of a case remanded for further inquiry.

6. "Case," meaning of.

7. Transfer of proceedings under other Acts.

8. Effect of transfer under the section.

9. Erroneous order of transfer — Effect of — See Section 529.

10. Notice of transfer.

11. Case triable by First Class Magistrate — Transfer to Second Class Magistrate with direction to commit to sessions — Legality.

1. Scope.— (1) The Magistrate should first have taken cognizance of the case before he can make an order of transfer under this section. STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, the amendments made in Section 192 are the same as those made in Maharashtra. — See Cent. Act XI of 1960, Section 87.

NOTE.—Chief Magistrate in the City of Ahmedabad exercises the jurisdiction of a Chief Presidency Magistrate. — See Guj. Act XIX of 1961, Section 14 (3).

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in Section 192,—

(i) in sub-section (1), delete the words "District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Magistrate";

(ii) in sub-section (2),

(a) for the words "Any District Magistrate", substitute the words "A Sessions Judge;"

(b) for the words "in his district" substitute the words "in the sessions division." — Bombay Act XXIII of 1951, S. 2 and Schedule (1-7-1953).

(iii) after sub-section (2) insert the following, namely,—

"(3) Any District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate may transfer any case of which he has taken cognizance, for inquiry or trial to any Magistrate subordinate to him and such Magistrate may dispose of the case accordingly." — Bom. Act VIII of 1954, S. 2 and Schedule (10-2-1954).

(2) After the reorganization of the State of Bombay in 1956, the amendments made in Section 192 by the above-mentioned Bombay Acts, are extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959, by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

(5) The term "inquiry" in this section is used with special reference to such inquiries as are held under Chapters VIII, XII or XVIII of the Code and does not mean an inquiry under Section 202 which is merely for the limited purpose of ascertaining the truth or falsehood of a complaint with a view to take an action under Section 203. (7) Where a Magistrate wants to keep a case on his own file and refer it for investigation and report by a Subordinate Magistrate, he should proceed under Section 202 of the Code. The powers conferred by one section do not curtail the powers conferred by the other. AIR 1919 Cal 59 (60) = 20 Cri L Jour 508 (DB).

(8) An order under Section 202 to a Subordinate Magistrate to investigate and report does not operate as an order for transfer under this section. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (190) = 42 Cri L Jour 490.

(9) The Magistrate, to whom the case is transferred, should be otherwise competent to inquire into and try the case transferred. (b) for the words "in his district", substitute the words "in the Sessions Division". — See Mys. Act XIII of 1965, Section 35 (1-10-1965).

Punjab: Haryana: Chandigarh

In its application to the States of Punjab and Haryana and the Union territory of Chandigarh, in Section 192,—

(i) in sub-section (1) for the words "Any Chief Presidency Magistrate, District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Magistrate", substitute the words "Any Chief Judicial Magistrate"; and

(ii) in sub-section (2) for the words "District Magistrate", substitute the words "Chief Judicial Magistrate". — Punj. Act XXV of 1964, Section 2 and Schedule Pt. I, Item (46) (2-10-1964) and Act 31 of 1966, Section 88 (1-11-1966).

(13) It has been held that a transfer of a case to a Special Court constituted under the Special Criminal Courts Ordinance, 2 of 1942, (since repealed by Ordinance 19 of 1943) under the provisions of this section was not affected by Sections 25-A and 26 of the Ordinance as those sections came into operation only after the Special Court was in the seisin of the case and this section dealt with a stage before it. AIR 1943 Pat 245 (247, 257) = 45 Cri L Jour 177 (SB).

(14) The Magistrate should exercise his discretion fairly in the matter of transferring a case. Thus, a transfer by a District Magistrate of a complaint against a near relation of his to a Magistrate subordinate to such Magistrate or a transfer of a complaint against an officer of the rank of a District Superintendent of Police in respect of acts done in his official capacity, to a subordinate Magistrate and not to a senior Magistrate, has been held to be improper, though not illegal. AIR 1936 Rang 242 (243) = 37 Cri L Jour 723. (Complaint against D. S. P.)

(15) Where a complaint against a near relation of a District Magistrate was transferred to a Magistrate subordinate to him for disposal and the complainant objected to the trial by the latter Magistrate on the ground that he (i. e., the latter Magistrate) would have to be called as a witness in the case and prayed for a transfer, it was held that the order of the Magistrate discharging the accused on the ground that he could not take cognizance of the offence for want of the sanction of the Local Government was improper though not illegal. The proper order would be one asking for a transfer of the case to another Magistrate to be dealt with finally. AIR 1936 Rang 242 (244) = 37 Cri L Jour 723.

(16) A Magistrate is not justified in dismissing an application for transfer without giving an opportunity to the applicant of being heard. 1948 AMLJ 16 (17).

1-A. Subordinate Magistrate.— (1) The transfer should be made to a Magistrate subordinate to him. (1900-02) 1 Low Bur Rul 59 (59)  1965 All LJ 1126 (1128). (Additional Sub-Divisional Magistrate is subordinate to Sub-Divisional Magistrate.)

Union territories (except Chandigarh)

In its application to the Union territories, in Section 192,—

(i) in sub-section (1), for the words "Any Chief Presidency Magistrate, District Magistrate or Sub-divisional Magistrate", substitute the words "Any Chief Judicial Magistrate"; and

(ii) in sub-section (2), for the words "District Magistrate" substitute the words "Chief Judicial Magistrate" — Act 19 of 1969, Section 3 and Schedule, Item 48 (In Delhi, on 2-10-1969).

West Bengal

In its application to the State of West Bengal, in Section 192,—

(i) in sub-section (1), for the words "or Sub-divisional Magistrate", substitute the words, "Sub-divisional Executive Magistrate or Sub-divisional Judicial Magistrate";

(ii) for sub-section (2), substitute the following:—

"(2) Any District Magistrate may empower any Executive Magistrate of the first class who has taken cognizance of any case to transfer the same for inquiry to any other specified Executive Magistrate within the district, who is competent under this Code to hold such inquiry."; and

(iii) after sub-section (2) insert the following as sub-section (3), namely.—

"(3) Any Chief Presidency Magistrate or Sessions Judge may empower a Presidency Magistrate or any Judicial Magistrate of the first class, as the case may be, subordinate to him, who has taken cognizance of any case to transfer the same to any other Presidency Magistrate or Judicial Magistrate, as the case may be, who is competent under this Code to try the accused or commit him for trial, and such Presidency Magistrate or Judicial Magistrate may dispose of the case accordingly." — W. of Additional District Magistrate under Section 192 (1), Criminal P. C., are analogous to powers under Section 528 (2), Criminal P. C. and the principle involved is the same.)

2. "Taken cognizance".— (1) A District Magistrate cannot pass an order for a judicial inquiry by a subordinate Magistrate in a case taken cognizance of not by himself but by a Joint Magistrate, without withdrawing the case to his own file. (1900) 27 Cal 798 (799, 800) (DB).

(2) A First Class Magistrate dealing with the general file of another Magistrate on instructions from the District Magistrate cannot transfer a case pending in that file and of which he has not taken cognizance, to his own file under this section. AIR 1953 Cal 573 (573) = 1953 Cri L Jour 1355 (DB).

(3) A Sub-Divisional Officer can by virtue of Section 559 (1) transfer to a Magistrate subordinate to him a case of which cognizance was taken by his predecessor. AIR 1953 Cal 777 (779) = 1953 Cri L Jour 1782 (DB).

(4) Before any District Magistrate may empower any Magistrate of the first class under sub-section (2) of this section it is essential that the Magistrate of the first class must be one 'who has taken cognizance of any case.' It is not any and every Magistrate of the first class who can be empowered by the District Magistrate in this respect. AIR 1953 Cal 109 (113) = 1953 Cri L Jour 344 (DB)  1953 Raj LW 231 (232).

[See AIR 1952 Raj 96 (97) = ILR (1952) 2 Raj 41 = 1952 Cri L Jour 1048  AIR 1950 Him Pra 42 (44).]

[See also 1903 Pun Re (Cr) No. 9, p. 25 (26).]

(6) The complaint may be in the form of a report submitted by a subordinate Magistrate. AIR 1924 All 190 (191) = 25 Cri L Jour 947  (1904) 1 Cri L Jour 335 (336, 337) = 26 All 514.

(7) A Chief Presidency Magistrate can prefer a complaint to himself against a person for giving false evidence before him, and then transfer the case for inquiry or trial by a subordinate Magistrate under this section. AIR 1926 Cal 470 (472, 473, 477, 478) = 27 Cri L Jour 385 (FB).

(8) By virtue of Clause (c) of Sec. 190 (1), a case can be taken cognizance of even without a formal complaint and it is competent for a Magistrate acting under that section to transfer such cases also. (1909) 8 Cri L Jour 374 (376) = 1 Sind LR 119 (DB)  (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 736 (736) (Low Bur).

(9) The expression 'case of which he has taken cognizance' in sub-section (1) of this section means nothing more than that the Magistrate has applied his mind to the facts of the case. AIR 1952 All 215 (216) = ILR (1951) 2 All 609 = 1952 Cri L Jour 407 (DB)  (1954) 58 Cal WN 383 (385) (DB).

(10) Where a complaint was dismissed under Section 203 and the Sessions Judge while ordering a further inquiry directed that the case should be sent to another Magistrate and the District Magistrate accordingly transferred the case to another Magistrate, it was held that the District Magistrate while doing so had taken cognizance of the case and that the transfer was under this section. AIR 1936 Sind 146 (147) = 37 Cri L Jour 1086 (DB).

(11) The act of a Magistrate in taking cognizance of a case and transferring it to another Magistrate under this section is a judicial act. AIR 1941 Pat 395 (397) = 42 Cri L Jour 504.

(12) Where the Additional District Magistrate, without applying his mind to the petition of the complaint, transfers the same to another First Class Magistrate for necessary action under Chapter XVI, it cannot be said that the Additional District Magistrate had taken cognizance of the case and the transferee Magistrate is not deprived of his jurisdiction to act under Sec. 156 (3) and refer the matter to the police for investigation and submitting a charge sheet. AIR 1959 Assam 231 (Pr. 11) = 1959 Cri L Jour 1408.

3. Stage at which transfer should be ordered.— (1) All that the section requires is that the Magistrate should have taken cognizance of the case before transferring it. He need not judicially consider the case before making the transfer. AIR 1926 Cal 470 (477, 478, 479) = 27 Cri L Jour 385 (FB)  AIR 1961 SC 986 (988) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 39 = (1961) 1 SCJ 578. (Transfer of case before taking cognizance of offence — Transfer is only administrative action.)

(2) The Magistrate is not bound to examine the complainant on oath where the complaint is in writing, or issue process before transfer. AIR 1926 Pat 358 (359) = 27 Cri L Jour 855  AIR 1926 Cal 470 (479) = 27 Cri L Jour 385 (FB).

[But see (1871) 4 NWPHCR 88 (89, 90).]

(3) The Magistrate can transfer the case at any stage after taking cognizance. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (190) = 42 Cri L Jour 490.

(4) He can transfer a case after issuing process to the witnesses for the prosecution. AIR 1919 Pat 319 (320) = 20 Cri LJ 413.

(5) The section contemplates the transfer of a case which has not reached the stage of enquiry or trial and that when once the proceedings have reached the stage of enquiry or trial, wholly or partially, sub-section (1) of this section cannot be availed of for transfer by the Magistrate who has taken cognizance of the case. AIR 1951 Mad 529 (530) = ILR (1951) Mad 792 = 52 Cri L Jour 177 (DB). (AIR 1934 Mad 435 = 35 Cri LJ 1055, Dissented from.)  AIR 1969 Pat 97 (98) = 1969 Cri LJ 434  1963 (1) Cri LJ 391 (393, 394) (Tripura).

(6) A transfer cannot be ordered by a Magistrate after discharging the accused. Such a procedure is not sanctioned by the Code. AIR 1921 Pat 205 (205) (DB).

(7) Where after hearing the evidence in the case the Magistrate finds that an offence triable by a subordinate Magistrate has been committed, the case should not be transferred on that ground. The Magistrate who undertakes the trial of the case, and who also hears the witnesses give their evidence should, if possible, finish it. AIR 1951 Mad 529 (531) = ILR (1951) Mad 792 = 52 Cri L Jour 177 (DB)  AIR 1934 Mad 435, Dissented from.)  AIR 1923 Cal 196 (197) = 24 Cri L Jour 198 (DB).

(8) Where a part-heard case is transferred, the transferee Magistrate should rehear the evidence and frame a fresh charge. 1 Low Bur Rul 301 (302) (FB)  2 Weir 152 (152, 153) (DB).

[See (1907) 6 Cri L Jour 434 (438) (DB) (Cal). (Case transferred under Section 528.)  (1892) 14 All 346 (347).]

4. Transfer of a transferred case.— (1) A Magistrate has no power to transfer a case which has itself been transferred to him for disposal under this section by a superior Magistrate. The reason is that the Magistrate cannot, in such a case, be said to have taken cognizance of the case. AIR 1951 All 371 (372)  AIR 1914 All 150 (150) = 15 Cri L Jour 406 (DB)  (1967) 1 Andh WR 191 (191) = 1967-2 Andh LT 80 = 1967 Mad LJ (Cri) 202  AIR 1966 Tripura 22 (23) = 1966 Cr LJ 1484.

(2) The effect of a transfer by the Magistrate of a case which was itself

transferred to him is not to render the subsequent proceedings illegal on that ground; the transfer is only irregular and the irregularity is cured by the provisions of S. 529, Clause (f). AIR 1951 All 371 (372)  AIR 1920 Pat 518 (519) = 21 Cri LJ 96 (DB).

(3) Where a case has been transferred by an order of the High Court, from a Court subordinate to a District Magistrate to that of a District Magistrate, unless a contrary intention is expressed by the High Court, the District Magistrate should himself try the case, and he has no power to transfer it to another subordinate Magistrate under this section. (1897) 19 All 249 (251) (DB).

(4) Where a case is transferred from the Court of one District Magistrate to another District Magistrate, the transferee Magistrate has, in the absence of any contrary direction by the High Court, power to transfer the case under this section to any Magistrate subordinate to him, who is competent to try the same. (1897) 19 All 240 (251) (DB)  AIR 1917 Lah 329 (330, 331) = 18 Cri LJ 881 (883) (DB).

(5) A case transferred by a Sub-divisional Magistrate to the file of another Magistrate reverts automatically to him on the transfer of that Magistrate. Even assuming that when a Magistrate is transferred his file remains, the Sub-divisional Magistrate can certainly withdraw the case under sub-s. (1) of this section read with S. 528 (2). AIR 1952 Cal 713 (719, 725): 1952 Cri L Jour 1411 (DB).

5. Transfer of a case remanded for further inquiry.— (1) Where a case is remanded for further inquiry by a Sessions Judge to a District Magistrate, or Sub-divisional Magistrate the latter has power to transfer the proceedings to a Subordinate Magistrate. AIR 1920 Pat 563 (564, 565) = 21 Cri LJ 594  (1907) 5 Cri LJ 112 (115, 116) (DB) (Cal).

[See however (1870) 2 NWPHCR 132 (133) (SB).]

(2) Where a case dismissed under Section 203 was remanded for further proceedings to be held, it was held that the case could not again be transferred under this section. (1907) 5 Cri LJ 112 (115, 116) (DB) (Cal).

[See however AIR 1936 Sind 146 (147) = 37 Cri LJ 1086 (DB).]

(3) As regards the powers of a District Magistrate or a Presidency Magistrate to revive a case that has been discharged and then make a transfer, see Section 436 and the following cases. 1873 Rat 76 (76) (DB)  (1903) 7 Cal WN 527 (529) (DB).

[But see (1882) 6 Mad 25 (26) (DB)  (1898) 4 Cal WN 46 (47) (DB).]

6. "Case," meaning of.—

(A) Proceedings under S. 107 of the Code.— (1) The word "case" has been held to be comprehensive enough to include proceedings under Sec. 107 of the Code. AIR 1953 Cal 109 (112) = 1953 Cri LJ 344 (DB). (AIR 1949 Cal 637 = ILR (1950) 2 Cal 365 = 51 Cri LJ 205, Dissented from.)  (1904) 1 Cri LJ 344 (346, 347) = 31 Cal 350 (DB)  (1902) 29 Cal 389 (390, 391) (DB).

(2) Where a District Magistrate initiates proceedings under sub-s. (2) of Section 107, it has been held that such proceedings can be transferred to a subordinate Magistrate of the first class, who is competent to complete the proceedings, although the latter Magistrate is not competent to institute the same himself. (1901) 24 All 151 (152)  AIR 1918 Cal 892 (892) = 19 Cri LJ 496 (DB).

[See however (1909) 9 Cri LJ 148 (149) (DB) (Cal).]

(3) Before making an order of transfer it is essential that the transferring Magistrate should have taken cognizance of the case. Thus, where the District Magistrate, to whom the police reported for action under Section 107, without stating his opinion that there was a likelihood of a breach of the peace, and without issuing the preliminary notice merely transferred the case to the Head-quarter Magistrate, within whose jurisdiction neither the accused resided nor the place where there was a likelihood of a breach of the peace was situated, it was held that the District Magistrate had not taken cognizance of the case and that the proceedings before the Head-quarter Magistrate were without jurisdiction. AIR 1918 Mad 555 (557) = 18 Cri LJ 878 (880, 881) (DB). (Overruled on another point in AIR 1940 Mad 23 = 41 Cri LJ 238 (FB).)

(4) Where, a District Magistrate made an order that proceedings were "sanctioned" and sent the same to a Sub-divisional Magistrate, it was held that he had taken cognizance of the case and the transfer was valid. AIR 1919 Cal 469 (470) = 19 Cri LJ 266 (DB).

(B) Proceedings under Section 110 of the Code.— (5) Proceedings under Section 110 of the Code can be transferred under this section by a District Magistrate or a Sub-divisional Magistrate, after taking cognizance of the same, to a Subordinate Magistrate who is otherwise competent to complete the proceedings. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (189) = 42 Cri LJ 490  (1908) 7 Cri LJ 146

(6) A First Class Magistrate, specially empowered under sub-section (2), can also transfer such proceedings. AIR 1922 Pat 586 (587) = 24 Cri LJ 31 (DB).

(C) Inquiry under Section 122 of the Code.— (7) An enquiry as to the fitness of a surety under Section 122 can be transferred to a Subordinate Magistrate (1910) 11 Cri LJ 23 (25, 26) = 37 Cal 91 (DB). (Per Coxe, J., Ryves. J. Contra.)

(D) Proceedings under Section 133 of the Code.— (8) The words 'any case' in this section are not restricted to offences or criminal cases and hence the section is applicable to proceedings under Section 133 of the Code. AIR 1952 All 215 (216) = ILR (1951) 2 All 609 = 1952 Cri LJ 407 (DB)  AIR 1970 Cal 169 (170) (DB). (AIR 1949 Cal 637, held overruled by AIR 1956 Cal 24.)

[See AIR 1956 Cal 24 (24) = 1956 Cri LJ 212 (DB). (Section 133 does not in terms purport to restrict the power of a Magistrate who initiates proceedings to transfer the case to some other Magistrate. AIR 1929 Cal 813 = 31 Cri LJ 673, Dissented from.)  AIR 1950 All 475 (477) = 51 Cri LJ 1248.]

(9) An order directing the person proceeded against to appear before another Magistrate to show cause against the conditional order made by a Magistrate under Section 133 is not an order of transfer under this section. AIR 1950 All 475 (477) = 51 Cri LJ 1248.

(10) A proceeding under Section 133 can be transferred by the Magistrate even before the passing of the conditional order under Section 133 provided the Magistrate has taken cognizance and decided to act under that section. AIR 1952 All 215 (216, 220) = ILR (1951) 2 All 609 = 1952 Cri LJ 407 (DB).

(11) It was held that Section 133 stands by itself independently of Section 192. If Section 192 were to prevail the special provisions in Section 133 would become surplusage. The District Magistrate, the Sub-Divisional Magistrate or the Magistrate of First Class can only direct appearance of the person proceeded against before some other Magistrate of First or Second Class at the time of passing of the order. Section 192 does not authorize a subsequent transfer of the case to some other Magistrate. AIR 1958 Raj 248 (249, 250) = ILR (1957) 7 Raj 737= 1958 Cri LJ 1243 (DB)  1966 All WR (HC) 655 (656) = 1966 All Cri R 377.

(E) Proceedings under Section 144 of the Code.— (12) An application made to a District Magistrate under Section 144 (4) of the Code, to rescind an order passed by a subordinate Magistrate under Section 144 (1) is not a case falling under Section 192 or Section 528 and cannot be transferred by the District Magistrate for disposal to another Magistrate subordinate to him. AIR 1937 Mad 167 (169) = 38 Cri LJ 125.

(F) Proceedings under Section 145 of the Code.— (13) Proceedings under Section 145 of the Code can be transferred under this section as they have been held to be "cases" within the meaning of this section. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (189) = 42 Cri LJ 490  AIR 1933 All 264 (266) = 34 Cri LJ 414 (FB)  (1895) 22 Cal 898 (901, 902) (DB)  AIR 1923 Pat 366 (367) = 24 Cri LJ 487.

(14) A transfer cannot be ordered under the section unless the transferring Magistrate has taken cognizance of the case. Where on an application being made to a District Magistrate, praying for action under Section 145, he transferred it to a Sub-divisional Magistrate under him for disposal without taking any action himself under sub-section (1) of Section 145, and the land concerned was also not within the local jurisdiction of the Sub-divisional Magistrate, it was held that the transfer was not valid. AIR 1928 Mad 1230 (1231) = 30 Cri LJ 340.

[See also AIR 1919 All 311 (313) = 20 Cri LJ 410.]

(15) Where, a petition was presented under Section 145 to a City Magistrate and he examined the petitioner on oath, ordered a police-enquiry and on receipt of the police-report, came to the conclusion that there was some basis for the complaint and then transferred the complaint to a Subordinate Magistrate, it was held that the Magistrate had taken cognizance of the case and the transfer was valid. AIR 1933 All 264 (266) = 34 Cri LJ 414 (FB).

(G) Proceedings under Section 147.— (16) Proceedings under Section 147 of the Code can be transferred under this section. The mere fact that the Magistrate has issued notice to the parties requiring them to attend the Court does not deprive him of the general power under this section. AIR 1949 All 616 (618) = 50 Cri LJ 929.

(H) Proceedings under Section 349 of the Code.— (17) Proceedings referred to a superior Magistrate by a subordinate Magistrate under Section 349 of the Code cannot be transferred under this section. (1869-70) 5 Mad HCR (App) xliii (xliii).

(I) Proceedings under Section 552 of the Code.— (18) A complaint under Section 552 of the Code has been held to be not transferable as that section confers exclusive jurisdiction only on a District or Presidency Magistrate. 1898 Rat 963 (963) (DB).

(J) Proceedings under Section 20 of the Cattle Trespass Act 1 of 1871.— (19) Though a complaint under Section 20 of the Act must be entertained by a District Magistrate or a Magistrate specially empowered under the Act, it is open to such Magistrate to transfer the case under this section, after taking cognizance of it, to a subordinate Magistrate, who is otherwise competent under the Code to try such a case. 7. Transfer of proceedings under other Acts.— Proceedings under Ordinance 2 of 1932 (since expired).— (1) Where a special Magistrate after taking cognizance of the case under the Ordinance, transferred it to another Magistrate because he had heard the confession of the accused, it was held that the transfer was proper and valid. AIR 1933 Cal 124 (127) = 34 Cri LJ 633 (DB).

Proceedings under the Bengal Troops Transport Regulation 6 of 1825.— (2) It has been held that only the Collector can act under Section 2 of the Regulation and a case arising thereunder cannot be transferred to a Joint Magistrate. (1910) 11 Cri LJ 476 (476, 477) = 33 All 84.

8. Effect of transfer under the section.— (1) Where once a case is transferred under this section, the case is entirely out of the hands of the transferring Magistrate and he ceases to have any jurisdiction in the case so long as the transfer is in existence. He cannot take any steps or pass any order relating to the case transferred unless and until the case is withdrawn to his file under S. 528 of the Code. (4) An order of transfer does not import any decision on any question either of law or of fact arising in the case and it is open to the accused to raise any objection on the ground of jurisdiction, as for instance, the competency of the Court to try him without the sanction of the State Government, where such sanction is required by law. (1913) 14 Cri LJ 298 (298) = 6 Sind LR 260 (DB).

(5) The transfer of a case taken cognizance of by a Magistrate means the transfer of the judicial investigation into any offence, of which the Magistrate has taken cognizance, and not merely with reference to some of the accused concerned in the offence. AIR 1933 Pat 244 (245, 246) = 35 Cri LJ 533 (DB)  ILR (1958) Cut 74 (76)  AIR 1951 Raj 131 (132) = 52 Cri LJ 964. (AIR 1933 Pat 244 = 35 Cri LJ 533, Rel. on.)

(6) A Magistrate, to whom the case, taken cognizance of on complaint, has been transferred, can in the course of the trial not only add to the charge other offences not complained about but arising out of the same transaction and disclosed in the evidence, but also can put on trial other persons whose names do not appear as accused in the petition or complaint directly or indirectly, provided the offences are such that no prerequisites are required to be fulfilled before cognizance can be taken of those offences. AIR 1949 Pat 47 (56) = 26 Pat 479 = 49 Cri LJ 612 (DB)  AIR 1958 Tripura 1 (Pr 40) = 1958 Cri LJ 97  ILR (1958) Cut 74 (76)  1961 (2) Cri LJ 393 (395, 396) = 1961 BLJR 96.

[See 1967 BLJR 931 (933). (Section 192 makes no distinction between inquiry and trial. The transferee Court in either case has the same powers.)]

(7) Where a police charge-sheet contained the names of twenty-two persons as accused but only nine of them were sent up for trial and the rest were not sent for trial, as some of them were absconders, and the Magistrate to whom the charge-sheet was submitted transferred the case under this section, it was held that the transfer was with regard to the judicial investigation into the entire offence and not merely with reference to the accused actually sent up for trial. Consequently, the transferring Magistrate had no power to pass any order with regard to the trial of the other thirteen accused not sent up for trial. AIR 1933 Pat 244 (245, 246) = 35 Cri LJ 533 (DB)  AIR 1921 Pat 474 (475).

[See also (1905) 2 Cri LJ 524 (526, 530, 532) = 32 Cal 783 (DB)  AIR 1934 Pat 467 (467, 468, 469) = 36 Cri LJ 641 (DB).]

[See however (1906) 3 Cal LJ 87 (88, 89) = 3 Cri LJ 209 (DB).]

(8) After the case is transferred, if the police file a supplementary challan against other persons who were not named in the previous challan, the only Magistrate who can take cognizance of it is the Magistrate to whom the case has been transferred on previous challan. No other Magistrate can accept it and proceed to try the accused AIR 1951 Raj 131 (132) = 52 Cri LJ 964.

[See AIR 1949 Pat 47 (57) = 26 Pat 479 = 49 Cri LJ 612.]

(9) Where upon a complaint preferred to a Sub-divisional Magistrate against several persons as accused, the latter examined the complainant but issued summons only against one of the accused and then transferred the complaint to a subordinate Magistrate under this section, it was held that the whole case against all the accused was transferred and the transferee Magistrate was competent to issue summons against the other accused persons also. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (191, 192) = 42 Cri LJ 490  (1908) 7 Cri LJ 318 (318, 319) = 7 Cal LJ 249 (DB)  AIR 1934 Pat 467 (467, 468, 469) = 36 Cri LJ 641 (DB).

(10) The transferee Magistrate can summon any further persons as accused if he finds evidence against them. AIR 1947 Pat 284 (289) = 25 Pat 539 (DB)  AIR 1958 Tripura 1 (Pr 40) = 1958 Cri LJ 97  ILR (1958) Cut 74 (76)  AIR 1964 Pat 487 (489) = 1964 BLJR 452 = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 569 (570) (DB)  1962 BLJR 692 (694)  ILR (1961) 2 Cal 424 (429) (DB).

See also S. 190.

(11) The legality of piecemeal transfer of a case under this section is open to considerable doubt. AIR 1949 Cal 637 (640) = ILR (1950) 2 Cal 365 = 51 Cri L Jour 205  AIR 1941 Cal 185 (192) = 42 Cri L Jour 490  (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 318 (319) (DB) (Cal).

[But see ILR (1963) Cut 695 (698). (Transfer of case after passing conditional order — Mere irregularity — In absence of prejudice transfer is valid.)]

(12) Even if piecemeal transfer may be in certain circumstances valid, it must be clearly indicated in the order of transfer which portion of the case has not been transferred. In the absence of any such clear indication, it must be taken that the whole case has been transferred to the subordinate Magistrate. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (192) = 42 Cri L Jour 490.

(13) A transfer, with directions to commit if the evidence is sufficient and to disallow bail has been held to be erroneous. (1900) 27 Cal 820 (823, 825) (DB).

(14) Where a Magistrate summons only one of the accused persons and transfers the case under this section, the death of that accused after the transfer does not terminate the proceedings against the other accused persons unless the Magistrate to whom the case is transferred thinks fit to conclude the proceedings against them. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (192) = 42 Cri L Jour 490.

(15) As to whether a Magistrate to whom a case has been transferred can order an inquiry under Section 202, See Note 1 and Section 202.

9. Erroneous order of transfer — Effect of.— See Section 529.

10. Notice of transfer.— (1) The section contemplates a transfer even before the issue of process against the accused and no notice of transfer is necessary to the accused. Where, however, the transfer is made under Section 528, notice is necessary. AIR 1928 Mad 560 (560) = 29 Cri L Jour 734  AIR 1943 Sind 109 (110) = ILR (1943) Kar 13 = 44 Cri L Jour 612 (DB)  2 Bom LR 342 (342) (DB).

Also see Section 528.

11. Case triable by first class Magistrate — Transfer to second class Magistrate with direction to commit to sessions — Legality.— (1) A first class Magistrate transferred a case triable by himself to a second class Magistrate subordinate to him with directions to treat the case as one for committal to the sessions. It was held that the first class Magistrate had no power to do so and that the proper procedure to be followed by him was, if he thought that the case should be committed to the sessions to himself commit the case to the Court of Session under Section 347. AIR 1938 Mad 529 (529, 530) = 39 Cri L Jour 715.

193. Cognizance of offences by Courts of Session. — (1) Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Code or by any other law for the time being in force, no Court of Session shall take cognizance of any offence as a Court of original jurisdiction unless the accused has been committed to it by a Magistrate duly empowered in that behalf.

(2) Additional Sessions Judges and Assistant Sessions Judges shall try such cases only as the °[State Government] by general or special order may direct them to try, or †[* * * *] as the Sessions Judge of the division, by general or special order, may make over to them for trial.

[°] Substituted for 'Provincial Government' by A. L. O., 1950.

[†] The words "in the case of Assistant Sessions Judges" were repealed by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1923 (XVIII of 1923), Section 46.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, the amendment made in Section 193 is the same as that made in Maharashtra. — See Central Act XI of 1960, Sec. 87 (1-5-1960).

Section 193 — Note 1

(1) The object of the restriction on Court of Session in taking cognizance, in sub-section (1), is twofold—

(a) To secure to the person charged a preliminary enquiry which would afford him the opportunity of being acquainted with the circumstances of the offence imputed to him and enable him to make his defence. (1881) 3 Mad 351 (352, 353) (DB)  AIR 1927 Sind 28 (34) = 27 Cri L Jour 1217 (DB).

(b) To prevent the time of the Court of Session from being wasted over cases in which the charge is obviously not supported by such evidence as would justify a conviction. (1882) 5 All 161 (162)  (1905) 2 Cri L Jour 534 (541) (SB) (Cal).

(2) Section 351 must be read as subject to this section, Consequently a Sessions Judge has no power to join a person as a co-accused in a case before him whether he happened to attend the Court or not, when no inquiry of any sort has been held by any Magistrate into the charges against him. AIR 1942 Sind 161 (162) = 44 Cri L Jour 137 (DB).

(3) Sections 193 and 195 regulate the competence of the Court and bar its jurisdiction in certain cases excepting in compliance therewith. AIR 1955 SC 196 (204) = 1955 Cri L Jour 526 = ILR [1955] Punj 135 = 1955 SCR 1150.

(4) Although under Section 193 (1) a Court of Session cannot take cognizance of any offence as a Court of original jurisdiction, regard must be had to the exception contained in the words "except as otherwise expressly provided . . . . ." AIR 1915 Sind 50 (50) = 9 Sind LR 37 = 16 Cri L Jour 573.

(5) Where the committal was only for the offence of attempt to murder, the sessions judge could frame a charge under Section 302, I. P. C. in a case where after the committal the injured died. This fell within the scope of Section 226 of the Code and Section 193 is no bar. AIR 1966 Ker 1 (4, 5) = 1965 Ker LT 620 = 1966 Cri LJ 22 (FB).

(6) In a case not triable by the Court of Session exclusively, the Sessions Judge should send the case for inquiry to any Magistrate empowered to try or commit for trial the accused person. (1879) 4 Cal 570 (571) (DB).

(7) Section 6 of the West Bengal Special Courts Ordinance (3 of 1949) provides that a Court constituted under that Ordinance may take cognizance of offences without the accused being committed to the Court of Session for trial. This section does not therefore apply to trials under that Ordinance. (1950) 54 Cal WN 753 (754, 755) (DB).

(8) Special Court under West Bengal Criminal Law Amendment (Special Courts) Act, 1949 can take cognizance independently of Sections 190 and 193, Cr. P. C. But that does not mean that the Special Court cannot take cognizance on a complaint under Section 190 (1). It only means that, the Special Court is not confined to that method only in taking cognizance. AIR 1961 Cal 560 (565) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 617 (FB).

(9) Section 5 of the West Bengal Tribunals of Criminal Jurisdiction Act (1952) provides that a Tribunal may take cognizance of schedule offences without the accused being committed to it for trial. AIR 1955 Cal 535 (538, 539) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1348 (DB).

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, in sub-section (2) of Section 193 after the words "the State Government" insert the words "in consultation with the High Court."—Bom. Act XXIII of 1951, Section 2 and Schedule (1-7-1953).

(2) After the reorganisation of the State of Bombay in 1956, the amendment made in Section 193 by the above-mentioned Bombay Act is extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959 by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

Punjab, Haryana: Chandigarh

In its application to the States of Punjab and Haryana and the Union territory of Chandigarh, in sub-section (2) of Section 193, for the words "State Government", substitute the words "the High Court". — Punj. Act XXV of 1964, Section 2 and Schedule Part I, Item (47) (2-10-1964) and Act 31 of 1966, Sections 29 and 89 (1-11-1966).

Rajasthan

Abu area. — In its application to the Abu area of the State of Rajasthan, the amendment made in Section 193 is the same as that made in (1) of Maharashtra. — See Cent. Act XXXVII of 1956, Section 119 (1-11-1956).

Union territories (except Chandigarh)

In its application to the Union territories, in Section 193, for the words "the State Government", substitute the words "the State Government in consultation with the High Court."—Act 19 of 1969, Section 3 and Schedule, Item 49. (In Delhi, on 2-10-1969).

West Bengal

In its application to the State of West Bengal, in Section 193,

(i) in sub-section (1) for the word "Magistrate", substitute the words "Judicial Magistrate"; and

(ii) in sub-section (2), after the words "State Government", insert the words, "in consultation with the High Court." — W. B. Act VIII of 1970, Section 3 and Schedule, Item 68.

(10) So far as the Courts of Special Judges functioning under the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 1952, are concerned, though they are placed on the same footing as the Courts of Session (Section 8 (3)) the procedure prescribed under Sec. 193 of the Criminal Procedure Code, that no Court of Session shall take cognizance of any offence unless the accused has been committed to it, is not necessary to be followed in the case of these Courts. AIR 1959 Bom 437 (441) = ILR (1959) Bom 1088 = 1959 Cri L Jour 1153  AIR 1967 Pat 416 (422) = 1967 Cri LJ 1677. (Provision under Section 8 (1) of Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952 does not restrict the powers of Magistrate under Section 190 of the Code.)  1966 Mad 432 (433, 434) = 1966 Cri LJ 1452.

(11) The absence of a commitment is a defect which affects the jurisdiction or competency of the Sessions Court to take cognizance of the case and cannot be cured by the provisions of Sec. 537. AIR 1953 Hyd 9 (12) — ILR (1952) Hyd 581 = 1953 Cri L Jour 116 (DB)  (1895) 22 Cal 50 (71) (DB)  (1892) 15 Mad 352 (353) (DB)  1913 Pun LR No, 260, p. 880 (881, 882)  AIR 1934 All 963 (969) = 36 Cri L Jour 137 (FB).

[See 1969 All WR (HC) 356 (362) = 1969 All Cr R 230. (No commitment of accused for carrying firearm without licence — Sessions Court cannot convict him for that offence by adding charge therefor in absence of sanction of District Magistrate — Arms Act (1959), Sections 39 and 3 read with 25 (1) (a).)]

(12) The commitment must be by a competent Magistrate. (1907) 6 Cri L Jour 7 (7, 8) (All).

(13) Under Section 437 a Court of Session can commit an accused person itself and try him without the intervention of a Magistrate. (1886) 10 Bom 319 (323, 324) (DB).

(14) The reasons for which a Magistrate, who is otherwise competent, may commit a case to the Court of Session are not in any way limited either to a case which he cannot try or to a case in which he cannot adequately punish the accused. He may commit any person for trial to the Court of Session but he must give adequate reasons for committing a person for an offence which is not exclusively triable by the Court of Session. AIR 1949 All 1 (10, 11) = ILR (1949) All 279 = 50 Cri L Jour 59 (FB).

(15) An order of commitment passed by a competent Magistrate without framing a charge as required by Section 210 of the Code cannot affect the competency of the Court of Session to take cognizance of the offence as the omission to frame a charge is only an irregularity curable under Section 537 read with Section 226 under which it is open to the Sessions Judge to frame a charge. AIR 1953 All 191 (192) = 1953 Cri L Jour 478.

(16) Applications under Chap. XXXII (of Reference and Revision) of the Code are not cases for trial and cannot be transferred under the provisions of this section. (1885) 9 Bom 352 (353, 354) (DB)  (1885) 9 Bom 164 (168) (DB).

(17) A Sessions Judge cannot transfer an appeal under this section to an Assistant Sessions Judge. AIR 1915 All 101 (102) = 16 Cri L Jour 316.

(18) Independently of the provisions of this section, a Sessions Judge can, under Section 409, transfer an appeal to an Additional Sessions Judge. AIR 1942 Oudh 50 (54) = 43 Cri L Jour 50.

(19) The Sessions Judge should arrange that difficult cases should be tried by himself and not be made over to a less experienced Additional Sessions Judge. AIR 1935 Rang 406 (407) = 37 Cri L Jour 196 (DB).

[See also AIR 1929 Oudh 150 (151) = 30 Cri L Jour 544 (DB).]

(20) An Additional Sessions Judge is to try only those original cases which come to him under Section 193. 1957 Cri L Jour 156 (159) (Raj).

(21) Where the Additional Sessions Judge transferred the case from the file of the Sessions Judge to his own file, this was quite against law. The trial before the Additional Sessions Judge being without jurisdiction, the order of conviction and sentence passed by him needs being set aside. AIR 1959 J and K 11 (12) = 1959 Cri L Jour 186.

(22) In cases arising under Sec. 193 (2) the distinction between elements, which are essential for the foundation of jurisdiction and the mode in which such jurisdiction has to be assumed and exercised, is of fundamental importance. If there is existence of jurisdiction, the irregularity in the exercise of it will not vitiate the trial. AIR 1955 Punj 65 (75) = ILR (1954) Punj 75 = 1955 Cri L Jour 609 (DB).

(23) The word "only" in Section 193 (2) is intended not so much to extend the power of transfer of the State Government as to limit the powers of Additional and Assistant Sessions Judges to try such cases alone as the State Government or the Sessions Judge empowers them to do. AIR 1931 Bom 313 (316) = 55 Bom 576 = 32 Cri L Jour 1147 (SB).

(24) By Section 193 (2) the Legislature did not intend that the State Government should interfere with the ordinary course of justice in a particular case or transfer a particular case from a particular Judge to another particular Judge. AIR 1931 Bom 313 (316) = 55 Bom 576 = 32 Cri L Jour 1147 (SB).

(25) Section 193 (2) is not hit by Article 14 of the Constitution and is not ultra vires. AIR 1958 All 838 (841) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1446.

(26) When High Court transfers a case from the Magistrate to Sessions Court there is no occasion for the Court of Session to take cognizance of the offence in the sense that it has to determine whether the proceeding should be initiated in connexion with the offence or not. The proceedings have been already initiated by the Magistrate and have been simply transferred to it. AIR 1966 SC 595 (599) = 1966 Cri LJ 595.

(27) Sessions Judge can make over transfer petitions to the Additional Sessions Judge for disposal. AIR 1964 Andh Pra 59 (65) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 176 = (1963) 2 Andh WR 43.

(28) When a Sessions Judge is seized of the case not on committal by empowered Magistrate but by reason of an order of transfer passed by the High Court itself under Section 526 (1), his duty is to comply with the order of High Court and not to act under Section 193 (2) of the Code. 1969 Cr LJ 255 (257) = 9 Guj LR 903.

(29) Besides the Sessions Judge can act under Section 193 (2) Subject to the provisions of the Code which include any order passed by High Court under Section 526 (1). 1969 Cri LJ 255 (257) = 9 Guj LR 903.

(30) When the committing Magistrate could have lawfully framed a charge under Section 25 (1) (a) of Arms Act but failed to do so, the Sessions Court can frame such charge under S. 226 of the Code and Section 193 (1) of the Code is no bar. AIR 1968 Pat 258 (268) = 1968 Cri LJ 958.

194. Cognizance of offences by High Court. — (1) The High Court may take cognizance of any offence upon a commitment made to it in manner hereinafter provided.

°[Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect the provisions of any letters patent or †[law] by which a High Court is constituted or continued, or any other provision of this Code.]

(2) Information by Advocate-General. — (a) Notwithstanding anything in this Code contained, the Advocate-General may, with the previous sanction of ‡[* * * *] the °†[State Government], exhibit to the High Court, against persons subject to the jurisdiction of the High Court, informations for all purposes for which Her Majesty's Attorney-General may exhibit informations on behalf of the Crown in the High Court of Justice in England.

(b) Such proceedings may be taken upon every such information as may lawfully be taken in the case of similar informations filed by Her Majesty's Attorney-General so far as the circumstances of the case and the practice and procedure of the said High Court will admit.

(c) All fines, penalties, forfeitures, debts and sums of money recovered or levied under or by virtue of any such information §[shall form part of the revenues of the °†[State].]

(d) The High Court may make rules for carrying into effect the provisions of this section.

[1882—S. 194; 1872 and 1861—Nil.]

Section 194 — Note 1

(1) The High Court has no jurisdiction to try an accused on an application made under S. 85 of the Companies Act. AIR 1936 All 830 (832) = 38 Cri LJ 111 (FB).

(2) The High Court takes cognizance of a case, not on a complaint or police report or on information as in the case of Magistrate under Section 190, but upon a commitment. (1897) 22 Bom 112 (124).

(3) In Calcutta and Bombay, where the Coroners Act is in force, an inquisition drawn up by the coroner has the effect of commitment to the High Court, when it has been accepted by the High Court and the officers of the State have drawn up a charge in accordance therewith. (1904) 1 Cri LJ 13 (19) = 31 Cal 1 (DB).

(5) Sub-section (4) of Section 45C read with Section 45A of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, as amended by the Banking Companies (Amendment) Act (20 of 1950) provides that notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, the High Court shall take cognizance of any offence under that section without the accused being committed to it for trial.

(6) For contempt committed out of Court, the High Court has always got the power to try and punish a person. AIR 1935 All 1 (2, 3) (DB).

(7) The information to be exhibited by the Advocate-General to the High Court against a person under sub-section (2) (a) should contain a statement of the charge as definite and detailed as an indictment. Allegations as to the opinion of the Executive are out of place and should never be included in it. This procedure should not be resorted to where the ordinary procedure can be adopted, as in cases of perjury and conspiracy, as it will be prejudicial to the accused. AIR 1933 PC 124 (128, 133) = 34 Cri LJ 322.

(8) When non-scheduled offence is committed in port area in Ganga contiguous to Presidency town of Calcutta High Court has no jurisdiction to try it on its original Criminal side. Commitment of such offence to High Court is bad. 1962 (2) Cri LJ 656 (658) (Cal).

(9) Where on the death of petitioner in contempt proceedings the High Court appoints Deputy Advocate General to assist it, Sec. 194 (2) (a) Cr. P. C. does not apply to him and previous sanction of State Government is not necessary. AIR 1968 Punj 217 (230) = 1968 Cri LJ 775 (FB).

[‡] The words "The Governor-General-in Council or" were repealed by A. O., 1937.

[*†] Substituted for "Provincial Government" and "Province" by A. L. O., 1950.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Clause 194 (2) — The practice and procedure relating to criminal information differs in many respects from the ordinary procedure laid down by this Code, as, for example, by dispensing with the preliminary inquiry before Magistrates. Now that the provisions of Section 144 of Act 10 of 1875 (The Advocate-General's (Powers) Act) are included in the Code instead of being contained in a separate Act, it is desirable to show that they are not subject to the general provisions of this Code. We have, therefore, prefixed the words "Notwithstanding anything in this Code contained" to this section." — S. C. R. 1898.

195. Prosecution for contempt of lawful authority of public servants. — *[(1) No Court shall take cognizance —

(a) of any offence punishable under Sections 172 to 188 of the Indian Penal Code, except on the complaint in writing of the public servant concerned, or of some other public servant to whom he is subordinate;

Prosecution for certain offences against public justice.

(b) of any offence punishable under any of the following sections of the same Code, namely, Sections 193, 194, 195, 196, 199, 200, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211 and 228, when such offence is alleged to have been committed in, or in relation to, any proceedings in any Court, except on the complaint in writing of such Court or of some other Court to which such Court is subordinate; or

Prosecution for certain offences relating to documents given in evidence.

(c) of any offence described in Section 463 or punishable under Section 471, Section 475 or Section 476 of the same Code, when such offence is alleged to have been committed by a party to any proceeding in any Court in respect of a document produced or given in evidence in such proceeding, except on the complaint in writing of such Court, or of some other Court to which such Court is subordinate.]

SECTION 195 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. "Complaint."
2A. Absence of complaint.
2B. Irregular and invalid complaints.
2C. Avoidance of Section 195 not permissible.
2D. Offences covered and not covered by section — Alteration of charge or conviction.
2E. Complaint under this section and sanction for prosecution.
3. Offences concerning public servants — Sub-section (1), clause (a).
4. Subordination of public servants.
5. Complaint in cases of offences mentioned in clause (a).

(2) In clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (1), the term "Court" †[includes] a Civil, Revenue or Criminal Court, but does not include a Registrar or Sub-Registrar under the Indian Registration Act, 1877.‡

§[(3) For the purposes of this section, a Court shall be deemed to be subordinate to the Court to which appeals ordinarily lie from the appealable decrees or sentences of such former Court, or in the case of a Civil Court from whose decrees no appeal ordinarily lies to the principal Court having ordinary original civil jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such Civil Court is situate:

Provided that—

(a) where appeals lie to more than one Court, the appellate Court of inferior jurisdiction shall be the Court to which such Court shall be deemed to be subordinate; and

(b) where appeals lie to a Civil and also to a Revenue Court, such Court shall be deemed to be subordinate to the Civil or Revenue Court according to the nature of the case or proceeding in connection with which the offence is alleged to have been committed.]

°†[(4)] The provisions of sub-section (1), with reference to the offences named therein, apply also to °‡[criminal conspiracies to commit such offences and to] the abetment of such offences, and attempts to commit them.

(2) It may be stated broadly that what distinguishes a Court from a quasi-judicial tribunal is that it is charged with a duty to decide disputes in a judicial manner and declare the rights of parties in a definitive judgment by giving the parties an opportunity as a matter of right to be heard in support of their claim and to adduce evidence in proof of it. When a question therefore arises as to whether an authority created by an Act is a Court as distinguished from a quasi-judicial Tribunal, what has to be decided is whether having regard to the provisions of the Act it possesses all the attributes of a Court. AIR 1956 SC 153 (157) = 1956 Cri L Jour 326.

(3) The expression "Court" is not restricted to Courts, Civil, Revenue or Criminal, it includes other tribunals — The definition of that word in Evidence Act and in Section 20 of I. P. C. does not apply to Criminal P. C. AIR 1969 SC 724 (728, 729) = 1969 Cri LJ 1069 = (1969) 1 SCJ 945.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Before the amendment of the section by Section 138 of Act XLIII of 1951, by insertion of the words 'and Section 171-F, in so far as it relates to the offence of personation,' the section was amended to the same effect by the following State Acts:—

Bombay Act XXIX of 1935;

Central Provinces and Berar Act XIX of 1936;

Punjab Act VIII of 1925, Section 161 (as amended by Punj Act XXV of 1954, S. 8) and Punjab Act I of 1936; and West Bengal Act LVIII of 1950.

(3) District Magistrate summarily rejected application for the withdrawal of a complaint preferred by the joint Magistrate without giving notice or hearing the applicant — Held, that the application was by way of a judicial revision, and the order was open to revision under Section 439. AIR 1934 Mad 473 (474) = 35 Cri L Jour 1134.

(4) Where a joint Magistrate has passed an order withdrawing a complaint, the order of the District Magistrate in revision setting aside that order is passed as a Court and is open to revision by the High Court. AIR 1945 Mad 58 (58) = 46 Cri L Jour 421.

28. Dismissal of complaint for non-compliance with the section, whether bars a fresh and proper complaint. — (1) Where the Court dismisses a complaint for non-compliance of Section 195, the dismissal does not operate as an acquittal by a Court of competent jurisdiction. SECTION 196 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. Taking cognizance.
3. "Complaint made by order of, or under authority from ......"
4. Signature on order of sanction.
5. Specification of section under which complaint is to be made.
6. Proof of sanction.
7. Who can sanction prosecution.
8. Sanction not judicial function.
9. Form and contents of complaint.
10. Want of sanction — Effect.
11. Want of complaint — Effect.
12. Facts of case amounting to offence requiring sanction as well as other offence — Effect.

1. Scope and object. — (1) Cognizance in cases coming under this section can only be taken on a complaint sanctioned by the authorities mentioned in the section. Section 190 (b) and (c) have no application to such cases. AIR 1919 Mad 968 (969) = 20 Cri L Jour 186 (DB) °° (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 2 (3) (SB) (Cal) °° 1962 Ker LT 639 (641). (The general rule is that a complaint need not necessarily be made by the person injured but may be filed by any person aware of the offence but exception to this rule is found in Sections 195 to 199, Cr. P. C., the offences found wherein are complainable only by specified persons.)

(2) Offence under Rule 34 (6) (e) and (k) of Defence of India Act charged under Rule 38 (1) of Defence of India Rules — Trial by Sub-divisional Magistrate on report required by Rule 130 (1), Defence of India Rules — No objection held could be taken that provisions of Section 196 should have been complied with. AIR 1941 Mad 363 (364) = 42 Cri L Jour 652.

(3) Offences enumerated in this section are of a very exceptional nature and are all of them in the nature of offences against the State either in its internal or in its external relations. (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 217 (221, 222) = 1911 Pun Re (Cr) No. 11.

(4) Object of the section is to prevent unauthorized persons from intruding in State affairs by instituting State prosecutions and to secure that such prosecutions shall only be instituted under the authority of the Government. (1897) 22 Bom 112 (125) °° AIR 1923 Mad 328 (328) = 24 Cri L Jour 539 (DB) °° (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 286 (289) = 38 Cal 559 (SB).

(5) This section being a disenabling section must be construed strictly. AIR 1919 Mad 968 (969) = 20 Cri L Jour 186 (DB).

(6) Discretion vested in the Government to initiate proceedings cannot be delegated to or exercised by any other body or person. (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 453 (459) = 37 Cal 467 (DB) °° AIR 1922 Mad 126 (127) = 23 Cri L Jour 203 (DB) °° AIR 1918 Nag 248 (251).

(7) The considerations of policy which apply to the initiation of proceedings apply not only to the institution of a prosecution for the first time, but also to the question whether it is desirable to launch a fresh prosecution if the first prosecution fails or is likely to fail on account of a technical defect. AIR 1920 Mad 928 (931, 932) = 20 Cri L Jour 455 (SB).

(8) No apprehension of person doing any act mentioned in Section 108 — Sec. 108 does not apply — Proper procedure is to prosecute person after obtaining sanction under this section. AIR 1928 All 344 (344, 345) = 30 Cri L Jour 216.

(9) Cognizance under this section depends on complaint (made under authority emanating from certain sources) while cognizance under Section 197 depends on sanction. 1890 Pun Re (Cr) No. 16, p. 33 (37) (DB) °° (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 453 (460) = 37 Cal 467 (DB).

(10) Decisions bearing on the interpretation of Section 197 are not ipso facto applicable to the questions arising under this section. (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 453 (460) = 37 Cal 467 (DB) °° (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 217 (221, 222) = 1911 Pun Re (Cr) No. 11.

(11) Provisions of Bengal Suppression of Terrorists Outrages Act, 1932, are controlled by Section 196. AIR 1937 Cal 99 (113) = 38 Cri L Jour 818 (SB).

(12) Section 138 of the Representation of the People Act amends Section 196. Therefore after the amendment no order of the Government is required for instituting prosecution under Section 171-F, Penal Code, so far as it relates to false personation. AIR 1958 Madh Pra 67 (68) = 1958 Cri L Jour 384 (DB) °° AIR 1959 Orissa 97 (98) = ILR (1959) Cut 153 = 1959 Cri L Jour 752 °° AIR 1954 Mad 704 (705) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1126.

(13) The section governs cases of prosecution under Section 124-A, Penal Code, in prosecutions in Manipur State. AIR 1955 Manipur 9 (13) = 1955 Cri L Jour 184.

(14) It is only when an offence strictly falls within the purview of this section that a sanction is necessary. Therefore, where a statement is merely defamatory and does not fall under Section 171-G, Penal Code, no sanction is necessary. AIR 1958 Mad 240 (241) = 1958 Cri L Jour 647 (2).

2. Taking cognizance. — (1) Ordering a preliminary investigation by the police under Section 155 of the Code is not "taking cognizance of an offence" hence a complaint made under the sanction of the Government is not necessary for ordering such an investigation. AIR 1932 Lah 581 (581) = 33 Cri L Jour 678.

(2) A Magistrate can arrest a person under Section 64 even in respect of an offence mentioned in this section, and release him on bail, without a complaint made by order of the Government. AIR 1939 All 682 (683) = 41 Cri L Jour 85.

(3) Trial commenced on sanction and complaint in respect of offence under Section 121A, Penal Code — Facts proved amounting to offence under Section 124 — Fresh sanction and complaint specifically directed to offence proved are necessary to proceed with case. AIR 1926 Rang 169 (171) = 27 Cri L Jour 1075 (DB).

(4) Section 237 has to be read subject to this section. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 987 (989) = 1957 Cri L Jour 1389.

(5) Offence under Section 295-A, I. P. C. — Order of State Government directing Commissioner of Police to depute an officer to make complaint — Commissioner directing Sub-Inspector of Police to investigate — Investigation completed but no charge-sheet under Section 173 (1) (a) submitted — Sub-Inspector filing complaint on further direction by Commissioner — Cognizance can be taken under Section 190 (1) (a) by Magistrate. AIR 1963 Mad 160 (163) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 772 (DB).

Section 196 (contd.)

3. "Complaint made by order of, or under authority from ......" — (1) Section does not contemplate sanction — Complaint should be by order of or under authority of State Government. AIR 1965 Pat 393 (394) = 1965 BLJR 613 = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 401.

(2) It is not necessary that the very words used in a complaint must have been sanctioned by the authority. It is enough if the institution of the complaint has been sanctioned by it. AIR 1919 Mad 968 (968) = 20 Cri L Jour 186 (DB) °° (1909) 9 Cri L Jour 130 (132) = 32 Mad 35 (DB) °° (1909) 9 Cri L Jour 108 (110) = 32 Mad 3 (DB) °° AIR 1925 Mad 106 (107) = 25 Cri L Jour 401 (DB) °° (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (13) = 35 Cal 141 (DB).

(3) Sanction must be given in each case specifying person against whom prosecution is to be instituted. AIR 1930 Lah 81 (81) = 31 Cri L Jour 692 (DB) °° (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (14) = 35 Cal 141 (DB).

(4) Sanction must specify matter in respect of which prosecution should be launched. AIR 1948 PC 82 (84) = 75 Ind App 30 = ILR (1948) Bom 316 = 49 Cri L Jour 261 °° AIR 1950 Cal 108 (109) = 51 Cri L Jour 556 °° AIR 1949 Mad 710 (711) = 51 Cri L Jour 156 °° (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 609 (649) (SB) (Cal).

(5) Sanction given in respect of particular offence — Sanction cannot sustain prosecution for different offence. AIR 1926 Rang 169 (171) = 27 Cri L Jour 1075 (DB) °° AIR 1948 Nag 71 (73) = 49 Cri L Jour 54 = ILR (1947) Nag 788 (DB).

(6) Where the order for prosecution relates to a definite offence committed on a particular occasion, a prosecution in respect of a distinct offence committed on a different occasion cannot be sustained on the basis of such an order. AIR 1924 Rang 371 (372) = 26 Cri L Jour 245.

(7) Where the facts constituting the offence charged are not shown on the face of the sanction, the prosecution must prove by extraneous evidence that those facts were placed before the sanctioning authority. AIR 1948 PC 82 (84) = 75 Ind App 30 = ILR (1948) Bom 316 = 49 Cri L Jour 261 °° AIR 1949 Assam 84 (Prs 8, 9) = ILR (1949) 1 Assam 323 = 51 Cri L Jour 63 °° AIR 1949 Mad 710 (Pr 1) = 51 Cri L Jour 156.

(8) Where a prosecution has been ordered and a complaint is made by an official, the presumption that official acts are regularly done may be applied and it may be presumed that the official making the complaint is duly authorized to do so. AIR 1938 Mad 758 (760, 761) = 39 Cri L Jour 938 °° (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (15) = 35 Cal 141 (DB).

(9) The defect in a sanction due to the failure to address it to some determinate person is only an irregularity which does not go to the root of the jurisdiction. AIR 1923 Mad 328 (328) = 24 Cri L Jour 539 (DB).

(10) An order sanctioning a prosecution under this section need not be in any particular form. AIR 1918 Nag 248 (251) °° AIR 1925 Mad 106 (107) = 25 Cri L Jour 401 (DB) °° (1897) 22 Bom 112 (150) °° (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (13) = 35 Cal 141 (DB) °° (1967) 69 Pun LR 126 = 1967 Cur LJ 72 (74). (When the District Magistrate orders putting up of a challan under Section 295-A I. P. C. after the enquiry, provisions of Section 196, Cr. P. C. can be said to have been complied with.)

(11) A sanction of prosecution under the section must be expressed with sufficient particularity to indicate clearly the matter which is to be the subject of the proceedings; there is no rigid rule as to degree of particularity required. (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (13) = 35 Cal 141 (DB) °° (1897) 22 Bom 112 (124) °° (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 609 (649) (SB) (Cal) °° AIR 1919 Mad 968 (969) = 20 Cri L Jour 186 (DB).

(12) Where the order of the Government authorized filing of a complaint against certain named persons for offences under Sections 121, 121-A and 122, Penal Code, the sanction was not invalid merely because particulars of the offences were not stated. AIR 1946 Nag 173 (187, 188) = ILR (1946) Nag 126 = 47 Cri L Jour 851 (DB). (Overruled on another point in AIR 1956 SC 238.)

(13) An order for prosecution under this section need not be in writing. (1897) 22 Bom 112 (124) °° AIR 1918 Nag 248 (251).

(14) A sanction to prosecute may be communicated by telegram. AIR 1920 Mad 928 (929) = 20 Cri L Jour 455 (SB).

(15) There is no restriction as to the person who can be ordered to make a complaint under this section. (1897) 22 Bom 112 (123) °° AIR 1938 Mad 758 (760) = 39 Cri L Jour 938 °° (1909) 9 Cri L Jour 108 (111) = 32 Mad 3 (DB).

General of Police authorised making of a complaint by inspector who laid charge-sheet but stated that Inspector was in fact so authorised and that correspondence between them was inadvertently omitted to be filed. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 987 (990) = 1957 Cri L Jour 1389.

4. Signature on order of sanction. — (1) An order sanctioning a prosecution under this section need not be signed personally by the head of the Government but may be signed by some gazetted officer having authority to sign on behalf of the Government. AIR 1938 Mad 758 (761) = 39 Cri L Jour 938 °° (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (16) = 35 Cal 141 (DB) °° (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 453 (458) = 37 Cal 467 (DB) °° AIR 1918 Nag 248 (251).

(2) A signature by a Deputy Secretary to the Government was held to be insufficient. AIR 1922 Cal 298 (299, 300) = 24 Cri L Jour 111 (DB).

(3) A Court can take judicial notice of the signature of a gazetted officer who has signed an order for prosecution under this section. AIR 1923 Mad 600 (600, 601) = 24 Cri L Jour 403 (DB).

(4) A person signing an order for prosecution not being himself a complainant need not be examined on oath in the case. (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (16) = 35 Cal 141 (DB).

5. Specification of section under which complaint is to be made. — (1) Sanction should be specifically directed to the particular section in respect of which proceedings are to be taken. It would be opposed to the true intendment of Section 196, for the Government by its order to give its legal or other advisers a roving power to determine under what section proceedings should be taken. (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 453 (459) = 37 Cal 467 (DB) °° (1912) 13 Cr L Jour 609 (649) (SB) (Cal) °° AIR 1922 Mad 126 (127) = 23 Cri L Jour 203 (DB).

(2) The particular section under which prosecution is to be started need not be specified in the sanction provided the matter of complaint is otherwise made clear. (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 583 (587) = 4 Sind LR 55 (DB) °° AIR 1926 Rang 169 (171) = 27 Cri L Jour 1075 (DB).

(3) Where a sanction was given for prosecution under Section 121 Penal Code in respect of certain activities of the accused and under Section 124-A in respect of certain speeches delivered by him, it was held that, a prosecution under Section 121 in respect of the speeches was covered by the sanction. AIR 1925 Mad 106 (106, 107) = 25 Cri L Jour 401 (DB).

(4) Where a prosecution under Sec. 124A is sanctioned, a prosecution for abetment of offence under S. 124-A is justified under the sanction. (1909) 9 Cri L Jour 130 (132) = 32 Mad 35 (DB).

6. Proof of sanction. — (1) Sanction of Government for prosecution must be strictly proved. 1872-1892 Low Bur Rul 389 (389).

(2) A sanction communicated by telegram must be proved to emanate from the Government. The Court is forbidden by the express provisions of Section 88 Evidence Act to make any presumption as to the person by whom the telegram was sent. AIR 1920 Mad 928 (928, 929) = 20 Cri L Jour 455 (SB).

(3) Order authorising Senior Superintendent of Police to make complaint under Section 153-A, Penal Code — Such order signed by Deputy Secretary to Government—Assistant who was acquainted with Deputy Secretary's signature could prove it — Sanction held not invalid merely because file was not sent to Governor as the order was a public document by virtue of Section 47 Evidence Act. AIR 1965 Pat 393 (394, 395) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 401 = 1965 BLJR 613.

7. Who can sanction prosecution. — (1) Where a sanction is issued by the Government, it must be the act of the Government as a body and not of a single member of it. AIR 1920 Mad 928 (929) = 20 Cri L Jour 455 (SB).

(2) It is not open to accused person to dispute the right of the de facto Government to sanction prosecution under this section. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 609 (613, 649) (SB) (Cal).

(3) State Government by general order can empower subordinate officers to grant sanction for a class of offences. AIR 1968 All 265 (269) = 1968 Cri LJ 884 (DB).

8. Sanction not judicial function. — (1) Government in according or withholding sanction under this section acts purely in executive capacity and not in judicial capacity. (1904) 1 Cri L Jour 275 (278) = 27 Mad 54 °° AIR 1916 Mad 1110 (1112) = 13 Cri L Jour 209 (211) (FB) °° AIR 1926 Rang 169 (171) = 27 Cri L Jour 1075 (DB). (Per Duckworth, J.)

(2) It is not necessary that the Government in sanctioning a prosecution should give reasons for doing so. AIR 1923 Mad 338 (339) = 24 Cri L Jour 116.

(3) It is not necessary, before sanctioning a prosecution, that the accused must be given an opportunity of showing why his prosecution should not be ordered. (1904) 1 Cri L Jour 275 (278) = 27 Mad 5.

9. Form and contents of complaint. — (1) A complaint under this section must fulfil the requirements of the definition of a complaint under Section 4 (1) (h). (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (14) = 35 Cal 141 (DB).

(2) The complaint must set out the facts constituting the alleged offence. If such facts are not stated, the proceedings are liable to be quashed. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 609 (650) (SB) (Cal).

(3) After the proceedings have been terminated, a conviction cannot be set aside on the ground purely that the complaint did not properly set out the facts of the case. (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 609 (651) (SB) (Cal) °° (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (16) = 35 Cal 141 (DB) °° (1909) 9 Cri L Jour 108 (111) = 32 Mad 3 (DB).

(4) It is absolutely necessary that a complaint under this section should specify the accused person against whom action is to be taken. (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 2 (3) (SB) (Cal) °° (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 609 (612) (SB) (Cal).

(5) In a prosecution for sedition the complaint must set out the alleged seditious words used by the accused. AIR 1929 Lah 284 (286) = 30 Cri L Jour 1129 °° AIR 1925 Mad 106 (107) = 25 Cri L Jour 401 (DB) °° (1897) 22 Bom 112 (150).

[But see (1909) 9 Cri L Jour 108 (111) = 32 Mad 3 (DB).]

(6) Charge-sheet in the form of final police report under Section 173, Criminal P. C. filed after investigation registered under Section 420, I. P. Code, but found relating to two offences namely under S. 420 and S. 294-A, I. P. Code — Charge-sheet is not a complaint required by Section 196. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 987 (990) = 1957 Cri L Jour 1389.

10. Want of sanction — Effect. — (1) Prosecution under this section is illegal in the absence of sanction. AIR 1951 Pat 513 (513) = 52 Cri L Jour 710 °° AIR 1955 SC 196 (204) = 1955 SCR 1150 = ILR (1955) Punj 135 = 1955 Cri L Jour 526 °° AIR 1955 Cal 517 (519) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1340 (DB) °° AIR 1926 All 231 (232) = 27 Cri L Jour 705.

(2) Where there is no sanction, there is a defect of jurisdiction which can never be cured under Section 537, Criminal P. C. Fact that accused is ultimately convicted under another section in respect of which no sanction is required does not validate the proceedings or cure the defect. AIR 1951 Pat 513 (513) = 52 Cri L Jour 710.

(3) In the absence of a sanction to prosecute even evidence showing that an offence covered by this section has been committed is not admissible on the record. AIR 1944 Sind 1 (14) = 45 Cri L Jour 471 (FB).

11. Want of complaint — Effect. — (1) A mere sanction of prosecution by the Government is not enough for the validity of proceedings under this section in the absence of a valid complaint based upon such sanction. 1890 Pun Re (Cr) No. 16, p. 33 (34, 35) (DB) °° AIR 1955 Punj 90 (91) = ILR (1954) Punj 134 = 1955 Cri L Jour 714 (DB) °° (1911) 12 Cri L Jour 2 (3) (SB) (Cal) °° (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (16) = 35 Cal 141 (DB).

(2) The letter embodying the sanction may itself be treated as complaint and, at any rate, the want of a complaint in such circumstances is only an irregularity curable under Section 537. (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 353 (355, 356) = 1908 Pun Re (Cr) No. 8 (DB).

(3) The State Government sanctioning prosecution u/s. 124A, I.P.C. against the accused and directing the Senior Superintendent of Police to institute a complaint — Filing of complaint by Senior Sub-Inspector is merely an irregularity curable by S. 537 Cr. 12. Facts of case amounting to offence requiring sanction as well as other offence. — Effect. — (1) Where the facts of a case amount to an offence which requires for its prosecution a sanction under this section as well as an offence which does not require such sanction, proceedings can be taken in respect of the latter offence in the absence of sanction. *[196A. Prosecution for certain classes of criminal conspiracy. — No Court shall take cognizance of the offence of criminal conspiracy punishable under Section 120B of the Indian Penal Code,

(1) in a case where the object of the conspiracy is to commit either an illegal act other than an offence, or a legal act by illegal means, or an offence to which the provisions of Section 196 apply, unless upon complaint made by order or under authority from †[the ‡[State Government] or some officer empowered by the ‡[State Government]] in this behalf, or

(2) in a case where the object of the conspiracy is to commit any non-cognizable offence, or a cognizable offence not punishable with death, §[imprisonment of life] or rigorous imprisonment for a term of two years or upwards, unless the ‡[State Government], or a Chief Presidency Magistrate*‡ or District Magistrate empowered in this behalf by the ‡[State Government] has, by order in writing, consented to the initiation of the proceedings:

SECTION 196A — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.

2. Chief Presidency Magistrate — Power of, to sanction prosecution under the section.

3. Essentials of sanction.

4. Whether Magistrate who has sanctioned prosecution can try a case.

5. Proviso.

6. Want of sanction — Effect.

1. Scope and object. — (1) This section is intended to see that prosecutions for the offence are not started in cases which are not of a sufficiently serious nature. AIR 1934 Cal 391 (392) = 35 Cri L Jour 714 (DB) •• AIR 1934 Pat 561 (563) = 36 Cri L Jour 17 (DB) •• AIR 1964 Bom 133 (136) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 648 (DB).

(2) Under this section offence charged must be that of a criminal conspiracy. Where it is not criminal conspiracy but some other offence, the mere fact that it is asserted that the accused "conspired" to commit offence in the sense they are jointly responsible will not make this section applicable. AIR 1928 Mad 1158 (1161, 1164) = 30 Cri L Jour 191 (DB) •• AIR 1968 SC 709 (713) = 1968 Cri LJ 867 •• AIR 1961 Andh Pra 448 (453, 454) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 605.

(4) The jurisdiction of Court to take cognizance of an offence of conspiracy depends upon the object of the conspiracy. AIR 1939 Bom 129 (135) = 40 Cri L Jour 579 (DB) •• AIR 1918 All 345 (345, 346) = 19 Cri L Jour 12 (DB) •• AIR 1950 Cal 66 (71) = 51 Cri L Jour 376 (DB) •• AIR 1969 Punjab 225 (229) = (1967) 69 Pun LR 168 (179) (Delhi). (Where the communication was to forge documents and to use such documents to enable the passengers to go abroad, it was held that the case was covered by Clause (2) and not clause (1) of Section 196-A.)

(5) The object of conspiracy has to be determined at the initial stage not only by reference to the sections of the penal enactment referred to in the complaint but also upon the facts narrated therein and the evidence tendered before the Magistrate. AIR 1939 Bom 129 (135) = 40 Cri L Jour 579 (DB) •• AIR 1925 Cal 579 (580) = 26 Cri L Jour 302 (DB) •• AIR 1961 SC 1241 (1245) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 302 = (1962) 1 SCR 194.

(6) The commission of a cognizable offence punishable with death, transportation or rigorous imprisonment for a term of two years or upwards, and not covered by Section 196, is not included in the section. No sanction is necessary for prosecution. AIR 1950 All 639 (643) •• 1958-2 Andh WR 523 (525) •• AIR 1950 Cal 66 (71) = 51 Cri L Jour 376 (DB) •• AIR 1946 Mad 7 (8) = 47 Cri L Jour 435 •• AIR 1934 All 61 (64) = 35 Cri L Jour 1349 (DB) •• AIR 1935 Pat 91 (93) = 36 Cri L Jour 500 (DB) •• 1963 (2) Cri LJ 713 (714) = (1964) 5 Guj LR 263 •• 1962 Ker LT 690 (702).

(7) Where the object of the criminal conspiracy does not fall within the section, sanction will not be necessary even where the object of the conspiracy is sought to be attained by doing an act which is covered by the section. AIR 1950 Cal 66 (71) = 51 Cri L Jour 376 (DB) •• AIR 1955 Bom 82 (86) = ILR (1954) Bom 554 = 1955 Cri L Jour 289 (DB) •• AIR 1939 Bom 129 (136) = 40 Cri L Jour 579 (DB) •• AIR 1947 Cal 32 (34) = 47 Cri L Jour 710 (DB) •• AIR 1934 Mad 88 (93, 94) = 35 Cri L Jour 631 (DB).

(8) Sanction will not be necessary merely because substantive offence which is alleged to be the object of the conspiracy is one which cannot be taken cognizance of without sanction of a particular authority. AIR 1934 Nag 71 (76) = 35 Cri L Jour 1097.

Provided that where the criminal conspiracy is one to which the provisions of sub-section °†[(4)] of Section 195 apply no such consent shall be necessary.]

Section 196A — Note 1 (contd.)

(9) Consent under this section is not dispensed with merely because it can be said on the facts that a conspiracy to commit an offence not covered by the section has also been committed. AIR 1942 Sind 62 (64) = 43 Cri L Jour 612 (DB).

(10) Whether a sanction has been granted under Section 196-A is a question of fact which ought to be urged at the trial and before the High Court. It is impossible at the appellate stage in the Supreme Court to go into this question of fact. AIR 1958 SC 350 (352) = 1958 SCR 1218 = ILR (1958) Punj 1310 = 1958 Cri L Jour 698.

3. Essentials of sanction. — (1) No particular form is prescribed for a sanction under this section. AIR 1917 All 438 (439) = 18 Cri L Jour 634 (635).

[See also AIR 1948 PC 82 (84) = ILR (1948) Bom 316 = 49 Cri L Jour 261 = 75 Ind App 30.]

(2) In sanctioning prosecution under this section, the sanctioning authority is to see, not whether the allegations made by the prosecution are true but whether, if true, the case is such that in the interests of public justice there should be a trial. AIR 1934 Cal 391 (392) = 35 Cri L Jour 714 (DB).

(3) A letter from Under Secretary to the State Government in its Home Department addressed to District Magistrate informing that the Governor has been pleased to grant sanction for prosecution of certain persons named therein would meet the requirements of Section 196-A. AIR 1963 SC 666 (671) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 623 = (1963) Supp (1) SCR 382.

4. Whether Magistrate who has sanctioned prosecution can try a case. — (1) The fact that a District Magistrate (or Chief Presidency Magistrate) has sanctioned a prosecution under sub-section (2) of this section is neither a disqualification preventing such Magistrate from trying the case under Section 556, nor in itself a ground for transferring the case from him. AIR 1934 Cal 391 (392) = 35 Cri L Jour 714 (DB).

5. Proviso. — (1) Proviso does not apply to cases covered by Section 195 (1). AIR 1942 Sind 62 (64, 65) = 43 Cri L Jour 612 (DB) °° AIR 1947 Sind 49 (53) °° AIR 1924 Cal 53 (54) = 24 Cri L Jour 949 (DB).

(2) Where there are several accused persons in a case and Section 195 applies only with regard to some and not with regard to others, this section will apply to the latter and a sanction will be necessary for their prosecution. AIR 1942 Sind 62 (64, 65) = 43 Cri L Jour 612 (DB) °° AIR 1938 Lah 526 (527) = 39 Cri L Jour 765 (DB) °° AIR 1925 Rang 296 (298) = 26 Cri L Jour 1329 (DB).

[See also AIR 1948 PC 82 (84) = ILR (1948) Bom 316 = 49 Cri L Jour 261 = 75 Ind App 30.]

[But see AIR 1932 Cal 786 (787) = 34 Cri L Jour 56 (DB). (Conviction by Sessions Court for offence falling under this section, without requisite sanction, held not bad in law.)]

(2) Where sanction is obtained after initiation of proceedings and before conviction, the defect is only a technical one and in absence of prejudice to the accused it does not make the trial illegal. AIR 1935 Cal 316 (319, 320) = 36 Cri L Jour 982 (DB) °° AIR 1938 Mad 130 (131) = 39 Cri L Jour 266 °° AIR 1945 Oudh 180 (182) = 47 Cri L Jour 40.

*[196B. Preliminary inquiry in certain cases. — In the case of any offence in respect of which the provisions of Section 196 or Section 196-A apply, a District Magistrate or Chief Presidency Magistrate† may, notwithstanding anything contained in those sections or in any other part of this Code, order a preliminary investigation by a police-officer not being below the rank of Inspector, in which case such police-officer shall have the powers referred to in Section 155, sub-sec. 12. Sub-section (2).
13. Provisions of other Acts.

1. Scope and object. — (1) The right to prosecute any person or body of persons by whom one may have been injured, when such injury gives rise to an offence, is a common right which can only be limited by special legislation, and in considering whether the right has been taken away, it must be seen whether it is taken away by express words or by necessary implication. (1878) 3 Cal 758 (761) (DB). (Per Ainslie, J.)

(2) This section is an instance of a provision restricting common right of a person to prosecute another who has caused him an injury which is an offence. The section embodies one of the exceptions to the general rule laid down in Section 190, that any offence may be taken cognizance of by the Magistrates enumerated therein. AIR 1952 Nag 12 (14) = ILR (1951) Nag 764 = 1952 Cri L Jour 98 (DB) °° AIR 1955 SC 196 (204) = 1955 SCR 1150 = ILR (1955) Punj 135 = 1955 Cri L Jour 526.

(3) The object of the section is to guard against vexatious proceedings against public servants and to secure the well-considered opinion of a superior authority before a prosecution is launched against them. AIR 1958 Madh Pra 2 (Pr 22) = 1958 Cri L Jour 41 °° AIR 1957 Cal 25 (Pr 28) = 1957 Cri L Jour 54 °° AIR 1957 Madh B 172 (Pr 7) = 1957 Cri L Jour 508 °° AIR 1957 Raj 51 (Pr 5) = ILR (1956) 6 Raj 821 = 1957 Cri L Jour 227 °° AIR 1952 Nag 12 (13) = ILR (1951) Nag 764 = 1952 Cri L Jour 98 (DB) °° AIR 1942 Mad 664 (664) = 44 Cri L Jour 13 °° AIR 1938 Pat 543 (544) = 39 Cri L Jour 774 °° AIR 1929 Bom 375 (376) = 31 Cri L Jour 353 (DB) °° (1970) 2 Pun LR 16 (19) °° AIR 1970 Andh Pra 13 (15) = 1970 Cri LJ 26 (DB) °° AIR 1968 Mys 243 (244) = 1968 Cri LJ 1183 °° AIR 1967 Goa 121 (133) = 1967 Cri LJ 1304 (DB) °° AIR 1963 Andh Pra 491 (491, 492) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 601 (DB) °° AIR 1963 Andh Pra 491 (491, 492) = (1963) 2 Cri LJ 601 (DB) °° 1963 (2) Cri LJ 359 (361) (Raj) °° AIR 1961 Ker 175 (176, 178) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 816 (DB). (4) Before the section can be invoked, two conditions must be satisfied—

(1) the accused must be a public servant of the kind mentioned in the section; and

OBJECTS AND REASONS

1923.— "It has been pointed out to us that difficulties with regard to Section 197 have recently come to light. There are certain public servants who are only removable from office by the Secretary of State, and it is unreasonable that they should obtain no protection under the section. Further, in view of Section 4 (2) of the Code, the word 'Judge' has to be interpreted according to the definition given in Sec. 19 of the Indian Penal Code, with the result that Magistrates, acting in certain capacities under the Code, e.g., when holding inquiries, obtain no protection. We have, therefore, proposed a re-draft of sub-section (1) of Section 197 to meet these difficulties. We have confined the operation of the section to public servants removable by a Local Government or some higher authority and have provided that the sanction required for a prosecution will be the sanction of the authority which has power to remove. Mr. Chaudhuri would prefer to leave Section 197 unaltered save in so far as the Bill proposed to amend it; he considers that the amendment proposed by us would enhance the difficulty of obtaining sanction" — S. C. R. (18 of 1923.)

[See also (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 453 (460) = 37 Cal 467 (DB).]

(6) The section applies to offences under Penal Code, as well as to offences under other laws. AIR 1940 Pat 316 (320), 321) = 41 Cri L Jour 221 (225) (DB).

(7) Section applies even to offences committed outside India. AIR 1931 Cal 646 (648) = 33 Cri L Jour 83 (DB).

(8) Section 6 (2) of the Criminal Law Amendment Ordinance, 29 of 1943, construed in the light of Section 1 (2) of the Code shows that this section is not applicable to cases triable under the Ordinance. AIR 1944 FC 66 (68) = 45 Cri L Jour 755  AIR 1944 Pat 378 (387) = 46 Cri L Jour 438 (DB).

(9) Where the offence alleged to have been committed by a person referred to in this section in the discharge of his official duty also falls under Section 195, both the complaint referred to in Section 195 (1) (b) and sanction under this section are necessary for taking cognizance of the offence. AIR 1938 Pat 83 (86) = 39 Cri L Jour 314 (DB).

(10) This section has no application to proceedings for contempt of Court as the proceedings are not in connection with any offence. AIR 1952 All 56 (58) = 1952 Cri L Jour 223 (DB)  AIR 1958 Punj 471 (Pr. 35) = ILR (1958) Punj 1822 = 1958 Cri L Jour 1529.

(11) This section is in the nature of a procedural provision and therefore would apply to a proceeding which was pending when the Code was made applicable to Hyderabad by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1951. AIR 1952 Hyd 135 (136, 137) = ILR (1952) Hyd 383 = 1952 Cri L Jour 1299 (DB).

(12) The question whether an accused who is a public servant, would be protected under this section is not a pure question of law but a mixed question of fact and law and has to be decided after investigation and cannot be short-circuited by summarily throwing out the complaint. AIR 1952 Mad 667 (669) = 1952 Cri L Jour 1295  (1953) 2 Mad L Jour 28 (30)  AIR 1967 All 333 (333) = 1967 Cri LJ 839.

(13) This section being an exception to the general rule in Section 190 an accused who relies on this section as a bar to his prosecution has to establish all facts which bring into play the exceptional provision. AIR 1952 Nag 12 (14) = ILR (1951) Nag 764 = 1952 Cri L Jour 98 (DB)  1958 Ker L Tim 106 (108)  AIR 1946 Pat 108 (108) = 47 Cri L Jour 445  AIR

(14) Article 14 of the Constitution of India does not render Section 197 ultra vires as the discrimination is based upon a rational classification. Public servants have to be protected from harassment in the discharge of official duties while ordinary citizens not so engaged do not require this safeguard. 2. Judge. — (1) A "Judge", as defined in Section 19 Penal Code, is entitled to the protection of this section whether or not he is removable from office without the sanction of the Government. AIR 1959 Raj 12 (Pr 6) = ILR (1957) 7 Raj 1085 = 1959 Cri L Jour 82. (Sarpanch of Panchayat is a Judge and removable by Panchayat Officer — He is protected under this section.)

(2) The following persons have been held to be Judges for the purpose of this section :

(a) The President of a Municipality or Local Board when accepting or rejecting nomination papers for election. AIR 1929 Mad 175 (176) = 30 Cri L Jour 365. (President of Union Board is Judge, but not a public servant being removable under Section 44, Madras Local Boards Act.)

(b) An election officer when removing names from the electoral roll. 1937 Mad WN 740 (741).

(Village Munsif sending report under Section 45 is not acting as Judge.)

(e) A Village Magistrate in the Madras Presidency when trying an offender under the Madras Village Police Regulation, 11 of 1816, or while entering in his register the particulars of a case filed before him. But a Village Magistrate when he is preventing the commission of an offence does not act as a Judge. (1900) 23 Mad 540 (543, 544) (DB) °° 1937 Mad WN 870 (871).

(f) A Village Police Patel trying and disposing of a case under Section 14, Bombay Village Police Act, 8 of 1867. AIR 1938 Bom 489 (490) = 40 Cri L Jour 116 (DB).

(g) A Court of Wards Manager while exercising the functions referred to in Part 4 of the Chota Nagpur Encumbered Estates Act, 6 of 1876, relating to the settlement of debts. AIR 1937 Pat 160 (162) = 38 Cri LJ 94.

(h) Punch while acting in his judicial capacity. 1959 Raj LW 51 (52) = ILR (1959) 9 Raj 38. (Overruled on another point in AIR 1964 Raj 174.)

(3) An arbitrator is not a Judge within the meaning of Section 19 of the Penal Code, and hence no sanction of State Government is necessary under this section for his prosecution for acts done while acting as arbitrator. AIR 1940 Pesh 41 (43) = 42 Cri L Jour 68.

(4) Returning Officer scrutinising nomination papers in election of a Co-operative Society is not a Judge and cannot claim protection under S. 197. AIR 1970 Punj and H 21 (23) = 1970 Cri LJ 67. (Section cannot be invoked when by the time complaint is filed, the Returning Officer had already given his decision and was no longer acting as such. AIR 1929 Mad 175, Dist.)

3. Magistrate. — (1) A Magistrate who was removable without the sanction of the Government and who was accused of an offence committed by him while merely holding an inquiry (not being a trial) under the Code was outside the purview of the section. Under the section as amended in 1923 such a Magistrate also would be entitled to the protection of this section. See Report of the Select Committee (1922).

4. Public servant not removable from office save by or with the sanction of a State Government or the Central Government. — (1) This section applies only to such public servants as are not removable from office save by or with the sanction of the State Government or of the Central Government. (2) Words 'removable from his office' refer not to particular vacancy to which a person has been posted but to the office to which he has been appointed as public servant wherever and in whatever capacity he may be working. AIR 1968 Mys 243 (244) = 1968 Cri LJ 1183 = 1968 Lab IC 1169 = (1968) 1 Mys LJ 388.

(3) Where a person is removable both by State Government and by an authority subordinate to Government, Section 197 would not apply. AIR 1957 Madh B 172 (Pr 5) = 1957 Cri L Jour 508 °° AIR 1959 Andh Pra 27 (Prs. 6, 9) = 1959 Cri L Jour 21 °° AIR 1957 Tripura 18 (Prs 4, 8) = 1957 Cri L Jour 394. (Sub-Inspector of Police also removable by District Superintendent of Police under Section 7, Police Act — No sanction is necessary.)

(4) Test for applicability of section is only that the public servant must not be removable by any other authority than that mentioned in the section but also that he must be removable by such authority. See Report of the Select Committee (1922).

(5) The words "removable from office' in Section 197 are used in the technical sense of the office coming to an end on some superior authority forcing the public servant to vacate it. AIR 1964 Raj 174 (176) = 1964 Cri LJ 339 (DB).

(6) If once the Central Government has delegated its powers to another authority with regard to appointment and removal of a public servant, then for the purposes of S. 197 the public servant concerned will not be treated to be a public servant "nor removable from his office except by or with the sanction of the Central Government". AIR 1967 SC 1331 (1334) = (1968) 1 SCJ 299 °° AIR 1968 Raj 136 (137) = 1968 Cri LJ 654. AIR 1965 Mys 258, Dissent. from.)

(7) The expression "Government" in the section refers to the Government acting in its executive capacity. Hence, a public servant who is removable from his office only by the Legislature is not entitled to the protection of this section. See (1878) 3 Cal 758 (762, 763) (DB).

(8) The Commissioner in Sind was not a Provincial Government within the meaning of this section. AIR 1932 Sind 177 (180) = 34 Cri L Jour 171 (DB).

(9) This section does not apply to offences alleged to have been committed by public servants who are removable from office by some authority subordinate to the State Government although such authority may only be acting in the exercise of a power delegated by the State Government. AIR 1943 FC 18 (20, 21) = 44 Cri L Jour 466. (No sanction necessary for prosecution of Sub-Inspector and an Assistant Sub-Inspector of Police and Excise Sub-Inspector who are removable from office under statutory rules by the Deputy Inspector General of Police and the Excise Commissioner respectively. (11) Where delegation of powers by State Government is ultra vires, but the subordinate authority is otherwise competent to remove the public servant from office, sanction is not necessary. AIR 1938 Rang 181 (184) = 39 Cri L Jour 614.

(12) Even though the Central Government delegates its power of appointing a public servant to another authority under Section 16 General Clauses Act, the authority to remove him is with the Central Government. In such a case, sanction of the Central Government is necessary for the prosecution of the public servant. AIR 1958 Assam 131 (Prs. 2, 3) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1129 (DB).

(13) The President of a Taluk Board who is not removable from office without the sanction of the Government is entitled to protection of this section, though if he absents himself from a certain number of meetings, he will cease to hold office even without being removed from it. AIR 1933 Sind 161 (163, 164) = 34 Cri L Jour 191 (DB).

(14) Where a public servant is removable from his office without the sanction of any of the authorities mentioned in the section the fact that the State Government has the power of restoring to office such public servant after his dismissal by some other authority does not bring him within the purview of this section. AIR 1922 Nag 121 (122) = 23 Cri L Jour 397.

(15) The condition as to the status of the accused must be satisfied not only when the offence was committed but also when the prosecution is started for it is only then that it can be said that a public servant is accused of an offence. 5. Receiver appointed by Court — Prosecution of. — (1) A receiver appointed by a Court is not a public servant who is "not removable from his office save by or with the sanction of a State Government or the Central Government." Hence, the sanction of the State Government is not necessary for his prosecution in respect of acts done by him as receiver. Nor is the permission of the Court which appointed the receiver necessary for his prosecution. AIR 1939 Rang 202 (203) = 40 Cri L Jour 648 °° AIR 1928 Bom 493 (495) = 30 Cri L Jour 465 (DB) °° AIR 1934 Bom 306 (306) = 35 Cri L Jour 1403.

(2) Sanction of the Court must be obtained before a prosecution is instituted against the receiver for criminal breach of trust in respect of the properties taken possession of by him as receiver. (3) The Special Official Receiver of the High Court is a public servant not removable from office without the sanction of the State Government. AIR 1945 PC 18 (21, 22) = 71 Ind App 203 = ILR (1945) Lah 1 = 46 Cri L Jour 413 = ILR (1945) Kar (PC) 89.

(4) As to the liability of an executor or administrator filing false accounts in Court for being prosecuted without the sanction or complaint of the Court, see the following case. AIR 1921 Cal 431 (432) = 22 Cri L Jour 295 (DB). (Held that under the provisions of Section 98, Probate Act, such act is offence under Section 193, Penal Code, and hence sanction of High Court was necessary under Section 195, Criminal P. C., as it stood before amendment of 1923.)

6. "Is accused ......duty." — (1) By the amending Act, 18 of 1923, the words "as such Judge or public servant" were replaced by the words "while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duty"; the object of the amendment was stated to be to amplify the words and to make the sense clear. See the Statement of Objects and Reasons 1914.

[See AIR 1937 Pat 160 (162) = 38 Cri L Jour 94. (Amendment has widened the scope of the section.)]

(2) The phrase 'conduct in the discharge of his public functions' occurring in Section 198-B covers a vaster field than what has been held by the Supreme Court in examining Section 197 (1). AIR 1961 All 24 (36, 37, 38) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 1 (DB).

(3) Four different views have been expressed as to the interpretation of the words "while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duty." See AIR 1939 FC 43 (56) = 40 Cri L Jour 468. (Case under Section 270 (1), Government of India Act, 1935, which used similar expression.)

(a) The test is not whether the offence is capable of being committed only by a public servant and not by anybody else but whether it is committed under the circumstances specified in the section. AIR 1949 PC 117 (118) = 76 Ind App 10 = 50 Cri L Jour 395 °° AIR 1929 Mad 659 (660, 661) = 30 Cri L Jour 864 (DB) °° AIR 1933 Sind 161 (164) = 34 Cri L Jour 191 (DB) °° AIR 1934 All 978 (979) = 36 Cri L Jour 331 °° AIR 1935 Nag 52 (53) = 36 Cri L Jour 1092 °° AIR 1934 Rang 238 (239) = 36 Cri L Jour 77 °° AIR 1935 Pat 52 (55, 56) = 36 Cri L Jour 650 (DB).

(b) The section applies only if the act complained of is itself done by the public servant in pursuance of his public office, although it may be in excess of the duty or in the absence of such duty. (d) It is not necessary that the action involving offence must be done or purported to be done in compliance with official duty. It is enough if the action relates to the discharge of an official duty, although it may be in derogation of that official duty. The applicability of the section depends not on the nature of the action which involves the offence but on the matter to which the action relates so that the words "in the discharge of an official duty" might be read as in the "matter of the discharge of an official duty." AIR 1930 Sind 144 (145) = 31 Cri L Jour 597 (DB) °° AIR 1928 All 756 (757, 758) = 30 Cri L Jour 62 °° AIR 1967 Pat 441 (443) = 1967 Cri LJ 1684.

(3) An offence, which does not come within any of the categories enumerated in the above classification, is not covered by this section. (4) Mere fact that an offence is committed by a public servant when he is in office is not enough to attract the provisions of this section. (5) It is not enough to bring a case within this section that an offence is committed by a public servant at a time during which he is engaged in the transaction of official business. AIR 1935 Pat 52 (56) = 36 Cri L Jour 650 (DB) °° AIR 1955 All 396 (Pr 16) = 1956 Cri L Jour 848 °° AIR 1947 Sind 60 (61) = ILR (1946) Kar 187 = 48 Cri L Jour 573 (DB) °° AIR 1932 Mad 214 (215) = 33 Cri L Jour 557 °° 1967 Mad LW (Cr) 181 = (1968) 2 Mad LJ 554 °° AIR 1967 Goa 121 (132, 133) = 1967 Cri LJ 1304 (DB). [See also AIR 1967 Punj 51 (52) = 68 Punj LR 659.]

(6) An offence will not come within the section merely because it is committed by a Judge while he is sitting on the Bench and trying cases. The reason is that a Judge sitting on the Bench can act in a private as well as in official capacity and this section does not apply to acts done in a private capacity. AIR 1927 Mad 566 (567) = 28 Cri L Jour 539 °° AIR 1917 Mad 344 (346) = 17 Cri L Jour 168 (170).

(7) The section comes into operation in cases where proceedings are taken against a public servant personally in respect of acts done or purporting to be done in the discharge of his official duty. It cannot apply where a public servant is prosecuted not in his personal capacity but in a representative capacity. AIR 1941 Cal 319 (322) = 42 Cri L Jour 855 °° 1968 Mad LJ (Cri) 735 (739) = 1968-2 Mad LJ 554.

(8a) What a public servant says need not be viewed with suspicion in order to uphold the general rights of the parties aggrieved. His defence is to be considered as objectively as in other cases. He is treated differently from other persons for the purposes of criminal prosecution and, to that extent, it may be said that he enjoys a privilege or a certain amount of protection. He is treated like other persons when he commits a common offence. He is not above the law in either case. AIR 1967 Goa 121 (132) = 1967 Cri LJ 1304 (DB).

(10) The Court is not always confined to the allegations in the complaint in determining the question of the applicability of this section. Where at any stage of the case it appears from the evidence and other materials before the Court, that the offence is one falling under this section, the Court is bound to drop the proceedings against the accused in the absence of the requisite sanction although the allegations in complaint do not show that this section applies to the case. AIR 1943 Cal 594 (608) = 45 Cri L Jour 224 (SB) °° AIR 1956 SC 44 (50) = 1955-2 SCR 925 = 1956 Cri L Jour 140 °° AIR 1967 Goa 121 (132) = 1967 Cri LJ 1304 (DB) °° ILR (1960) Ker 1376 (1380).

(12) The Court is not bound by the sections mentioned in the complaint in deciding whether the complaint is of such a nature as requires the sanction of the authority mentioned in Section 197. The Court must look to the facts contained in the complaint to decide whether an offence, which requires sanction, has been made out. ILR (1954) 4 Raj 499 (501) (DB).

(12A) Per Bindra, Addl. J. C. mere allegation of commission of offence should not scare Court from giving benefit of provisions of section to accused. AIR 1967 Goa 121 (135) = 1967 Cri LJ 1304 (DB).

(14) The words of this section and those of Section 270 (now repealed) of the Government of India Act, 1935, viz., "act done or purporting to be done etc.," have the same connotation and the words in this section "while acting" etc., should not be given a "temporal" meaning. A public servant can only be said to act or to purport to act in discharge of his official duty, if his act is such as to lie within the scope of his official duty. (17) Even when the charge is one of misappropriation by a public servant, whether sanction is required will depend upon the facts of each case. If the acts complained of are so integrally connected with the duties attaching to the office as to be inseparable from them, then sanction under Section 197 (1) would be necessary, but if there was no necessary connection between them and the performance of those duties, the official status furnishing only the occasion or opportunity for the acts, then no sanction would be required. AIR 1955 SC 309 (312) = 1955 SCR 1302 = 1955 Cri L Jour 865 °° AIR 1958 Andh Pra 643 (Pr 7) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1290. (AIR 1955 SC 287, Foll.) °° AIR 1957 Madh Pra 230 (Prs 5, 6, 7) = 1957 Cri L Jour 1413 °° AIR 1969 SC 686 (688, 689) = 1969 Cri LJ 1057 °° AIR 1960 SC 745 (747, 748) = 1960 Cri LJ 1153 = 1960 SCJ 1223. (Railway servants going to house of complainant to witness search and there committing offences of theft, misappropriation and wrongful confinement — Sanction not necessary.) °° 1967 BLJR 727 (731, 732) (DB). (18) If Section 197 is construed too narrowly it can never be applied, for of course it is no part of an official's duty to commit an offence and never can be. But it is not the duty which the Courts have to examine so much as the act, because an official act can be performed in the discharge of official duty as well as in dereliction of it. The Courts have to concentrate on the word "offence". An offence seldom consists of a single act. It is usually composed of several elements and, as a rule, a whole series of acts must be proved before it can be established. AIR 1955 SC 287 (292, 293) = 1955 Cri L Jour 857 = 1955 SCR 1177.

(19) What the Court must find out is whether the act and the official duty are so inter-related that one can postulate reasonably that it was done by the accused in the performance of the official duty, though possibly in excess of the needs and requirements of the situation. AIR 1956 SC 44 (49) = 1955-2 SCR 925 = 1956 Cri L Jour 140 °° AIR 1955 SC 309 (312) = 1955 SCR 1302 = 1955 Cri L Jour 865 = ILR (1955) Patiala 145 °° AIR 1957 Madh Pra 230 (Prs 5, 6, 7) = 1957 Cri L Jour 1413 °° AIR 1957 Raj 51 (Pr 9) = ILR (1956) 6 Raj 821 = 1957 Cri L Jour 227 °° AIR 1969 SC 686 (688) 1969 Cri LJ 1057 °° AIR 1960 SC 266 (267, 278) = 1960 Cri LJ 410 = (1960) 2 SCR 89 °° AIR 1968 All 207 (209, 210) = 1967 All LJ 716 (DB) °° AIR 1967 Goa 121 (132, 133) = 1967 Cri LJ 1304 (DB) °° 1967 Cur LJ 209 (212) °° 1963 (2) Cri LJ 359 (361, 362, 363) (Raj) °° AIR 1961 Guj 57 (61, 62, 63) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 499 = (1960) 1 Guj LR 249. (5) A proceeding before a Magistrate for execution of an extradition warrant against a person received under Section 7 of the Extradition Act being of an executive character, the Magistrate while acting upon such warrant cannot be deemed to have taken cognizance of the offence alleged to have been committed by such person and therefore no sanction under this section is necessary. AIR 1950 All 342 (347) = 51 Cri L Jour 947.

(6) The mere fact that the Magistrate is dealing with a bail application of the accused while the case is still at the stage of police investigation will not in itself amount to taking cognizance of the case. (7) The examination of the complainant under Section 200 is, to take place only on a Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence. (10) The sanction enables a Magistrate to take cognizance of offences set out in the sanction and the cognizance having properly been taken, the subsequent course of the proceedings would be regulated by the relevant provisions of the Code. The mere fact that at the time of framing charges the Magistrate comes to the conclusion that charges should be framed under slightly different sections from those mentioned in the sanction would not therefore, render the sanction nugatory. AIR 1948 PC 128 (133) = 75 Ind App 41 = 1948 FCR 19 = 49 Cri L Jour 503 °° AIR 1947 FC 9 (12) = 48 Cri L Jour 155 = ILR (1947) Kar (FC) 20 °° AIR 1958 All 481 (Prs. 22, 25, 27) = ILR (1958) 1 All 133 = 1958 Cri L Jour 827. (12) Where sanction under Section 6, Prevention of Corruption Act, was only with respect of an offence under S. 5 (1) (d) of the Act for taking of bribe from one particular person, the Court cannot convict the accused for offence under Section 5 (1) (a) for being a habitual receiver of bribes. 8. Who can sanction prosecution. — (1) When once the Secretary to the Government under the orders of the Governor certified that the Governor had accorded sanction that was a sufficient proof that the Governor had sanctioned the prosecution in the exercise of his individual judgment as prescribed in the section (prior to its amendment by A. L. O. 1950) in the absence of any evidence to the contrary. AIR 1945 Mad 284 (286) = ILR (1946) Mad 219 = 47 Cri L Jour 149 (DB).

(3) Where, in the case of a public servant employed with the affairs of the Union the sanction for prosecution is signed by the Secretary to the Government of India in accordance with the rules for authentication, and the sanction is signed and issued under the authority of the Minister concerned, the sanction is legal, valid and sufficient to give jurisdiction to the trial Magistrate, although it does not conform with the provisions of Article 77 (1) as it is not expressed in the name of the President. AIR 1958 Andh Pra 643 (Pr. 5) = 1958 Cri L Jour 1290.

(4) Whether sanction is to be accorded or not is a matter for the Government to consider. The absolute power to accord or withhold sanction conferred on the Government is irrelevant and foreign to the duty cast on the Court, which is the ascertainment of the true nature of the act. In this respect Court has to see whether it can take cognisance of the case without previous sanction and for this purpose the Court has to find out if the act complained against is committed by the accused while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of official duty. Once this is settled, the case proceeds or is thrown out. AIR 1956 SC 44 (48) = 1955-2 SCR 925 = 1956 Cri LJ 140 °° AIR 1965 Bom 131 (133) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 197.

(5) The Governor General acting under Section 197, Criminal P. C. sanctioned prosecution of the first accused for having conspired with the other two accused to commit criminal breach of trust and for having abetted the commission of that offence, and also for having committed it. Similar sanction was not given against the other two accused. On the same date sanction was also given for the prosecution of the first accused under Section 5 (2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act before it was amended in 1952 and a similar sanction was given against the second accused. Trial for offence under Sec. 5 (2), Prevention of Corruption Act, was separated from trial under Section 409, I. P. Code. Held that under Section 197 the Governor-General was at that date the sanctioning authority; under the Prevention of Corruption Act the sanctioning authority was "Central Government'. By virtue of subsequent amendment by Act 59 of 1952 and the Criminal Law Amendment Act (46 of 1952) the trials under these two provisions have different procedures and different punishments. Thus, there was a choice not only of forum, but also of procedure and the extent of the maximum penalty. If two separate authorities were given the right to choose and neither could encroach upon the preserve of the other, then the Governor-General had not sanctioned the prosecution under Section 409, I. P. Code against the second accused and no other authority had the power to do so Therefore, in that event, the sanction given to prosecute under Section 5 (2) could not be used to cover the trial under Section 409, I. (3) Sanction obtained after commencement of proceedings is curable under Sec. 537. The fact that process had been issued to accused before obtaining sanction would be merely an irregularity curable under Section 537; where, on the other hand, the sanction has not been received till after some of the evidence had been recorded and the Magistrate proceeds to judgment it would amount to a failure of justice, and the irregularity will not be cured. (11) In a previous trial point as to want of sanction was not raised specifically. It was raised in revision but was negatived. The matter was not pursued further. 11A. Sanction in case of joint trial of two accused. — (1) Trial of A for cheating along with trial of public servant for abetment of offence of cheating, by falsely certifying correctness of the claims — Trial was not vitiated for want of sanction, as neither A was public servant nor act of public servant in abetting A was done in discharge of his official duty. AIR 1967 SC 752 (756, 757) = 1967 All Cri R 79 = 1967 Cri LJ 656 = 69 Punj LR 107 = 1967 All WR (HC) 88. 12. Sub-section (2). — (1) This sub-section empowers the Central Government or the State Government, as the case may be, in sanctioning a prosecution under this section to direct by whom and in what manner the prosecution is to be conducted, and to determine the offence or offences for which the accused is to be prosecuted and the Court before whom he is to be tried. AIR 1938 Pat 83 (86) = 39 Cri L Jour 314 (DB) °° AIR 1928 All 756 (758) = 30 Cri L Jour 62.

(2) The sanctioning authority cannot specify a Court under this sub-section unless sanction under sub-section (1) is necessary and has actually been given. It has no authority to specify a Court in any other case. It cannot acquire power to specify a Court by coupling the specification with an unnecessary sanction. AIR 1950 PC 19 (20) = 77 Ind App 11 = 51 Cri L Jour 638 °° AIR 1952 Mys 42 (45) = ILR (1951) Mys 464 = 1952 Cri L Jour 919 (DB) °° 1 Pepsu LR 334 (338, 339, 340).

(3) Where the sanctioning authority has specified the Court by which a case is to be tried under this sub-section, the High Court has no power to transfer the case to any other Court. (1949) 1 Pepsu LR 334 (337) °° 26 Cal 852 (862) (DB).

(4) The sub-section contemplates the authority making an order with reference to each particular case and not passing a general order affecting a whole class of cases. Thus, an order that all cases in which a particular class of officers are concerned (e.g., Tahsildars) must be tried only by a particular Court cannot be made. (1892) 15 Mad 36 (38, 39) (DB).

(5) There is no reason to think that Section 197 (2) is inspired by any policy of protection of the concerned public servant as Section 197 (1) is. There can be no question of protection involved by an accused being tried by one Court rather than by another at the choice of the Government. The power under Section 197 (2) appears to be vested in the appropriate Government for being exercised on grounds of convenience or the complexity or gravity of the case or other relevant considerations. AIR 1954 SC 362 (363) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1012 = 1955 SCR 168.

(6) It cannot be held that it is for the very Government which sanctioned the prosecution under Section 197 (1) to specify the Court before which the trial is to be held and no other and that consequently in a case to which Section 197 (1) applies, the exercise of any power under Section 14, Criminal P. C. is excluded. If in an individual case, power under Section 197 (2) is not exercised, it cannot be taken that the appropriate Government did not feel called upon to allot the case to any special Court and it cannot also be taken that such allotment by another Government under Section 14 would affect or nullify the power of the appropriate Government under Section 197 (2). The power to specify a Court for trial in such cases is a permissive and there can be no such implication arising from the non-exercise of power. AIR 1954 SC 362 (363) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1012 = 1955 SCR 168.

(7) Under this sub-section, the Central Government or the State Government can direct a case to be tried by a Court which otherwise would have no local jurisdiction over it. (1908) 8 Cri L Jour 70 (71) = 4 Low Bur Rul 265.

(8) Where a case is directed to be tried by the Sessions Court of a certain place, the case can be tried by the Additional Sessions Judge of that place. (1888) 2 Weir 215 (216) (FB).

(9) There is nothing in the section which requires that orders under this sub-section should necessarily be passed in every case. AIR 1938 Bom 50 (54) = 39 Cri L Jour 214 (DB).

13. Provisions of other Acts. — (1) Insistence of complainant to remain in precincts of Police Station amounting to trespass — Assault by Sub-Inspector — Prosecution of Sub-Inspector for — Sanction under Section 170 (1) is necessary. (1968) 2 Mys LJ 11 = 1968 Mad LJ (Cri) 473 (475).

(2) Section 170 (1) of Mysore Police Act (IV of 1964), bars a prosecution in respect of an offence and applies when the person or officer mentioned in the section does something more than his official duty. Something which is not his duty provided he does, does it while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duties. 1968 Mad LJ (Cri) 473 (475) = (1968) 2 Mys LJ 11.

(3) Section 161 (1) Bombay Police Act, covers cases of acts done under colour of office and/or in excess of any such duty or authority. It further covers offences in which it appears to the Court that the wrong done was under colour of office or in excess of the duty. Under Section 197 the Government acts in an executive capacity and it is in the discretion of the Government whether to grant or withhold sanction under Section 197 and the order of the Government, either refusing or granting sanction under Section 197, need not be based on legal evidence. Unlike these provisions of Section 197 which the Government can use in an executive manner, the provisions of Section 161 (1) of the Bombay Police Act have to be interpreted by the Courts judicially on the basis of the evidence and materials on record. AIR 1965 Bom 131 (133) = 67 Bom LR 25 = ILR (1965) Bom 126 = 1965 Mah LJ 238 = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 197. (ILR 27 Mad 54, Rel. on.)

Ss. 197A; 197AA; 197B

Note.—The Punjab and Uttar Pradesh State amendments inserting S. 197A, which relate to prosecution of Commissioners appointed by Court, were made prior to the insertion by the Court of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1951, of S. 197A which relates to prosecution of Rulers of former Indian States. S. 197A was also newly inserted in the State of Bombay. After the insertion of S. 197A in the Code, consequential amendments in the number of the section added by the States have been made in the States of Bombay (now Gujarat and Maharashtra) and Punjab. There has, however, been no such change in the number of S. 197A inserted in the State of Uttar Pradesh.

S. 197A

Uttar Pradesh

(1) In its application to the State of Uttar Pradesh, after S. 197 insert S. 197A as follows namely—

"197A. Prosecution of Commissioner appointed by Court.—When any person, who is a Commissioner appointed by a Court under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 is accused of any offence alleged to have been committed by him while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his functions as Commissioner, no Court shall take cognizance of such offence except with the previous sanction of the Court which appointed him as Commissioner." → U. P. Act XLVI of 1948, S. 3. (27-12-1948).

(2) Merged States.—Section 197A as inserted by the above-mentioned U. P. Act has been extended to the States merged in the State of Uttar Pradesh, namely, Banaras, Rampur and Tehri Garhwal as from 1-1-1950 by U. P. Act VIII of 1950.

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, S. 197AA is the same as that inserted in Maharashtra. → See Cent. Act XI of 1960, S. 87.

Maharashtra

(1) In its application to the State of Maharashtra, after S. 197A insert S. 197AA as follows, namely,—

"197AA. Prosecution of Commissioner appointed by Civil Court.—When any person, who is a Commissioner appointed by a Court under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, is accused of any offence alleged to have been committed by him while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his functions as Commissioner no Court shall take cognizance of such offence except with the previous sanction of the Court, which appointed such person as Commissioner." → Bom. Acts XX of 1951, S. 2 (2-6-1951) and XXXIX of 1951, S. 2 and Sch. II (25-12-1951).

(2) After the reorganisation of the State of Bombay in 1956, S. 197AA as inserted by the above-mentioned Bom. Acts is extended to the newly added areas of Hyderabad, Kutch and Saurashtra and the region of Vidarbha as from 1-9-1959 by Bom. Act XCVII of 1958.

Himachal Pradesh

In its application to the whole of the Union Territory of H. P. Section 197B shall be inserted after S. 197A :—

"197B. Prosecution of Commissioner appointed by Court.—When any person, who is a Commissioner appointed by a court under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 is accused of any offence alleged to have been committed by him while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his functions as Commissioner, no court shall take cognizance of such offence except with the previous sanction of the court which appointed him as the Commissioner." — H. P. Act 11 of 1970, S. 2. (18-4-1970).

N. B. Punj. Act 28 of 1949 is repealed in territories transferred to H. P. from Punjab.

Punjab: Haryana: Chandigarh

(1) In its application to the State of Punjab, S. 197B inserted after S. 197A of the Code is the same as S. 197AA inserted in Maharashtra. — E. P. Act XXVIII of 1949, S. 2 (2-11-1949) read with Punj Act XXX of 1958, S. 4 (2) and Sch. I, Item 4, (7-11-1958) and Act 31 of 1966, S. 88 (1-11-1966).

(2) After the reorganisation of the State of Punjab in 1956, S. 197B as inserted by the above-mentioned E. P. Act is extended to the newly added area of Pepsu as from 7-11-1958 by Punj Act XXX of 1958.

Rajasthan

Abu Area. — In its application to the Abu area of the State of Rajasthan, S. 197AA is the same as that inserted in Maharashtra.—See Cent. Act XXXVII of 1956, Section 119 (1-11-1956).

198. Prosecution for breach of contract, defamation and offences against marriage.—No Court shall take cognizance of an offence falling under Chapter XIX or Chapter XXI of the Indian Penal Code or under Sections 493 to 496 (both inclusive) of the same Code, except upon a complaint made by some person aggrieved by such offence :

°[Provided that, where the person so aggrieved is a woman who, according to the customs and manners of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear in public, or where such person is under the age of eighteen years or is an idiot or lunatic, or is from sickness or infirmity unable to make a complaint, some other person may, with the leave of the Court, make a complaint on his or her behalf:]

SECTION 198 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. Abetment of offence mentioned in section — Applicability of section.
3. Complaint — Essentials.
4. "Person aggrieved by such offence."
5. Defamation.
6. Bigamy, etc.
7. Want of complaint — Effect.
8. Complaint of one offence — Evidence disclosing different offence falling within section — Power of Court to proceed in respect of such offence.
9. Complaint on behalf of another — Provisos.

1. Scope and object. — (1) This section embodies one of the exceptions to the general rule that any person having knowledge of the commission of an offence may set the law in motion by a complaint even though he is not a person injured by the offence. AIR 1952 Madh B 180 (181) = ILR (1953) Madh B 9 = 1952 Cri LJ 1647 °° ILR (1953) Hyd 293 (309) (DB) °° AIR 1935 All 938 (939) = 37 Cri LJ 56 °° AIR 1921 Cal 621 (629) = 22 Cri LJ 494 (DB) °° (1900) ILR 25 Bom 151 (155) (FB) °° AIR 1934 Sind 188 (188) = 36 Cri LJ 408 °° (1963) 1 Cri LJ 358 (359) (Ker).

(2) The offences referred to in the section are of a private character and the object of the section is to limit the persons by whom proceedings can be initiated and to see that it is not the power of any and everbody to drag such offences into a Court of justice. AIR 1938 Sind 141 (142) = 39 Cri LJ 686 (DB) °° (1900) ILR 25 Bom 151 (155) (FB).

[See also AIR 1943 Cal 564 (564) = 45 Cri LJ 123.]

(3) The section, only limits the power of the Court to initiate proceedings. AIR 1941 Rang 202 (205) = 42 Cri LJ 801 °° AIR 1967 SC 983 (986) = 1967 Cri LJ 943 = (1967) 1 SCR 807 = 69 Bom LR 308 °° AIR 1963 Madh Pra 47 (48) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 184 = 1962 MPLJ 1117.

(4) What Section 198 does is to prohibit cognizance except upon complaint made by the person aggrieved. It does not, strictly speaking, confer any power of cognizance on the Court or a right of complaint on the person aggrieved. AIR 1959 Ker 100 (105) = ILR (1959) Ker 195 = 1959 Cri LJ 464.

(5) There is no warrant for enlarging the scope of this section. AIR 1952 Mad 170 (171) = 1952 Cri LJ 348 °° (1963) 1 Cri LJ 358 (359) (Ker).

†[Provided further that where the person aggrieved by an offence under Section 494 of the said Code —

(a) is the wife, any relative of the wife may make a complaint on her behalf;

(b) is the husband, and he is serving in any of the Armed Forces of the Union under conditions which are certified by his Commanding Officer as precluding him from obtaining leave of absence to enable him to make a complaint in person, some other person authorised by the husband in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 199B may, with the leave of the Court, make a complaint on his behalf.

Explanation. — For the purpose of clause (a) of the second Proviso, 'relative' means any lineal descendant or ascendant of the wife, her brother or sister, or her father's or mother's brother or sister.]

[1882 : S. 198; 1872 : S. 142, para. 2; 1861 : S. 68.]

[*] The Proviso was added to the section by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1923 (XVIII of 1923), S. 51.

[†] Substituted for the Second Proviso by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1960 (LVI of 1960), S. 2 (26-12-1960). The original Proviso (added by Act 28 of 1943) was as follows, namely,—

> "Provided further that where the husband aggrieved by an offence under S. 494 of the said Code is serving in any of the Armed Forces of the Union under conditions which are certified by his Commanding Officer as precluding him from obtaining leave of absence to enable him to make a complaint in person, some other person authorised by the husband in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 199B may, with the leave of the Court, make a complaint on his behalf."

Section 198 — Note 1 (contd.)

(6) The fact that the Companies Act contains certain specific provisions regarding the initiation of Criminal proceedings by the liquidator for offences committed in relation to the Company does not mean or involve that the Criminal Courts cannot entertain a complaint with regard to the same offences by any one else. This section is limited only to offences under Chapter XIX and Chapter XXI of the Penal Code. AIR 1955 Cal 29 (33) = 1955 Cri LJ 107 (DB).

SECTION 198-B — SYNOPSIS

1. Validity of the Section.
2. 'Public servant employed in connection with the affairs of the State'.
3. 'In respect of his conduct in the discharge of his public functions'.
4. Jurisdiction to take cognizance of the offence under this section.
5. Upon a complaint in writing made by the public prosecutor.
6. Sanction — Requirements of (sub-section (3)).
7. Limitation (sub-section (4)).
8. Award of compensation.
9. Sub-sections (13) and (14) — Scope.
10. Section 20 of Prevention of Food Adulteration Act 1954 and Section 198-B.
11. Person authorized.

1. Validity of the Section. — (1) Section 198-B is valid and not unconstitutional. It is an exception to the rule laid down in S. 198, Cr. P. Code. AIR 1959 All 21 (22) = 1959 Cri LJ 6  AIR 1959 Ker 100 (104) = ILR (1959) Ker 195 = 1959 Cri LJ 464  AIR 1961 Mad 318 (321) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 125 = (1961) 1 Mad LJ 328.

2. 'Public servant employed in connection with the affairs of the State.' — (1) Though the attack may be general yet it may convey an innuendo at some particular person, and then of course a person so aggrieved can prosecute. AIR 1957 Madh Pra 4 (5) = 1957 Cri LJ 454.

3. In respect of his conduct in the discarge of his public functions. — (1) The phrase "conduct in the discharge of his public functions" in Section 198-B covers a vaster field than what has been held by the Supreme Court in examining Section 197. AIR 1961 All 24 (27, 33) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 1 (DB)

(2) What a Court has to consider under Section 198-B is not whether the disgraceful conduct attributed to the public servant concerned is something which he could or could not properly have done in the discharge of his public functions, but whether the libel is in respect of his public functions. AIR 1959 Ker 100 (108) = ILR (1959) Ker 195 = 1959 Cri LJ 464.

(3) Where publication of an article alleged to be defamatory of a Minister, apart from being defamation of him in his personal capacity, is also a defamation of the Minister as such it is the State which suffers the injury along with the individual and the responsibility for initiation of prosecution for defamation, therefore, lies with the State irrespective of the fact whether or not the particular Minister remained in the State as such at the time when the article was published or sanction to prosecute under Section 198-B was obtained. (2) Every such complaint shall set forth the facts which constitute the offence alleged, the nature of such offence and such other particulars as are reasonably sufficient to give notice to the accused of the offence alleged to have been committed by him.

(3) No complaint under sub-section (1) shall be made by the Public Prosecutor except with the previous sanction,—

(a) in the case of the President or the Vice-President or the Governor †[° ° ° °] of a State, of any Secretary to the Government authorized by him in this behalf;

(b) in the case of a Minister of the Central Government or of a State Government, of the Secretary to the Council of Ministers, if any, or of any Secretary to the Government authorised in this behalf by the Government concerned;

(c) in the case of any other public servant employed in connection with the affairs of the Union or of a State, of the Government concerned.

(4) No Court of Session shall take cognizance of an offence undeh sub-section (1), unless the complaint is made within six months from the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

(5) When the Court of Session takes cognizance of an offence under sub-section (1), then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, the Court of Session shall try the case without a jury and in trying the case, shall follow the procedure prescribed for the trial by Magistrates of warrant cases instituted otherwise than on a police report and the person against whom the offence is alleged to have been committed shall, unless the Court of Session, for reasons to be recorded, otherwise directs, be examined as a witness for the prosecution.

§[(5A) Every trial under this section shall be held in camera if either party thereto so desires or if the Court of Session so thinks fit to do.]

(6) If in any case instituted under this section, the Court of Session by which the case is heard discharges or acquits all or any of the accused, and is of opinion that the accusation against them or any of them was false and either frivolous or vexatious, the Court of Session may, by its order of discharge or acquittal direct the person against whom the offence was alleged to have been committed (other than the President, Vice-President or the Governor or Rajpramukh of a State) to show cause why he should not pay compensation to such accused or to each or any of such accused, when there are more than one.

(7) The Court of Session shall record and consider any cause which may be shown by the person so directed and if it is satisfied that the accusation was false and either frivolous or vexatious, it may, for reasons to be recorded, direct that compensation to such amount, not exceeding one thousand rupees, as it may determine, be paid by such person to the accused or to each or any of them.

(8) All compensation awarded under sub-section (7) may be recovered as if it were a fine.

(9) No person who has been directed to pay compensation under sub-section (7) shall, by reason of such order, be exempted from any civil or criminal liability in respect of the complaint made under this section:

Provided that any amount paid to an accused person under this section shall be taken into account in awarding compensation to such person in any subsequent civil suit relating to the same matter.

(10) The person who has been ordered under sub-section (7) to pay compensation may appeal from the order, in so far as the order relates to the payment of the compensation, as if he had been convicted in a trial held by the Court of Session.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Committee consider that the offence of defamation against the President, the Governor or Rajpramukh of a State, a Minister, or other public servant should not be made cognizable. The Committee are also of the opinion that specific mention of the Vice-President should be made in the list of such persons. They have accordingly omitted original clause 25 by which section 198 was amended.

Instead, the Committee have inserted a new section 198B in the Criminal Procedure Code. In drafting this section, the Committee have taken into consideration the recommendations of the majority of the members of the Press Commission and the evidence tendered by the representatives of the Indian Federation of Working Journalist. While the Committee consider that defamation of a public servant should not be made a cognizable offence, they are of the opinion that, there should be an independent authority apart from the person aggrieved to set the law into motion. The Committee are of the view that the procedure laid down in sub-section (2) of section 194, is cumbersome and might prove expensive. The Committee consider that the Public Prosecutor should have the right to launch a prosecution in all such cases by a written complaint which should be filed before the Court of Sessions. The Court of Sessions may take cognizance of the offence upon such complaint without the accused being committed to it for trial and it shall try the case following the procedure prescribed for warrant cases. The Public Prosecutor, however, shall have no right to make a complaint except with the previous sanction of the persons specified in sub-section (3) of Section 198B. Such a complaint should set forth such particulars as may be reasonably sufficient to give notice to the accused of the offence alleged to have been committed by him, and should be filed within six months from the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed."—J. C. R., Gaz. Ind., 1954 Extra., Pt. II-Section 2, page 419.

SECTION 199 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and object.
2. Offences to which section applies.
3. Complaint — Essentials.
4. Who can complain.
5. Want of complaint — Effect.
6. Proceedings commencing in respect of offence not falling under section — Evidence disclosing offence within section — Power of Court to convict for such offence.
7. Facts disclosing offence to which section applies as well as other offences.

1. Scope and object. — (1) This section embodies one of the exceptions to the general rule that it is open to any person to institute a complaint of an offence. AIR 1935 All 938 (939) = 37 Cri LJ 56 °° ILR (1953) Hyd 293 (309) (DB).

[See also (1963) 1 Cri LJ 358 (359) (Ker).]

(2) The object of the section is to see that in the case of offences which are purely of a private character the matter is not dragged to the Court, except when the party immediately affected (husband or guardian) cares to bring the matter before the Court. to complain under this section. AIR 1922 Lah 477 (478, 479) = 23 Cri LJ 462.

(6) If at the time of the commission of the offence the husband of the woman is absent, a complaint under this section can be lodged by the person having care of the woman on behalf of the husband. AIR 1924 Lah 330 (331) = 24 Cri LJ 780.

(7) An express delegation of trust by the husband is not necessary to entitle a person having care of a woman during her husband's absence to complain under this section. AIR 1926 Sind 159 (160) = 27 Cri LJ 414 (DB).

(8) Where a husband and wife were living with the nephew of the husband, the nephew was held to be entitled to complain in the absence of the husband. AIR 1926 Sind 159 (160) = 27 Cri LJ 414 (DB).

(9) Where the husband was away on service and the wife was living with his father for a month and a half before the complaint, and she was enticed away when she was at her father's place, the husband's father was held to be the person in whose care she was on behalf of the husband and it was he who could complain. AIR 1942 Oudh 434 (435) = 43 Cri LJ 643.

(10) Though express delegation by the husband is not necessary, the words "on his behalf" indicate some delegation by the husband; the mere fact that the woman is under the protection and care of a particular person is not sufficient; it has to be shown that such person had the care of her on behalf of her husband. AIR 1937 Bom 186 (189) = 38 Cri LJ 769 (DB).

[See also AIR 1963 Orissa 60 (61) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 312 = 29 Cut LT 482.]

(11) Where the brother of the husband had neither de facto nor constructive care of his sister-in-law, nor had he any authority from the husband, it was held that the brother could not make a complaint on behalf of the husband. AIR 1936 Pesh 32 (32) = 37 Cri LJ 345.

(12) If an offence mentioned in this section is committed during the husband's absence, the person who had care of the woman when the offence was committed can complain under this section even though the husband is not absent at the time of making the complaint and is not anxious to prosecute. AIR 1917 Mad 220 (221) = 17 Cri LJ 363.

(13) Where the husband was living in the interior of a district while the wife was living with her father in the district head quarters, it was held that the husband could not be said to be absent within the meaning of this section. AIR 1922 Lah 168 (168) = 23 Cri LJ 613.

(14) The leave of the Court must be obtained before a person having care of a woman during her husband's absence can complain under this section. AIR 1926 Sind 159 (161) = 27 Cri LJ 414 (DB).

(15) The leave may be implied and need not be expressly recorded. 1951 All L Jour 214 (215) °° AIR 1926 Sind 159 (161) = 27 Cri LJ 414 (DB).

(16) The refusal by a Magistrate to grant leave under this section amounts to dismissal of the complaint. AIR 1954 Sau 155 (156) = 1955 Cri LJ 74 (DB).

(17) In order to make the proviso applicable, the circumstances which are alleged as bringing the case within its limits should be proved. AIR 1933 Cal 144 (144) = 34 Cri LJ 290 (DB).

(3) The husband presented a complaint under Sections 497 and 498, Penal Code. After recording the sworn statement of the complainant the Magistrate referred the complaint to the police who placed a charge-sheet and then process was issued to the accused. It was held that the Magistrate had taken cognizance on the complaint of the husband and not on the charge-sheet and the requirements of this section were complied with. AIR 1952 Mys 34 (36) = 1952 Cri LJ 705.

6. Proceedings commencing in respect of offence not falling under section — Evidence disclosing offence within section — Power of Court to convict for such offence. — (1) In regard to offence falling under this section, a Court cannot proceed in the absence of a complaint by the husband or guardian of the woman in question as required by this section, where such offence is disclosed to be involved in the transaction of which the Court is already in seisin. CHAPTER XVI

OF COMPLAINTS TO MAGISTRATES

200. Examination of complainant.—[ * *] A Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence on complaint shall at once †[examine the complainant and the witnesses present, if any, upon oath and the substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing and shall be signed by the complainant and the witnesses], and also by the Magistrate:

Provided as follows:—

(a) when the complaint is made in writing, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require a Magistrate to examine the complainant before transferring the case under section 192;

‡[(aa) when the complaint is made in writing, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require the examination of a complainant in any case in which the complaint has been made by a Court or by a public servant acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duties;]

(b) where the Magistrate is a Presidency Magistrate*†, such examination may be on oath or not as the Magistrate in each case thinks fit, and §[where the complaint is made in writing], need not be reduced to writing; but the Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, before the matter of the complaint is brought before him, require it to be reduced to writing;

1. Scope and object. — (1) Sections 200 to 203 form a chapter in themselves under the heading 'of complaint to Magistrate.' That chapter lays down the procedure to deal with complaints lodged by private persons. AIR 1958 Bom 335 (338) = ILR (1958) Bom 1242 = 1958 Cri LJ 1134 (DB).

(2) It is not obligatory upon the Magistrate immediately to follow the procedure prescribed by Chapter 16 upon the receipt of a complaint. He may or may not take cognizance of the offence at once. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 864 (865) = 1957 Cri LJ 1212 (2)  1968 All Cri R 483 (487, 488) = 1968 All WR (HC) 783  1964 All WR (HC) 525 (525, 526).

(3) The object of an examination under this section is three-fold:

(a) To ascertain the facts constituting the offence. AIR 1953 Tripura 1 (2) = 1953 Cri LJ 1463  AIR 1921 Cal 561 (563) = 22 Cri LJ 455 (DB)  AIR 1924 Mad 323 (323) = 24 Cri LJ 837  AIR 1926 Sind 194 (196) = 27 Cri LJ 711  AIR 1922 Mad 353 (355) = 22 Cri LJ 762 (DB)  (1968) 34 Cut LT 131 (134) = ILR (1967) Cut 607.

(b) To prevent abuse of process resulting in wastage of time of the Court and harassment to the accused. AIR 1915 Mad 128 (129)  AIR 1958 Bom 335 (338) = ILR (1958) Bom 1242 = 1958 Cri LJ 1134 (DB)  (1911) 12 Cri LJ 217 (220) = 1911 Pun Re (Cr) No. 11  AIR 1924 All 664 (664) = 26 Cri LJ 176  AIR 1925 Sind 328 (329) = 26 Cri LJ 1101 (DB).

(c) To help the Magistrate to judge if there are sufficient grounds calling for investigation and for proceeding with the case. (1910) 12 Cri LJ 385 (385) = 1 Upp Bur Rul 73  AIR 1958 Pat 51 (59) = 1958 Cri LJ 81 (DB)  (1912) 13 Cri LJ 704 (704) (All).

(c) when the case has been transferred under section 192 and the Magistrate so transferring it has already examined the complainant, the Magistrate to whom it is so transferred shall not be bound to re-examine the complainant.

19. Powers of the inquiring or investigating officer.

20. Revision.

1. Scope and object. — (1) The scope of Chapter XVI, which contains this section, is to separate unfounded from substantial cases even at the outset. AIR 1915 Mad 128 (129)  (1966) 2 Mad LJ 518 (521) = 1966 Mad LJ (Cri) 844.

(2) The object of an inquiry or investigation under this section is to ensure that no person shall be compelled to answer a criminal charge unless the Court is satisfied that there is a prima facie case for proceeding and issuing a process against the accused person. AIR 1939 All 602 (602) = 40 Cri L Jour 917  AIR 1927 Lah 30 (31) = 28 Cri L Jour 26  AIR 1927 Mad 19 (20, 21) = 28 Cri L Jour 129 (FB)  AIR 1919 Oudh 395 (395) = 20 Cri L Jour 728  AIR 1921 Pat 85 (87) = 21 Cri L Jour 519  1968 Cri LJ 405 (408) = ILR (1967) 2 Cal 23  ILR (1967) Cut 73 (81)  AIR 1966 Orissa 64 (65, 66) = 31 Cut LT 1100  1964 (1) Cri LJ 374 (375) = 1963 Kash LJ 190.

(3) The provision in this section is enabling and not obligatory. AIR 1930 Pat 30 (32) = 30 Cri L Jour 554  (1910) 12 Cri L Jour 385 (386) = 1 Upp Bur Rul 73.

(4) The inquiry is not intended to supersede a regular trial. AIR 1952 Pat 125 (126). = 1952 Cri L Jour 303  AIR 1931 Bom 524 (526) = 33 Cri L Jour 72 (DB)  (1910) 12 Cri L Jour 385 (386) = 1 Upp Bur Rul 73  AIR 1919 Oudh 395 (395) = 20 Cri L Jour 728  AIR 1930 Pat 30 (32) = 30 Cri L Jour 554  1968 Cri LJ 1257 (1258) (Pat).

(5) It is not necessary that a Magistrate should call for an inquiry under this section in every case. AIR 1920 Pat 270 (270, 271) = 21 Cri L Jour 220.

(6) It is generally advisable that an inquiry be held where the complainant is not speaking from his own knowledge AIR 1921 Cal 561 (563) = 22 Cri L Jour 255 (DB)  (1906) 10 Cal WN 1090 (1091) = 4 Cri L Jour 217 (DB)  AIR 1934 Rang 167 (168) = 36 Cri L Jour 75.

(7) Where an inquiry is made obligatory as under Section 10 of the Child Marriage Restraint Act of 1929, the failure to do so vitiates the whole trial. AIR 1931 Lah 56 (56) = 32 Cri L Jour 616  ILR (1966) Guj 815 (821) = 1967-7 Guj LR 935 (DB).

[See however ILR (1962) Cut 825 (828).]

(8) A Magistrate acting under this section can only consider the report of any inquiry or investigation directed by him. AIR 1927 All 136 (137) = 28 Cri L Jour 140.

(9) Under this section a Magistrate cannot consider any report made previously and not directed by him (1913) 22 Ind Cas 165 (166) = 15 Cri L Jour 21 (All).

(10) An inquest report made by another Magistrate under Section 176 cannot be taken into consideration by a Magistrate under this section. AIR 1932 Cal 121 (122) = 33 Cri L Jour 218 (DB).

(11) Where a case has been taken on file after investigation by police under this section, the subsequent discharge of the accused will not justify the making of complaint under Section 211, Penal Code. (1942) 43 Cri L Jour 32 (32) (Mad).

(12) There is nothing in Section 202 or Section 203 which abrogates the rule as to presumption laid down in Sec. 105 of the Evidence Act and the mode of proof of exception laid down therein. AIR 1958 Bom 335 (344) = ILR (1958) Bom 1242 = 1958 Cri L Jour 1134 (DB).

(13) Magistrate has power to accept plea of self-defence supported by report of inquiry officer and statement of witnesses and to dismiss complaint without issue of process. AIR 1960 SC 1113 (1115) = 1960 Cri LJ 1499. (AIR 1958 Bom 335, Reversed.)

2. Presidency Magistrates. — (1) Where Presidency Magistrates have been declared by the State Government, under Section 21, sub-section (2), to be subordinate to the Chief Presidency Magistrate, an Additional Chief Presidency Magistrate can, by virtue of Section 18, sub-sec. (4), make over a complaint to an ordinary Presidency Magistrate for inquiry and report under this section. AIR 1934 Cal 405 (406) = 35 Cri LJ 729 (DB).

3. Complaint of an offence. — (1) The section applies only to cases where a Magistrate takes cognizance of an offence on complaint under Sec. 190 (1) (a). 1873 Rat 77 (77)  (1913) 14 Cri LJ 218 (218) (All)  AIR 1924 Lah 729 (730) = 25 Cri LJ 1315 (DB)  AIR 1967 Pat 416 (421) = 1967 Cr LJ 1677 (DB)  AIR 1966 Pat 473 (477) = 1967 Cri LJ 111 (DB)  ILR (1962) Cut 830 (834).

(2) A naraji filed against the enquiry report or against the final report of police investigation can be treated as complaint if the same satisfies its requirements but a simple protest application is not so. AIR 1968 Cal 238 (242) = 1968 Cri LJ 618.

(3) A Magistrate cannot direct an inquiry or investigation under this section in the following cases —

(a) Cases in which he takes cognizance of the offence on a police report under Section 190 (1) (b). AIR 1952 Pepsu 29 (31) = 3 Pepsu LR 184 = 1952 Cri LJ 482 (DB)  AIR 1948 Pat 25 (27) = 48 Cri LJ 347  (1913) 14 Cri LJ 387 (387, 388) (DB) (Cal)  AIR 1919 Pat 319 (320) = 20 Cri LJ 413  (1913) 14 Cri L Jour 297 (297) = 40 Cal 851 (DB).

(b) Cases in which he takes cognizance on information under Section 190 (1) (c). (1902) 2 Weir 241 (242)  AIR 1921 Pat 302 (303) = 22 Cri L Jour 735  (1913) 14 Cri L Jour 600 (601) = 7 Sind LR 75 (DB).

(c) Petition under Section 107, which is not a complaint of an offence at all. A Magistrate has, however, in this case, the right to call for a report from the police, apart from the provisions of this section. See Note 14 on Section 107. AIR 1932 All 670 (671) = 34 Cri L Jour 42  AIR 1928 Lah 694 (694) = 29 Cri L Jour 866. (Overruled on another point in AIR 1938 Lah 861 = 40 Cri L Jour 193 (DB).)  AIR 1926 Mad 521 (522, 523) (DB).

(f) Final report made by police under Section 173 — The Magistrate not accepting it and directing judicial enquiry. Held, such order was without jurisdiction for want of complaint. AIR 1966 Pat 440 (441) = 1966 Cri LJ 1321.

(4) Petition under Section 107 — Magistrate has right to call for report from police apart from this section. AIR 1938 Lah 861 (863, 864) = 40 Cri L Jour 193 (DB). (Contrary view taken in AIR 1928 Lah 694 = 29 Cri L Jour 866, Held, could not be supported either on principle or authority.)  AIR 1932 All 670 (671) = 34 Cri L Jour 42  (1891) 2 Weir 51 (51)  AIR 1926 Mad 521 (525) (DB).

(5) It is legally possible for a case which has been started on a private complaint to be converted into an official prosecution in suitable cases. AIR 1954 Punj 193 (196) = 1954 Cri L Jour 1393 = ILR (1954) Punj 659.

(6) A fresh complaint in respect of the same offence should not be entertained unless there are exceptional circumstances namely: (1) manifest error; (2) miscarriage of justice; (3) adducing of new facts which the complainant could not have discovered despite due diligence and (4) where the previous order was passed on an incomplete record or misunderstanding of the nature of the complaint. 32 Cut LT 1188 = 1967 Cr LJ 1238

4. Complaint by Court or public servant. — (1) The Magistrate has right to investigate preliminarily under this section, whether the complaint is filed by the public servant or by anyone else. AIR 1921 Sind 48 (49) = 23 Cri L Jour 31 (DB)  AIR 1930 Pat 30 (31, 32) = 30 Cri L Jour 554.

(2) When a complaint is made by a Court neither Section 200 nor Section 202 requires a preliminary enquiry before the Magistrate can assume jurisdiction to issue process against the person complained against. AIR 1959 SC 843 (847) = 1959 Cri L Jour 1124.

5. "Authorised to take cognizance". — (1) A Magistrate cannot take cognizance of an offence mentioned in Section 197 without the previous sanction of the State Government and where he receives a complaint without such sanction, he cannot send the case to a Subordinate Magistrate for inquiry under this section. AIR 1931 Oudh 392 (393, 394) = 32 Cri L Jour 991.

6. "Transferred to him under Section 192". — (1) A Magistrate to whom a case has been transferred under Section 192 can act under this section. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (190) = 42 Cri L Jour 490.

(2) A Magistrate to whom a case is transferred under Section 528 cannot order an inquiry under this section. AIR 1938 Nag 433 (434) = 39 Cri L Jour 981.

(3) Where the Magistrate taking cognizance of a case transfers the case under Section 192, the stage for taking action under this section is passed and the Magistrate to whom the case is transferred has no power to hold or direct the preliminary inquiry contemplated by this section. AIR 1951 Mys 127 (128) = 52 Cri L Jour 1531  AIR 1942 Mad 426 (426) = 43 Cri L Jour 670  AIR 1937 Oudh 81 (82) = 37 Cri L Jour 1128.

(4) The mere fact that the Magistrate says that he has "taken the case on file" does not necessarily mean that he considers that there are sufficient grounds for proceeding and does not preclude the Magistrate to whom the case is transferred under Section 192 from acting under this section. AIR 1942 Mad 426 (427) = 43 Cri L Jour 670.

7. "May, if he thinks fit". — (1) It is entirely within the discretion of the Magistrate whether or not an inquiry or investigation under this section should be ordered. AIR 1949 Ajmer 36 (37) = 50 Cri L Jour 634  AIR 1933 Rang 271 (272) = 34 Cri L Jour 1185.

(2) While exercising the discretion, the magistrate has to take into consideration the nature and character of the offence. Where the complaint was for a non-cognizable offence against persons not traceable it was held that the Magistrate was bound to cause an enquiry to be made. AIR 1969 Guj 14 (18) = 1969 Cri LJ 63.

(3) A complainant has no right to require his complaint to be forwarded to the police. AIR 1935 Bom 76 (78) = 36 Cri LJ 483 (DB).

(4) When a complaint is dismissed and the Superior Court holds that the order is wrong and the accused should be put on trial, the direction for further enquiry can only be complied with by putting the accused persons on trial. 1966 BLJR 693 (697) = ILR 46 Pat 167.

(5) Dismissal of complaint after holding judicial enquiry — Superior Court finding dismissal wrong and directing further enquiry — Accused not directed to be put on trial — Order of further enquiry is legal and can be given effect to without summoning the accused. 1969 Pat LJR 251 (253) = 1969 BLJR 631.

8. "For reasons to be recorded in writing." — (1) Where the Magistrate decides to act under this section, he is bound to record his reasons for doing so in writing. AIR 1940 Pat 97 (98) = 41 Cri LJ 349  AIR 1929 Cal 176 (177) = 30 Cri LJ 705 (DB)  AIR 1928 Lah 88 (89) = 29 Cri LJ 958  AIR 1926 Pat 34 (35) = 26 Cri LJ 1934  AIR 1931 Sind 113 (113, 114) = 32 Cri LJ 926 (DB)  AIR 1969 Tripura 13 (15) = 1969 Cri LJ 318  1967 Cr.LJ 1730 (1731, 1732) (Pat)  1963 (2) Cri LJ 712 (713) (Cal).

9. "Postpone the issue of process." — (1) A Magistrate who, after issue of process, holds an inquiry or directs an inquiry or investigation, acts in contravention of the section. AIR 1951 Kutch 82 (83) = 1952 Cri LJ 27  AIR 1957 Andh Pra 472 (473) = 1957 Cri LJ 937  AIR 1949 Ajmer 36 (37) = 50 Cri LJ 634  AIR 1938 Nag 433 (434) = 39 Cri LJ 981  (1912) 13 Cri LJ 749 (749) = 6 Sind LR 83 (DB)  AIR 1968 Punj 274 (276) = 1968 Cri LJ 798.

(2) Successor of Magistrate who has issued process directing inquiry — Section is contravened. (1886) 9 Mad 282 (282, 283) (DB).

(3) Case transferred to Magistrate after issue of process — Magistrate contravenes section if he holds inquiry or directs inquiry or investigation. AIR 1938 Nag 433 (434) = 39 Cri LJ 981.

(4) Where a complaint is made against several persons jointly, the fact that the Magistrate has issued processes against some of them will not deprive him of his power to postpone the issue of process against the others and to make a preliminary inquiry in respect of the offences alleged against them. AIR 1940 Nag 128 (128) = 41 Cri LJ 312.

(5) A Magistrate can rescind his order for issue of process and direct an enquiry under this section. AIR 1923 Cal 662 (662) = 25 Cri LJ 464 (DB)  AIR 1958 Pat 74 (76) = 36 Pat 1278 = 1958 Cri

[But see AIR 1951 Cal 42 (43) = 52 Cri LJ 594  AIR 1948 Cal 342 (343) = 47 Cri LJ 450.]

(6) It is not contemplated, that another Magistrate who had neither received the complaint nor heard the complainant on solemn affirmation should rescind the order passed by the Magistrate who had received the complaint and heard the complainant on solemn affirmation and that too after summonses as directed by the first Magistrate had been issued and served, and pass an order for further enquiry. AIR 1958 Pat 74 (76) = 36 Pat 1278 = 1958 Cri LJ 200 (DB).

(7) Where the Magistrate has before him two complaints connected with the same subject-matter, he has a discretion to postpone the issue of process in one case pending the result of the other case. AIR 1933 Sind 254 (255) = 34 Cri LJ 891 (DB).

(8) When once the Magistrate postpones the issue of process under this section, he is required to inquire into the case himself or to direct an inquiry or investigation. The fact that there was already a police investigation does not affect his proceedings. AIR 1918 Pat 350 (350, 351) = 19 Cri LJ 263.

(9) Where the Magistrate directs an inquiry under this section, he cannot issue process before he receives the report of the inquiry. (1950) 29 Pat 1059 (1062, 1065) (DB)  AIR 1959 Pat 504 (505) = 1959 Cri LJ 1353  AIR 1925 Cal 989 (990) (DB)  1966 Mad LW (Cri) 53  1962 BLJR 183 = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 446 (447).

(10) Where a Magistrate is in doubt regarding the truth of the allegations made in the complaint and is of the opinion that a judicial enquiry under this section ought to be made, he ought not to proceed further with the case until his doubts have been removed by the receipt of a report by the officer who holds the judicial enquiry. 1955 BLJR 484 (485)  1964 BLJR 725 (726).

(11) Once the complainant is examined under Section 200, it amounts to taking cognizance and if the Magistrate desires to postpone the issue of process, he can act only under this Section. AIR 1967 Mys 243 (246) = 1967 Cri LJ 1667.

10. Position of the accused. — (1) The position of the accused remains the same whether the enquiry under this section is made either by police officer or by the Magistrate. AIR 1967 Orissa 62 (64) = 1967 Cri LJ 637.

(2) A person complained against is not entitled to be represented by a pleader during the preliminary inquiry. AIR 1933 Cal 447 (448) = 34 Cri LJ 604 (DB)  AIR 1961 Punj 171 (174, 175) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 553.

(3) The person complained against may attend the inquiry, but he has no 'locus standi' as a party. (1908) 8 Cri LJ 20 (23) = 4 Nag LR 81  (1911) 11 Ind Cas 311 (311, 312) = 38 Cal 880 (DB)  AIR 1934 Rang 167 (168) = 36 Cri LJ 75  AIR 1963 SC 1430 (1432) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 397 = (1964) 1 SCR 639  AIR 1969 All 591 (593) = 1969 Cri LJ 1473  1968 Cri LJ 127 (Pat)  AIR 1967 Pat 361 (362) = 1967 Cri LJ 1562  AIR 1966 Pat 33 (39) = 1966 Cri LJ 54  ILR (1935) Cut 518 (521, 522)  AIR 1965 Raj 210 (212)  AIR 1961 Orissa 118 = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 130.

(4) Proceedings under this section are not proceedings inter partes. AIR 1926 Sind 188 (189) = 27 Cri LJ 494 (DB)  AIR 1926 Pat 34 (35) = 26 Cri LJ 1394  AIR 1933 Cal 447 (448) = 34 Cri LJ 604 (DB).

(5) The following practices are undesirable and contrary to the spirit of the section:

(a) Issuing notice to the accused before issue of process. AIR 1952 Vindh Pra 49 (51) = 1952 Cri LJ 1196  AIR 1951 Sau 52 (53) = 52 Cri LJ 818 (DB)  AIR 1927 Mad 19 (20, 21) = 28 Cri LJ 129 (FB)  AIR 1931 Bom 524 (525) = 33 Cri LJ 72 (DB)  1968 All WR (HC) 298 (300).

(b) Conducting inquiry in presence of accused. (1902) 6 Cal WN 843 (844) (DB)  (1920) 25 Cal WN 12 (12) (DB)  (1911) 12 Cri LJ 385 (386) = 1 Upp Bur Rul 73.

(6A) The accused cannot be permitted during enquiry to cross-examine the witnesses examined by the complainant. AIR 1967 Pat 122 (124) = 1967 Cri LJ 508.

11. May inquire into the case himself or direct an inquiry or investigation. — (1) Where a Magistrate chose to inquire into the case himself, he could not direct a local investigation. AIR 1922 All 211 (212) = 23 Cri LJ 279  AIR 1928 Lah 88 (89) = 29 Cri LJ 958  AIR 1917 All 91 (92) = 18 Cri LJ 765 (765)  1965 (2) Cri LJ 824 (2) (825) = (1965) 1 Andh WR 202.

(2) Where cognizance of the complaint is taken by Sub-Divisional Magistrate, his successor who is not S. D. M. cannot direct judicial enquiry or transfer the complaint to another Magistrate. AIR 1968 Cal 195 (196) = 1968 Cri LJ 482.

(3) Where a Magistrate has ordered an investigation by another person, he cannot follow it up by an inquiry himself. AIR 1937 Nag 389 (389) = 39 Cri LJ 80  AIR 1949 Pat 36 (37) = 49 Cri LJ 599  (1913) 14 Cri LJ 493 (494) (All)  1968 All Cri R 483 = 1968 All WR (HC) 783 (787).

[But see (1910) 11 Cri LJ 525 (526) = 38 Cal 68 (DB).]

(4) An inquiry under the section can be directed only to a subordinate Magistrate and not to a superior Magistrate. (1912) 13 Cri LJ 484 (485) = 39 Cal 1041 (DB).

(5) The subordinate Magistrate directed to inquire need not be competent to entertain the complaint he is asked to inquire into, provided the Magistrate, who directs the inquiry, is competent to entertain and dispose of the same. (1902) 6 Cal WN 295 (296) (DB).

(6) Once a Magistrate has directed an inquiry by a subordinate Magistrate under this section, he cannot recall the proceedings before the inquiry is completed. AIR 1933 Nag 374 (376, 377) = 35 Cri LJ 404  1961 BLJR 610 (610).

(7) Magistrate can stay proceedings before inquiry is completed. AIR 1934 Sind 143 (144) = 36 Cri LJ 94 (DB).

(8) Where a Magistrate has directed an inquiry or investigation by another under this section, he cannot, on receipt of the report of such inquiry or investigation, transfer the case for disposal to another Magistrate. AIR 1940 Lah 61 (63) = 41 Cri LJ 344.

(9) If a magistrate has already before him the police report made under this section, he or his successor cannot again send the case for further enquiry to subordinate magistrate without even considering the previous report. 1961 (2) Cri LJ 502 (Manipur).

(10) When a magistrate applies his mind not for the purpose of proceeding under Chapter XVI but for taking action of some kind e.g. ordering investigation under S. 156 (3) or issuing search warrant for investigation, he cannot be said to have taken cognizance of any offence. AIR 1962 Mad 495 (496) = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 762.

12. "Inquiry." — (1) The Magistrate can make an inquiry under this section in any way he thinks proper. AIR 1924 Pat 797 (799) = 26 Cri LJ 129  AIR 1957 Assam 76 (76) = ILR (1955) 7 Assam 435 = 1957 Cri LJ 504  AIR 1966 Cal 633 (634) = 1966 Cr LJ 1408.

[But see AIR 1934 Oudh 88 (89) = 35 Cri LJ 415.]

(2) Magistrate is at perfect liberty to look into the police records and if he is satisfied that the complaint is groundless, he can dismiss the complaint. AIR 1924 Pat 797 (799) = 26 Cri LJ 129  (1869) 11 Suth WR (Cr) 54 (54, 55) (DB).

[But see (1912) 13 Cri LJ 125 (125) (DB) (Cal).]

(3) Where a Magistrate examines witnesses in an inquiry, and evidence which is opposed to the complainant's allegations is brought before him, he should give an opportunity to the complainant to explain or to meet such evidence. (8) Irregularities regarding initiation of proceedings under Section 156 (3) and subsequent action taken under this section are curable under Section 537. AIR 1960 Tripura 44 (48) = 1960 Cri LJ 1666.

Section 202 (contd.)

13. Evidence in the inquiry — Sub-section (2A). — (1) There are no restrictions in the section on the power of the Magistrate to examine witnesses. AIR 1958 Bom 335 (339) = ILR (1958) Bom 1242 = 1958 Cri LJ 1134 (DB)  AIR 1968 Cal 195 (197) = 1968 Cri LJ 482.

(2) Amalgamation of two complaints before the same magistrate on the same facts and offences for the purpose of recording evidence is proper. AIR 1965 All 131 (135) = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 275.

(3) A Magistrate is not prohibited from examining witnesses, whom he knows to be able to throw light on the matter, or from importing even his own personal knowledge into it. AIR 1930 Mad 443 (444) = 30 Cri LJ 1160.

(4) The Magistrate is entitled to thoroughly cross-examine the witnesses in order to get at the truth. AIR 1939 Pesh 16 (17) = 40 Cri LJ 674.

(5) The practice of examining the accused and his witnesses and letting the witnesses of the prosecution be cross-examined by the accused in an inquiry under this section is irregular and ought to be deprecated, but is not illegal. AIR 1941 Pat 419 (420, 421) = 42 Cri LJ 332.

(6) Examination of witness under Section 202 is not admissible in trial under Section 33, Evidence Act (1872). AIR 1969 All 489 (499) = 1969 Cri LJ 1203.

(7) The Magistrate's order to allow the complainants to cross-examine and contradict witnesses examined by other complainant is improper. AIR 1965 All 131 (135) = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 275.

14. Magistrate holding inquiry, if disqualified from trying. — (1) A Magistrate, holding a preliminary inquiry is not disqualified to try the case himself when he has not initiated or directed the proceedings or taken any personal interest in the matter of the complaint presented before him. (1897) 24 Cal 167 (168, 169) (DB)  AIR 1957 Assam 76 (76) = ILR (1955) 7 Assam 435 = 1957 Cri LJ 504  AIR 1923 Rang 65 (65) = 24 Cri LJ 744  (1898) 23 Cal 328 (334) (DB).

(2) The fact that a subordinate Magistrate expressed his opinion in submitting a report, is no bar to his holding the trial on an order of the District Magistrate. (1900) 4 Cal WN 604 (605) (DB).

15. Investigation. — (1) The investigation by the police under this section does not amount to an inquiry within the meaning of the Code. AIR 1942 Bom 42 (43) = 43 Cri LJ 362 (DB).

16. "Investigation by police." — (1) It is not advisable for Magistrates to make indiscriminate use of police agency for the purpose of ascertaining matters as to which they are bound to form their own opinion. AIR 1933 Sind 339 (340) = 35 Cri LJ 24 (DB).

(2) A Magistrate is not without jurisdiction to order a police investigation under this section into a non-cognizable case. AIR 1950 PC 26 (27) = 77 Ind App 62 = ILR (1950) Bom 476 = 51 Cri LJ 644  (1965) 1 LR 651 (652) (Mys).

(10) Complaints against police-officers should be handled with the greatest care. In such cases the complainant should be given every facility to prove his allegations. AIR 1926 Mad 288 (288) = 27 Cri L Jour 107.

(11) Representation to I. G. P. and D. C. against a Police S. I. — Latter submitting his report on the representations to D. S. P. — Representations held did not amount to complaint nor the report was one under Section 202 but was of an administrative nature. AIR 1951 Punj 135 (136) = ILR (1951) Punj 272 = 52 Cri LJ 1511 (DB).

(12) It is not desirable that a complaint against a person who is alleged to have acted in collusion with the police should be handed over to the police for investigation. AIR 1933 Sind 339 (340) = 35 Cri L Jour 24 (DB).

(13) It is not illegal to send a complaint, in which the bona fides of the police are impugned, for inquiry or investigation by a police-officer. AIR 1940 Lah 208 (209) = 41 Cri L Jour 618.

(14) The report called for under this section should form part of the record and as such a copy thereof can be given to the accused. AIR 1942 Rang 51 (51)  (1887) 14 Cal 141 (144) (DB)  AIR 1931 Mad 429 (429) = 32 Cri L Jour 689.

(15) The report should be submitted to the same Magistrate who had ordered the investigation and not to another Magistrate. AIR 1918 Lah 123 (124) = 19 Cri L Jour 436.

(16) A report called for under this section is absolutely privileged. AIR 1937 All 90 (94, 96) (DB).

(17) Complaint under Section 420, Penal Code, filed before Magistrate — Sub-Inspector directed to investigate — Pending investigation complainant filing protest petition — Petition treated as fresh complaint and complainant examined — Complainant filing another petition complaining that investigating officer had not examined any witness — Magistrate taking cognizance of case under Sec. 420, I. P. C. against accused and ordering withdrawal of investigation by police — Held, that in peculiar circumstances of case police investigation should be allowed to continue and order summoning accused be quashed. AIR 1956 Pat 528 (530) = 1956 Cri L Jour 1425 (DB).

(18) Where a Magistrate directs police inquiry under this section the police are bound to make report and they can also take separate action under Section 145, if they like. AIR 1959 Manipur 30 (30) = 1959 Cri L Jour 742.

17. "Such other person." — (1) A master is not a 'fit person' to be directed to investigate and make a report in a case of complaint against his servant. AIR 1951 Cal 733 (734) = 16 Cri LJ 320 (DB)  (1905) 10 Cal WN xxxxviii (xxxix) (DB).

(2) It is illegal for a Magistrate to call upon the accused himself to make a report and act upon it. (1887) 14 Cal 141 (146) (DB)  1898 Rat 954 (954, 955) (DB)  ('99) 3 Cal WN 17 (18) (DB)  AIR 1920 Pat 655 (656) = 21 Cri LJ 621 (DB).

18. Examination of the complainant — Proviso. — (1) The intention in enacting this proviso is that the Magistrate should thoroughly understand the case before he decides to postpone the issue of process and embarks upon the unusual procedure of getting the matter investigated by some other agency. AIR 1942 Pesh 61 (62) = 43 Cri LJ 803.

(2) A complaint cannot be sent for inquiry or investigation unless the complainant has been examined on oath. AIR 1942 Pesh 61 (62) = 43 Cri LJ 803  AIR 1955 Mad 129 (135) = 1955 Cri L Jour 514  AIR 1948 Mad 424 (425) = ILR (1949) Mad 130 = 49 Cri L Jour 554  AIR 1924 All 664 (664) = 26 Cri L Jour 176  (1887) 12 Bom 161 (163) (DB)  (1901) 28 Cal 652 (661) (FB)  (1902) 29 Cal 410 (413) (DB)  AIR 1929 Pat 473 (475) = 30 Cri L Jour 1056 (FB)  AIR 1962 All 456 (458, 459, 460) = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 454.

(3) A complainant, who was not examined, cannot be prosecuted with regard to his complaint, dismissed on a report. (7) If the complainant is already examined under Section 200, his second examination is not necessary before fresh enquiry is ordered on his naraji petition. AIR 1967 Cal 114 (116) = 1967 Cri LJ 333.

(8) A Presidency Magistrate can totally dispense with the examination of the complainant before directing an inquiry or investigation under this section. AIR 1948 Mad 424 (424) = ILR (1949) Mad 130 = 49 Cri L Jour 554.

(9) The non-compliance with the requirements of sub-section (1) of this section before directing an investigation by the police does not deprive the Presidency Magistrate of his jurisdiction to try the accused. AIR 1950 PC 26 (27) = 77 Ind App 62 = ILR (1950) Bom 470 = 51 Cri L Jour 644.

(10) Where the Magistrate directs the complaint to the police for investigation under Section 156 (3) and the police finds the case to be false and reports accordingly, the Magistrate has nothing further to do in the chain of that proceeding and he cannot thereafter entertain naraji petition filed by the complainant. AIR 1956 Cal 76 (78) = 1956 Cri L Jour 505 (2) (DB).

(11) Report of the Magistrate who examines the complainant of a cognizable offence and directs the police to investigate and report, falls under Sections 202 and 203 and not under S. 156 (3) and hence the procedure to be followed for its trial would be governed by Section 252. [See however AIR 1966 Pat 473 (477) = 1967 Cri LJ 111 (DB).]

(12) Non-examination of the munsif complaining of forgery and want of enquiry under this section is a mere irregularity not affecting the trial. AIR 1968 Pat 88 (90) = 1968 Cri LJ 352  AIR 1967 Punj 244 (250) = 1967 Cri LJ 909.

19. Powers of the inquiring or investigating officer. — (1) A Magistrate inquiring into a case can exercise all the powers of a Magistrate, including the power of taking evidence of witnesses on oath. AIR 1930 All 259 (259, 260) = 31 Cri L Jour 998.

(2) The provisions of this section can be invoked by the Special Judge for curing a defect or illegality of investigation. AIR 1962 Bom 205 (213) = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 326 (DB).

(3) A police officer making an investigation under this section has all the powers conferred on him under Chapter XIV. (1907) 5 Cri L Jour 83 (84) = 33 Cal 1282 (DB).

(4) 'Any other person' directed to make an investigation has all the powers of an officer-in-charge of the police station except the power of arrest without warrant. AIR 1928 Bom 290 (291) = 29 Cri L Jour 975 (DB).

(5) The power to arrest without warrant remains with the Magistrate and a police-officer. AIR 1932 Pat 72 (78) = 33 Cri L Jour 349.

(6) Expression of opinion by Investigating Officer in the report submitted by him under this section does not amount to contempt. AIR 1961 Mys 12 (18) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 111 (DB).

(7) If the police report regarding the private complaint of a cognizable offence shows that the complaint is true, the Magistrate can direct the police to submit charge-sheet. ILR (1959) 9 Raj 671 (673).

20. Revision. — (1) When a Magistrate does not act as he should under this section, the aggrieved party is entitled to apply in revision. AIR 1938 Mad 879 (879) = 39 Cri LJ 984.

(2) If any irregularity in procedure under this section has not resulted in miscarriage of justice, the High Court will not make any order in revision. AIR 1918 Pat 350 (351) = 19 Cri L Jour 263.

(3) The High Court will not interfere in Revision to quash the proceedings at the initial stage where on the material then before the Court a prima facie case is made out against the petitioner. AIR 1968 Bom 39 (43) = 1968 Cri LJ 27.

(4) Instances of irregularities where the High Court will not interfere unless there is a failure of justice —

(a) The omission of the Magistrate to record reasons for postponing issue of process. SECTION 203 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
1A. Taking cognizance.
2. "May dismiss the complaint."
3. Magistrate.
4. Orders on complaint not to be delayed.
5. "Sufficient ground for proceeding."
6. Who can dismiss a complaint.
7. Effect of dismissal.
8. Dismissal without examining complainant and witnesses.
9. "And the result of the investigation or inquiry (if any) under Section 202."
10. "Shall record his reasons for so doing."
10A. Second complaint.
10B. Revival of complaint.
11. Further enquiry after dismissal of complaint.
12. Revision against order under S. 203.

1. Scope. — (1) This section gives large powers to a Magistrate to dismiss a complaint 'without issuing a process.'

(4) The materials on which the Magistrate is to act are expressly limited by the section to the statement on oath (if any) of the complainant, and the result of any investigation or inquiry under Section 202. AIR 1944 Nag 318 (320) = 46 Cri LJ 195  AIR 1958 Bom 335 (341) = ILR (1958) Bom 1242 = 1958 Cri LJ 1134 (DB)  1958-2 Andh WR 695 (698)  AIR 1932 Cal 697 (697) = 33 Cri LJ 636 (DB)  (1889) 13 Bom 600 (603) (DB)  AIR 1962 SC 876 (899, 902) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 770 = (1964) 1 SCJ 455  AIR 1969 Orissa 149 (152) = 1969 Cr LJ 926 = 34 Cut LT 1237  ILR (1967) Cut 73 (81)  AIR 1967 Orissa 62 (64) = 1967 Cri LJ 637 = 33 Cut LT 38.

(5) Magistrate should not consider any material not provided for in the section in dismissing a complaint. (1907) 6 Cri LJ 85 (85, 86) (DB) (Bom)  AIR 1958 Mad 523 (526) = 1958 Cri LJ 1323  AIR 1924 Cal 813 (814) = 25 Cri LJ 941 (DB)  AIR 1933 Sind 395 (395) = 35 Cri LJ 222 (DB)  AIR 1930 Rang 226 (227) = 31 Cri LJ 1064  (1913) 22 Ind Cas 165 (166) = 15 Cri LJ 21 (All)  (1886) 9 All 85 (87)  27 Cal 921 (924) (DB)  AIR 1920 Pat 655 (656) = 21 Cri LJ 621 (DB)  AIR 1969 Orissa 149 (152) = 1969 Cr LJ 926 = 34 Cut LT 1237  AIR 1967 Pat 361 (363) = 1967 Cri LJ 1562  ILR (1967) Cut 73 (81, 82)  AIR 1966 Orissa 64 (65) = 1966 Cri LJ 428 = 31 Cut LT 1100.

(6) Where the complainant has obtained an order for the seizure of the opposite party's books and for restraining him from operating on his banking account, the opposite party can appear and ask that such order should be vacated. AIR 1932 Cal 697 (697, 698) = 33 Cri LJ 636 (DB).

(7) This section does not apply to complaints under the Merchant Shipping Act (21 of 1923), which cannot therefore be dismissed under this section. AIR 1933 Cal 647 (647) = 35 Cri LJ 25 (DB).

1A. Taking cognizance. — (1) As to when cognizance is taken of an offence depends on facts and circumstances of each case — Before it can be said that Magistrate has taken cognizance of offence under Section 190 (1) (a), he must not only have applied his mind to contents of complaint-petition but he must have done so for purposes of proceeding under Sections 200 to 204. AIR 1966 Pat 473 (479) = 1967 Cri LJ 111 = ILR 46 Pat 138  (1963) 2 Cr LJ 464 (2) (465)

(2) Recording sworn statement of complainant amounts to taking cognizance of the offence. AIR 1967 Mys 243 (245, 246) = 1967 Cri LJ 1667 = (1967) 2 Mys LJ 105.

(3) Cognizable offence — Complaint examined on oath — Magistrate ordering police to investigate and report, thereafter — Report falls under Sections 202 and 203 and not under Section 156 (3). AIR 1969 Mys 184 (185) = 1969 Cr LJ 54 = (1968) 2 Mys LJ 604.

2. "May dismiss the complaint." — (1) Where a complaint is made to a Magistrate he has either to dismiss it under this section or issue process under Section 204. (1886) 13 Cal 334 (336) (DB)  AIR 1938 Sind 192 (192) = 39 Cri LJ 966  AIR 1927 Mad 19 (20) = 28 Cri LJ 129 (DB)  AIR 1930 Rang 226 (227) = 31 Cri LJ 1064  ILR (1967) Cut 73 (81).

(2) A dismissal of complaint can be made only under Section 203 and it would be inappropriate to dismiss the complaint even in part when the enquiry under Section 202 is pending. 1966-2 Mad LJ 518 = 1966 Mad LJ (Cri) 844.

(3) The Magistrate cannot direct the police to submit a charge-sheet to some other Magistrate. AIR 1928 Cal 24 (25) = 28 Cri LJ 577 (DB).

(4) The Magistrate cannot submit the complaint to the District Magistrate after disbelieving the complaint. (1902) 6 Cal WN 843 (844) (DB).

(5) The Magistrate cannot order the issue of a search warrant after holding that no criminal case would lie. (1936) 164 Ind Cas 521 (521, 522) = 37 Cri LJ 991 (DB) (Cal).

(6) Where a Magistrate dismisses a complaint under this section there must be a specific order to that effect. (1969) 12 Suth WR (Cr) 53 (54) = 3 Beng LR (App) 151 (DB)  AIR 1928 Bom 290 (291) = 29 Cri LJ 975 (DB).

[See also ILR (1948) 1 Cal 407 (408).]

(7) The order dismissing a complaint must be a judicial order. AIR 1939 Sind 208 (208) = 40 Cri LJ 807  AIR 1938 Sind 192 (192) = 39 Cri LJ 966.

(8) Under Section 203 the Magistrate has to give his opinion on the material to be considered but he is not bound to accept the result of the investigation or enquiry conducted under Section 202. (1966) 8 Orissa JD 101 = 32 Cut LT 504 (509).

(9) The following orders have been held to be dismissals of complaints under this section:

(a) An order refusing to issue process on a complaint. (1902) 29 Cal 457 (459) (DB)  AIR 1948 All 46 (46) = ILR (1947) All 464  AIR 1923 Cal 198 (199) = 24 Cri LJ 333 (DB).

(b) An endorsement on a complaint, "Enter as false — No prosecution". AIR 1918 Pat 270 (271) = 19 Cri LJ 874 (DB).

(c) An order staying proceedings against some accused while proceeding with the case against others. (1898) 2 Cal WN 290 (292)  AIR 1955 Andhra 197 (199) = 1955 Cri LJ 1288.

(d) An order holding the complaint to be false and calling upon the complainant to show cause against his prosecution. AIR 1917 Pat 15 (16) = 18 Cri LJ 52 (DB).

(e) Refusal by a Magistrate to grant leave under Section 199. AIR 1954 Sau 155 (156) = 1955 Cri LJ 74 (DB)  AIR 1964 Bom 191 (193, 194) = 1964 (2) Cri LJ 272 (2) = 66 Bom LR 28.

(10) The following orders have been held not to be dismissals of complaints under this section:

(a) Where a charge is made to the police and is repeated in a complaint before the Magistrate and the Magistrate passes a departmental order to the police, "show as false" but no order is passed on the complaint itself. (1879) 4 Cal LR 413 (416) (DB)  (1879) 4 Cal LR 534 (536, 537) (DB).

(b) A direction to the police after a complaint was referred to them that the complaint may be struck off the police file. (1911) 12 Cri LJ 463 (464) (DB) (Mad).

(c) An order expunging a charge from the list of reported offences. (1881) 5 Bom 405 (407) (DB).

(d) An endorsement on the complaint, "Notice is discharged." AIR 1928 Bom 290 (291) = 29 Cri LJ 975 (DB).

(e) A refusal to take cognizance of an offence for want of sanction (now complaint) under S. 195. (1901) 24 Mad 337 (339) (DB).

(f) An order withdrawing a process once issued. (1907) 6 Cri LJ 367 (369) (DB) (Cal).

(g) An order for the issue of summary "C". AIR 1939 Sind 208 (208) = 40 Cri LJ 807  AIR 1938 Sind 192 (192) = 39 Cri LJ 966.

(11) When a complaint is taken on file and dealt with there is no question of Section 203 coming into operation. An implied order of dismissal is unknown to the Code. AIR 1959 Andh Pra 50 (50) = 1959 Cri LJ 26.

(12) Magistrate should assess the evidence at every stage when he has to pass an order though the nature of assessment should necessarily vary on account of presence or absence of the accused and the complainant. He should take note only the material specifically mentioned in the section to find out whether the case is a true one or not. 1966 MLJ (Cri) 477 = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 556 (557, 558).

(13) The stage when a complaint should be dismissed is before the trial begins on the complaint. 1959-2 Andh WR 236 (237)  AIR 1960 Andh Pra 455 (455) = (1959) 2 Andh WR 236 = 1960 Cr LJ 1184.

(14) In a summons case the Court can either pass an order of dismissal under this section or of an acquittal under Section 245; it cannot pass an order of discharge. AIR 1958 Mad 197 (198) = 1958 Cri LJ 528.

(15) Where upon a complaint, process has been issued and witnesses examined, but upon the default of the complainant the complaint has been dismissed, the dismissal is not under Section 203 but under Section 259. AIR 1958 Mad 523 (526) = 1958 Cri LJ 1323.

(16) Summons case instituted on complaint — Case taken on file and process issued — Dismissal of complaint subsequently is contrary to law. 1963 Ker LT 478 = 1963 Ker LJ 397 (398).

(17) When even before relying on documents produced by accused, Magistrate had come to conclusion on ample material that complaint or sworn statement of complainant disclosed no offence no interference was necessary with his order dismissing complaint. 1968 Cr LJ 264 (265) (Mys).

(18) Complaint about non-cognizable offence against persons not traceable — Magistrate could dismiss the complaint, if after investigation by police, no such person who could be proceeded against could be found. AIR 1969 Guj 14 (18) = 1969 Cri LJ 63 = 9 Guj LR 925.

(19) Magistrate dismissing private complaint after report of the police that the complaint was false without issuing process to the accused requested by the petitioner — Order cannot be sustained. AIR 1968 Mys 210 (210, 211) = 1968-1 Mys LJ 382 = 1968 Mad LJ (Cri) 294.

3. Magistrate. — (1) The Code does not apply to proceedings before Village Magistrate and a dismissal by a Village Magistrate of such a proceeding is not dismissal of a complaint under this section. AIR 1927 Mad 695 (696) = 28 Cri LJ 507.

4. Orders on complaint not to be delayed. — (1) There is nothing in the Code to show that the Magistrate must, 'at once,' consider the complaint. AIR 1917 Pat 141 (142) = 19 Cri LJ 278.

(2) A Magistrate must pass orders as expeditiously as possible. AIR 1950 East Punj 367 (368)  AIR 1917 All 95 (95) = 18 Cri LJ 271.

(3) Counter complaints — Disposal of one may be postponed pending disposal of other. AIR 1922 Pat 618 (618) = 24 Cri LJ 120.

5. "Sufficient ground for proceeding." — (1) Where the facts alleged in the complaint constitute an offence and there are no circumstances apparent in the examination of the complainant justifying the Court in concluding that the complaint is false, there would be a 'prima facie' case for proceeding. (1908) 8 Cri LJ 342 (343) = 11 Oudh Cas 261  (1913) 21 Ind Cas 171 (171, 172) = 14 Cri LJ 57 (DB) (Cal)  AIR 1916 Mad 713 (713) = 16 Cri LJ 794.

(2) The judgment which the Magistrate has to form under Section 203 is whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding. He must apply his mind to materials on which he has to form his judgment only on judicial consideration. AIR 1960 SC 1113 (1117) = 1960 Cri LJ 1499 = (1961) 1 SCR 1  AIR 1967 Orissa 62 (64) = 1967 Cri LJ 637 = 33 Cut LT 38  AIR 1966 Orissa 64 (65) = 1966 Cri LJ 428 = 31 Cut LT 1100.

(3) Where the allegations contained in the complaint and in the complainant's oral statement disclose no criminal offence there can be no sufficient ground for proceeding. AIR 1937 Mad 480 (481) = 38 Cri LJ 581  (1887) 14 Cal 141 (146) (DB)  AIR 1928 Lah 945 (946) = 30 Cri LJ 162  AIR 1933 Rang 297 (298) = 35 Cri LJ 52  AIR 1944 Nag 318 (320) = 46 Cri LJ 195  1963 (2) Cri LJ 100 (101) (Manipur).

(4) A Magistrate can dismiss a complaint if he considers with reason that the most serious allegations of grave offences are falsely interlarded with complaints of a lesser kind. AIR 1944 Nag 318 (319) = 46 Cri LJ 195  1966 (1) Mad LJ 556 (557) = 1966 Mad LW (Cr) 72.

(5) A complaint should not be dismissed merely because there has been unexplained delay in filing it. AIR 1950 East Punj 18 (19) = 51 Cri LJ 344.

(6) Delay by itself is no ground for throwing out a complaint when there is plausible explanation for the same. 1965 All WR (HC) 352 = 1966 All Cr R 213 (216)  AIR 1967 Cal 203 (204) = 1964 Cal LJ 11 (14).

(7) Unreasonable delay in filing a complaint under Section 211, Penal Code is a sufficiently good reason for refusing to proceed with the complaint. AIR 1935 Rang 485 (487) = 7 Cri LJ 243.

(8) Where the complaint shows only a 'civil dispute' as to title or as to other civil claims, a Magistrate ought not to deal with them but should dismiss the complaint. AIR 1952 Pat 200 (201) = 1952 Cri LJ 624  AIR 1959 Mys 119 (120) = ILR (1958) Mys 354 = 1959 Cri LJ 620  AIR 1952 Pat 154 (155) = 1952 Cri LJ 473  AIR 1950 Assam 202 (207) (DB)  AIR 1935 All 883 (884) = 36 Cri LJ 1035  AIR 1918 Bom 186 (187) = 19 Cri LJ 597 (DB)  ILR (1962) Cut 830 (834)  1960 Mad WN 518 (519, 520).

[See also AIR 1955 Tripura 35 (39) = 1955 Cri LJ 1636.]

(9) The Magistrate should thoroughly examine the complainant to see if any criminal offence is made out. AIR 1920 All 274 (275) = 42 Cri LJ 84  AIR 1921 Pat 85 (87) = 21 Cri LJ 519.

(10) If the allegations disclose a criminal offence, the complaint ought not to be dismissed even if a civil remedy is obtainable. AIR 1953 Mad 184 (184) = 1953 Cri LJ 433  AIR 1952 Ajmer 58 (59) = 1953 Cri LJ 149  AIR 1950 East Punj 18 (19) = 51 Cri LJ 344  AIR 1942 Mad 124 (124)  1962 (1) Cri LJ 649 (650) (Ker).

(11) Where the Magistrate neither took any evidence nor directed any preliminary inquiry into the matter by the police and merely after issuing notice to the parties dismissed the complaint holding that it was purely a civil matter it was held that this finding of the Magistrate necessarily involved that no offence appeared to have been committed by the accused, but in the absence of any evidence or inquiry there could be no basis for the conclusion that there was no crime involved. AIR 1956 Bom 261 (261, 262) = 1956 Cri LJ 502 (2).

(12) A Magistrate cannot dismiss a case off-hand unless a prima facie case of any kind is not made out. AIR 1923 Lah 663 (664) = 26 Cri LJ 167  AIR 1924 Pat 379 (380) = 24 Cri LJ 316.

(13) Complaint about non-cognizable offence against persons not traceable — Magistrate bound to cause enquiry by Police before dismissing the complaint. AIR 1969 Guj 14 (18) = 1969 Cri LJ 63 = 9 Guj LR 925.

(14) Where a prima facie case is made out, the following are not sufficient grounds on which a complaint can be dismissed:

(a) The fact that besides the complainant other persons could complain against an accused. AIR 1927 All 69 (70) = 27 Cri LJ 1104.

(b) The fact that a libellous publication complained of is a mere republication. (1888) 12 Bom 167 (168) (DB).

(c) The withdrawal of the complaint by the complainant in a warrant case which is non-compoundable. (1889) 13 Bom 600 (603) (DB).

(d) The absence of a personal injury to the complainant and the complainant being a mere tool of another person. (1889) 13 Bom 590 (598) (FB).

(e) The fact that the complainant had no personal knowledge of the facts of the complaint. 1893 Rat 669 (669) (DB).

(f) The fact that there is no possibility of a conviction. AIR 1926 Cal 795 (796, 797) = 27 Cri LJ 788 (DB)  (1902) 29 Cal 410 (411, 412) (DB)  AIR 1919 Cal 78 (79) = 20 Cri LJ 175 (DB).

(g) The fear that the entertainment of the complaint would encourage hundreds of such complainants and would stir up old religious feelings of animosity between communities. 1891 Rat 562 (562, 563) (DB).

(h) Reasons arising out of the Magistrate's own personal knowledge of the affair, or conjecture, or out of knowledge acquired prior to the making of the complaint. (1907) 6 Cri LJ 85 (85, 86) (DB) (Bom).

(i) The fact that the result of the proceeding would be undesirable or the motive or conduct of the complainant is discreditable or malicious. AIR 1916 Mad 303 (304) = 14 Cri LJ 633 (634)  (1889) 13 Bom 600 (604) (DB)  AIR 1926 Sind 194 (198) = 27 Cri LJ 711  1891 Rat 549 (550) (DB)  (1889) 13 Bom 590 (598) (FB)  AIR 1934 Nag 135 (136) = 35 Cri LJ 1215.

(j) The fact that the previous complaint has been dismissed under Section 259. AIR 1914 Sind 44 (44) = 16 Cri LJ 174.

(k) The fact that there was some possibility that the accused might have some defence to the complaint if true. AIR 1940 Pat 179 (180) = 41 Cri LJ 504.

(l) Pendency of civil suit is no ground for dismissal of a criminal complaint. 1963 (2) Cri LJ 215 (216) = 1963 Ker LJ 210.

(m) Fact that there was police challan against the accused could not be held to be sufficient for not proceeding with earlier complaint in view of provisions of Section 190 (1). AIR 1960 Bom 116 (117) = 1959 Nag LJ 515 = 1960 Cri LJ 326.

(15) A complainant has a right to an adjudication on the point whether there is a sufficient ground for proceeding before his complaint is dismissed. AIR 1951 Pat 449 (449, 450)  27 Cal 126 (130, 131) (DB)  AIR 1916 Mad 303 (303) = 14 Cri LJ 633.

(16) The decision whether there is 'sufficient ground' for dismissing a complaint must be reached by the exercise of discretion based on judicial considerations. AIR 1944 Nag 318 (320) = 46 Cri LJ 195  AIR 1916 Mad 303 (303) = 14 Cri LJ 633 (634)  AIR 1926 Cal 795 (797) = 27 Cri LJ 788 (DB)  AIR 1939 Sind 208 (208) = 40 Cri LJ 807.

(17) A Magistrate should not dismiss a complaint against a police-officer merely because the Magistrate thinks that it will be in the interests of the parties concerned to take the matter quietly and not further the bitterness that already exists. AIR 1950 East Punj 367 (368).

(18) Where a Magistrate has after due consideration of the complainant's statement and the investigation report dismissed a complaint in respect of an offence under Section 302, Penal Code, as against some of the accused, the complainant who is a private person would have no right to insist upon an inquiry and trial of those accused. AIR 1948 Mad 230 (231) = 49 Cri LJ 459.

[See also 1958-2 Andh WR 695 (698).]

(19) It is only in very rare cases that a Court will be justified in throwing out a complaint without giving an opportunity to the complainant to substantiate his allegations; but in certain cases it becomes the duty of the Court to protect the accused from unnecessary harassment and worry, and prevent an abuse of the process of the Court. AIR 1939 All 602 (605) = 40 Cri LJ 917  AIR 1953 Cal 689 (689) = 1953 Cri LJ 1592.

(20) In order to satisfy himself that there is sufficient ground for proceeding the Magistrate is entitled to consider the evidence taken by him or recorded in an enquiry under Section 202, on statements made in an investigation under that section as the case may be. He is not entitled to rely upon any material besides this. AIR 1963 SC 1430 (1434, 1435) = (1964) 1 SCR 639 = (1963) (2) Cri LJ 397.

(21) The accused has no right to be heard at the stage when the complaint is under consideration. AIR 1949 Pat 36 (38) = 49 Cri LJ 599  AIR 1967 Patna 361 (363) = 1967 Cri LJ 1562  AIR 1966 Orissa 64 (65) = 1966 Cri LJ 428 = 31 Cut LT 1100.

(22) Magistrate has power to accept plea of self-defence supported by report of inquiry officer and statement of witnesses and to dismiss complaint without issue of process. AIR 1960 SC 1113 (1115, 1116) = 1960 Cri LJ 1499. (AIR 1958 Bom 335, Reversed.).

(23) Where the Magistrate has ordered an enquiry under Section 202 by another Magistrate, he cannot consider statements recorded during investigation by police or evidence adduced before him during enquiry arising out of another complaint. If complaint is dismissed on basis of such extraneous matter, proceedings would be vitiated. AIR 1963 SC 1430 (1434, 1435) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 397 = (1964) 1 SCR 639.

6. Who can dismiss a complaint. — (1) Under this section a complaint may be dismissed by the Magistrate to whom it has been transferred. AIR 1936 Sind 146 (147) = 37 Cri LJ 1086 (DB)  AIR 1926 Cal 470 (477) = 27 Cri LJ 385 (FB)  AIR 1965 Pat 1 (3) = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 58 = 1964 BLJR 747 (FB).

(2) Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence on a complaint, or receiving the complaint when it is filed can pass an order under Section 203 or Section 204 in respect of that case, and his successor-in-office, either temporary or permanent, can also pass an order under those sections. AIR 1965 Pat 1 (3) = 1964 BLJR 747 = 1965 (1) Cr LJ 58 (FB).

(3) The Magistrate to whom a complaint is sent for transfer can dismiss a complaint under this section. AIR 1924 All 666 (666) = 25 Cri LJ 555.

(4) When one Magistrate has examined witnesses under Section 202 and believed them, and thereupon transfers the case to another Magistrate, the latter has no power to examine the same witnesses again and proceed to dismiss the complaint under this section. AIR 1937 Oudh 81 (82) = 37 Cri LJ 1128.

(5) Where a complaint is dismissed under this section and further inquiry is ordered under Section 436, the Magistrate before whom the complaint comes for such further inquiry can again dismiss it under this section. AIR 1938 Mad 112 (112) = 39 Cri LJ 281  AIR 1936 Sind 146 (147) = 37 Cri LJ 1086 (DB).

(6) Even if the enquiry under S. 202 is to be conducted by the Executive Magistrate he cannot finally dispose of the case under Section 203 or Section 204 but has to submit his report to the Magistrate who took cognizance and who alone is competent to issue process or dismiss the complaint. 1968 Cri LJ 1246 (1250) = 33 Cut LT 1172 = ILR (1967) Cut 805.

(7) Magistrate, transferring a complaint to another Magistrate, has no concern with the case unless it is retransferred to his file in due process of law. 1968 Cr LJ 1246 (1249) = 33 Cut LT 1172.

(8) Dismissal of complaint under Section 203 is essentially a dismissal on merits and could be ordered only where the Court has jurisdiction to hear it. AIR 1956 Sau 155 (156) = 1955 Cri LJ 74 (DB).

7. Effect of dismissal. — (1) A dismissal of a complaint after hearing the complainant and after considering the result of an investigation under Section 202 amounts to a legal determination of the complaint. (1902) 6 Cal WN 295 (296) (DB)  (1878) 2 Cal LR 315 (316, 317 (DB)  AIR 1962 Pat 316 (317) = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 206 = 1962 BLJR 221.

(2) Until a complaint is dismissed under this section or otherwise disposed of, no proceedings can be taken under Section 182 or Section 211, Penal Code. (3) Practice that complainant should not be tried under Section 211 till disposal of his case is merely rule of safety and not based on any statute — Practice cannot per se be ground for setting aside conviction under Section 211 before disposal of main case. AIR 1930 Pat 622 (623) = 31 Cri LJ 934 (DB).

(4) A mere dismissal under this section does not afford a ground for proceeding under Section 211, Penal Code. AIR 1941 Pat 419 (421) = 42 Cri LJ 332  AIR 1940 Pat 97 (99) = 41 Cri LJ 349  AIR 1927 All 107 (108) = 27 Cri LJ 1345  (1887) 10 Mad 232 (236) (FB).

(5) Complaint dismissed under Section 203 — Complainant proceeding in revision and summons issued to plaintiff — Suit for damages for malicious prosecution lies. (1964) 6 OJD 218 (220, 221).

(6) The complainant must be afforded an opportunity to prove his case before being prosecuted under Section 211 or Section 182, Penal Code. (1886) 8 All 38 (39)  AIR 1926 Bom 284 (285, 286) = 27 Cri LJ 740  (1887) 14 Cal 707 (720) (FB)  AIR 1933 Pat 499 (500) = 34 Cri LJ 1140.

[But see (1898) 22 Bom 596 (603) (DB).]

(7) Complainant having opportunity to prove his case — Complaint dismissed after hearing him and taking all steps prescribed by Code — Complainant cannot be said not to have been given opportunity of establishing truth of his complaint. (1902) 6 Cal WN 295 (297) (DB)  AIR 1919 Pat 530 (531) = 20 Cri LJ 389  (1907) 5 Cri LJ 491 (492) = 1907 Pun Re (Cr) No. 2  (1910) 11 Cri LJ 338 (338) (DB) (Bom).

(8) Where the dismissal under this section is illegal for want of the examination of the complainant under Sec. 200, the complainant cannot be prosecuted for bringing a false charge. AIR 1924 Bom 321 (321) = 25 Cri LJ 960 (DB)  AIR 1926 Bom 284 (285, 286) = 27 Cri LJ 740 (DB)  AIR 1924 All 664 (664) = 26 Cri LJ 176.

(10) Where a complaint is dismissed under this section the accused cannot be convicted in the same proceedings unless the complaint is revived or the order of dismissal is set aside by a superior tribunal. (1949) 53 Cal WN 653 (661) (DB)  ILR (1948) 1 Cal 407 (413).

(11) Complaint against 5 persons under various provisions of Penal Code — Four of accused persons discharged and case against fifth referred to Judicial II Class Magistrate (for enquiry under Section 202) — Procedure followed held not in accordance with law. 1965 Mad LJ (Cr) 124 = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 824 (2) (825) (Andh Pra).

8. Dismissal without examining complainant and witnesses. — (1) If there are any statements on oath of the complainant and witnesses, the Magistrate must consider them along with the result of the enquiry and then only he may dismiss the complaint if he finds that there is no sufficient ground to proceed. AIR 1958 Bom 335 (339) = ILR (1958) Bom 1242 = 1958 Cri LJ 1134 (DB)  1957 Cri LJ 673 (673) (Mad)  AIR 1956 All 304 (304) = 1956 Cri LJ 569 (1)  1963 (2) Cri LJ 712 (713) (Cal)  1962 (2) Cr LJ 446 (446, 447).

(2) The amended Code requires that the Magistrate dealing with a complaint under Section 203 should consider not only statement of the complainant, but also the statements of the witnesses at the inquiry. It is not within the competence of the Magistrate to delegate that duty in favour of the enquiring Magistrate and relieve himself of the responsibility of considering on his own account the statement of witnesses at the judicial enquiry. AIR 1957 Cal 383 (384) = 1957 Cri LJ 717.

(3) The "statement on oath" referred to in the section is the examination of the complainant under Section 200. AIR 1932 Sind 58 (58, 59) = 33 Cri LJ 33 (DB).

(4) Where the complainant is present but not examined under Section 200, the material on which the Court can say whether there is sufficient ground or not is not availed of by the Court, and consequently the Court cannot dismiss the complaint. (5) When the complainant is 'absent' on the dates on which the matter comes up for examination of the complainant, an order dismissing the complaint is justified. AIR 1928 Cal 569 (570) = 29 Cri LJ 798 (DB).

(6) There is no duty on the Magistrate to examine the witnesses of his own accord. AIR 1958 Bom 335 (339) = ILR (1958) Bom 1242 = 1958 Cri LJ 1134 (DB).

(7) The witnesses referred to in Section 203, are the witnesses mentioned in Section 200. AIR 1959 Mys 119 (120) = ILR (1958) Mys 354 = 1959 Cri LJ 620.

9. "And the result of the investigation or inquiry (if any) under Sec. 202". — (1) Where an inquiry is ordered under Section 202 and the complainant has witnesses to prove his case, he should be given an opportunity of proving his case before the complaint is dismissed. (2) Where the inquiry ordered under Section 202 is found to have been insufficient, the Court of revision may set aside the dismissal of the complaint based on the result of such inquiry and may order a further inquiry. AIR 1951 Mys 127 (128) = 52 Cri L Jour 1531  AIR 1956 All 304 (304) = 1956 Cri L Jour 569 (1)  AIR 1951 Sau 52 (53) = 52 Cri L Jour 818 (DB)  AIR 1927 Bom 436 (436, 437) = 28 Cri L Jour 575 (DB).

(3) An order by a superior Court to an inferior Court to hold a further enquiry into a complaint which has been dismissed under Section 203 has acquired what may be called a technical meaning; it means a reconsideration of the complaint which has been dismissed. The nature of reconsideration will depend on the circumstances of each case. 1957 Cri L Jour 290 (291) (Pat).

(4) In complaints against police-officers and other Government officials the Magistrate should order an inquiry into the matter giving the complainant every opportunity to prove his allegations. Section 203 — Note 9 [contd.]

(5) Enquiry as a complaint against the police — Enquiring Magistrate allowing Prosecuting Inspector to file documents, to make suggestions to witnesses and advancing arguments on behalf of accused — Magistrate not confining himself to statements of complainant and the witnesses but indulging in irrelevant considerations — Order of dismissal under Section 203 was held not to be within scope of Section 203. AIR 1966 Orissa 64 (66) = 1966 Cri LJ 428 = 21 Cut LT 1100.

(6) Complaint against police officer under Ss. 330 and 331, Penal Code — Judicial Magistrate taking cognizance is not bound to send complaint for enquiry by Executive Magistrate — Judicial Magistrate himself can hold enquiry. 1968 Cr LJ 1246 (1249, 1251) = 33 Cut LT 1172 (Orissa).

(7) The words "if any" clearly show that this section empowers the Magistrate to dismiss a complaint without any investigation or inquiry under Sec. 202, if after examining the complainant he considers there is no sufficient reason for proceeding. AIR 1925 Pat 704 (705) = 26 Cri L Jour 921 (DB)  AIR 1917 Pat 141 (142) = 19 Cri L Jour 228  AIR 1918 Pat 350 (350, 351) = 19 Cri L Jour 263.

(8) Where on further inquiry being ordered into a complaint dismissed under this section, the case is sent to another Magistrate for disposal, he is entitled to act on the result of the inquiry or investigation ordered by the Magistrate who originally disposed of the case. AIR 1936 Sind 146 (147) = 37 Cri L Jour 1086 (DB)  1957 Cri L Jour 290 (291) (Pat).

(9) Section 203 no doubt gives wide powers to the Magistrate. The discretion given to him, has nonetheless, to be exercised judicially, and although he has a power to order an enquiry, it is he who has to judicially decide whether to proceed or not. AIR 1958 Bom 335 (339) = ILR (1958) Bom 1242 = 1958 Cri L Jour 1134 (DB).

(10) An order dismissing a complaint by a Magistrate is bad if there was no independent consideration of the report of the enquiring officer. AIR 1957 Cal 383 (384) = 1957 Cri L Jour 717.

(11) There is no obligation cast on the Magistrate to give an opportunity to the complainant to rebut the statement made in the police report. 1958-2 Andh WR 695 (698).

(12) Police report under Section 202 already before the Magistrate — Magistrate not justified in entrusting case again for enquiry and report to subordinate Magistrate — In such a case the Magistrate must consider under Sec. 203 the statement on oath of the complainant and satisfy himself whether there are grounds for proceeding further. 1961 (2) Cri LJ 502 (504) (Manipur).

(13) Where the Magistrate had not at all considered the report of Enquiring Officer under Section 202 and wrote his independent order ignoring the report altogether, case was remanded but, for deciding the question on merits or infirmities inherent in the evidence, adduced on behalf of complainant, the delay in filing the complaint or any improbabilities in the case. 1968 Cr LJ 127 (129) (Pat).

(14) Evidence in the enquiry — Enquiry Officer cannot allow accused (Person complained against) to cross-examine witnesses examined on side of complainant nor can he write a judgment of acquittal. AIR 1967 Pat 122 (123) = 1967 Cri LJ 508 = 1966 BLJR 992.

10. "Shall record his reasons for so doing". — (1) A Magistrate should record his reasons for dismissing a complaint under this section. (2) Complaint referred for enquiry under Section 202 — Complaint dismissed under Section 203 after perusal of enquiry report — No reasons given both during reference of the complaint and during dismissal — Procedure is illegal. 1967 Cr LJ 1730 (1731, 1732) (Pat).

(3) The section is mandatory and the Magistrate must make it apparent in his order that he has not omitted to apply his mind to the facts before he made the order. AIR 1945 Bom 147 (149) = 46 Cri L Jour 434 = ILR (1945) Bom 141 (DB)  AIR 1963 SC 1430 (1435, 1436) = (1964) 1 SCR 639 = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 397.

(4) The object of recording reasons is to enable the High Court to consider whether the discretion vested in the Magistrate has been properly exercised or not. AIR 1940 Pat 97 (98) = 41 Cri L Jour 349  (1887) 14 Cal 141 (146) (DB).

(5) Provision as to recording reasons is an imperative provision of law and where no reasons are recorded the order of dismissal is without jurisdiction. AIR 1952 Vindh Pra 49 (51) = 1952 Cri L Jour 1196  AIR 1957 Cal 383 (384) = 1957 Cri L Jour 717  AIR 1945 Bom 147 (148) = 46 Cri L Jour 434 = ILR (1945) Bom 141 (DB)  (1912) 13 Cri L Jour 482 (483) = 40 Cal 41 (DB)  AIR 1963 SC 1430 (1435, 1436) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 397 = (1964) 1 SCR 639 **

AIR 1967 Orissa 62 (65) = 33 Cut LT 38 = 1967 Cri LJ 637. (Further inquiry into complaint can be ordered by Court of Revision under Section 436.)

(6) Complaint filed against several persons — Process not issued against some of them — No sufficient grounds for issuing process — High Court will not interfere in revision because Magistrate has not given reasons — High Court will interfere if Magistrate had no good grounds for declining to issue process. AIR 1938 Mad 879 (879) = 39 Cri L Jour 984.

(7) Reasons stated in a police-report on the basis of which an order of dismissal is made are sufficient if the report itself is part of the order. (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 331 (331) (Mad).

[See AIR 1952 Vindh Pra 49 (51) = 1952 Cri L Jour 1196.]

(8) It does not exclude the Presidency Magistrate from the operation of Section 203 which makes it imperative on any Magistrate to record his reasons in brief while passing an order of discharge or acquittal. AIR 1968 Guj 210 (211, 212) = ILR (1967) Guj 438 = 8 Guj LR 496 = 1968 Cr LJ 1171.

(9) Calling of records from Presidency Magistrate's Court under Section 435 — The provision in Section 441, for a summary of grounds when records are called for, does not save recording of reasons for decision, under Section 203 — Presidency Magistrate must always record grounds for decision. AIR 1968 Guj 210 (211, 212) = 8 Guj LR 496 = 1968 Cr LJ 1171.

10A. Second complaint. — (1) Entertainment of a second complaint on same facts on dismissal of an earlier complaint is not barred. OF THE COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS BEFORE MAGISTRATES

204. Issue of process.—(1) If in the opinion of a Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence there is sufficient ground for proceeding, and the case appears to be one in which according to the fourth column of the second schedule a summons should issue in the first instance, he shall issue his summons for the attendance of the accused. If the case appears to be one in which, according to that column, a warrant should issue in the first instance, he may issue a warrant, or, if he thinks fit, a summons, for causing the accused to be brought or to appear at a certain time before such Magistrate or (if he has not jurisdiction himself) some other Magistrate having jurisdiction.

*[(1A) No summons or warrant shall be issued against the accused under sub-section (1) until a list of the prosecution witnesses has been filed.

West Bengal

In its application to the State of West Bengal, in S. 204, in sub-section (1), for the words "a Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence", substitute "a judicial Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, or a Judicial Magistrate to whom a case has been transferred under sub-section (2) of Section 191." — W. B. Act 8 of 1970, S. 2 and Sch., Item 71.

the accused by compelling his attendance before the Court. This section relates to the procedure for effecting such attendance. (1867) 8 Suth WR (Cr) 65 (65) (DB).

(2) This is the only section authorizing a Magistrate to issue process to an accused, whether he takes cognizance on a private complaint or on a police-report or any information or knowledge other than a complaint or police-report. AIR 1932 Pat 72 (76, 77, 78) = 63 Cri L Jour 349  (1869) 11 Suth WR (Cr) 1 (1) (DB). (Information.)

(3) This section applies not only where the Magistrate takes cognizance of an offence under the Indian Penal Code but also where he takes cognizance of an offence under any other law. 1872-1892 Low Bur Rul 486  (1876) 25 Suth WR (Cr) 20 (21) (DB)  (1908) 8 Cri LJ 185 (186) = 1 Sind LR 67 (DB).

(4) There is no specific provision either in this section or elsewhere in the Code in regard to cases in which the accused is already under arrest or on bail. In such cases if the Magistrate thinks that there is no case against the accused he may discharge him or cancel the bail bond as the case may be or, if the Magistrate considers that there is sufficient ground for proceeding, he may order the accused to be produced before the Court for inquiry or trial. AIR 1941 Bom 294 (295) = 42 Cri L Jour 814 (DB)  AIR 1943 Pat 245 (252, 253) = 45 Cri L Jour 177 (SB). (Accused can be ordered to be produced if there are sufficient grounds.)

(5) Unless and until the Magistrate issues process for the attendance of the accused, the judicial proceedings cannot be deemed as having commenced against him. AIR 1953 Assam 1 (12) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 458 = 1953 Cri L Jour 168 (DB). (Per Deka, J.)  AIR 1943 Pat 245 (252, 253) = 45 Cri L Jour 177 (SB).

See also Note 6.

(6) Even where the case is a police case and the accused has been arrested and remanded to custody, the judicial proceedings against him cannot be considered as having commenced until the Magistrate has made up his mind to act upon the charge-sheet and takes some overt action to implement his decision, e. g., by ordering the accused to be produced from custody on a particular date to stand his trial. AIR 1943 Pat 245 (252, 253) = 45 Cri L Jour 177 (SB).

(7) No process for the arrest or imprisonment of the President, or the Governor or Rajpramukh of a State shall issue from any Court during his term of office. See Article 361 (3) of the Constitution of India.

(8) For form of summons. See Sec. 68 and Sch. V, Form No. 1.

(9) For form of warrant, See Section 75 and Sch. V, Form No. 2.

2. Magistrate taking cognizance only can issue process. — (1) Unless the Magistrate "takes cognizance" as specified in Section 190 a process cannot be issued under this section. (1871) 8 Bom HCR 113 (114)  (1902) 6 Cal WN 926 (926, 927) (DB).

(2) Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence on a complaint, or receiving the complaint when it is filed, can pass an order under Section 203 or Section 204. His successor-in-office, either temporary or permanent can also pass order under those sections. AIR 1965 Pat 1 (3) = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 58 = 1964 BLJR 747 (FB).

(3) A "Magistrate taking cognizance" on a complaint is the officer who has heard the complaint made. He is the proper officer to issue a process because it is he who can best exercise a discretion with regard to the prima facie merits of the complaint. (1873) 19 Suth WR (Cr) 28 (28) = 10 Beng LR App 26 (DB)  AIR 1928 Cal 24 (25) = 28 Cri LJ 577 (DB).

(4) A Magistrate to whom a case has been transferred under Sec. 192 is covered by the expression "Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence" in this section and can issue process for compelling the attendance of the accused person. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (190, 191) = 42 Cri LJ 490  ILR (1961) 2 Cal 424 (425) (DB).

Also see S. 192.

(5) A District or superior Magistrate cannot order process to issue when a Joint or subordinate Magistrate to whom a case has been made over for disposal or who has taken cognizance of the complaint has failed or refused to issue process. If he wants to do so, he must remove the case to his own file and then issue process. (1903) 30 Cal 449 (451, 452) (DB)  (1905) 2 Cri LJ 524 (530, 532) = 32 Cal 783 (DB)  27 Cal 658 (660) (DB)  27 Cal 979 (980, 981) (DB) (Cal).

[See (1906) 4 Cri LJ 213 (214) (DB) (Cal).]

(6) Under this section a Magistrate to whom a case has been transferred under S. 192 after the examination of the complainant can issue process though he has not himself examined the complainant. (1899) 3 Cal WN cclxxxv (cclxxxv).

(7) Although it is only the Magistrate who has taken cognizance of the offence who may direct issue of a process, a Magistrate who is the "presiding officer" within the meaning of Sections 68 and 75, may sign the process, even if he may not have taken cognizance of the offence and directed issue of the process. AIR 1932 Pat 175 (176) = 34 Cri L Jour 297  AIR 1932 Pat 171 (175) = 33 Cri L Jour 706 (DB). (Per Scroope, J. — Dhavle, J., Dissenting.)

Also see Section 75, and Section 559.

(8) Where the Magistrate has directed an enquiry to be held into a complaint, it is not proper for him to issue process before he gets the report of the inquiry. If he does, the order can be quashed before the trial begins. 1959 BLJR 61 (63) (DB)  1962 (2) Cri LJ 446 (447) (Pat).

(9) Complaint against police officer under Sections 330 and 331, Penal Code — Judicial Magistrate taking cognizance is not bound to send complaint for enquiry by Executive Magistrate — Judicial Magistrate himself can hold enquiry. 1968 Cri LJ 1246 (1249) = 33 Cut LT 1172 = ILR (1967) Cut 805.

(10) Transferee Magistrate has jurisdiction to issue summons to persons not named in the charge-sheet, if evidence discloses a prima facie case against them. ILR (1961) 2 Cal 424 (425) (DB).

(11) Complaint for an offence under Section 406 dismissed against all except one — Subsequent transfer of case by Sub-Divisional Magistrate — Transferee Court can take cognizance against persons against whom case was dismissed only on some new material. 1962 BLJR 692 (694, 695).

(12) Order for transfer under Sec. 192 operates as a transfer of whole case and involves transfer of the power to issue process, even though the transferee Magistrate did not originally take cognizance of the offence. ILR (1961) 2 Cal 424 (425, 429) (DB).

(13) Where the Magistrate to whom case has been transferred under Sec. 192 considers that there is sufficient ground for proceeding, he is not to transfer the case back to the Magistrate who took cognizance of the same, for issue of process. ILR (1961) 2 Cal 424 (429) (DB).

[See also AIR 1967 Punj 244 (249).]

(14) An Executive Magistrate or other person conducting an enquiry under Section 202 cannot finally dispose of the complaint under Section 203 or Sec. 204. He has only to submit his report to the Magistrate who took cognizance, for further action. 1968 Cr LJ 1246 (1250) = 33 Cut LT 1172 = ILR (1967) Cut 805.

3. The Magistrate must have taken cognizance of an offence. — (1) It is only a Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence that can issue a process under this section. 1875 Rat 90 (91) (DB)  AIR 1959 Assam 28 (Pr 68) (DB).

(2) If, on a complaint, it should appear to the Court that the act imputed amounted to an offence under the Penal Code or any other penal law in force, it is the duty of the Court to proceed with the matter. (1867) 8 Suth WR (Cr) 65 (65) (DB)  AIR 1926 Cal 795 (797) = 27 Cri L Jour 788 (DB).

(3) Where the acts as alleged do not disclose any offence, it will be an abuse of the process of the Court to allow criminal proceedings to proceed. (1941) 45 Cal WN 1074 (1075) (DB)  AIR 1928 Lah 945 (946) = 30 Cri L Jour 162.

(4) An application for maintenance under Section 488 is not a complaint in respect of any offence and, therefore, a Magistrate dealing with it cannot dismiss it under sub-section (3) of this section. (1893) 16 Mad 234 (234) (DB).

(5) Even where an offence is disclosed there must be definite evidence of an offence within the local jurisdiction of the Magistrate receiving the complaint. (1908) 7 Cri L Jour 394 (395) (All).

(6) The Court is not limited to the sections or offences mentioned in the complaint. (1899) 26 Cal 786 (789) (DB).

Also see Section 190.

(7) Complaint about non-cognizable offence against persons not traceable — Magistrate bound to cause enquiry by Police before dismissing the complaint. He can also order a thorough investigation to enable himself to act either under Section 203 or Section 204. AIR 1969

Guj 14 (17) = 1969 Cri LJ 63 = 9 Guj LR 925.

(8) Where, on the receipt of a complaint, the police start investigation and arrest a person and on investigation report to the Magistrate that no offence has been disclosed and the Magistrate discharges the person, the order of discharge has been held to be one after taking cognizance. AIR 1941 Bom 294 (296) = 42 Cri L Jour 814 (DB).

(9) Before it can be said that Magistrate has taken cognizance of offence under Section 190 (1) (a), he must not only have applied his mind to contents of complaint-petition but he must have done so for purposes of proceeding under Sections 200 to 204. AIR 1966 Pat 473 (479) = 1967 Cri LJ 111 = ILR 46 Pat 138 (DB).

(10) Section 190 has considerable effect on Section 204. AIR 1968 Bom 400 (410) = 1968 Cr LJ 1584 = 69 Bom LR 808 (DB).

(11) When offence is against public interest, the truth of the complaint and the amount of evidence of the crime alone have to be considered. Magistrate need not give opportunity to complainant to rebut police report. 1958 (2) Andh WR 695 (697) = 1958 Mad LJ (Cr) 1000 = 1958 Andh LT 755.

(12) Amalgamation of complaints — Second complaint before same Magistrate pertaining to same facts and offences, during pendency of first complaint — Magistrate acts within jurisdiction in amalgamating both complaint cases and directing that evidence of both complainants should be recorded during trial — But Magistrate acts improperly in ordering that complainants should have right to cross-examine and contradict witnesses examined by other complainant though he has discretion to put any question to any witness. AIR 1965 All 131 (135) = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 275 = 1964 All LJ 335.

[See 1957-2 Mad L Jour 159 (160, 161).]

Also see Section 200.

[See also (1910) 11 Cri L Jour 525 (527) = 38 Cal 68 (DB).]

(4) It is not necessary in all cases that before issuing process the Magistrate should have held any inquiry. AIR 1941 Cal 185 (192) = 42 Cri L Jour 490  AIR 1920 Pat 270 (270, 271) = 21 Cri L Jour 220  1958 (2) Andh WR 695 (697).

[See AIR 1935 Rang 485 (486) = 37 Cri L Jour 243.]

(5) Where the Magistrate doubts the truth of the complaint and orders an inquiry under Section 202 he should not issue process to the accused till the report has been received from the officer making the inquiry. (1950) 29 Pat 1059 (1062) (DB).

(6) Where Magistrate has ordered an enquiry under Section 202, by another Magistrate, he cannot consider statements recorded during investigation by police or evidence adduced before him during the enquiry arising out of another complaint. ILR (1967) Cut 73 (81, 82).

(7) If a Magistrate is satisfied on the police report that there is no sufficient ground for proceeding and the accused is under arrest, the accused must be discharged and if he is on bail the bail bond must be cancelled. ILR (1947) Kar 301 (311) (DB)  AIR 1941 Bom 294 (295) = 42 Cri L Jour 814 (DB).

(8) A prima facie case means that there is sufficient ground for proceeding. AIR 1931 Cal 607 (611, 615) = 33 Cri L Jour 3 (DB).

(9) Where, a prima facie case is made out, the Magistrate should issue process even if he considers that a civil remedy is more appropriate. AIR 1938 Mad 879 (880) = 39 Cri L Jour 984  AIR 1926 Cal 795 (797) = 27 Cri L Jour 788 (DB)  (1913) 14 Cri L Jour 571 (571) (Cal) (DB)  AIR 1930 Pat 30 (32) = 30 Cri L Jour 554  (1889) 13 Bom 590 (598) (FB)  AIR 1961 Cal 461 (467) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 204 (FB). Also see Sections 1, 190, 200 and 203.

(10) It was held that even if there was a prima facie case, the Magistrate may in his discretion refuse to issue process. AIR 1931 Cal 607 (615) = 33 Cri L Jour 3 (DB).

(11) There cannot be said to be sufficient grounds in the following cases for issue of process:

(a) Where the complaint is made on information and not on personal knowledge. In such cases the

Section 204 — Note 4 (contd.)

Court should satisfy itself on inquiry that there is a case for the issue of process. (1906) 4 Cri L Jour 217 (218) (DB) (Cal).

(b) Where the allegations made in the complaint are not substantiated by the statement on oath. AIR 1917 Cal 671 (671) = 18 Cri L Jour 626 (626) (DB).

(12) The following are not sufficient grounds for refusing issue of process:

(a) Where a prima facie case is made out but in the Magistrate's opinion there is no chance of conviction and no useful purpose will be served by the enquiry. (1902) 29 Cal 410 (411, 412) (DB)  AIR 1926 Cal 795 (797) = 27 Cri L Jour 788 (DB).

(b) Avoidance of religious ill-feeling. 1891 Rat 562 (563) (DB).

(c) The fact that the offence is cognizable by the police in the first instance. (1870) 14 Suth WR (Cr) 36 (36) (DB).

(d) The fact that the Magistrate thinks that it is unlikely that the proceedings will result in a conviction, though the fact that another person accused upon the same facts for the same offence has been acquitted may properly be taken into consideration in determining whether upon the materials before the Magistrate there is sufficient ground for proceeding. AIR 1926 Cal 795 (797, 798) = 27 Cri L Jour 788 (DB).

(13) Magistrate issuing process under Section 204, mistakenly believing that offence has been disclosed by the complaint — On matter being brought to his notice and seeing his error, he decides that even if the allegations in the complaint are true no criminal offence is disclosed or necessary sanction has not been obtained for cognizance of the offence, he may conclude that the charge is groundless even before he has heard the complainant, and discharge the accused under Section 253 (2). 1964 (2) Cri LJ 92 (93) = 1964 Ker LT 228 (Ker).

(14) Where the Magistrate in issuing process did not rely primarily on the test of satisfaction of a reasonable body of men but referred to that only as an additional ground after consideration of other materials, for forming his own judgment, the test applied by the Magistrate in the matter of issue of the process cannot be held to be erroneous in law. AIR 1961 Cal 461 (467, 468) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 204 (FB). (Reversed on another point in AIR 1962 SC 876.)

4A. Provisions of Ss. 203 and 204.— (1) When a complaint is filed before a Magistrate and he finds that there is sufficient ground for proceeding under Section 204, he has to decide whether he will adopt summons procedure under Chapter XX or warrant procedure under Chapter XXI, on the basis of allegations made by complainant or disclosed in the preliminary examination of the complainant or in the preliminary examination or enquiry conducted under Section 202. He cannot change the procedure later on. 1962 (1) Cri LJ 677 (681) (Tripura).

(2) Magistrate has to examine identical matters for determining the sufficiency of ground for issuing process under Section 204 or for dismissing complaint under Section 203. ILR (1967) Cut 73 (81).

(3) Such powers conferred under Section 436 upon High Court, Sessions Judge and District Magistrate are concurrent — Complainant must exhaust his remedy before the inferior courts first, before coming to High Court to invoke its powers. AIR 1967 Orissa 62 (65) = 1967 Cri LJ 637 = 33 Cut LT 38.

(4) Sections 203 and 204 must be read as supplementary to each other. ILR (1967) Cut 73 (81).

5. "In the opinion of a Magistrate." — (1) In deciding on the sufficiency of the ground for proceeding, the Magistrate must be guided by his own independent opinion and not by that of others, such as a police-officer. (1868) 4 Mad HCR 162 (165) (DB).

(2) Neither the proceedings before the coroner nor the police papers can in law be relied upon by the Magistrate in ordering issue of process. AIR 1955 Cal 234 (235) = 1955 Cri LJ 752 (DB).

(3) Magistrate is invested with extensive discretionary power which is to be exercised judicially according to rules of reason and justice and to act within the four corners of the Code. 1958 (2) Andh WR 695 (697).

(4) Complaint against police officer under Sections 330 and 331, Penal Code — Judicial Magistrate taking cognizance has to form his own judgment whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding. 1968 Cri LJ 1246 (1249) = 33 Cut LT 1172.

(5) Magistrate finding major offence unfounded but existence of minor offence — He can issue process for minor offence and try case summarily. ILR (1967) Cut 607 (609) = (1968) 34 Cut LT 131.

6. Issue of process. — (1) This section provides that when a Magistrate who receives a complaint neither dismisses it under Section 203 nor postpones issue of process under Section 202, process for the attendance of the accused shall issue. AIR 1938 Sind 192 (192) = 39 Cri LJ 966  27 Cal 798 (800) (DB)  (1922) 23 Cri LJ 403 (403) (Pat)  (1914) Cri LJ 493 (493) (All).

(2) In the cases in which a summons should issue in the first instance according to the second schedule, the Magistrate can, under Section 90, issue a warrant in lieu of or in addition to a summons in the circumstances specified in that section. In cases in which a warrant should issue in the first instance according to the second schedule, this section enables the Magistrate to issue a summons instead, if he thinks fit to do so. (1893) 21 Cal 588 (589) (DB).

(3) The discretion to issue summons in a case where warrant should issue in the first instance according to the second schedule, should be so used as not to subject accused persons to the indignity of arrest unless there is real need for it. (1892-1903) 1 Upp Bur Rul 31 (31).

(4) If the Magistrate issues a warrant in a case in which he ought to have issued summons, the error, is not a ground for setting aside the proceedings. (1864) 1 Suth WR (Cr) No. 16 (16) (DB).

[See AIR 1950 Orissa 62 (63) = ILR (1949) 1 Cut 623 = 51 Cri LJ 679 (DB).]

(5) The Magistrate can cancel the warrant and issue a summons where the warrant has been issued in error. (1908) 8 Cri LJ 187 (187) = 1 Sind LR 69 (DB)  (1913) 14 Cri LJ 604 (605) = 7 Sind LR 49 (DB)  (1963) 2 Cri LJ 464 (465, 466).

(6) Process should ordinarily issue against all the accused who are prima facie shown to have committed an offence. (1900) 4 Cal WN 560 (562) (DB).

(7) The Magistrate is not bound, when the police-report discloses one offender only, to issue process against any witnesses who may afterwards be found, during trial, to be accomplices. AIR 1925 Rang 122 (126) = 26 Cri LJ 492.

(8) It is not imperative on the Magistrate to proceed against a person who has been removed from the array of accused persons and is produced as a witness in the Court, his failure to do so not being sufficient to invalidate the trial in respect of the other accused. AIR 1937 Nag 17 (23) = 38 Cri LJ 237 (FB). Overruling AIR 1920 Nag 255 = 21 Cri LJ 769.)

(9) In proper cases there is nothing irregular or improper in a Magistrate first issuing process for one accused person and then changing his mind and issuing process for all the accused. AIR 1928 Lah 541 (542) = 29 Cri LJ 293.

(10) When once the Magistrate issues process under this section, proceeding commences and it should go on in due course unless something occurs to show that the Magistrate has, for some cause or other, made a wrong exercise of his discretion. (1873) 19 Suth WR (Cr) No. 28 (28) = 10 Beng LR (App) 26 (DB)  (1874) 21 Suth WR (Cr) 44 (45) (DB).

(11) Issue of summons under Section 204 is taking cognizance of offence under Section 190. AIR 1960 Cal 570 (571) = 1970 Cri LJ 1198.

(12) Prosecution commences when proceedings commence under this section and proceedings commence when process is issued against the accused. So, unless process is issued, there is no cause of action for suit for damages for malicious prosecution or for making false complaint. Section 204 — Note 6 [contd.]

(16) Issue of warrant of arrest against P under Section 304-A of Penal Code (1860), and Section 214 (e) of Merchant Shipping Act (1958), on consideration of report of enquiry under Section 202 — Material not disclosing offence under Section 304-A — Held, process relating to offence under Section 304 could be quashed — P, however, would remain Liable to be tried for offence under Section 214 (e). 1968 Cri LJ 405 (408) = ILR (1967) 2 Cal 23.

(17) When a letter is not treated as a complaint, the question of examining the author of the letter before issue of process does not arise. (1966) 70 Cal WN 779 (784).

(18) Allegations against Electric Supply Company — Resident Engineers impleaded without allegations — Issue of process is inappropriate. AIR 1960 All 176 (178) = 1960 Cri LJ 300 = ILR (1959) 2 All 528 (DB).

(19) The word 'accused' in Section 204 does not mean only that person who is named is accused. AIR 1968 Bom 400 (411) = 1968 Cri LJ 1584 = 69 Bom LR 808.

(20) This clause is couched in a negative language, and it goes to the power of the Magistrate to issue summonses or warrants, as the case may be. The provisions which enjoin the courts to satisfy themselves about the prima facie nature of a criminal charge, before issuing a process must be intended, in the absence of a clear suggestion to the contrary, to be mandatory. AIR 1961 Punj 171 (174) = ILR (1960) 1 Punj 749 = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 553.

7. List of witnesses to be filed before issue of process. — (1) Under sub-section (1-A) no process can issue against the accused, unless a list of prosecution witnesses has first been filed. AIR 1957 Cal 332 (Pr 3) = 1957 Cri LJ 630  AIR 1958 Madh Pra 28 (Pr 3) = 1958 Cri LJ 50  1961 (2) Cri LJ 518 (519, 520) = 26 Cut LT 658. (Section 204 (1-A) as amended in 1955 makes no distinction between a private complaint and a complaint by a public servant.)  AIR 1960 All 394 (394, 395) = 1960 Cri LJ 865 (1) = 1960 All LJ 67.

(2) The sub-section is mandatory unless the complainant is the only witness. AIR 1958 Madh Pra 28 (Pr 3) = 1958 Cri LJ 50  AIR 1961 Punj 171 (174) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 553 = ILR (1960) 1 Punj 749.

(3) Sub-section (1-A) of Section 204 does not expressly say that a separate list of witnesses should be filed, or else that the list should be exhaustive. Complainant incorporating names of witnesses in the petition of complaint itself is not illegal. Complainant can later on add to the witnesses originally given and also give up some of the witnesses mentioned in the original list. AIR 1960 Orissa 178 (180) = 26 Cut LT 25 = 1960 Cri LJ 1353.

(4) The object of the sub-section is to apprise the accused at the earliest point of time of persons who are likely to give evidence against him. AIR 1957 Cal 332 (Pr 3) = 1957 Cri LJ 630  (1957) 61 Cal WN 192 (195)  AIR 1968 Cal 266 (269) = 1968 Cri LJ 736  AIR 1960 Bom 513 (515) = 1960 Cri LJ 1569 = 52 Bom LR 494  AIR 1960 Orissa 178 (180) = 1960 Cri LJ 1353 = 26 Cut LT 25.

(5) Clauses (1-A) and (1-B) of Section 204 are enacted in the interest of and for the protection of the accused and its disregard is likely to injuriously affect him. AIR 1961 Punj 171 (173) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 553 = ILR (1960) 1 Punj 749.

(6) The sub-section does not mean and imply that in no circumstances can a person who is not included in the list be permitted to be examined in the course of the trial. Where an additional list of witnesses is filed, no notice of it need be given to the accused. The value to be attached to the evidence of such witness or witnesses, depends, as in the case of witnesses mentioned in the original list, upon their credibility. AIR 1957 Cal 332 (Pr 3) = 1957 Cri LJ 630  AIR 1958 Mad 341 (Prs 5, 6) = ILR (1958) Mad 586 = 1958 Cri LJ 904 (DB)  (1957) 61 Cal WN 192 (195)  AIR 1967 Punj 95 (98) = 1967 Cri LJ 401 = ILR (1965) 2 Punj 495  AIR 1965 All 131 (133) = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 275 = 1964 All LJ 335  1961 (2) Cri LJ 474 (474, (475) (Guj) = (1961) 2 Guj HCR 188  AIR 1961 Raj 42 (42, 43) = 1960 Raj LW 373 = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 314  AIR 1960 All 443 (443, 444) = 1960 Cri LJ 881. (If the Magistrates find that the summoning of a witness beyond the list was with some ulterior motive, they can decline to summon such witness and if present may refuse to record his statement.)  AIR 1960 All 394 (394, 395) = 1960 All WR (HC) 42 = 1960 Cri LJ 865 (1).

(8) The Magistrate's discretion under Section 252 (2) remains unfettered and indeed it is his duty while trying a case on a complaint to ascertain the names of the witnesses who are likely to be able to give useful evidence and summon them. (1957) 61 Cal WN 192 (195)  AIR 1965 All 131 (133, 134) = 1964 All WR (HC) 213 = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 275.

(9) A private complainant may give up some or all of the witnesses in the original list filed by him. (11) The words 'remaining witnesses' in Section 256 (1) do not refer only to those witnesses who were in the first list and were left out. They refer to witnesses who had not been examined or those whose names have not been disclosed in the list before charge was framed. AIR 1967 Ker 233 (234) = 1967 Ker LT 994 = 1967 Mad LJ (Cri) 182  AIR 1960 Bom 513 = 1960 Cri LJ 1569 = 62 Bom LR 383.

(13) If new names are disclosed at a later stage of the trial accused is entitled to an adjournment to enable him to cross-examine those persons. When such an opportunity is given to the accused no prejudice is caused to him. AIR 1960 Orissa 178 (180) = 1960 Cri LJ 1353 = 26 Cut LT 25.

8. Copy of complaint to accompany the process. — (1) The provisions of sub-section (1-B) are mandatory. It is therefore not competent for a Magistrate to issue process unaccompanied by a copy of the complaint. AIR 1958 Madh Pra 28 (Pr 3) = 1958 Cri LJ 50  (1957) 61 Cal WN 192 (195).

[But see AIR 1961 Punj 171 (174) = 1961 (1) Cri LJ 553 = ILR (1960) 1 Punj 749.]

(2) Provisions of Section 204 (1-B) are directory and its non-compliance would not render the proceeding being void or without jurisdiction. 32 Cut LT 682 (684) = ILR (1966) Cut 337 (DB)  AIR 1966 Orissa 9 (11) = 1966 Cri LJ 40 = 31 Cut LT 563  AIR 1966 Punj 372 (374) = 1965 Cur LJ 880 = 68 Punj LR 363 = 1966 Cri LJ 1045 (DB).

(4) Dismissal of complaint for non-compliance with privisions of Section 204 (1-B) = Does not amount to acquittal 1966 Cri LJ 1231 (1231) (Cal).

(5) Case instituted upon complaint — Complainant not bound to furnish accused with copies of documents filed. 1970 Cri LJ 553 (556) (Punj).

9. Omission to issue process. — (1) Where a Magistrate without issuing any process at all to the accused convicts him, the conviction is illegal. (1891) 15 Mad 83 (87) = 2 Weir 326 (DB).

(2) Where the accused appears in Court of his own accord without a summons, he is entitled to require that the case be proceeded with and the mere omission to issue summons becomes immaterial in such a case. (3) A person against whom no process has been issued under Section 204 cannot be a discharged person. AIR 1961 Orissa 118 (120) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 130 (1961) 3 OJD 125.

(4) Court has no right to proceed without issuing the process if the accused does not appear personally. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 125 (127) = 1968 Cri LJ 450 = (1967) 2 Andh WR 271.

10. Notice, if a "process". — (1) A mere notice to the person complained against that a preliminary enquiry will be held does not amount to a summons. AIR 1915 Mad 128 (129)  AIR 1927 Mad 19 (20, 21) = 28 Cri LJ 129 (FB)  AIR 1923 Cal 198 (199) = 24 Cri LJ 333 (DB)  AIR 1918 Pat 652 (653) = 19 Cri LJ 527.

11. Order directing summons, if a judgment. — See Section 202.

12. Order directing summons, if can be recalled. — See Section 202.

13. "Some other Magistrate having jurisdiction." — (1) This expression means "some other Magistrate" having jurisdiction to enquire into and try the case the power to take cognizance being distinct from jurisdiction. Such Magistrate cannot rescind the original process; but he can discharge the accused in respect of the offence for which the process was issued and issue a fresh process for any other offence alleged to have been committed. AIR 1945 Sind 51 (54) = ILR (1944) Kar 411 = 47 Cri LJ 84 (DB).

(2) Chief Presidency Magistrate Calcutta who could not take cognizance of an offence triable by the Special Court constituted under the West Bengal Criminal Law Amendment (Special Courts) Act, 1949, has no power to issue a summons against the accused under Section 204 in respect of such offence. AIR 1960 Cal 570 (571) = 1960 Cri LJ 1198.

14. "Provisions of Section 90" — Sub-section (2). — See Section 90.

15. Process-fees. — (1) Sub-section (3) is new and enables a Magistrate to dismiss a case for default of payment of such fees for process as are payable and ordered, within a reasonable time. An order acquitting the accused is not correct. AIR 1944 Cal 417 (418) = 46 Cri LJ 253 (DB).

(2) Dismissal of complaint under Section 204(3) on failure of complainant to comply with direction — Appeal against order is competent as dismissal of complaint after charge has been framed amounts to acquittal. AIR 1969 Madh Pra 20 (21) = 1969 Cri LJ 201 = 1968 MPLJ 398 (DB).

(3) Even before this provision was inserted, there existed the practice of dismissing the complaint for non-payment of process-fees, as for default of prosecution though such a dismissal was held to be illegal in warrant cases. 1889 Rat 491 (491) (DB)  (1886) 2 Weir 252 (252) = 16 Mad 234 (DB)  (1893) 2 Weir 323 (323). (Warrant case.)

[See 1872 Pun Re (Cr) No. 21, p. 29 (29) (DB)  (1902) 4 Bom LR 276 (277) = 26 Bom 552 (DB).]

(4) Where a complaint is against two persons, but the complainant has paid process-fees for summons against one only, the other must be discharged under this sub-section, if no summons is taken against him. (1902) 26 Bom 552 (557) (DB).

(5) The process-fees referred to in this sub-section are only for the attendance of the accused at the commencement of proceedings and not for the presence of the accused on the date of judgment and a dismissal of the complaint under this sub-section for non-payment of process-fees for such summons is not legal. AIR 1925 All 392 (393) = 26 Cri L Jour 963.

[See 1939 Nag LJ 201 (201).]

(6) The section applies to Magistrates taking cognizance of offences and this rule as to payment of process-fees refers, therefore, only to cases when an "offence" is disclosed. An application for maintenance under Section 488 should not be dismissed under this sub-section for failure to pay process-fees. (1893) 16 Mad 234 (234) (DB).

(7) Where a complaint was dismissed under this sub-section in a de novo trial after charges had already been framed, it was held that it amounted merely to a discharge and not an acquittal, and that a second trial on the same facts would not be barred. AIR 1931 Nag 39 (40) = 32 Cri L Jour 603.

(8) Where the complainant did not take any steps to have the accused persons served and remained absent on the date fixed for deciding the question whether the female accused should be permitted to appear through on Advocate, it was held that the order by the Magistrate discharging the accused under Section 253 was mistaken and should have been one dismissing the complaint under Section 204(3) and the Magistrate was competent to rehear the complaint. AIR 1951 Assam 129 (130) = 52 Cri L Jour 1357 (DB).

See also Section 403.

(9) Where a complaint is dismissed under this sub-section, the High Court, Sessions Judge or District Magistrate may, under Section 436, direct a further enquiry. AIR 1938 Sind 192 (192) = 39 Cri L Jour 966.

[See also AIR 1939 Sind 38 (39) = 40 Cri L Jour 287 (DB).]

(10) Where the superior Court directs a further enquiry upon dismissal of the complaint under sub-section (3), notice to show cause why a further enquiry should not be ordered is neither desirable nor necessary. AIR 1922 Pat 54 (54) = 20 Cri L Jour 843 (DB).

(11) As to the applicability of this sub-section to processes to witnesses, see Notes on Section 544.

(12) "Talbana" ordinarily means process-fee — Magistrate dismissing complaint for failure to pay diet money in accordance with Court's direction to pay "Talbana," interpreting the word to include diet money also — Order neither indicating any provision wherein that word has been used to include diet money or that it is the practice of that Court to so use it and that the parties were acquainted with that expression to include diet money as well — Held that the drastic action of the Magistrate in 'dismissing' the complaint could not be justified or sustained. AIR 1969 Madh Pra 20 (21) = 1969 Cri LJ 201 = 1968 MPLJ 398 (DB).

16. Revision. — (1) The High Court has ample revisional powers to interfere with the proceedings under this section and can exercise its powers at any stage of the proceedings and quash the same, though it will interfere only in cases of an exceptional nature. 1899 All WN 212 (213) (DB)  (1896) 20 Bom 543 (545) (DB)  (1899) 26 Cal 786 (790, 791) (DB)  (1910) 11 Cri LJ 525 (527) = 38 Cal 68 (DB)  AIR 1916 Mad 408 (409) = 16 Cri LJ 477 (477, 478)  AIR 1932 Pat 72 (78) = 33 Cri LJ 349  1958 (2) Andh WR 695 (697).

(2) Where the case had not proceeded beyond the stage of summonses having been issued, it was held that there could hardly be any ground to quash the complaint on which cognizance had been taken unless the complaint did not disclose any offence. AIR 1958 Cal 128 (Prs 14, 15, 17) = 1958 Cri LJ 368.

205. Magistrate may dispense with personal attendance of accused.—(1) Whenever a Magistrate issues a summons, he may, if he sees reason so to do, dispense with the personal attendance[°] of the accused, and permit him to appear by his pleader.

(2) But the Magistrate inquiring into or trying the case may, in his discretion, at any stage of the proceedings, direct the personal attendance of the accused, and, if necessary, enforce such attendance in manner hereinbefore provided.

(3) Where a Magistrate, having followed the procedure laid down, has exercised a discretion judicially in issuing a process, or where the error, omission, or irregularity in the issue of process is one which is curable under Section 537, the High Court will not interfere. 5. Pardanashin lady.
6. "Permit him to appear by his pleader".
7. "Pleader".
8. Applicability to security proceedings.
9. "At any stage of the proceedings."
10. Revision.
11. Applicability to offences under Acts other than I. P. C.

1. Scope.— (1) As shown in S. 353 Courts of Session and the High Courts have got power to dispense with the personal attendance of the accused. AIR 1956 Madh B 13 (16) = 1956 Cri LJ 64 = ILR (1956) Madh B 157  AIR 1954 Mys 181 (182) = 1954 Cri LJ 1815 = ILR (1954) Mys 374 (DB)  AIR 1947 Mad 433 (434, 435) = 48 Cri LJ 874 = ILR (1948) Mad 498.

(2) Section 205 deals with the initial appearance of the accused before the Magistrate whereas Section 353 deals with the presence of the accused during the trial of the case or during enquiry. AIR 1951 All 864 (866) = ILR (1952) 2 All 941 = 1952 Cri LJ 66 (FB)  AIR 1957 Andh Pra 468 (469) = 1957 Cri LJ 935  AIR 1956 Bhopal 11 (12) = 1956 Cri LJ 373  AIR 1954 Cal 576 (576) = 1954 Cri LJ 1664 (DB)  AIR 1954 Mys 181 (182) = 1954 Cri LJ 1815 = ILR (1954) Mys 374 (DB).

(3) The High Court can under its inherent powers dispense with personal attendance of the accused. AIR 1952 Assam 151 (151, 152) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 332 = 1952 Cri LJ 1288 (DB)  AIR 1957 Nag 101 (102) = ILR (1956) Nag 896 = 1957 Cri LJ 1430  AIR 1951 Madh B 28 (29) = 52 Cri LJ 73  AIR 1949 Nag 334 (336) = ILR (1949) Nag 451 = 50 Cr LJ 932 (DB)  AIR 1947 Mad 433 (435) = 48 Cri LJ 874 = ILR (1948) Mad 498.

(4) Under the section it is not necessary that the accused should submit the application for exemption in person. Madh BLJ 1955 HCR 482 (483).

(5) Section 205 applies to an accused and not to a person against whom the complaint was that she was about to commit an offence. AIR 1957 Raj 359 (360) = ILR (1957) 7 Raj 567 = 1957 Cri LJ 1317.

2. "Whenever a Magistrate issues a summons."— (1) This section does not apply where a warrant has been issued or the accused has been arrested without a warrant. AIR 1951 Assam 129 (130) = ILR (1951) 3 Assam 370 = 52 Cri LJ 1357 (DB)  AIR 1955 Punj 81 (82) = 1955 Cri LJ 698  AIR 1951 Pat 405 (405) = 52 Cri LJ 365  1951 Raj LW 27 (28)  AIR 1924 Pat 46 (47) = 24 Cri LJ 872 (DB)  AIR 1963 J & K 41 (43) = 1963 Kash LJ 20 = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 155 (DB).

(2) Where in a summons case the Magistrate having issued a bailable warrant, refused the application of the accused for having his personal appearance dispensed with on the ground that he had issued a warrant, it was held that the Magistrate could not take his stand on an incorrect order and refuse the application without giving proper reasons. AIR 1947 Mad 66 (66) = ILR (1947) Mad 79 = 48 Cri LJ 226.

(3) Where a summons has been issued in the first instance and thereafter the accused is brought in under a warrant of arrest, the section would apply. AIR 1930 Nag 61 (62) = 31 Cri LJ 284.

(4) Where a summons is issued in cases in which a warrant is ordinarily issuable this section will apply. (1894) 21 Cal 588 (589, 590) (DB)  AIR 1947 Mad 433 (434) = ILR (1948) Mad 498 = 48 Cri LJ 874.

(5) Even after a warrant has been issued, if the Magistrate cancels the warrant and issues a summons, or the accused having appeared before him, it is not necessary to issue a summons for the appearance of the accused, this section will apply. AIR 1940 All 178 (180) = 41 Cri LJ 500  AIR 1948 All 393 (394) = ILR (1948) All 331 = 49 Cri LJ 573 (DB)  AIR 1962 Cal 203 (214, 215) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 565 = 66 Cal WN 577.

(6) If the Magistrate considers that a summons is sufficient for the appearance of the accused in the case, he may permit the accused to appear by pleader. AIR 1940 All 178 (180) = 41 Cri LJ 500.

(7) Where the Magistrate orders issue of a bailable warrant in the first instance but the order is not warranted by the circumstances of the case, the accused should not be deprived of the benefit of this section merely because the Magistrate acted wrongly in ordering issue of a bailable warrant instead of a summons. ILR (1954) 4 Raj 459 (462).

(8) Apart from the section, there is power under other provisions of the Code, under which the personal appearance of the accused may be dispensed with by the Magistrate and the accused may be permitted to appear by pleader. AIR 1952 Assam 151 (151, 152) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 332 = 1952 Cri LJ 1288 (DB)  ILR (1954) 4 Raj 459 (462)  AIR 1951 All 864 (866) = ILR (1952) 2 All 941 = 1952 Cri LJ 66 (FB)  AIR 1947 Mad 433 (435) = ILR (1948) Mad 498 = 48 Cri LJ 874  AIR 1948 All 393 (394) = ILR (1948) All 331 = 49 Cri LJ 573 (DB).

(9) Where a warrant had been issued for the personal attendance of the accused, the Court should not in the meanwhile accept an application on behalf of the agent of the accused, allowing them not to appear in person but to be represented through their pleader on the assumption that the warrant of arrest issued against the accused could be treated as a summons. AIR 1957 Assam 148 (151): 1957 Cri LJ 1101.

(10) Magistrate who issues the summons may exercise the power under this section not only at the stage when he is issuing the summons in the beginning but also at any stage, before the trial begins. AIR 1962 Cal 203 (214, 215) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 565 = 66 Cal WN 577 (FB). (AIR 1948 All 393, Diss. from.)

(11) If attendance of accused is not dispensed with at initial stage of commencement and summons was issued Magistrate cannot dispense with his attendance after trial has commenced after the appearance of the accused in person. AIR 1963 Pat 371 (371, 372) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 385 = 1963 BLJR 853.

3. "Dispense with".— (1) Discretion to dispense with the personal attendance of the accused under this section will be used liberally especially in trivial cases such as a prosecution for a municipal offence, or where the accused is a pardanashin lady, or where the accused is too ill to attend Court. AIR 1953 All 630 (631) = 1953 Cri LJ 1407 (DB)  1958 MPC 76 (77)  AIR 1956 Cal 266 (266) = 1956 Cri LJ 741  1961 (1) Cr LJ 819 (820) (Madh Pra).

(2) Personal appearance is the rule in criminal cases of a serious nature, involving moral turpitude and punishable with imprisonment. 1961 (1) Cri LJ 819 (820) (Madh Pra).

(3) If the permission is refused, reasons for such refusal should be recorded. (1883) 6 All 59.

[See also AIR 1947 Mad 66 (66) = ILR (1947) Mad 79 = 48 Cri LJ 226.]

(4) In considering the propriety of an order under this section, the Magistrate should always take into account whether there is any material before him to indicate that an offence has been committed by the accused and whether there is anything in the nature of a prima facie case. AIR 1940 All 178 (180, 181) = 41 Cri LJ 500.

(5) A Magistrate can dispense with the personal attendance of the accused as often as he pleases. (1910) 14 Cal WN cxxxi (cxxxi) (DB)  (1917) 21 Cal WN clxviii (clxviii) (DB).

(6) Though there need not be an express order dispensing with the personal attendance it is advisable that the fact should be noted in the records and not be left for implication. AIR 1926 Bom 218 (221) = 27 Cri LJ 440 (DB).

(7) Case trivial one — Accused of 55 or 60 years old — Accused not present on scene of occurrence — Accused of very high social position — Grounds not sufficient for exemption from personal appearance. ILR (1952) 2 Raj 556 (558).

(8) Where the offences alleged against the accused are of a serious nature involving moral turpitude and punishable with imprisonment for some length of time if the allegations are established by the prosecution. the question of status of accused while granting exemption cannot be considered. AIR 1969 Mys 95 (99) = 1969 Cri LJ 423 = (1968) 2 Mys LJ 464  1961 (1) Cr LJ 819 (820) (Madh Pra).

(9) Exemption from appearance granted to accused till stage of recording evidence — Exemption does not last till duration of enquiry when evidence is to be used under Section 288. AIR 1969 Mys 95 (97) = 1969 Cri LJ 423 = (1968) 2 Mys LJ 464.

(10) How far the personal attendance of the accused is essential in the case must be decided when the Magistrate allows the exemption to them. 1962 (1) Cri LJ 801 (802) = 1961 All LJ 219.

4. Bond from the accused.— (1) Where the personal attendance of an accused is dispensed with, a recognizance bond may be taken from him binding him to appear either in person or by pleader. (1868) 5 Bom HCR (Cr) 64 (65) (DB).

(2) The stage for security may arise only when the Court is considering the question of calling the accused personally in Court and has reasons to believe that the accused may not obey the summons and, therefore, a warrant be issued against him. AIR 1955 All 125 (125) = 1955 Cri LJ 326.

(3) 'Person interested' — Manager of accused executing bond under S. 526 (3) — Manager not duly authorised to represent accused — Execution of bond is illegal — There can be no forfeiture. AIR 1961 Ker 194 (195) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 89 = (1961) 1 Ker LR 88.

5. Pardanashin lady.— (1) Where a Magistrate issues a summons to pardanashin woman who is accused of an offence, he should. as a general rule. dispense with her personal attendance and permit her to appear by pleader at least until such time as he has before him some legal and satisfactory evidence indicative of her having committed a breach of the law. AIR 1953 Cal 154 (154, 155) = 1953 Cri LJ 401 (DB)  AIR 1922 Mad 79 (79) = 23 Cri LJ 266  AIR 1927 All 149 (150) = 28 Cri LJ 94  (1913) 23 Ind Cas 489 (491) = 15 Cri LJ 281 (DB) (Cal)  1961 Cri LJ 819 (820) (Madh Pra).

(2) An order dispensing with personal attendance of a pardanashin lady should not be refused merely because:

(a) The Magistrate thinks that she is not pardanashin. (1910) 11 Cri LJ 197 (198) = 3 Sind LR 167 (DB).

(b) Other women belonging to the same class that observed pardah had appeared in Court. AIR 1927 All 149 (149, 150) = 28 Cri LJ 94.

(c) She is the daughter of prostitute, if she is married to a respectable husband in whose family women observe pardah. (1913) 14 Cri LJ 3 (4) (Lah).

(d) She might be required for identification purposes. AIR 1947 Mad 433 (434) = 48 Cri LJ 874 = ILR (1948) Mad 498.

(3) If the Magistrate considers identification of the pardanashin lady by the prosecution witnesses absolutely necessary, the Magistrate should take steps to have her identified at her residence without violating her pardah and all other rights of secrecy to which she is entitled on account of her social standing and the habit and custom of life. (1950) 16 Cut L Tim 91 (92).

(4) The Court will extend the privilege of pardah to women who, though not strictly observing pardah, are yet not accustomed generally to appear before the public. 2 Hyde 88 (88).

[See also ILR (1954) 4 Raj 439 (464).]

(5) Where the accused belongs to Sikh Community in which there is no pardah system, she cannot be granted exemption from personal appearance in Court on the mere allegation that she observes pardah though amongst the Sikhs the appearance of women in Court is not looked upon very favourably. Madh BLJR 1955 HCR 480 (481).

(6) A member of the teaching profession cannot be regarded as pardanashin lady. AIR 1955 Punj 81 (82) = 1955 Cri LJ 698  1961 (1) Cr LJ 819 (820) (Madh Pra).

6. "Permit him to appear by his pleader".— (1) Although the personal attendance of the accused may be dispensed with under this section, it is essential that he should be represented by his pleader. AIR 1928 Cal 27 (32) = 29 Cri L Jour 49 (SB).

(2) The words "appear by pleader" in their ordinary acceptance mean having a pleader to act and to plead. AIR 1928 Cal 27 (32) = 29 Cri L Jour 49 (SB).

(3) The appearance by a pleader involves the performance of all acts that devolve upon the accused in the course of the trial. AIR 1926 Bom 218 (219) — 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB)  AIR 1955 Raj 175 (176) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1392 = ILR (1955) 5 Raj 446  14 Cri L Jour 272 (272) = 5 Sind LR 206 (DB)  AIR 1963 Pat 371 (371, 372) = 1963 (2) Cri LJ 385 = 1963 BLJR 853.

(4) The following acts can be done by the pleader :

(a) Pleading guilty, or not guilty under Section 255 and in cases

falling under Ss. 242, 243. AIR 1926 Bom 218 (220) = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB)  1957 Cri L Jour 672 (Madh Pra).

(b) Filing a written statement embodying the plea of the accused. (1917) 21 Cal WN clxviii (clxviii) (DB).

(c) Hearing a deposition of a witness read over under Section 360 (1). AIR 1928 Cal 27 (32) = 29 Cri L Jour 49 (SB).

(d) Hearing of a judgment the sentence being one of fine only or the accused being acquitted under Section 366 (2). AIR 1926 Bom 218 (219) = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB).

(5) Even when personal appearance of accused has been exempted under Section 205, the examination of the accused under Section 342 must be of the accused person and not his pleader except where the accused is a company or the juridical person accused alone has got to be examined. AIR 1969 SC 381 (385) = 1969 Cri LJ 654 = (1969) 1 SCJ 867. (AIR 1962 Cal 203 = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 565 (FB). Overruled: AIR 1968 Delhi 202; AIR 1960 Ker 383; AIR 1963 Pat 371. Not good law.)

(6) The Magistrate may, even at the time of issuing summons, dispense with the personal attendance of the accused and permit him to appear by pleader. AIR 1926 Bom 218 (219) = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB).

[See also AIR 1951 Ajmer 6 (8) = 51 Cri L Jour 1606.]

(7) When a summons is sent as in Form No. 1 of Schedule V containing the words "you are hereby required to appear in person or by pleader" and the accused sends his pleader who requests for permission to dispense with the personal attendance of the accused, the Magistrate cannot proceed against the accused for disobedience of the summons, even though he refuses to grant the permission. (1900) 27 Cal 985 (988, 989) (DB).

(8) The power to dispense with the personal attendance of the accused can be exercised by the Magistrate only so far as his own Court is concerned. (1865) 2 Suth WR (Cr) 50 (50) (DB).

(9) Rule 82, Madras High Court Criminal Rules of Practice, merely amplifies and explains Section 205 (1), and a Court should, as a rule, where there are more accused than one, permit any one to appear, plead or act for such other in any criminal proceeding. (1956) 2 Mad L Jour 74 (75).

(10) Sections 205 and 540-A do not expressly mention that the pleader cannot be examined under Sec. 342, but this does not lead to the inference that the pleader can be examined. AIR 1969 SC 381 (385) = 1969 Cri LJ 654 = (1969) 1 SCJ 867.

(11) Accused represented by counsel under Section 205 (1) — Statements recorded in presence of the counsel is admissible under Section 288 as being statements recorded in presence of accused. AIR 1969 All 521 (523) = 1968 All WR (HC) 464.

(12) Exemption from appearance granted to accused till stage of recording of evidence — Does not last till duration of enquiry when evidence is to be used under S. 288. AIR 1969 Mys 95 (99) = 1969 Cri LJ 423 = (1968) 2 Mys LJ 464.

7. "Pleader."— (1) The definition of the word "pleader" as given in Sec. 4 (1) (r), includes any person appointed by the accused with the permission of the Court to act in the proceedings against him. AIR 1926 Bom 218 (222) = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB).

(2) The appointment of a person by the accused and permission of the Court need not be express but may be implied from the circumstances of the case. See AIR 1926 Bom 218 (221) = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB)  1884 Rat 206 (207) (DB).

(3) It is generally advisable that something should be noted on the record to show that the person who represents the accused has been duly appointed by him and the Court has given the requisite permission for his appearance in place of the accused. AIR 1926 Bom 218 = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB).

(4) In the absence of an appointment by the accused of any person to represent him, the mere permission of the Magistrate will not entitle any person to act as a pleader for the accused, and the Magistrate would have no jurisdiction to proceed with the case in the absence of the accused. AIR 1924 Pat 46 (47) = 24 Cri L Jour 872 (DB)  AIR 1930 Nag 61 (63) = 31 Cri L Jour 284  AIR 1926 Bom 218 (222, 223) = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB).

(5) Co-accused — Pleading guilty on behalf of accused — No authority proved — Conviction on basis of such plea not proper. AIR 1962 Pat 244 (246) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 743 = 1962 BLJR 20.

(6) Where one accused, out of others, who are produced before a Magistrate, does not appear due to sudden illness, he can appoint a private person or even a co-accused to appear in his stead, under Section 4 (1) (r) read with Section 205 (1) and the Magistrate can permit such private person or such co-accused to represent the absentee accused. AIR 1962 Pat 244 (246) = 1962

(1) Crj LJ 743 = 1962 BLJR 200  1884 Rat 205 (206) (DB).

8. Applicability to security proceedings.— (1) This section applies to proceedings under Sec. 106 in Chapter VIII. Division A. But it does not apply to proceedings under Sections 107 to 110. in Chapter VIII Division B. (1903) 2 Weir 54 (55).

9. "At any stage of the proceedings."— (1) Where the Court has allowed the accused to appear by pleader, but thinks it necessary or desirable that the accused should be present for any particular purpose, he may order the personal appearance of the accused. AIR 1926 Bom 218 = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB)  AIR 1956 Cal 266 = 1958 Cri L Jour 741  AIR 1918 Pat 152 = 19 Cri L Jour 119  AIR 1934 All 633 (694) = 35 Cri L Jour 879.

(2) Where the accused is convicted and sentence is not one of fine only, the Magistrate must under Section 366, sub-section (2), direct the personal attendance of the accused for hearing the judgment. AIR 1927 Rang 73 (73) = 28 Cri L Jour 226  (1913) 14 Cri L Jour 272 (272) = 6 Sind LR 206 (DB).

(3) Though at any time the Magistrate can revoke the permission given to the accused to appear by a pleader, yet he should not do so in a trivial case and on a trivial ground. (1923) 24 Cri L Jour 902 (903) (DB) (Cal).

(4) Accused a respectable lady observing pardah -- Her statement one of denial of offence which could be made by her Mukhtear -- Held that it was not obligatory on the Magistrate to direct personal attendance of the accused, who had been exempted under Section 205 at any stage including examination under Section 342. AIR 1954 Orissa 65 (66) = ILR (1953) Cut 623 = 1954 Cri L Jour 360.

10. Revision.— (1) Where the Magistrate has refused to excuse the personal attendance of an accused person, the High Court will in proper cases interfere in revision and will dispense with his presence. (1883) 6 All 59 (60)  AIR 1948 Pat 418 (419) = 49 Cri L Jour 747  AIR 1927 All 149 (150) = 28 Cri L Jour 94  (1914) 15 Cri L Jour 281 = 17 Cal WN 1248 (DB).

(2) The High Court will not interfere where the irregularity alleged is the mere omission of the Magistrate to make a record that he has given permission to the accused to appear by his pleader, or where the case itself is an extremely trivial one. AIR 1926 Bom 218 (221) = 27 Cri L Jour 440 (DB)  1884 Rat 206 (206) (DB).

(3) Where there is a complete absence of jurisdiction the High Court will set aside the order giving permission AIR 1924 Pat 46 (47) = 24 Cri L Jour 872 (DB).

(4) A Sub-Divisional Magistrate cannot in revision, cancel the order of a Bench Court dispensing with the personal attendance of the accused. He can only forward the record to the District Magistrate who should, under Section 438 of the Code, refer the matter to the High Court. 1937 Mad WN 182 (183) (DB).

11. Applicability to offences under Acts other than I. P. C.— (1) Regarding offences under Sections 6 and 7 of Madras Motor Vehicles Taxation Act (39 of 1931), Section 205 applies and Court has to consider the question applying his mind to facts of the case. 33 Cut LT 9 (12) = ILR (1966) Cut 630.

(2) Offence under Section 112 of Madras Motor Vehicles Taxation Act (39 of 1931), the procedure to be followed is laid down in Section 130 of that Act and the accused person is to be informed that he may appear by pleader and not in person as one of the alternatives. 33 Cut LT 9 (11) = ILR (1966) Cut 630.

CONSTITUTION OF INDIA.

A.I.R. 1961 Manipur 1 (4) (Pr. 11) [V 48 C 1]—Tirumalpad J. C.—"What is prohibited (in Art. 23 (1)) is begar and other similar forms of forced labour. The A. I. R. Commentaries on the Constitution of India at page 635 define 'begar' as a system under which persons are pressed to carry burdens for individuals or public or to perform other forms of menial service under compulsion".

A. I. R. 1956 All. 341 (345) (Pr. 33) [V 43 C 126] (DB).—Desai J.—"Shri Jagdish Sahai could not cite any authority in support of his contention that the right given to the Court to draw an adverse inference is equal to compelling the accused to be a witness against himself. We notice that Chitaley in his Commentary on Constitution, Vol. I, pp. 497-498, does not see any conflict between the provisions of Art. 20 (3) and those of S. 342, Cr. P. C."

A I. R. 1956 J. & K. 1 (10) (Pr. 34) [V 43 C 1] (F.B.) — Kilam J.—"The learned author Chitaley in his luminous commentary on the Constitution has, after discussing almost the whole case law on the subject, enunciated some principles which I might give more or less in his own language. According to the learned author. . . . ." (Points from Note 8 (g) under Art. 21, p. 533 quoted.)

CIVIL PROCEDURE CODE, 1908.

A. I. R. 1953 S. C. 23 (27) [V 40 C 7]—[Touching the revisional jurisdiction of the High Court set out in S. 115, Civil P. C.] "A large number of cases have been collected in Edn. 4 of Chitaley & Rao's Code of Civil Procedure (Vol. I) which only serve to show that the High Courts have not always appreciated the limits of the jurisdiction conferred by this section."

A. I. R. 1949 P. C. 156 (158) (Pr. 19) [V 36 C 48]—Sir John Beaumont —"There have been no doubt, decisions in some High Courts in India which lend support to the view upon which the Judges acted. The cases are collected in Edn. 4 of Chitaley and Rao on the Code of Civil Procedure, Vol. I, p. 1105."

A. I. R. 1972 Manipur 3 (5) (Pr. 5) [V 59 C 2] — R. S. Bindra J. C. — "On page 3336 of the A. I. R. Commentaries on the Code of Civil Procedure, 7th Edition, it is stated that 'an appeal filed against a dead party can, according to High Courts of Allahabad, Bombay . . . . , be amended by bringing in the legal representatives on the record'."

A. I. R. 1972 Gujarat 179 (182) (Pr. 12) [V 59 C 32] — J. M. Sheth, J. — "Learned Authors Chitaley and Rao, in their book, 'A. I. R. Commentaries, The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908', 7th Edition, Volume II, at page 2802, noted certain cases on this point. The comments made are . . . ."

A. I. R. 1972 Kerala 145 (151) (Pr. 9) [V 59 C 43] — K. Sadasivan J. — "The term 'Court' is not defined in the Civil P. C. For purposes of the C. P. C., Court has been held to mean 'a place where justice is judicially administered'. The definitions of 'Court' in the Evidence Act and of 'Court of Justice' in the Penal Code do not afford much assistance . . . . . (see Chitaley's C. P. C.)" [Chitaley's C. P. C. 8th Edn. Vol. I p. 44.]

I. L. R. (1971) 1 Punj. 535 (539) (Pr. 7)—Shamsher Bahadur J. — "Chitaley in the commentary on the Code of Civil Procedure (1963 Edition) Volume 1, mentions at page 665 that 'a decree may be executed also by the Court to which the execution proceedings may be transferred under the provisions of S. 24'."

A. I. R. 1970 Manipur 34 (36) (Pr. 6) [V 57 C 10] — R. S. Bindra J. C.—"At page 1569 of A. I. R. Commentaries on the Code of Civil Procedure, 7th Edition, it is stated that . . . . . These observations of the learned commentators are founded on a large number of authorities mentioned in the foot-note, and, if I may say so with respect, are quite helpful in understanding the true scope of cl. (c) of section 115".

A. I. R. 1968 J. & K. 13 (14) (Pr. 7) [V 55 C 4] — J. N. Bhat J. — "The principle as laid down in certain authorities as summarized in the Commentary on Chitaley's Civil P. C. (7th Edn., Vol. 2, Page 1927) is that the Court has to see whether the suit cannot be determined in the absence of the person who applies to be made party or whether his interests will not be prejudiced by not being joined as a party".

3 A.M.—SP—6/78 (4 pp.)

A. I. R. 1968 Mad. 1 (21) (Pr. 59] [V 55 C 1] (FB) — Venkataraman J.— "Pointing out that S. 105, Civil P. C., must be read harmoniously with S. 99, Civil P.C., the decisions have held that the phrase 'affecting the decision of the case' in S. 105 must be interpreted to mean 'affecting the decision of the case on merits'. The decisions will be found collected in any text book, for example, in the Commentary of A. I. R. Section 105, Note 6 . . . . . ."

A. I. R. 1968 Tripura 52 (57) (Pr. 15) [V 55 C 9] — C. Jagannadhacharyulu, J. C.—"But, as can be seen from the Commentary in Note 49 at page 4089 of A. I. R. Commentaries on Civil P. C., 1963 Edition, sub-rule (2) of O. 40, R. 1, Civil P. C., applies to third persons in possession of the property and is no bar to the removal of any party to the suit from possession".

A. I. R. 1965 All. 527 (531) (Pr. 28) [V 52 C 148] — Oak J. — "Mr. Brij Lal Gupta pointed out that the Court dealing with the matter in April 1947 was a Munsif. The present suit was tried by a Civil Judge. The valuation of the suit was Rs. 35,000. The Munsif had no jurisdiction to try the present suit. Under S. 11, C. P. C., the Court trying the former suit should have been competent to try the subsequent suit itself. (See Chitaley's Commentary on the Code of Civil Procedure Volume I, Page 415), (Now see 1963 (7th Edn.) pp. 379-380)."

COURT-FEES ACT, 1870 & SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1887.

A.I.R. 1968 Manipur 52 (53, 54) (Prs. 5, 12) [V 55 C 18]—C. Jagannadhacharyulu, J. C. — "There is consensus of opinion in most of the High Courts that S. 7 (iv) (b) of the Court-fees Act does not apply to a suit for partition by a person in joint possession for partition of his share but that Art. 17 (vi) of Sch. II of the Court-fees Act applies. Vide pages 111, 112, 113, 114 and 115 of the Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act (A. I. R. Commentaries) Second Edition. . . . . . ."

A. I. R. 1965 Punj 1 (11) (Pr 25) [V 52 C 1] (FB) — P. C. Pandit J. — "With regard to this definition (of 'consequential relief'), Chitaley in his Commentaries on the 'Court-fees Act and the Suits Valuation Act (Second Edition)', on page 135 has observed thus—".

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE, 1898.

(1972) 74 Punj. L. R. 489 (491) (Pr. 5) — A. D. Koshal J. — "There is, however, an overwhelming mass of authority against the view expressed in A. I. R. 1918 Mad. 212 (See foot-notes 3 and 4 appearing at page 2654 under Note 7 to S. 403 in A. I. R. Commentaries on 'the Code of Criminal Procedure' by Chitaley and Rao, 1965 Edition.)"

1972 Cr. L. Jour 277 (284) (Pr. 16) (F. B.) (J. & K.) — Bhat J. — "Even Chitaley in A. I. R. Commentaries of the Code of Criminal Procedure (6th Edition) Vol. 1 at page 1431 says 'It is not clear why there should be this difference between the two provisions (sub-ss. (1A) and (1B) of S. 204) as regards the question whether they are mandatory or directory, seeing that the object of both the provisions is similar . . . .'".

A. I. R. 1969 Orissa 56 (57) (Pr. 5) [V 56 C 23]—S. Acharya J. — "Their Lordships of the Madras High Court in their decision reported in . . . . . A. I. R. 1954 Mad. 214 in quoting a passage from Chitaley and Annaji Rao's Criminal Procedure Code, observed as follows : 'But a Criminal Court, as well pointed in the exhaustive analysis in Chitaley and Annaji Rao's Criminal Procedure Code, Vol. III, 4th (1950) Edn. at page 2862, is not expected, under the provisions of S. 517 to 'try' civil cases . . . . . .' This view has been reiterated in a decision of this Court in . . . . . (1967) 33 Cut. L. T. 868."

LIMITATION ACT, 1963

A. I. R. 1971 Mad. 184 (191) (Pr. 21) [V 58 C 27]—Sadasivam J. — "It is clear from Chitaley's Limitation Act, 4th Edn. paragraph 62, at page 1329, that though normally there cannot be adverse possession against an owner in possession, under certain circumstances, the possession of a person may be adverse to himself."

A. I. R. 1971 Madh. Pra. 162 (165) (Pr. 13) [V 58 C 48]—Bhargava J.—"Article 96 was not retained as it was not necessary in view of the provision made in section 17 and not because a change in law was desired to be effected (See Limitation Act, 1963, by Chitaley and Rao, Fourth Edition, at page 900, under the heading 'Suit for money paid under mistake')."

1969 All. L. J. 1095 (1100) (Pr. 10) (DB) — Per Gangeshwar Prasad J. — "The principle is so firmly established that it does not appear necessary to cite decisions in support of it and we will only extract the following passage from Vol. II, page 1314, of the Commentary on the Limitation Act by Chitaley and Rao (1965 Edition . . . ." (Points 7 to 10 from Note 56, quoted.)

REGISTRATION ACT, 1908.

A. I. R. 1960 Madh. Pra. 3 (Pr. 8) [V 47 C 2]—Dixit J. — "The principle laid down in I. L. R. 4 Bom 126 has been followed in many cases which have been noted in Chitaley's Registration Act (Second Edition) at page 367 . . . . ."

A. I. R. 1960 Mad 244 (Pr. 9) [V 47 C 77] — Ramaswami J. — "It is interesting in this connection to note that the A. I. R. Commentaries on the Registration Act (Second Edition) at pages 526 to 530, after an elaborate discussion of the entire case-law and the principles of S. 77 of the Registration Act, mention at p. 530 that the view expressed by Abdur Rahman J., is correct."

STAMP ACT, 1899.

A. I. R. 1967 Him. Pra. 29 (31) (Pr. 11) [V 54 C 9]—Om Parkash J. C.—"From the language, used in the document, it is capable of falling within the definition of a bond, as defined in sub-s. (5) (b) of S. 2, Stamp Act, and also within the definition of a promissory note, under sub-s. (22) of that section. The maxim being, specialia generalibus derogant, an instrument which satisfies the definition under sub-s. (5) (b) must be held to be taken out of the more general definition in sub-s. (22), vide A. I. R. Commentaries on the Stamp Act, p. 70."

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY ACT, 1882.

1969 Current L. J. 989 (990) (Punj.) — D. K. Mahajan J. — "In fact, if a reference is made to Note 34 of Chitaley's Transfer of Property Act (IV of 1882) 3rd edition, page 1737, it will be found that the view enunciated by the Orissa High Court is the preponderant view".

1971 Ker. L. T. 571 (574) — K. Sadasivan J. — "In these circumstances it must be held that the tenant had contracted out of S. 106 of the Transfer of Property Act. "Where a contract of tenancy simply provides for a notice of a certain period which is different from the period of notice under this section, there will be deemed to be a contract to the contrary within the meaning of this section . . . . . ." (vide The Transfer of Property Act by Chitaley, 4th Edn., Vol. 3, page 1832)."
